"Strange as It Seems," by John Hix, appears daily in The Post's Sports Section.

The Washington Post

Fair today with rising temperature.

NO. 21,075 — ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER, POSTOFFICE, WASHINGTON, D. C. — WASHINGTON: TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 27, 1934 — THREE CENTS

COPYRIGHT, 1934, BY THE WASHINGTON POST PUBLISHING CO.

Administration Beaten As Senate Votes Pay To Spanish Veterans

10 Thousand Called Today To Dig City Out of Snow

CWA Orders All Crews to Duty; Rebukes Spur Action.

Idle in 33 States To Handle Shovels

White Blanket Paralyzes Capital; Commission Rapped for Delay.

Stung by criticism heaped upon it by the American Automobile Association and the Capital Transit Co., the District's street cleaning department began feverish preparations late yesterday to put from 5,000 to 10,000 men to work removing snow today.

By order of Harry L. Hopkins, CWA administrator, civil works employes will be made available for cleaning the city's streets and highways of their traffic-paralyzing blanket.

A broadcast over local radio stations late in the day notified CWA workers made idle yesterday by weather conditions to appear today for assignment to snow removal work.

Applies to 33 States.

Hopkins, in suspending the rule forbidding use of civil works men for such duties, specified that they shall be assigned to snow removal only if work can not proceed on their regular projects. Workmen who have been dropped in the curtailment program thus far may not be reinstated for this work.

The administrator's action applies to 33 States as well as the District. In a telegram sent to relief heads in States which had petitioned for assistance in clearing away snow, he authorized them to "permit civil works employes to work on snow removal in any part of the State where you consider blizzards are such as to justify this and where the civil works employes are unable to work on other projects. This may be done only where funds from local sources are not available. No CWA funds may be spent for trucks or materials." Men drafted for the emergency are not to be kept on this assignment after Wednesday night without orders to the contrary, Hopkins said.

AAA Raps Commission.

In a strongly worded statement, which was answered by Commissioner Melvin C. Hazen, the automobile association charged that the city's failure to prepare for the "transportation emergency" has virtually paralyzed traffic, added to accident hazards and caused untold delays and inconvenience that will cost thousands of dollars.

"This condition is all the more serious by reason of the large number of unemployed in the city and the fact that hundreds of men employed by the CWA are idle during the storm," the statement said.

There is "no excuse for the present condition," it continued, saying it offers convincing proof that somewhere in our City government those

Continued on Page 5, Column 1.

Texas Farmer Kills Financier

Gerald W. Peck, Chicago, Kin of "Peck's Bad Boy" Dies in Dam Dispute.

Seguin, Tex., Feb. 26 (AP).—Gerald W. Peck, Chicago financier and grandson of George W. Peck, sr., former Governor of Wisconsin and author of "Peck's Bad Boy," was shot and killed by a farmer, Tom Hallamon, sr., 67, at a meeting of the board of directors of the Texas Hydro-Electric Co., here today.

Hallamon had been engaged in a long controversy with the company, of which Peck was president, over payment of damages for the flooding of some of his land as the result of the construction of a dam on the Guadalupe River.

A murder charge was filed against Hallamon and bond was set at $12,000 following an examining trial this afternoon.

"I came in for a settlement and I wanted to get it," witnesses quoted Hallamon as saying.

The shooting, in the office of A. J. Wirtz, attorney for the company and a former State senator, climaxed recurrent demands Hallamon had made on the company for additional payments.

"I thought it was all over and the conversation was ended," Wirtz said. "I thought Mr. Hallamon had decided to leave the office. He turned toward the door, then wheeled around and began shooting."

The first bullet went wild. The second struck Peck in the right side. He died an hour later.

Two Get Terms in Stock Fraud.

Los Angeles, Feb. 26 (AP).—Federal Judge Paul J. McCormick today sentenced Howard Shores and George L. Keller, who were convicted of selling, then failing to deliver, stock of the Ford Motor Co. of Germany, to two years in the Federal penitentiary.

Monarchists Demand Return of Hapsburgs

Vienna Crowds Sullen as Crowning of Otto Is Rumored.

(Copyright, 1934, by the Associated Press.)

Vienna, Feb. 26.—Lusty cheers were given for the Imperial Hapsburg family, Chancellor Dollfuss, and Prince Von Starhemberg, Heimwher commander, at a mass meeting tonight of monarchists, who demanded the eventual restoration of the Austrian throne.

While they met, rumors circulated that troops of the Fascist Heimwher were en route to the Swiss border to meet the Archduke Otto, claimant to the Austrian throne, and escort him triumphantly into Vienna.

Legitimist speakers tonight paid tribute to Dollfuss' and Prince Von Starhemberg's recent victory in a Socialist uprising and called these gains a prelude to the reinstallation of a monarch.

As an immediate and preliminary step in that direction, orators demanded the revocation of laws banishing the Hapsburgs and confiscating their property.

Chancellor Dollfuss did not attend the meeting, but sent a message of encouragement.

The applause mention of his name drew among the several thousand monarchists was in striking contrast to the sullen silence of Vienna street crowds this afternoon.

Then, Otto Kemptner—a former private secretary, who now is leader of military organizations in the fatherland front—delivered an impassioned eulogy of the little chancellor, calling him "the great Austrian chancellor God has given us, and one whose blood has shown us the way to a new future."

ARCHDUKE OTTO.

The fact that Prince von Starhemberg personally was present tonight and was warmly praised by a speaker was viewed by many as an

Continued on Page 9, Column 2.

Slump Slashed Huge Salaries Of Executives

Grace, Bethlehem Head, Lead List in 1929 With $1,635,753.

(Associated Press.)

The story of the tremendous salaries and bonuses which big business leaders received in 1929, and how, in most cases, those bonuses disappeared during the depression, was laid before the Senate yesterday by the Federal Trade Commission.

At the request of the Senate, the commission presented results of a questionnaire study into the executive compensation of nearly 4,900 American corporations, disclosing total emoluments in two cases running to more than a million, in several to nearly a million, and in many cases to several hundred thousand.

The commission study is one section of a general survey being carried on by Government agencies into the salaries of all kinds of business and industrial leaders, bankers, railroad and power company executives, and the like.

Grace Got $1,635,753.

Earnings of individual executives ranged from $1,635,753, which Eugene G. Grace, president of the Bethlehem Steel Corporation, received in 1929, and $1,051,000, which G. W. Hill, president of the American Tobacco Co., received in 1931, to $10,000 and less which heads of smaller companies were paid.

Other big compensations in 1929, generally the peak, included: $270,000 to R. L. Patterson, president of the American Machine & Foundry Co.; more than $400,000 to George B. Everitt, president of Montgomery, Ward & Co.; $420,000 to F. B. Rentschler, president of United Aircraft & Transport Corporation.

Nicholas M. Schenck, president of Loew's, Inc., received $362,000; the three Warner brothers, head of the motion picture concern bearing their name, were paid $10,000 a week for six years, plus 90,000 shares of stock; two executives of General Cigar Co.—Fred Hirschhorn and Richard C. Bondy—divided equally nearly $500,000.

Thomas J. Watson, president of International Business Machine Co. of New York, received $418,000 in 1929 and $454,000 in 1932, one of the very few cases where total compensation increased during the depression. Another instance was in the case of Archibald R. Graustein, of International Paper & Power Co., whose $80,000 in 1929 grew to $104,000 by 1932.

American Tobacco Co. payments to five principal officials ran to nearly $15,000,000.

Huge Bonuses Paid.

One of the largest outright salaries was to Andrew G. Pierce, president of the American Woolen Co., who received $200,000 and no bonus.

The extent to which bonuses were used to pay executives was illustrated in the case of Grace, Bethlehem president, whose salary amounted to $12,000, while his bonus reached $1,620,000, and in the case of E. L. Cord, president of the Auburn Automobile Co., whose $12,000 salary compared with a bonus of $374,672.

2 Extortion Suspects Killed in Police Battle

St. Louis, Feb. 26 (AP).—Police tonight killed two alleged extortionists in a revolver battle in the apartment of Michael Accardi, in North St. Louis. Detective James B. Mobrak was wounded.

One of the dead men was identified as Norman Godier, 30, a Cuckoo gangster and a former convict. The other, a younger man, was not identified immediately. Eight detectives had been detailed to the Accardi home because of an extortion demand for $2,300.

Pinchot's Blast At Reed Opens Senate Race

Says Senator Is Mellon's Errand Boy; "Common Scold," Reply.

Harrisburg, Pa., Feb. 26 (AP).—The long-expected Republican fight for the seat of United States Senator David A. Reed began today with Gov. Gifford Pinchot denouncing Reed as the errand boy of the Mellons and Reed hurling back that Pinchot is a common scold and an unscrupulous politician.

The Independent Republican Governor announced his candidacy against Reed with the statement that the man the Republicans choose should work with President Roosevelt and take orders only from the people.

In a terse announcement telephoned from New York, where for two months he has been recovering from a nervous disorder, Pinchot said that "Reed, as Senator, had run the errands and taken the orders of Mellon, the international bankers and the steel interests long enough."

Reed Replies Here.

Reed, replying in a statement from Washington, said "Mr. Pinchot will not be nominated. Pennsylvania Republicans see in him nothing more than an unscrupulous politician and a common scold."

"In this crisis," Pinchot asserted, "Republican Pennsylvania requires and deserves in Reed's place a Republican Senator who will work with the President to restore prosperity instead of snapping and snarling at his heels."

Senator Reed's statement:

"Gov. Pinchot is again a candidate for the United States Senate, in spite of the decisive defeat that he received in 1914 and the pitiful showing he made in 1926. As in both of those efforts, he evidently now intends to carry on against me a campaign of villification and personal abuse. He will try by that means to cover up his own record of broken promises, his shameless abuse of his present office to build up a personal political machine, and his cynical use in secret of the methods that he denounces in public.

Predicts Defeat Again.

"Mr. Pinchot will not be nominated. Pennsylvania Republicans see in him nothing more than an unscrupulous politican and a common scold."

About an hour after Reed's statement, Pinchot authorized his office to make this comment on his behalf:

"If that wasn't a bluster of a badly frightened man, then I never read any."

The primaries will be held on May 15. The terms of both Pinchot and Reed expire with 1934. Reed informally announced his candidacy several weeks ago.

Midwestern Farm Price Rally Called

Governor Olson Calls Meet Seeking Crop Control.

St. Paul, Feb. 26 (AP).—Encouraged by favorable Congressional action on the Bankhead bill for compulsory control of cotton production, Gov. Floyd B. Olson today launched a new attempt to secure "fair" market prices for Middle Western farmers.

He issued an invitation to governors and agricultural leaders in 15 States to attend a conference in Des Moines, Iowa, March 10-12. Gov. Clyde Herring of Iowa said he would be "delighted" to entertain the gathering.

Gov. Olson announced he would present a plan for compulsory production control of basic agricultural commodities and for fixing a "fair" market price for commodities.

Wire, Radio Rule Asked By President

Roosevelt Urges New Agency in Message to Congress.

Seeks Broad Authority to Control All U. S. Communications.

By Leon Dure, Jr.

Creation of a permanent agency to have jurisdiction over the Nation's network of communications, supplanting the Federal Radio Commission and taking over conflicting functions of the Interstate Commerce Commission, was proposed yesterday by President Roosevelt.

In a special message to Congress he recommended this immediate action, but suggested that the new agency—to be known as the Federal Communications Commission—investigate existing companies and conditions for a report to Congress at the next session.

Hence, although provisions of the Administration be to be introduced in both houses today were not divulged in advance, it was clear that the whole question of mergers in the communications field — wires, cables and radio—will go over another year before final settlement.

"Broad Authority" Asked.

Beyond the fact that seven members, to be appointed by the President, would compose the new commission, details of the Administration bill could not be learned. It was presumed, however, that it confines itself to setting up the new agency with the "broad authority" asked for by the President.

"I have long felt," Mr. Roosevelt wrote Congress, "that for the sake of clarity and effectiveness the relationship of the Federal Government to certain services known as utilities should be divided into three fields—transportation, power and communications.

"The problems of transportation are vested in the Interstate Commerce Commission, and the problems of power, its development, transmission and distribution, in the Federal Power Commission.

"In the field of communications, however, there is today no single Government agency with broad authority.

"The Congress has vested certain authority over certain forms of communications in the Interstate Commerce Commission and there is in addition the agency known as the Federal Radio Commission.

Asks Centralized Authority.

"I recommend that the Congress create a new agency to be known as the Federal Communications Commission, such agency to be vested with the authority now lying in the Federal Radio Commission and with such authority over communications as now lies with the Interstate Commerce Commission—the services affected to be all of those which rely on wires, cables or radio as a medium of transmission.

"It is my thought that a new commission such as I suggest might well be organized this year by transferring the present authority for the control of communications of the Radio Commission and the Interstate Commerce Commission. The new body should, in addition, be given full power to investigate and study the business of existing companies and make recommendations to the Congress for additional legislation at the next session."

Thus, in this typically concise message, the President asked that all telephone, telegraph and radio companies be regulated by one agency, preliminary to what was re-

Continued on Page 5, Column 5.

Crash on Lake Ice Kills Guard Flier

Parachute Fails to Open in Snow Storm.

Lorain, Ohio, Feb. 26 (AP).—Lieut. Albert J. Harmon, Michigan National Guard flier, fell to his death on the ice of Lake Erie east of here late today a short time after he took off from Cleveland for Detroit on an unofficial flight.

A heavy snow storm was raging near Lorain when Harmon's plane, flying low, roared over houses on the lake shore and dropped down on the ice.

Harmon attempted to use his parachute, but it failed to open. The plane burst into flames and was destroyed.

Bill Pushed As Air Fight Splits Senate

Parties Swap Charges in Debate; Rebidding Is Expected.

Foulois to Give Nation Army's Side Tonight; Mail "Plot" Told.

By Martha Dalrymple.

A wordy, partisan battle raged all day yesterday over the air-mail situation.

While acrimonious party defenders and attackers of the Administration's cancellation of air-mail contracts made themselves heard in all parts of the Capitol, the Senate Mail Contract Investigating Committee was quietly listening to additional testimony tending to show collusion and fraud in the award of the contracts during the Hoover Administration.

The bitterest debate occurred on the Senate floor, where Republicans arose to attack President Roosevelt's cancellation move as "unlawful," "dictatorial," "unwarranted" and "high-handed." Democrats arose just as high to cry "collusion," "dishonesty" and "fraud," as reasons for the cancellation.

May Allow Rebidding.

In the House there were indications that new permanent legislation being drafted in the Postoffice Committee would permit companies which lost their contracts to bid again.

The committee approved a 2-mill-per-pound-per-mile rate for air-mail pay, with a minimum payment of 50 cents a mile per plane. In addition, the committee agreed informally to include clauses which would prevent previous contractors from bidding unless they were completely reorganized and had no connections through holding companies with airplane manufacturers, or through interlocking directorates.

It is generally believed that the Senate forces, led by Senator Black (Democrat), Alamaba, will seek to tighten these provisions.

Meanwhile, in the War Department, the Army Air Corps, through its chief, Maj. Gen. Benjamin D. Foulois, was preparing a radio speech to tell the Nation tonight just how the Army has carried out its first week of flying the mails.

Robinson Starts Fight.

The fracas in the Senate originated with Senator Arthur Robinson (Republican), Indiana, who introduced newspaper clippings which he said showed the cancellation was "clearly unlawful," and further charged the Administration with some measure of responsibility for sending "these lads to their death."

He further charged that Capt. Eddie Rickenbacker, outstanding critic of the cancellation program, had been "prohibited by Washington" from making a radio speech.

"I do not say that it was necessarily ordered by the President or the Administration, but the orders did come from Washington."

Senator Clark (Democrat), Missouri, pointed out that Rickenbacker was two hours early in his recent flight from the coast, and that naturally the broadcast schedule was disturbed.

The Republican forces were

Continued on Page 9, Column 5.

Vessel Reaches Norfolk; Sugar Turned Into Syrup

Norfolk, Va., Feb. 26 (Spl.).—With five feet of water in No. 1 and 2 holds and her crew exhausted after working two nights at the pumps to keep her afloat, the tiny British steamer Delia limped into Hampton Roads today, listing badly.

The Delia is loaded with 14,000 bags of raw sugar and is bound from Cardenas to Halifax. More than 500 tons of the sugar has been reduced to syrup and was pumped into the Atlantic while the crew were fighting to keep her afloat. The Delia ran into a severe storm off Hatteras last Saturday.

Family of 4 Homeless; Fire Razes 2 Houses

Harrisonburg, Va., Feb. 26 (Spl.). Fire of undetermined origin last night destroyed the home of John Eye, on Rawley Springs pike, between Rawley and Hinton. Besides Eye, his wife and child, Miss Fannie Eye, an invalid sister, was made homeless by the blaze, which also razed a tenant house.

Esther Ralston Asks Divorce—'He Nagged'

ESTHER RALSTON,

who filed suit yesterday for divorce from George Webb Frey, her husband and film manager, charging he called her harsh names, nagged and displayed unreasonable jealousy. They were married in 1925 and separated last August. Miss Ralston asked custody of their two-year-old daughter, Mary Esther Frey.

Peek Accepts Export-Import Bank Position

He Also Will Continue as Foreign Trade Adviser; May Head Others.

By Kendall Foss.

George N. Peek not only accepted the proffered presidency of the new Export-Import Bank yesterday, but he indicated he would head other trade banks soon to be formed, to deal with Cuba and other foreign countries.

In addition, Peek will continue to act as foreign trade adviser to the President and will see to it that all information pertaining to trade, which is now scattered through various departments, is coordinated in one office—his.

This was the tangible outcome of a mass meeting in President Roosevelt's office yesterday afternoon of virtually all governmental authorities on foreign trade problems. One step remains before the new array of banks can do much toward reviving exports and imports—authority to manipulate tariffs sufficiently to maintain a foreign trade balance. Tariff angles were discussed at the White House yesterday, it was learned, but it is unlikely that results will be made known just now.

A tariff message to Congress has been in the offing for some time, but it is generally believed the President hesitates to send it until Congressional work on his last request (the stock exchange) is further along. In the past he has consistently taken care not to overload Congress with too many messages at one time.

Given Wide Latitude.

Peek has secured most of what he sought as a prerequisite for acceptance of the presidency of the Export-Import Banks. Not only will he not have to confine himself to trade problems with Soviet Russia, but in his capacity as foreign trade adviser he can insure smooth operation of most of the points he made in his plan. He has not accepted a minor job.

Clearly these banks will most frequently be called upon to stimulate exports. Imports seldom require outside credits; the foreign exporter takes up the slack. Therefore, un-

Continued on Page 9, Column 8.

Trade Treaty Pushed In Havana Conference

Havana, Feb. 26 (AP).—American and Cubna technical experts, working with members of the embassy staff, inaugurated today a series of bargaining conferences as a final step in Cuban-American trade treaty revision.

Sessions will continue daily until a final draft is completed for submission to the United States Congress.

'Little Fellow' Wins Three NRA Breaks

Key Posts Given Critic and Clarence Darrow; Price Fixing Hit.

By Raymond Clapper.

Consumers and the little man got a break from NRA yesterday.

Three developments, all coming on the eve of the general field day for criticism which opens today, were taken to indicate that Gen. Hugh S. Johnson has been impressed by recent criticism that NRA has operated to encourage monopoly, that executives with large business affiliations dominate key positions in the Recovery Administration, and that the position of the consumer has suffered from neglect.

Significant developments were these:

Leon Henderson, of the Russell Sage Foundation, a leading critic of NRA, particularly of its effects on consumers and of the "open price" provisions of codes, was appointed director of the division of research and planning of NRA—a post which has been described as the "heart of NRA."

It was indicated in official quarters that the open-price provisions in some 125 codes which require posting of prices with code authorities and which have been criticized as encouraging price-fixing and profiteering, probably will, in most instances, be abandoned, or drastically modified.

Darrow to Be Free Agent.

Gen. Johnson announced that Clarence Darrow, who will head the special board to watch the effect of NRA on small enterprises, would be entirely independent of the recovery organization, would be appointed directly by the President and would report directly to the White House. Johnson emphasized that Darrow, whom he described as "Doctor of Complaints," would be an absolutely free agent.

All of these developments indicated a general awakening at recovery headquarters to the consumer side of the picture, which is to be further developed in the public meetings beginning today, when

Continued on Page 5, Column 2.

Long Prohibition Era Ends in Mississippi

Jackson, Miss., Feb. 26 (AP).—A quarter of a century of State-wide prohibition ended in Mississippi late today when Gov. Sennett Conner signed a measure legalizing sale and manufacture of 4 per cent beer.

The news spread like wildfire through the State. Dealers who had been preparing for days to dispense the brew, immediately posted their signs, lined their counters with mugs and made ready to supply the anticipated demand.

Gen. Johnson Bristles at Hint That He Is 'Afraid' of Ford

National Recovery Administrator Hugh S. Johnson told reporters yesterday that if they thought "anybody is holding back on Henry Ford because they're afraid of him, just get that out of your mind."

Gen. Johnson's remark was made in response to questions about the proposed investigation of the Ford Motor Co. for its alleged refusal to permit its employes the right of collective bargaining. William H. Davis, NRA compliance director, announced he would undertake such an inquiry, but at the press conference it was suggested that the NRA had previously looked into the Ford case without apparent results.

"Are you going to crack down on him?" demanded a reporter.

"You got me into enough trouble with that question once before," laughed the Administrator, recalling the controversy he had had with Mr. Ford last summer. Continuing, he scouted the thought that he was afraid of the manufacturer.

Meanwhile, Mr. Davis announced that he would hold hearings at the Ford plant in Chester, Pa., later in the week, to which Edsel Ford, son of the company's founder, would be invited. Ford officials have taken the position in letters to the Compliance Board, that they have stated their case. They refused to attend a hearing here last Friday.

51-39 Ballot Restores 67,000 Spanish War Men to Rolls.

18 Democrats In Insurgents Ranks

President's Opposition to Bonus Will Be Read Today.

By Franklyn Waltman, Jr.

Over Administration opposition, the Senate late yesterday, by a vote of 51 to 39, adopted the McCarran-Steiwer amendment restoring to the compensation rolls approximately 67,000 Spanish War veterans eliminated by the economy act, and limiting reductions in all the compensation of all Spanish War veterans to 10 per cent of their U. S. pay on March 19, last.

These provisions will add approximately $60,000,000 annually to the cost of veterans' administration, and by that amount further reduces the original $400,000,000 savings effected by the economy act. The Senate's action affects the compensation status of approximately 190,000 Spanish War veterans and of 30,000 widows and dependents of deceased veterans of that war.

The Senate vote was a severe defeat for the Administration, made sharper by the fact that Senator James F. Byrnes (Democrat), South Carolina, in charge of the debate, step by step went more than two-thirds of the way in meeting the insurgents' demands.

Coalition Stands Firm.

But the Democratic-Republican coalition supporting the McCarran-Steiwer amendment refused to compromise. When the roll was called, 18 Democrats voted against their party leaders. Presenting an unbroken front, 32 Republicans also voted for the amendment. Senator Hendik Shipstead (Farm-Labor), Minnesota, added the final vote. The 39 negative votes were cast by Democrats.

As the Senate voted on the McCarran-Steiwer amendment, President Roosevelt wrote a letter to Speaker Henry T. Rainey, of the House, stating in emphattic language that he would veto the $2,400,000,000 cash bonus payment bill if it is passed by Congress.

This measure will come before the House on March 12 on a petition, signed by 145 members, asking the discharge of the Ways and Means Committee from further consideration of the bill. As the situation stood prior to news of the President's letter, it was generally conceded a majority of the House would support the bonus bill.

House leaders count on the President's opposition to block passage of the bill. Some days ago Mr. Roosevelt authorized Speaker Rainey to announce that he would not approve the bill. His written letter, which will be read to the House today, was made necessary by interpretations that the President might

Continued on Page 9, Column 4.

2-3-Year School Term Approved

Virginia House Passes Bill; $100,000 Saving Made by Staff Cut.

(By a Staff Correspondent.)

Richmond, Feb. 26.—House approval today of the eight-month minimum school term principle completed legislative action on the most far-reaching bill of the session.

School operation costs would be cut about $100,000 annually, however, under a resolution for reduction in the number of superintendents approved by the House. Both of the school measures were expected to be signed soon by Gov. Peery.

Senator T. Russell Cather, Winchester, sponsored the minimum term bill at the request of Sydney B. Hall, superintendent of public instruction.

The Senate passed another Cather proposal designed to continue operation of the De Jarnette Sanitarium for Mental Defectives at Staunton. House and gubernatorial sanction would override a general hospital board ruling that the institution be closed.

Under the measure patients would be required to pay actual operation costs.

Berlin, Warsaw Sign Non-Aggression Pact

Berlin, Feb. 26 (AP).—Germany and Poland signed a cultural non-aggression pact today. The action followed upon the exchange on Saturday of ratifications of a political non-aggression agreement between the two countries which was negotiated January 26.

The aim of both pacts is to provide a peaceful settlement of all questions arising between the two nations.

Stock Market Lacks 'Brakes,' Senators Told

It Can't Curb Speculation, Says Dr. Goldenweiser, Urging U.S. Control.

(Associated Press.)

An indorsement of purposes of the bill to give the Government control over the securities markets and an assertion that the New York Stock Exchange, while efficient in other ways, was not equipped to curb excessive speculation, were voiced before the Senate Banking Committee yesterday by Dr. E. A. Goldenweiser, chief of the research division of the Federal Reserve Board.

"It is like a 16-cylinder automobile with antediluvian brakes," he said.

The economist testified at the outset of hearings on the measure, which would abolish certain Wall street practices and place the Nation's stock exchanges under control of the Federal Trade Commission.

Earlier in the day the committee concluded its long investigation of Wall street and the banks, after calling upon the New York exchange to produce balance sheets on its own receipts and disbursements, heretofore not even circulated among members of the exchange.

Says Exchange Had Deficit.

Last year's statement, the committee learned from George U. Harris, a member of the exchange's governing and publicity committees, showed a deficit. Harris said he could not say how much it was, adding with a grin that he was satisfied the exchange was "nowhere near bankruptcy."

Ferdinand Pecora, committee counsel, questioned the witness closely on the activities of the publicity committee and of exchange officials with reference to the pending bill. Harris said his own firm of Harris & Upham had sent out many copies of a letter written by Richard Whitney, president of the exchange, calling attention to what were considered undesirable features of the measure.

Goldenweiser was called to give an explanation of the bill and his own views upon it for the information of the committee before stock exchange officials are examined. Whitney strolled in a nearby corridor, meanwhile, and Roland Redmond, exchange counsel, sat among the spectators. Whitney is to testify today.

Points to Wide Speculation.

"I am sympathetic with the objectives which this bill seeks to accomplish," the economist said. "I am interested in it from the point of view of the effect of stock market speculation upon the general trend of business, on the rise and fall of business activity, and on the Nation's credit machinery; and also from the point of view of protecting the public from the losses caused by participation in stock speculation without being in possession of information which would enable them to cope with those on the inside."

The effect of the rise and fall of security prices, he added, has been accentuated more than ever in recent years because of tremendous improvements in communication facilities, and the extent to which trading in stocks has penetrated to all sections of the Nation has been revealed by the large increase in the number of branch brokerage houses.

Recalls 1929 Smash.

"Facilities for borrowing to carry stocks on a speculative basis," Goldenweiser said, "are unequaled anywhere, and a speculator needs little money and no credit standing.

"It has been too easy for brokers to obtain loans," he went on, pointing out the tremendous rise of broker's loans in 1929 and their subsequent contraction of three billions in three days following the crash.

"It is when people buy securities not for the purpose of investment, but in the hope of selling them at high prices, that the situation becomes entirely vicious."

Fusionists Call Party Meeting

Montgomery Issue to Be Decided Definitely March 7.

Formation of a fusion party composed of Republicans and Democratic "antiorganizations" will be decided upon definitely at a meeting March 7 at 8 p. m. in the firehouse at Rockville, Md.

Republican and "anti" organization leaders of Montgomery County, Md., met Sunday at Rockville to make tentative plans for formation of the party. Committees were appointed to sound out sentiment.

The fusion party will enter the county election in November, opposing the Democratic organization now in power.

The party, however, will not affect the State or National Republican tickets, confining itself to the fight against the county organization.

Labor Board Rejects Greyhound Bus Probe

St. Louis, Feb. 26 (AP).—The St. Louis regional labor board decided today there was no evidence that Western Greyhound Lines, Inc., violated the National recovery act in dealing with its employes, as alleged by the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen.

The labor board declined to use its "discretion" in calling an election to select representatives to carry on collective bargaining for Greyhound employes.

Colpoys Approved For U. S. Marshal

Senate Group Waits Word of Sub-Committee.

The Senate Judiciary Committee, voted yesterday to report favorably on the appointment of John B. Colpoys, labor leader and Democratic central committeeman, as local United States marshal, subject to action by a sub-committee headed by Senator Neeley (Democrat), of West Virginia.

Senator Neeley was occupied at another committee session yesterday and could not attend the judiciary committee meeting. He said he would poll his sub-committee and report to the full committee at once.

Colpoys was appointed by the President several days ago, to succeed Edgar C. Snyder, Republican incumbent.

Fresh Capital Sought to Open Franklin Bank

Park Savings Depositors Win Advance on Date to File Claims.

With a second request for stock subscriptions to reopen the restricted Franklin National Bank going out to its stockholders and depositors today, depositors and creditors of Park Savings Bank, in receivership, are given more time to file their claims against the latter institution.

Depositors and stockholders of the Franklin National Bank will be asked to subscribe as quickly as possible to $100,000 stock to reopen this bank in a three-bank merger forming the new Mechanics Franklin Savings Bank. The Washington Mechanics and the Mount Vernon Savings Banks expect to have their part of this merger completed by March 5.

Receiver John F. Moran, of the Park Savings institution, was notified yesterday by Comptroller of the Currency J. F. T. O'Connor to extend the time for receipt of claims against that bank from March 4 present limit, to a date 30 days after the case concerning the bank, now pending in the District Supreme Court, is decided.

The comptroller's action followed filing of a petition in the District Supreme Court by the bank's depositors' committee requesting the court to extend the time limit.

The depositors' committee has instituted court proceedings to replace the Treasury Department receivership by one of the courts and to collect the bank's losses of more than $2,000,000 from the directors and stockholders of the bank.

Mitchell Declares Tragedy Avoidable

Says 'Chute Would Have Saved 8 in Plane.

Col. William Mitchell, former chief of the A. E. F. air forces, told reporters yesterday that the air liner which crashed in Utah, carrying eight to death, should have been equipped with parachutes, according to the Associated Press.

"For a great many years," he said, "we have tried to get these airliners equipped with cabin parachutes. If that plane had had them, the pilot could have pulled a lever when he got into difficulties, and all the passengers would have landed safely.

"There is no excuse for most of these accidents."

Ford Needs to Exceed 10 Million Steel Plan

Detroit, Feb. 26 (AP).—Although official explanation was withheld at the Ford Motor Co. offices today on the announcement that it had contracted for a $10,000,000 expansion program in its steel mills, it was learned that the company has no intention of producing even a major part of its own steel requirements.

Manufacture of steel at the Ford plants has grown to tremendous proportions, but the company never has produced more than 5 per cent of its requirements.

Paris Court Awards American $126,480

Paris, Feb. 26, (AP).—The Travellers Bank today was ordered by by the Tribunal of Commerce to pay Raymond Patenotre, American-born former undersecrtary of national eceoomy, 1,946,000 francs (approximately $126,480) in his suit against it for nearly 3,000,000 francs.

Patenotre, a native of Atlantic City, sought to recover the sum under a contract guaranteeing him normal exchange for $1,000,000 to be sold for him in eight monthly sums of $125,000.

Chaco Board Visits Uruguayan President

Montevideo, Feb. 26 (AP).—Representatvies of the League of Nations Chaco Commission visited President Terra of Uruguay today to explain their latest formula for settlement of the war between Paraguay and Bolivia.

The formula was submitted to the belligerents and also to the principal South American nations and to Secretary of State Hull in Washington.

British Jobless Ask Audience in Commons

London, Feb. 26 (AP).London police continued precautions against 2,000 unemployed marchers from the provinces, despite the peacefulness of a demonstration in Hyde Park yesterday.

The main body of marchers, protesting unemployment measures now before Parliament, rested today, pending the outcome of a petition that a deputation be allowed to state their views before the House of Commons.

Star Witness' Injuries Delay Lorton Inquiry

Bedell Still in Hospital; Says He Was Beaten by Two Men.

Injuries received by Edward Bedell, former convict, yesterday caused postponement of the investigation of conditions at the Lorton Reformatory, which was to have been started before the penal committee of the Board of Public Welfare. The hearing was set tentatively for tomorrow afternoon.

Bedell, who is the only complaining witness to be heard by the committee, reported he was beaten Saturday night by two unidentified men a few hours after he came here from New Jersey to testify. It was expected that he would be released from Gallinger Hospital to testify yesterday.

Accusations by Bedell against the administration of the prison formed the basis of a demand by Representative Shoemaker (Farmer-Labor), of Minneosta, for a Congressional investigation of the reformatory. He charged graft and uncleanliness.

Stephenson Heads Reportorial Group

White House News Staff Honors A.P. Man.

Francis M. Stephenson, veteran Washington reported for the Associated Press, yesterday was elected president of the White House Correspondents Association for the ensuing year, succeeding George E. Durno, columnist.

The election, in which Albert L. Warner, of the New York Herald-Tribune, also was a candidate, was by ballot in the White House press room. It was preliminary to the annual White House Correspondents' dinner Saturday night at the Willard Others elected without contest were Edward B. Lockett, INS, vice president; G. L. Tarry, Wall Street Journal, secretary-treasurer, and Charles W. B. Hurd, New York Times, and Frederick A. Storm, United Press, members of the executive committee.

Aircraft Men Ask RFC Cash

Resolutions Also Propose All Fliers Be Holders of Civil Licenses.

Resolutions urging that all Army, Navy and Marine Corps aviators be holders of Department of Commerce commercial pilot's licenses and enactment of legislation providing RFC funds for loans to independent aircraft operators and schools were adopted at the organization meeting yesterday of the Independent Aircraft Operators of the United States at the Mayflower Hotel.

At least 90 per cent of the independent aircraft operators are in financial distress, said one resolution, declaring it would be "of tremendous impulse" to the development of comemrcial aviation if RFC loans were made available.

Declaring that it costs the Government at least $100 an hour for flight instruction for pilots, it was said a tremendous saving would be effected if Federal aviators were required to have a private license before they became eligible for military training.

Oil Company Head Rits at Interference

Declares Code an Obstacle, but Praises Ickes.

New York, Feb. 26 (AP).—J. Howard Pew, president of the Sun Oil Co., stated in his report that some of the conditions imposed in the oil code interfered with economic processes and might have been avoided.

"Secretary Ickes has authority to control crude oil production, from whose excesses most ills of the industry have resulted," Mr. Pew said. "The race for production in the shortest time, the lack of adequate laws covering production, the fact that one man can steal the petroleum from under his neighbor's property—these things could all be remedied without entering upon complicated and detailed control of the industry.

"Already the vigorous work of Secretary Ickes and the State oil authorities have largely cured the worst evils."

Rid of $15,000, Now She's Happy

Widow Says People Don't Follow Her Any More.

Seattle, Feb. 26 (AP).—Mrs. Katherine Pfeniger, 57, Chicago widow, who sad she burned 15 $1,000 bills in her room at a hotel here and later attempted suicide by jumping into Elliott Bay, said she was happy today. She believes she will not be followed any more now that she is rid of the money.

Mrs. Pfeniger arrived here Saturday on the liner Santa Paula from San Francisco. Fishermen rescued her when she leaped off a pier yesterday.

U. S. Wants France Off Gold, Minister Charges

Paris, Feb. 26 (U.P.).—The United States has organized a campaign to persuade France to devalorize the franc or inflate it, Finance Minister Louis Germain-Martin charged today in a speech to the Senate.

"Since a recent article by Walter Lippmann," he said, "we can not doubt that a campaign is being organized in the United States to persuade France that she must have recourse to inflation or devalorization."

Building Owners Protest to Post

Line in "New Dealers" Not Intended as Criticism.

The Washington Post is in receipt of a protest from the owners of the Department of Labor Building in Washington, D. C. They protest the following sentence, appearing in "The New Dealers":

"Under Miss Perkins the whole thing is as different as is the new marble Labor Department Building down by the Washington Monument to the old department shack sandwiched between a rooming house and a garage on F street."

The Post had no intention of criticizing the Department of Labor Building, which is a sound and substantial structure.

Auxiliary Jury May Be Called In Army Probe

50 Contract Cases Await Action; Woodring Takes Stand.

The investigation of War Department contracts may necessitate the calling of a second grand jury, United States Attorney Leslie C. Garnett said yesterday.

Garnett said he hoped to be able to conclude the War Department investigation by tomorrow, but if that is impossible he will ask for a second grand jury to hear other cases while the contract investigation continues. About 50 such cases are pending.

The Department of Justice continues to delve into the activities of the War Department in connection with its $10,000,000 motorization program and in connection with the sale of surplus materials, but Garnett indicated that he believed it will be unnecessary to call witnesses in addition to those already expected to testify.

Woodring on Stand.

Harry H. Woodring, Assistant Secretary of War, who has charge of all War Department purchases, was before the grand jury all day yesterday. He is expected to resume his testimony today.

It is understood that Woodring was going over in detail the story of the department's dealings with Joseph Silverman, dealer in surplus materials, and of its negotiations with representatives of automobile manufacturers in connection with the motorization program.

It was Woodring's third appearance before the jury. He has waived immunity from prosecution.

Blizzard Delays Witness.

The blizzard upset the jury's plans yesterday when Robert W. Lyons, New York lawyer said to have been a representative of an automobile truck manuafcturer, telegraphed he was snowbound at Harrisburg, Pa. Lyons has asked to be permitted to tell his story to the jury. He arrived at the courthouse shortly after noon, but Woodring already was testifying and it was decided not to interrupt his testimony. Lyons will appear at the conclusion of Woodring's testimony. He also will waive immunity.

Unless the Department of Justice unearths important new evidence, the last witness will be Ralph T. O'Neil, former National commander of the American Legion, who has aked permission to tell of his connection with attempts to obtain War Department contracts.

Contract Rules Changed.

Among other things, Woodring is said to have told the jury about his part in a conference attended by O'Neil and Robert Jackson, former secretary of the Democratic National Committee, at the home of Col. Joseph B. McMullin, of the judge advocate general's office, where it was agreed that used war materials might be resold in the United States. Contracts previously had provided they must be sold in foreign countries.

Lyons is expected to tell of a contract he had with the Fargo Co. of Chicago, dealers in Dodge trucks. Mark T. McKee, prominent Michigan Legion leader, also has been named in connection with this contract, but he has not been called upon to testify.

Storm Closes Many Schools At Alexandria

Heating Plans Break Down and Students Are Sent Home.

THE WASHINGTON POST BUREAU.
907 Prince St., Alexandria, Va.
Phone Alexandria 523.

Attendance at Alexandria schools was hard hit yesterday by the storm which paralyzed traffic. It was estimated that not more than one-half the pupils ventured out. Heating plants at several of the schools were not functioning properly and pupils were dismissed. It was announced yesterday all schools would be closed today if more snow occurs.

Roads leading to Alexandria were almost impassable, trains and busses were running behind schedule time, and river traffic was halted. The Norfolk steamer was more than an hour late yesterday morning.

Work was abandoned on all but two CWA projects, remodeling of the police station and installation of heating plants in two engine houses. A force of 30 CWA workers was loaned to the city to help clear the streets, supplementing the work of regular city forces and 20 additional men who were put to work.

Hundreds of private automobiles left parked in the streets were snowed in and many could not be moved.

The charitable organizations of the city reported an unusually large number of calls for aid and considerable suffering among the poor.

Maj. Sawders Speaks.

The joint meeting of the Alexandria Kiwanis, Rotary and Lions Clubs, in the George Mason Hotel tonight will be addressed by Maj. James Sawders, Nationally known explorer and lecturer. This will be a ladies night affair, and Presidents T. M. Jones, jr., Alfred Thomson and Armistead Boothe expect a large attendance.

Cadet officers of Alexandria High School have been awarded their commissions, presentation being made by Col. Clarence Deems, jr., former professor of military science and tactics in the schools.

Those receiving commissions were Capts. George Jeanier and Fred Kerchner; Lieuts. Llewellyn Gillum, Sidney O'Neil, Howard Mendleson, Hugh Peyton and Mitchel Burroughs; Sergts. Wood Tompkins, Walter Cornell and Douglas Stanton.

A picked team of riflemen from the Alexandria and George Mason high schools last night fired a shoulder to shoulder match in the Armory with a team from the Alexandria Light Infantry. After the rifle match squads from the two high school staged a competitive drill with members of the Light Infantry, Col. Clarence Deems, jr., acted as judge.

Lawler Funeral Today.

The funeral of Mrs. Mabel Blunt Lawler, aged 28 years, wife of Norman F. Lawler, who died Sunday morning in Canton, Ohio, will be held at 3 o'clock this afternoon from the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry H. Blunt, at Belle Haven, Alexandria. The Rev. E. W. Aaron, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, will conduct the services. Burial will be in Ivy Hill Cemetery.

Mrs. Lawler is survived by her husband, a 3-year-old son, Dean Burnham Lawler, and an infant daughter; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry H. Blunt; two brothers, Herbert O. and Kenneth E. Blunt, all of Belle Haven, and a sister, Mrs. R. Meade Jefferson, of Oakcrest, Va.

The funeral of Thomas N. Eddy, who died Sunday afternoon at his home, 117 North Columbus street, Alexandria, will be held today in Winchester, Va., his former home. The deceased was a charter member of Alexandria Lodge, No. 758, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks.

The funeral of Mrs. Rachel Hopkins Reed, widow of Thomas H. C. Reed, who died Saturday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. George S. French, in the Brawner Apartments, was held yesterday at the home, conducted by the Rev. Dr. William J. Morton, rector of Christ Episcopal Church. Burial will be at Darlington, Hartford County, Md., the former home of the deceased.

Ickes Reveals 50-Year Plan Development

Secretary Raps Waste of Natural Wealth for Private Gain.

Chicago, Feb. 26 (AP).—For the country's natural resources, the Roosevelt Administration has a "25 or 50 year plan," Harold L. Ickes, Secretary of the Interior, said in an address tonight.

Included in the plan was the development of more water power projects like boulder dam and the Tennessee Valley, he said.

Mentioning specifically the study now under way of the Mississippi Valley and the survey of the country's water resources now being made by the National Planning Board, Secretary Ickes said:

"This Administration is planning ahead for the next 25 or 50 years."

Speaking before the Chicago Dental Society's annual convention, he described the "reckless exploitation" of natural resources as having serious costs in lives and property.

"No man has a right to make $5,000,000 by destroying the forests at the head waters of a river, if that exploitation causes floods that destroy property worth $50,000,000 downstream," he stated.

Ickes described President Roosevelt as "a practicing conservationist" and said he himself was "an ardent one."

"Under the New Deal, the property of the people will be developed, under wise control, for the benefit of the people," he declared.

As among the "shameful facts of man's inhumanity to man," the Secretary cited the destruction of timberland, the "extravagant exploitation" of oil, and the "depletion" of the Western ranges through overgrazing.

Doris Kenyon's Suit Scheduled.

Los Angeles, Feb. 26 (AP).—A hearing of Doris Kenyon's divorce suit against Arthur E. Hopkins, real estate broker, of Syracuse, N. Y., was set today for next Wednesday. The blonde actress charges her husband with criticizing her harshly and objecting to her career.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

WANT TO HAUL FULL OR PART LOAD to or from N. Y., Richmond, Boston, Pittsburgh and all way points; special rates. NATL. DELIVERY ASSN., INC., 1317 N. Y. ave.; NA 1460. Local moving also.

YOU CAN'T AFFORD TO LOSE A DIAmond, no matter how small. Better have us look yours over. CHAS. F. HERRMANN, 811 E nw., over Marlow Coal Office. Est. 1892. Watch and jewelry repairing.

I AM NOW PREPARING TO FORM A small public utility company to operate in a profitable field. Individual participation of $100 up is offered. If you have idle capital, address Box 88, Washington Post.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, OFFICE OF The Comptroller of the Currency, Washington, D. C., December 4, 1933.—Notice is hereby given to all persons who may have claims against "Park Savings Bank," Washington, D. C., that the same must be presented to John F. Moran, Receiver, with the legal proof thereof within three months from this date or they may be disallowed.

J. F. T. O'CONNOR,
Comptroller of the Currency.

PRIVATE SECRETARIES
Earn real money and are in demand
Beginners' and Review Courses in Gregg and Boyd Shorthand and all secretarial subjects. Touch typing 6-8 weeks. Civil Service speed dictation classes. Free placement to graduates, openings hourly. Inquire or enroll today at BOYD BUSINESS UNIVERSITY, 1333 F St. N.W. Nat. 2340.

LOOK FOR SQUIBB CONTROL NUMBER

Each new lot bears its own serial number—actual evidence of 62 safety tests, made during manufacture. Squibb control is your guarantee of the reliability, purity and safety of Squibb's Aspirin.

EASY TO OPEN—One hand is all this new box requires. No broken nails, cut fingers or spilled tablets.

Swiftly effective because it's genuine aspirin ... safe, pure and reliable because it's

SQUIBB'S ASPIRIN

GENUINE aspirin is quick in its effect. But before any aspirin becomes fully effective it must pass through the stomach and enter the intestine. Squibb's Aspirin disintegrates instantly when it reaches the stomach. Because each tablet is firmly compressed, it does not crumble in the box or leave particles in the mouth.

When you choose an aspirin from the hundreds of brands on the market, ask for a name you can trust. Squibb's Aspirin, being a Squibb Product, is genuine and reliable. The control number on each container is proof of its tested purity and uniformity. At all good drug stores.

Copyright 1934 E. R. Squibb & Sons

PURE DEPENDABLE SAFE

Hickey-Freeman
CUSTOMIZED CLOTHES

WHERE DID YOU GET IT?

If your new Spring suit is a Como Blue, prepare to be questioned. This new colour, named after the waters of Lake Como, Italy, is introduced by HICKEY-FREEMAN, exclusive with us, of course.

SEVENTY DOLLARS.

Goldheim's

Apparel for Gentlemen . . . Established 1875

1409 H Street N.W. NAtional 1409

Warmed by Marlow

Marlow-warmed homes keep comfortable even when a cold wave like this hits here. That is because Marlow's Famous Reading Anthracite—genuine Pennsylvania hard coal—is so packed with heat that even the coldest weather doesn't faze it. Keep your bin filled and stay warm no matter what the weather. Call NA. 0311.

75 Years of Good Coal Service

Marlow Coal Co.

811 E St. N.W. NATIONAL 0311

AUCTION SALE
ORIENTAL RUGS
February 28, March 1 and 2
Two Sales—Afternoon 3 p. m., Evening 8 p. m.
Exhibition All Day Today, Tomorrow Up to 2 P. M.
SALESROOM
UNITED STATES STORAGE CO.
420 10th St. N. W. Phone Met. 1843

Liquidation Sale of Erevan Rug Co., Inc. Order of Creditors.

This choice collection of antiques, semi-antiques, and modern rugs, from mat sizes to 20x11.4 carpets will be offered at auction.

KIRMAN 20x11.4
KIRMAN ...18.6x10.9
SAROUK ...18.6x10.6
MAHAL 18.9x12
SAROUK 19.2x9.2
SENNA 16x11.10
KASHAN ...15.5x11.8
SERAPI 13x10.5

Included in this fine collection are a few 17th and 18th century rugs, such as HERATI, ISPAHAN, BIDJAR, LAVER KIRMAN, SHIRAZ, and SILK.

Besides the above there are fine SENNA, KIRMAN, SAROUK, KASHAN, BIDJAR, SULTAN-SHAH, SERAPI, TEHERAN, LILLAHAN, BOKHARA, HERIZ, BELOOCHISTANS, and numerous other weaves.

The above types of high grade merchandise are seldom offered at auction.

It is recommended that you attend the sale and profit by purchasing at your own price in spite of advancing prices.

MR. A. H. SEMONIAN, AUCTIONEER

Month End Clearance
SMALL LOTS

BOOKS CLOSED: Charges Billed April 1st

- BROKEN LOTS ... QUANTITIES LIMITED. ALL ITEMS SUBJECT TO PRIOR SALE. NO EXCHANGES; NO REFUNDS. ALL SALES FINAL.

20 Raleigh Suits; bankers' grey crashes; all wool, for Spring and Summer; sizes, regulars, 36 and 40; shorts, 37 and 38; longs, 38; stouts, 39 and 42; were $30.00 ..... $16.85
27 Pairs Trousers; practically all sizes; left-overs from suits; values to $6.00 ..... $3.35
23 Pairs Trousers; from suits; values to $10.00 ..... $4.85
23 Raleigh Suits; grey diagonals; practically all sizes; were $30.00 ..... $17.85
28 Raleigh Suits; Glen Urquhart Plaid Crashes, all-wool tans and greys; sizes, regulars, 36, 37, 38, 40 and 42; shorts, 36, 37, and 38; long, 38; for Spring and Summer; were $30.00 ..... $15.85
14 Topcoats; plain greys; sizes 37 to 42 regular; were $30 ..... $17.85
35 Topcoats; regular sizes; 35 to 42; were $30 and $35 ..... $16.85
23 Fine Gabardine Topcoats; shower-proofed to make ideal raincoat; sizes, regulars, 33 to 39; shorts, 33, 39, 40, 44; longs, 37, 38, 39, 46; stouts, 38 to 50; were $30.00 ..... $16.85

OVER 500 HART SCHAFFNER & MARX AND RALEIGH SUITS, TOPCOATS AND OVERCOATS; WERE $30 to $60
$22.75 $27.75 $32.75 $37.75

14 Hart Schaffner & Marx Tuxedos; sizes (1) 34, (2) 35, (2) 44; Shorts, (1) 44; stouts, (1) 38, (2) 40, (1) 42, (1) 46; short stouts (1) 42; (1) 44; short stout, (1) 46; were $35 and $40 ..... $16.75
1 Young Man's Tuxedo; by Hart Schaffner & Marx; size 30; was $35.00 ..... $14.75
6 Hart Schaffner & Marx Bench Made Tuxedos; sizes, regulars, (1) 34, (1) 35, (1) 36; long, (1) 39; stout, (1) 39; medium stout, (1) 44; were $50.00 and $60.00 ..... $33.75
35 Tuxedo Vests $3.65

Odds and Ends of Furnishings, Hats and Shoes Reduced Proportionately.

NOW IS THE TIME TO OPEN A CHARGE ACCOUNT

PARKING SERVICE AT OUR DOOR—JUST LEAVE YOUR CAR WITH ATTENDANT

RALEIGH HABERDASHER
1310 F STREET

Chamber Holds U. S. Striving To Thaw Credit

May Modify Securities Act or Make RFC Loans, Summary States.

(Associated Press.)

The Chamber of Commerce of the United States yesterday expressed belief the Administration is giving "first consideration" to "ideas for supplying better credit facilities for large and small industries."

Discussing ways and means to accelerate spring business, the chamber said in its "fortnightly summary:"

"Two approaches are in view: First, possible modification of the securities act to reopen the capital market for long-term loans to large business enterprises; and, second, Government participation in emergency loans to small business.

"It is sinking in, at last, that the nature and extent of the civil liabilities imposed by the securities act upon all who are parties to a new issue are such that prudent men feel they dare not proceed.

"Recognizing that even if the capital market is restored, after relaxation of the securities act, many small and medium-sized employers will be unable to float securities, consideration is being given to various forms of direct loans by Government, as for instance:

"(a) Increase in the operations of mortgage finance companies aided by the RFC.

"(b) Establishment of a regional system of industrial intermediate credit banks in association with the Federal Reserve Banks.

"(c) Permitting Federal charters to industrial finance banks with some capital provided by the RFC.

"(d) Direct participation in underwritings by the RFC."

In Congress

Senate, House Activities Summarized.

TODAY.

Senate.

Meets at noon to continue debate on proposals to liberalize veterans' compensation law.

Commerce sub-committee will hold hearings on Copeland food and drug bill.

District of Columbia Committee will hear heads of local government.

Interstate Commerce sub-committee will continue hearing on bill to amend 1933 emergency transportation act.

Finance Committee will continue hearing on Costigan sugar bill.

Banking and Currency Committee will hear advocates of 1934 securities bill.

Judiciary sub-committee in executive session will consider petitions concerning Senator Huey P. Long.

Indian Affairs Committee will hold hearing on bill (S. 2755) granting right of self-government by Indians under Federal tutelage.

House.

Will meet at noon, to resume debate on agriculture appropriation bill.

Judiciary Committee opens hearings on Johnson utilities bill.

Naval Affairs sub-committee will hear Chief of Naval Aeronautics King on plane costs.

Labor Committee will hold hearings on old-age pensions.

Interstate Commerce Committee, hearings on stock exchange regulations.

Education Committee, hearings on direct school relief to the States.

Merchant Marine Committee, hearings on seafood industry.

Coinage Committee, hearings on silver legislation.

Foreign Affairs Committee, hearings on boundary commission.

Agriculture Committee, hearings on cotton tax bill.

Banking sub-committees, hearings on money bills and amendments to RFC act.

Military Affairs Committee, routine meeting.

Rivers and Harbors Committee, routine meeting.

YESTERDAY.

Senate.

Met at noon and adjourned at 5:20 p. m.

Adopted McCarran-Steiwer amendment restoring to compensation rolls those Spanish War veterans eliminated by economy act.

Debated aspects of air-mail contract hearings.

Received message from President urging Federal Communications Commission.

Received list of minor appointments from President.

Received from Federal Trade Commission report on salaries of officers and directors of certain corporations.

Special Senate Committee investigating bankruptcy proceedings submitted report on findings of cost of such cases.

Banking and Currency sub-committee held hearing on 1934 securities act.

Black Investigating Committee resumed hearings on air-mail contracts.

Finance Committee held hearing on Costigan sugar bill.

Interstate Commerce sub-committee held hearing on bill to include sleeping-car companies with railroads under emergency transportation act.

House.

Met at noon and adjourned at 4:58 p. m.

Debated agriculture appropriation bill.

Federal Emergency Relief Administrator Harry Hopkins opposed use of relief funds for school aid, before Education Committee.

Agriculture Committee made important modifications in Bankhead cotton tax bill.

Postoffice Committee approved 2-mill-per-pound-mile rate for air mail.

Speaker Henry T. Rainey received a letter from President Roosevelt stating Mr. Roosevelt would certainly veto bonus bill if passed by Congress.

The New Dealers

—The Low Down on the Higher Ups—

Hopkins a Hard-Boiled New Dealer

Iowan Kicks Politics Out in Handling Millions for Relief.

Then He Beats Johnson Himself in Row on CWA Pay.

The identity of the author of "The New Dealers" must remain undisclosed. Publication of the material in The Washington Post does not necessarily imply editorial indorsement of his views.

By the Unofficial Observer.

IN Harry L. Hopkins, the Iowa corn field joins the Boston bean, to plough the furrow for the future. This somewhat vague metaphor must serve to introduce a far from vague man who, as Federal Relief Administrator, is the masculine equivalent of Secretary of Labor Frances Perkins and has become one of the guiding intelligences of the New Deal.

In the winter of 1933 the Relief Administration was set up, with $500,000,000 to dole out to the needy and the unemployed. Hopkins gave up a $13,500 salary for one of $8,500 and is now running, in addition to his original assignment, the Surplus Relief Corporation and the Civil Works Administration. Forty-three years old and a native of Iowa, where his father was a harness-maker, he is a hero-worshiper whose heroes are Henry Wallace and Franklin Roosevelt.

At his Canadian mother's insistence, he attended Grinnell College, at Grinnell, Iowa, where he attained a Phi Beta Kappa key and a reputation as a rough basket ball player. He majored in economics and sociology, but was about to enter rural journalism when one of his professors told him to go East. He went to New York, where he did social work with Lillian Wald, Frances Perkins, Herbert Lehman and Bob Wagner, serving on the staffs of the Association for the Improvement of the Condition of the Poor and the City Board of Child Welfare.

During the World War he was chairman of the Southern division of the Red Cross with headquarters at New Orleans, and afterward became head of the New York Tuberculosis and Health Association, in which capacity he made an incidental reputation as writer of pithy and pertinent letters to the newspapers. He also spent a winter in London and studied the municipal health service, which he admired both for its efficiency and its freedom from politics.

Connections With Politics Few and Far Between.

Hopkins' connections with politics had been few and far between. En route East to his first job, he stopped off at Chicago and watched the Republican convention at which the Taft-Roosevelt feud finally split the Republican party in 1912. Then he went to Baltimore and angled his way into a gallery seat to see Woodrow Wilson nominated. Hopkins did not know it, but one reason the gallery was so crowded and boisterous was that a young man named Franklin D. Roosevelt had packed it with Wilson supporters recruited from a friendly Baltimore ward.

Hopkins did not meet Roosevelt until 1928, when they both were working for Al Smith. When Roosevelt organized the Temporary Emergency Relief Administration for the State of New York in 1931—the first State agency of this type and the prototype of the Federal Emergency Relief Administration—he called on Hopkins to take charge of it. Roosevelt never considered anyone else but Hopkins for the Federal relief job.

Harry has taken Washington by storm, although he has offended a lot of politicians, and the Tory group are out for his scalp. He is a crank about statistics but he doesn't make them an idol. He is a man of the deepest human sympathies and one of his chief concerns is to prevent relief work from falling heir to a dull and undiscerning bureaucracy, just as he has insisted that it be kept free of political influence.

For he is one of the men who really understands the American experiment and belongs with that select group of men and women who are the New Deal. He is as close to the White House as any of them, if not closer, for he is one of "F. D. R.'s men." He is newer than Secretary Morgenthau, newer than Miss Perkins, but still one of the Roosevelt proteges.

He summarily snatched control of the CWA in Georgia out of the hands of the "Cowboy Governor," Eugene Talmadge. When Talmadge voiced the feeling of many in the South that the CWA wage-level was too high, Hopkins remarked, "Some people just can't stand seeing others make a decent living."

CWA Wage Scale Stirs Row With Johnson.

Gen. Hugh Johnson, of the NRA, also voiced the complaint about the high CWA wage scale. Hopkins met Johnson head on, and it was Johnson, not Hopkins, who backed down.

"A perfectly absurd situation!" Johnson exclaimed in his press conference of the fact that men were leaving regular jobs to go with the CWA.

"We are paying decent subsistence wages, nothing more," replied Hopkins, also in a press conference.

"Aw, that's just some more adjectives," Johnson retorted.

There was another clash, in the White House.

"Why didn't you consult me before you established your wage scales?" Johnson demanded.

"Why didn't you consult me before you approved some of your codes?" retorted Hopkins.

A few days later, Johnson made his peace with the pugnacious Iowan.

Hopkins, who knows the social service game from the ground up, does not believe in the dole for men and women who are able to work. He draws a clear line between the weak or incapacitated and other groups for which private charity must care if the public institutions do not, and the victims of the depression. For the latter he believes in work relief—real work, and not just "made work"—and he believes in relieving the artist and "white collar worker" as well as the horny-handed sons of toil. The audacious Civil Works Administration program was his own idea and one must admit that there was imagination and grandeur in the idea of the Government putting 4,000,000 people to work at real wages on useful projects.

In some of its implications, the CWA was the most revolutionary undertaking of the Roosevelt Administration. It was a recognition of the duty of the State to provide useful employment—not just a grudging subsistence dole—for all who are willing and able to work. Hopkins himself works like a beaver and is heart and soul in the New Deal. If he doesn't kill himself from overwork, and if the political duck-hunters don't wing him, he will go a long way. He permits no political interference with relief and threatened to deprive several cities of their relief funds and CWA allotments because local Democratic leaders tried to handle it on a patronage basis.

Hopkins Leads in Ranks Of New Deal Efficiency.

Give the Roosevelt Administration a dozen Hopkinses and a few more years and you will see them establish a new standard of efficiency in public service, a standard comparable to the prewar German public service or to the British Civil Service at its best in integrity and immunity to political influence.

Hopkins is the man who is making practical use of the paradox of a huge surplus in the presence of poverty. As head of the Surplus Relief Corporation he has been buying part of the surplus to "supplement" the food of those who are on relief instead of public works. He knows that there is no reason for anyone who is willing to work to lack at least a decent subsistence in this land of plenty and that the only obstacles to their satisfaction are the faults in our economic mechanism and the pig-headed resistance of the Tories to all efforts to correct those faults.

Always direct in his language, Hopkins probably uses "lousy" more often than any one else in the Administration. He is a pretty good phrase-maker and bawler-out, though not so picturesque as Johnson. His bite is much worse than his bark, however, whereas Johnson barks loudly but is reluctant to take even a small nip at his adversaries. In Hopkins the fire of social justice burns intensely, but not foolishly. He is a shrewd fellow, but too loyal to his ideals to compromise in matters of principle, and as many governors and politicians know he is a "tar-baby" in a fight. If the New Deal achieves the conquest of poverty through the conquest of unemployment, Harry Hopkins will be one of the men who did the most to make possible the final victory.

Balancing the team of Perkins and Hopkins is a human keystone in the form of a Pennsylvania Dutchman with a sense of humor, who answers to the name of Harold L. Ickes. It is small wonder that he gets along so well with Roosevelt, who has a thick Dutch strain of his own, and, like Ickes, a good sense of humor.

Ickes also came into the New Deal by the long, long trail of reform politics. Born in Blair County, Pa., 60 years ago, he went to the University of Chicago, where he graduated in 1897 and which gave him a J. D. cum laude in 1907, after 10 years of newspaper work and reform politics in Chicago. Then he hung out his legal shingle, but it was as a reformer rather than an attorney that he made his reputation.

As a reformer, Ickes backed political push-overs most of his life. He managed the losing mayoralty campaigns of John M. Harlan in 1905 and of Charles E. Merriam in 1911. From 1912 to 1914, he was the "Bull Moose" chairman for Cook County; during the next two years he was chairman of the Bull Moose organization for the State of Illinois, and was a member of the National executive committee of the Progressive party.

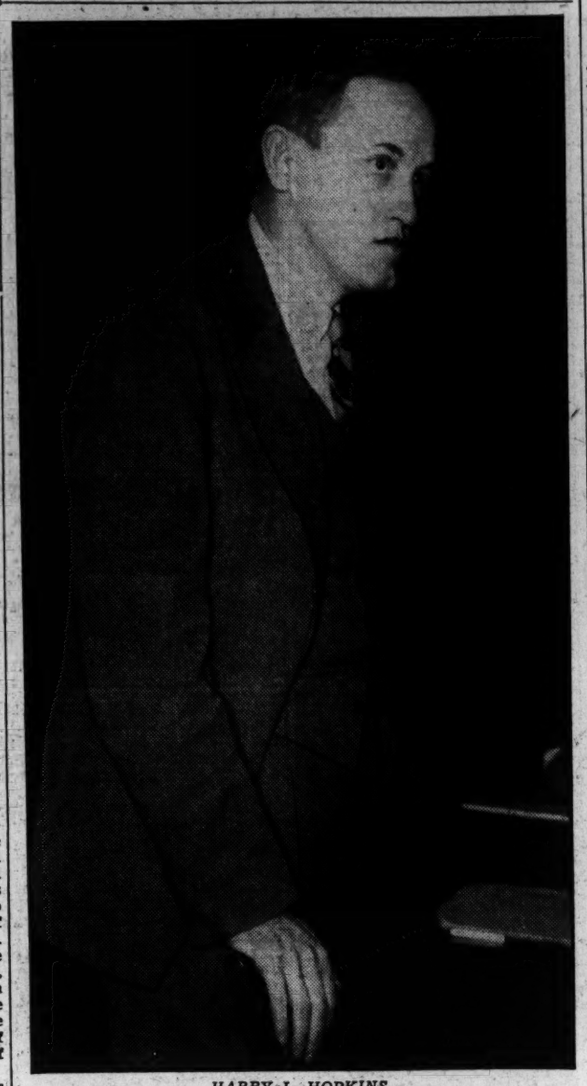
Then he followed his leader, Theodore Roosevelt, back into the Republican ranks in 1916 in time to support Hughes in his losing fight for the Presidency. It was Ickes's last desertion but not his last defeat.

In 1920 and 1924, he managed the campaigns of Hiram Johnson for the Republican nomination to the Presidency, and in 1924 got behind the elder La Follette's bid for a third-party Presidential success. In 1926, Ickes managed the campaign of Hugh S. McGill, defeated independent-Republican candidate for the Senate. In between times, Ickes fought machine politics and graft in Chicago; he fought Yerkes and Insull in the utilities battle; he was active in the National conservation movement and a member of the Government Planning Association.

Finally, he left the Republican party, bolting to Smith in 1928 and to Roosevelt in 1932. His first political success came with the election of Tony Cermak for Mayor of Chicago in 1930. Roosevelt was his second, after 40 years of struggle in the political arena on behalf of reform and progressive policies.

(Copyright, 1934, Simon & Schuster, Inc.)

Tomorrow—How Harold L. Ickes Won Place in Roosevelt's Cabinet.



HARRY L. HOPKINS, masculine equivalent of Secretary Perkins and one of the guiding intelligencias of the New Deal.

"Money Trust" Called Menace By Untermyer

Cites "Despotic Monopoly" in Urging Complete Banking Revision.

Pasadena, Calif., Feb. 26 (AP).—The "money trust" still exists, Samuel Untermyer, New York lawyer and financial expert, charged in a speech here tonight.

Untermyer expressed fear that the "trust," which he described as now dormant, will gain new power through the NRA. To prevent this, he urged that stock exchanges and clearing house associations be regulated by law—as he urged in 1912—and suggested the present banking system be abandoned and Government banking be substituted through postal banks and the Federal Reserve system.

As to whether the financial interests' power will be "resumed in more propitious times" than now, Untermyer said the "answer depends largely upon whether the people will make hay while the sun shines."

He praised the National industrial recovery act as "the noble experiment of a practical idealist primarily to improve the social status of the worker."

He added that the law "will inevitably give a new lease of life and added power to the money trust."

Untermyer said the investigation of the banking committee at Washington "has barely scratched the surface of the nest of corruption."

"The Clearing House Association of New York, made up as it is of all the leading banks and trust companies of that city, that hold the deposits of banks and trust companies throughout the country, is perhaps the most powerful rock-ribbed, despotic monopoly of its kind on the face of the earth," he declared.

"Yet the great institution, second only to the stock exchange in its influence in the world of finance, still remains beyond Government regulation of control."

Roosevelt Family Split on Child Labor

First Lady and James on Opposite Sides.

The reasons animating the stand against the passage of the child labor amendment in Massachusetts taken by James Roosevelt, eldest son of the President, have failed to "convert" his mother, Mrs. Roosevelt told newspaper women at her press conference yesterday.

"James gave me the reasons for his stand," she said, "but they did not satisfy me. Neither of us appears to have converted the other in this matter."

For many years Mrs. Roosevelt has advocated the abolition of child labor in the States and given the pending amendment all possible support. On learning of James Roosevelt's opposition to the passage of the amendment in Massachusetts, Mrs. Roosevelt wrote immediately to her son, asking why he had taken a stand against it.

New Pursuit Plane Delivered to Army

Latest Model Ship to Be Tested at Dayton Field.

A new pursuit plane has been delivered to the Army Air Corps, Dayton Field, Ohio, by the Boeing Airplane Co. for performance tests, it was announced yesterday by the War Department.

This stream-lined, all-metal, low-wing monoplane has an inclosed cockpit and retractable landing gear, being the first plane of the pursuit type to possess both of these features.

The plane is also equipped for installation of radio receiver and transmitter.

Milk and Bread Price Inquiry Report Today

The Senate District Committee at 10 o'clock this morning will hear reports from its subcommittees regarding the milk and bread inquiries and may take some action. District Commissioners have been invited to attend the meeting. Several pending bills may be acted upon.

Wrangling Delays Dean Death Trial

Jurors Hint They're Tiring Prolonged Case.

Greenwood, Miss., Feb. 26 (AP). Entering its fifth week today, the murder trial of Dr. Sarah Ruth Dean, charged with the poison whisky highball murder of Dr. John Preston Kennedy, moved at a snail's pace as attorneys consumed most of the session in wrangling over hypothetical questions put to physician-witnesses by the defense.

The jury, which has intimated to Judge S. F. Davis that it is getting weary of the prolonged trial, spent much of the day locked up in its quarters.

Much of the debate today hinged on the defense attack of the State story that Dr. Kennedy, ill for five days as a result of a lethal dose of mercury, and seeking to hide his condition, performed an operation on a friend before his collapse.

Dartmouth Sends Eight Dead Home

Ninth Gas Victim Awaits Father's Arrival.

Hanover, N. H., Feb. 26 (AP).—Dartmouth tonight bade mournful farewell to eight of her nine sons to whom death from carbon monoxide poisoning came while they slept in their fraternity house Sunday.

The bodies of the eight were sent to their homes; that of the ninth youth, Edward H. Wentworth, of Chicago, remaining in a mortuary here, awaiting the arrival of his father, William M. Wentworth, meat packing executive. Mr. Wentworth was en route by train and airplane from Los Angeles.

College authorities advised against parents coming here, both because of traveling conditions and because of the additional shock certain to be experienced.

Steel Industry Gains.

New York, Feb. 26 (AP).—The American Iron & Steel Institute today reported current steel operations at 45.7 per cent of capacity compared with 43.6 per cent a week ago. The present rate compares with a low of 25.2 per cent on November 6.

JULIUS GARFINCKEL & Co.
F STREET AT FOURTEENTH

A SALE OF EXTRAORDINARY HUDSON SEAL COATS
(dyed muskrat)

You've never seen anything more beautiful than these deep, heavily furred pelts, and these coats were made in our own work room on the premises from the latest French models which we know will be worn next Winter.

They are vastly superior to factory-made coats as our furriers are the best and every skin was carefully selected.

THE VALUES ARE VERY UNUSUAL
IT IS A GREAT OPPORTUNITY . . .
TAKE ADVANTAGE OF IT AT ONCE.

BEAUTIFUL enough for the finest appointed table—reasonable enough in price to be afforded by the limited budget.

STIEFF "ROSE"
that highly favored pattern of
STIEFF STERLING SILVER

Is of ample weight and will give lasting satisfaction in constant daily use. Start or fill in your set at present low prices.

Prices for Sets of Six

Tea Spoons, Trade	$6.00	Table Spoons	$18.00
Tea Spoons, Medium	7.50	Soup Spoons	15.00
Tea Spoons, heavy	9.00	Cream Soup Spoons	12.00
Dessert Spoons	13.50	Medium Forks	15.00
		Medium Knives	15.00

B. Harris & Co.
F St. at 11th — Phone DIstrict 0916
Jewelers and Diamond Merchants for More than Half a Century

Final Week of the
FEBRUARY SALE OF LIFETIME FURNITURE
Participate in the Savings Today

Exceptionally Good Values in BEDROOM SUITES
Of the Finer Qualities

Those who want a really fine Bedroom Suite at a "bargain" price will find much to interest them during these last few sale days at Mayer & Co. A suggestive few of the many exquisitely styled suites are priced below. There are many others.

Twin Bed Suite of fine Grand Rapids make; an enamel decorated suite with 8 pieces; gilded mouldings and hand-painting $355

Mahogany Bedroom Suite with full size bed; 6 pieces of fine Grand Rapids make; hanging mirrors over dresser and vanity $269

Sheraton type Bedroom Suite in mahogany; a Grand Rapids design hanging mirrors over dresser and vanity; four pieces $279

Twin Bed Suite in charming Stuart oak; 8 pieces with hanging mirrors and exquisite carving; fine construction $293

Six-piece Bedroom Suite in choice woods of the lighter moods; double bed; hanging dresser and vanity mirrors $235

Finely made Bedroom Suite of walnut; 8 pieces with twin beds; a contemporary design originally $1,300. Now $495

Of Course We Have Others Less Costly
MAYER & CO.
Seventh Street — Between D and E

BIG! RED! JUICY!
Florida's finest
TASTE THEM IN
Breyers FRESH STRAWBERRY ICE CREAM
Taste Breyers • THE WORLD'S LARGEST-SELLING ICE CREAM

An Intimate Close-Up of a Visiting Star of the Screen—Mr. Murray Moves In

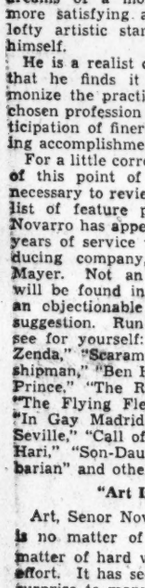
Senor Novarro Young Idealist Of the Cinema

Film Record Without Blot; Jimmie Lake, Producer; About Showshops.

Reprinted from Yesterday's Last Edition.

By Nelson B. Bell.

If there were a few more stars in Hollywood with Ramon Novarro's keen artistic perception, substantial cultural background and indefatigable adherence to a definite and exalted idealism, the cinema would be going places even more rapidly and more surely than it is in this day of its worthiest and most notable achievement.



Ramon Novarro

This is the conclusion even a casual observer must reach after an evening in the company of the young star who is currently making box-office history at Loew's Fox Theater, where he is fulfilling a week's engagement of personal appearances, the first he has ever made in the Capital.

For, perhaps in greater degree than any other star of the screen who ever has come to a local stage, Ramon Novarro creates an immediate impression of earnestness, high idealism and unimpeachable artistic integrity. There is no guess work about the direction of his ambition; no compromise with mediocrity and no reliance upon the past as a guarantee of an equally distinguished and successful future.

Aspires to New Heights.

Although a visionary and acutely sensitive young artist, his feet are firmly planted on the solid ground. Visionary, I say, because his gaze always is on the stars and his dreams of a more complete and more satisfying attainment of the lofty artistic standard he has set himself.

He is a realist only to the extent that he finds it possible to harmonize the practical pursuit of his chosen profession with an eager anticipation of finer and more enduring accomplishment.

For a little corroborative evidence of this point of view, it is only necessary to review briefly the long list of feature pictures in which Novarro has appeared during his 12 years of service with a single producing company, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer. Not an unworthy theme will be found in any of them, not an objectionable line, situation or suggestion. Run over the list and see for yourself: "The Prisoner of Zenda," "Scaramouche," "The Midshipman," "Ben Hur," "The Student Prince," "The Road to Romance," "The Flying Fleet," "The Pagan," "In Gay Madrid," "The Singer of Seville," "Call of the Flesh," "Mata Hari," "Son-Daughter," "The Barbarian" and others of like ilk.

"Art Is Long."

Art, Senor Novarro will tell you, is no matter of accident. It is a matter of hard work and sustained effort. It has seemed to come as a surprise to many that his ambition and much of his latter-day effort has been along the way of musical achievement. Yet this is not strange. Since he was 6 years of age, Novarro has dedicated much of his time to the study of music and before entering pictures taught it for a number of years in his native Mexico.

In his home in Hollywood he maintains a fully equipped miniature theater which he operates with all of the minute detail of a commercial playhouse, despite the fact that it will seat only 60 and is conducted exclusively for his own pleasure and the entertainment of guests in his home.

It is here that he perfects the concert numbers which comprise his programs on such tours as the one he now has in prospect. At the conclusion of his Washington engagement, Mr. Novarro will return directly to the Coast preparatory to launching a concert tour that will include principal cities in Mexico and South America and then proceed to Europe, where he is already a prime favorite.

Sings in Many Tongues.

Asked if he confined his offerings to the native tongue of the country in which he happened to be singing—he sings in English, French, Spanish, Italian and I don't know how many other languages—he replied emphatically in the negative.

"Especially in the matter of music," he said, "I find urban audiences in any country conspicuously cosmopolitan. A varied program of songs in as many languages as I am able to include in my repertoire is received with the same matter-of-factness in Rio, Buenos Aires or Berlin as it is here in Washington.

"In the strictly concert programs I present on these tours, I do not, of course, rely wholly upon my own individual capabilities. I carry my own orchestra, perhaps an assisting instrumental soloist and do all of my more pretentious numbers in appropriate costume, after the manner of real song stories or lyrical narratives."

"Then does this proposed tour mean that you have indefinitely abandoned picture making?" was asked.

Away For Six Months.

"Not indefinitely, no, but at least for six months. That is one principle to which I attribute my survival on the screen for so long, and with one producing company, at that. Two pictures a year are enough and do not create the immediate danger of wearing out one's welcome. I have always made it a fixed policy not to make too many pictures. My two for this year are done—'The Cat and the Fiddle,' which, by the way, I haven't seen myself yet, and 'Laughing Boy.' So, I am away on another tour."

Whether or not Novarro will return to M-G-M after the conclusion of his impending swing around a circle of rather formidable mileage is a matter in which he will not commit himself.

In every manifestation of that sly and subtle humor, wistfulness and bashful diffidence, amounting almost to naivete, that characterizes his screen performance, Novarro is engagingly the same off the screen as on.

His is the charm of a refined and cultured gentleman whose punctilious decorum is second nature and not an annoying pose. He is an artist to his fingertips, but not above entertaining those about him with song after song, in which he accompanies himself easily and gracefully—as he did for example, to the huge delight of the fortunate company of guests assembled by Mr. Edward de S. Melcher to meet him last Friday night at one of the season's most successful routs.

Stalwart Physique.

Only in the matter of physical dimensions does the camera seem to do tricks with the Novarro image. To these eyes he seemed not quite so tall and a little more robust than had been expected.

Not fat, I don't mean that. But Mr. Novarro is no slender reed, withal his slender waist and trim figure. I should guess him, from having stood close beside him and knowing my own height and heft, to be about 5 feet 9 or 9½ inches tall and somewhere between 180 and 190 pounds in weight. A fine figure of a man and as handsome, at least, as the cameras make him out.

That is answer enough for the crowds that are fighting their way into Loew's Fox, blizzard or no blizzard, to see him.

The screen could do with a few more like him.

It is emphasized by the management, while we are on the subject, that to accommodate the overflow crowds being attracted to the Fox at evry performance, doors will be thrown open to the public this morning at 10:15 o'clock, with the first projection of the feature, "The Cat and the Fiddle," in which Mr. Novarro is costarred with Jeanette MacDonald, at 10:30. "The Cat and the Fiddle" is one of the loveliest of the operettas that have found their way to the screen.

Ken Murray, Entrepreneur.

One of the most important bits of news that came out of the weekend is the announcement that Ken Murray, stage, radio and picture star, who last week headlined the vaudeville bill at the Earl Theater, beginning March 1 will be in complete charge of the floor shows at Walter Von Herbulis' Club Michel, No. 1 Thomas Circle.

Mr. Murray, it is understood, will star in the first big show put on under his direction with the same supporting artists as comprised his act at the Earle. This, of course, includes Helen and Milton Charleston and the cadaverous dancer with the whalebone skeleton. But that isn't all.

Sensing that with the legalization of what it takes to put night clubs over there will be a great surge of patronage toward the night spots that offer the greatest diversion to the eye and ear as well as the gastronomical senses, Mr. Murray plans to import large coteries of stars and coryphees direct from the brightest haunts of Broadway. The idea is to make the Michel something like the Paradise, or the Hollywood, or Billy Rose's Casino de Paree, or something.

Well, if that's the idea, Ken Murray has a pretty good start with Ken Murray!

It was a phonograph record that started Mildred Bailey, radio's "Rockin' Chair Lady," currently headlining the vaudeville bill at the Earle, on her career. This is how come. Mildred's brother, Al Rinker—one of the Three Rhythm Kings in her present act—was a member of Paul Whiteman's Old Gold Orchestra when Mildred was touring the West Coast Theaters with a Fanchon & Marco unit. Al had so much confidence in his sister's ability that he had her make a couple of records which he gave to Whiteman to try over. This was not the quickest procedure in the world, but in time Mildred was called in to audition for a sponsor. The rest you know. She was an overnight hit on the air.

Col. Jimmie Produces.

It is not one of the Wilner Wonder Wheel shows in which Bozo Snyder returns to the burlesque stage at the Gayety this week, although nothing to the contrary has been announced. That would be due to the innate modesty of that Chesterfieldian impresario of Ninth street, Old Col. Jimmie Lake, himself!

Col. Jimmie, in partnership with one Hirst, under the firm name of Hirst and Lake, are building productions designed to travel a short circuit of four houses, of which, to the best of this column's knowledge, "Bozo Snyder and His Bon-Ton Girls" is the first.

It is the plan to rotate the shows, with brief layoffs between productions for the respective groups of principals. In this way the same casts will not be seen in any given city oftener than about once every eight weeks.

This should not be confused with Master Lake's earlier "stock" company of burlesquers. There is no "stock" about the new scheme. On the contrary, it promises "new faces, new features and new settings" each week. One need only read Mr. Whitney in today's Post to arrive at some concrete notion of the success of the venture.

Congratulations, Colonel, on socking the buskin so successfully the first time out.

Reverting briefly to Ramon Novarro, he was a guest at the Embassy of his native Mexico on Saturday afternoon. A pleasant time was had by all, dunking dulces in the champagne. So pleasant, in fact, that the entire Embassy staff plans to repay the call backstage at the Fox some afternoon this week.

Appreciation Note.

That was certainly some groundhog that saw his shadow back there in February!

British Blonde Helps End Search!

When Paramount's production of "The Search for Beauty" comes to the screen at Warner Brothers' Metropolitan on Friday, its quest will be at least partially fulfilled by the presence in the cast of Ida Lupino, vivacious young daughter of a famous English theatrical family. Of Miss Lupino's pulchritude, you may guess for yourself. She is cast opposite Larry ("Buster") Crabbe, Olympic swim star—a sort of handsome young fellow on his own account!

Gayety

"'BOZO' SNYDER AND HIS BON-BON GIRLS." Hirst-Lake production in two acts, starring "Bozo" Snyder and Betty DuVal, with Marjorie Lee, the Carroll Sisters, Sally Van, Evelyn Morgan, Eddie Fox, Ralph Walton, Lew Petel, Joe Forte, Fred Bishop and Jim Burns. Staged under the direction of Lew Petel and Frankie Bryant. Reviewed Sunday matinee by W. A. Whitney.

An event extraordinary was celebrated yesterday at the Gayety when "Bozo" Snyder came to town, his first visit in nearly a decade. In the old days of the Columbia wheel, the name of Bozo ranked ace high. That he still holds a firm grip on all the tricks of the burlesque trade was more than amply testified by the volume and the sincerity of the applause which greeted his several pantomine efforts at yesterday's first performance.

Bozo is back. And now we come to the realization that in the previous array of comics—even the better than good ones—we just hadn't seen nothin'! With the assistance of Joe Forte, as the stooge, Bozo clowns his way through the most hilariously funny series of skits and blackouts ever seen on the Gayety stage. That is a strong statement, but we challenge any one to produce any other comic whose efforts have been so skillfully contrived.

In Charlie Fox and Ralph Walton, the other comics, there is enough farcial diversity to suit the most jaded taste. Lew Petel, as the other straight man, does his usually commendable job.

It is a girl show, too; although, if the truth be told, the ladies are somewhat outclassed by the gentlemen of the company. That, however, does not prevent Betty DuVal, in the star spot, and Marjorie Lee, the lead-off specialist, from upholding the honor of burlesque and giving the boys in the stalls more than their money's worth.

To the Carroll sisters—Joan and Jean—must go credit for stopping the show with their sizzling, sensational display of grace and form. Indeed, it looked for a time as if the theater would have to be cleared to restore the performance to any sort of orderly continuity. Not before this season has there been anything like it.

To Evelyn Morgan and Fred Bishop falls the duty of furnishing the independent warbling for the show. With many of the selections embellished by the addition of the ballet, little fault could be found with this aspect of the performance. Jim Burns did a little singing, too, but more, and better, tap dancing.

3 Men Indicted At Frederick In 2 Slayings

Alleged Killer of Woman Boarding House Keeper Gets Charge.

Frederick Md., Feb. 26 (Spl.).—Following indictments, charges of murder were entered in the circuit court today against George F. Schultz, 61, former special investigator for the State Health Department, Baltimore, and Luther Jackson and Glenn Cline, near Wolfsville.

Schultz is charged with killing Mrs. Bessie C. Darling, keeper of a summer boarding house at Deerfield a mountain village, last October 31. Jackson and Cline are charged with stabbing to death Gilbert Dorsey during a fight at Cline's home, November 28. State's Attorney Walter E. Sinn indicated that first degree murder will be charged in the cases of Schultz and Jackson.

Schultz, who shot himself after the slaying of Mrs. Darling, has been in jail since the shooting. He was found in a hallway outside Mrs. Darling's room by officers with a bullet in his chest. He admits the shooting but contends that the woman first threatened to shoot him. A pistol was found by the side of Mrs. Darling. The only eyewitness was Miss Mazie Willard, a hotel maid.

Jackson was arrested immediately after the fatal stabbing of Dorsey and later was released on $5,000 bail. Following the indictment Saturday, Cline was arrested. At a preliminary hearing Jackson sought to place the blame on Cline. Dorsey, in a statement before he died, named Jackson as the man who stabbed him.

Gilbert, Cline, Jackson and Albert Brandenburg met at Cline's home and after a drinking party the men became involved in a brawl. Cline died from stab wounds and Brandenburg was slightly cut.

Minstrel Dates In Stafford Set

Welfare Program Begins March 7 at New Hope.

Stafford Courthouse, Va., Feb. 26 (Spl.).—The minstrel show of the Stafford County Public Health and Welfare Association will be held March 7 at New Hope School, March 8 at Stafford High School and March 9 at Falmouth High School.

Mrs. Irvin Guthmann is director of the affair. The cast includes Webb Midyette, Nymat Sacrey, Dick Chinn, Leiut. Tom Schuler, Irvin Guthermann, W. T. Dent, Charles Smith, Lewis Moncure, Buddy Moncure, and Sergeant Zalanka, of Quantico, assisted by Mrs. K. S. Tolson, Mrs. E. L. C. Derrick, Mrs. John Moncure, Mrs. Fred Blackburn, Mrs. Hosea Heflin and the Misses Silver, with Mrs. Nymat Sacrey as accompanist.

Specialty numbers will include a dance by pupils of Mrs. Clarke Venable, string music by the three Carrington brothers, of Hartford; a skit by Mrs. K. S. Tolson and a harmonica by Mrs. Hosea Heflin, of Ruby, a gold medal winner for harmonica.

Roanoke Survey Of Crime Started

Bar to Examine Municipal Law Enforcement.

Roanoke, Va., Feb. 26 (Spl.).—The Roanoke Bar Association has appointed committees to investigate crime conditions and law enforcement here and to ascertain public opinion on appointment of State judges.

The move is in connection with the national program undertaken by the American Bar Association, and is not prompted by any indication of inefficiency or malfeasance here, it was explained by T. X. Parsons, president of the Roanoke Bar Association.

Paul C. Buford is chairman of the committee, and the other members are Lawson Worrell and Morris Masinter. A committee also has been named to make a survey of unauthorized practice of law, and to determine if there are lawyers who give unethical assistance to criminals. Whitwell W. Coxe is chairman, and other members are Horace M. Fox and E. W. Poindexter.

Abingdon Legion Wins Over Bristol

Bristol, Va., Feb. 26 (Spl.).—Abingdon's American Legion Post defeated the James C. Brewer Post, of Bristol, in the membership contest. Both posts attained the largest enrollment in their history.

Abingdon members increased from 106 to 241, a gain of 135, and the James C. Brewer Post from 91, for 1933, to 191, a gain of 100. The combined membership of the two posts today totals 432, more than one-third the total memebrship of the 27 posts in the Ninth District for 1933.

As a result, the Bristolians will give the Abingdon members a feed on a large scale at the Elks Club Thursday at 7:30 p. m.

3,000 Veterans' Cases Will Be Reviewed

Charleston, W. Va., Feb. 26 (Spl.).—Approximately 3,000 cases involving disability claims of West Virginia World War veterans are to be reviewed at once, according to notice by H. G. Crooks, in charge of the State Bureau of Veterans' Administration here.

Work has already been started, Crooks said, and several months will be required to complete it.

Williamsburg Restoration's Advance Pleases Rockefeller

Backer Inspects Projects of Colonial Work in Old Capital.

Williamsburg, Va., Feb. 26 (AP).—John D. Rockefeller, jr., has returned to New York after participating in the opening of the reconstructed Colonial Capitol here as a guest of the General Assembly of Virginia, which held a joint session here Saturday.

He was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. John D. Rockefeller 3d and David Rockefeller.

Mr. Rockefeller was pleased with the progress of the restoration program since his visit here last year, officials announced. Noting in particular the work now under way to complete the Palace of the Royal Governors and the utilities program.

The latter calls for the underground of wires along Duke of Gloucester street and resurfacing this historic thoroughfare to harmonize with its colonial surroundings.

In the course of his inspection, Mr. Rockefeller observed the bypass highway north of the city, under construction by the State Highway Commission.

He expressed the hope that he would be able to return during the spring, after the palace is open to the public.

Girl's Clothes Fired, Mother Faints at Sight

Frederick, Md., Feb. 26 (Spl.).—Mary Routzahn, 9, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles O. Routzahn, was severely burned when her clothing caught fire from a candle last night while the child, with several young friends, was playing upstairs.

Seeing the child's clothing in flames, Mrs. Routzahn fainted. The child will recover.

Staunton Holds Red Cross Talk

5 Counties and 4 Cities Represented at Area Parley.

Staunton, Va., Feb. 26 (Spl.).—Five counties, four cities and three schools were represented here at a week-end Junior Red Cross conference. The Augusta County chapter, of which C. Franklin Williamson is chairman, was host.

From Washington were present John L. Teets, field representative of the American Red Cross, and Mrs. Alice Ingersoll Thornton, head of the National Junior Red Cross headquarters.

Both spoke, as did Miss Rose McDonald, a member of the State rural school curricula committee, of Clarke County; Superintendent Coster of Alleghany County Schools, who reported a Junior enrollment of 2,000 members of his county; Mrs. Hicks, of the Winchester and Frederick County chapter, and Mrs. Culton, of the faculty of the Virginia School for the Deaf and the Blind.

Augusta, Clarke, Alleghany, Rockbridge, and Rockingham were represented at the conference, also the cities of Staunton, Harrisonburg, Covington, and Winchester; the Virginia School for the Deaf and the Blind, the Handley School of Winchester, and Stuart Hall here.

Combined School Group Will Meet

New River District Session at Salem April 13.

Roanoke, Va., Feb. 26 (Spl.).—Parent-Teacher Association representatives here plan to attend the first meeting of the New River District combined P.-T. A.-Cooperative Education Association, which will be held at the Andrew Lewis High School in Salem April 13. The meeting will be simultaneous with the Junior League district meeting.

Delegates to both meetings are expected from Roanoke and Roanoke County, Giles, Montgomery, Pulaski, Floyd, Carroll, Craig, Grayson and Franklin Counties.

J. H. Montgomery is arranging for the meeting of the adult group. Miss Freda Koontz, Junior League director, has charge of the program. arrangements at Salem are in charge of Mrs. Virginia P. Lawrence.

Roanoke Dinner Awaits Gen. Butler

Gen. Lejeune May Attend Affair Friday.

Roanoke, Va., Feb. 26 (Spl.).—Maj. Gen. John A. Lejeune, superintendent of the Virginia Military Academy at Lexington, may be a guest at a dinner here Friday, in honor of Maj. Gen. Smedley D. Butler, retired Marine commander.

Gen. Lejeune wrote Capt. Carlton Penn, member of the committee on arrangements, that he hoped to be present.

Gen. Butler will speak here under auspices of Blue Ridge Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars. His subject will be "There Will Be War in the Far East."

Thieving Bank Employe Sentenced to 15 Years

Wheeling, W. Va., Feb. 26 (Spl.).—Pleading guilty to embezzlement of three Liberty bonds from the Dollar Savings & Trust Co. here, by which he was formerly employed, Ralph Glaser, 23, of Birch Lynn, has been sentenced by Judge John S. Ritz, of Ohio County intermediate court, to 15 years in the penitentiary.

Of 22 other indictments resting against him, 19 charge embezzlement, two falsifying accounts and one forgery.

—Bob 8V—CONTEST

Temporary Truck Code Board.

Clarksburg, W. Va., Feb. 26 (Spl.).—Adoption of a temporary State authority for the trucking code to serve until a permanent board is elected has been announced by directors of the West Virginia Motor Truck Association. It will be effective from February 24.

Mercury Rise Melts Snow.

Hagerstown, Md., Feb. 26 (Spl.).—A sudden rise in the temperature today caused a 6-inch snow to melt and prevented further drifting. Some rural roads were drifted shut earlier in the day, but main arteries were kept open.

Sales Tax Plan Hit by Labor

West Virginia Federation Denounces Proposal as Unjust.

Weston, W. Va., Feb. 26 (Spl.).—Delegate Rush D. Holt (Democrat), Lewis, special utilities committee chairman, has received a letter from John B. Easton, of Williamstown, president of the West Virginia State Federation of Labor, registering the federation's opposition to a consumer's sales tax.

The federation, Easton stated, would consider "passage of such a measure a direct insult." Such a tax, it also was said, would be inequitable "because it falls heaviest upon those least able to bear it."

Easton cited Federal relief figures allegedly showing that about 66 per cent of the families in West Virginia are in "dire circumstances," and declared the consumers' tax would impose additional burdens on them.

Gov. Kump has suggested the tax, with food stuffs and other necessities eliminated, as one means of raising needed revenues. Bills have already been introduced in the Legislature.

Van A. Bittner, international representative in West Virginia for the United Mine Workers of America, has also voiced opposition to a consumers' sales tax, suggesting instead an excise tax on gas and oil.

Library to Make Copy Of Old Ashland Paper

Ashland, Va., Feb. 26 (Spl.).—A copy of the first issue of the Ashland News, published August 1, 1876, by B. J. Pleasants & Co., has been lent by Miss Lily Rice to Lester J. Cappon, archivist of the University of Virginia library, who will make a photostat copy for the library.

New Market Sees Fete Plan Menaced

Fund Shortage May Block Battle Replica.

New Market, Va., Feb. 26 (Spl.).—Plans for observing the seventieth anniversary of the Battle of New Market next May 15 are not moving forward because of financial difficulties, the committee admits.

Officials had hoped to bring the cadets of the Virginia Military Institute and other military schools of the Valley here for a reenactment of the battle. It is now said that unless financial backing becomes available the celebration which has been observed for 69 years will not be staged this year.

A mass meeting of citizens will be called soon in a final effort to secure funds.

Million Dogwood Trees by 1935, Goal

Virginia Club to Award Cup to Winning Organization.

Charlottesville, Va., Feb. 26 (Spl.).—Mrs. Allan Perkins, chairman of the dogwood planting committee of the Garden Club of Virginia, today announced a cup would be presented May 10 at Charlottesville to the organization in Virginia planting the most dogwood before that date.

More than 100,000 dogwood trees have been planted in Virginia as a result of the Garden Club campaign, according to figures compiled by the Virginia State Chamber of Commerce. The Garden Club of Virginia, however, has set its goal for 1,000,000 dogwood trees by 1935.

2 Men Get Life, Third 21 Years, for Murder

Bristol, Va., Feb. 26 (Spl.).—Life imprisonment for two young men and a 21-year sentence for a third was ordered in Carter County, Tenn., Circuit Court in the trial growing out of the killing of Constable John Arnett three months ago in a Roan Mountain church.

Howard Arnett and Dayton Arnett, both about 21 years old, were each sentenced to life. Robert Julian, 18, escaped with a 21-year sentence.

W. and L. Alumni Plan Appalachian Reunion

Bristol, Va., Feb. 26 (Spl.).—Washington and Lee University alumni from east Tennessee and southwest Virginia will meet here Friday night for a reunion of the Appalachian Alumni Association, and to hear an address by Dean Robert H. Tucker.

A dance will follow the address.

Augusta County Farmers Aided By Cooperation

Bureau Sets Record for Efficiency and Low Operating Cost.

[The sixth of a series of stories on the cooperative farm organizations of Virginia.]

Staunton, Va., Feb. 26 (Spl.).—A remarkable record for rendering efficient cooperative purchasing and marketing service for its members at minimum cost is that of the Augusta Cooperative Farm Bureau.

This farm bureau is one of the most efficiently operated cooperative purchasing organizations in Virginia, even though it is only in its fifth year of operation. Its annual operating expenses have never exceeded 4 per cent of the volume of business and for four years have averaged close to 3 per cent.

This compares very favorably with the average operating expenses of some 40 retail purchasing associations which in 1930 averaged approximately 7 per cent of the volume of sales, according to a study by the Virginia Agricultural Experiment Station. The operating margin of the average country store generally averages between 10 per cent and 15 per cent of the value of sales, other studies have shown.

Farmers Won Over.

Efficient service at this low cost has appealed to the farmers of Augusta County and they have joined the Farm Bureau in increasing numbers. When the cooperative opened its first small warehouse in Weyers Cave in the summer of 1929, the membership totaled 225. The number of members now is near 600, and still growing. The members loyally support the cooperative with their patronage so that the volume of business has more than doubled since 1929-30, in spite of the drastic drop in prices. The business during the last fiscal year amounted to $134,215. The bureau deals with members only.

As the membership and business have grown, several additions have had to be made to the original small building at Weyers Cave. The latest is a three-story mill building, nearing completion, which will house a corn sheller, feed grinder and feed mixer. This will enable the cooperative to shell corn brought in by members, grind it into meal and mix it with other ground grains and protein concentrates to provide dairy and poultry feed. The members will thus be assured a year-round market for their corn, wheat and other grains, as well as feed at minimum cost.

Staunton Area Gains Rapidly.

In 1932, the membership of the Farm Bureau in the Staunton district of the county expanded so rapidly that it was necessary to erect a three-story modern warehouse 40 by 120 feet. This is on the main highway convenient for the members and is on the railroad siding. Ever since it was opened in November, 1932, this building has been used almost to capacity. It also is headquarters of the organization.

The Augusta Cooperative Farm Bureau operates on strictly cooperative principles. The annual dues of $6 are placed in the capital fund to be used to finance the business. The earnings at the end of the year, after paying the operating expenses and setting aside a reserve fund, are refunded to the members on the basis of their purchases during the year. The members are issued certificates of indebtedness for the dues and patronage refunds placed in the capital fund. These certificates will be repaid the members when the capital fund is large enough to adequately finance the operations of the cooperative.

The success of this farm bureau is the result of the loyal support of the membership and the progressive policies of the board of directors, led by the president, C. L. Weast, of Grottoes. The manager, Ray S. Cline, is an ardent cooperator.

State Law Begins Enforcing Codes

Model Act of West Virginia Provides Fines.

Charleston, W. Va., Feb. 26 (Spl.).—Gov. H. G. Kump has signed the State NRA enforcement law just enacted by the Legislature and it is now in effect.

The bill pledges the aid of all State officers and employes in the work of enforcing the codes. It makes violation punishable by a fine of not more than $500 for each offense.

The bill was adopted on recommendation of National NRA officials and follows closely a model bill designed by National headquarters for State enactment.

Officers Elected By Press Groups

Morgantown, W. Va., Feb. 26 (Spl.).—Robert Price, of Morgantown, has been elected president of the United High School Press Association of West Virginia.

Other officers are Betty Wyley, of Gauley Bridge, vice president, and Jean Eggleton, of Charleston, secretary-treasurer.

The West Virginia Journalism Teachers Association, reorganizing for the coming year, has chosen Randolph Norton, of Glen Hedrick, president; Eleanor Stone, of Morgantown, vice president, and George Turley, of Clendenin, secretary-treasurer.

Milk Price in Danville Increased by One Cent

Danville, Va., Feb. 26 (Spl.).—Danville dairymen have announced an increase in the price of milk effective March 1. The price will advance from 13 to 14 cents per quart.

The dairymen say increased overhead cost makes the step imperative.

$1,000,000 Sought For Last Projects

West Virginia's List of 11 to End PWA Program.

Clarksburg, W. Va., Feb. 26 (Spl.).—Winding up a program of 85 projects involving loans and grants of $17,717,916, the State PWA Advisory Board has forwarded 11 additional projects, calling for $1,000,000, to the PWA in Washington.

These are the last projects to be passed upon by the State board, which terminates its work to Wednesday and will go out of existence.

The final projects include $350,000 for three bridges over the Little Kanawha River; $275,200 for new school buildings at Winfield, Buffalo and Redhouse, in Putnam County; $170,000 for the State Sanitorium at Hopemont; $135,000 for new dormitories at Marshall College, Huntington; $20,000 for an electric light plant at Circleville; $50,000 for a water plant at Matoaka; $47,365 for a water system at Fort Gay, and $30,000 for a gymnasium to be built by the Tucker County board of education.

Post Classified Ad Writers assist advertisers every day in preparing result-getting ads. Just call National 4205.

L. L. PERKINS
WILL BOND YOU.
United States Fidelity & Guaranty Co.
Phone National 0913. 1415 K St. N.W.

AMUSEMENTS.

THIS AFT'N.—4 P. M.—THIS AFT'N.
LOTTE LEHMANN
Lieder Soprano
Met. Opera Co.
Constitution Hall,
Tues., Feb. 27, 4:45
Seats, $1.10, $1.65, $2.20, $2.75, $3.30, at Mrs. Dorsey's, 1300 G (Droop's); NA. 7151.

"The Highest Art to Reach our Shores."
MONTE CARLO
BALLET
SUN.-MAR. 4 2:30 8:30 National Theatre
Tickets, 1.10-3.30, T. Arthur Smith Bureau, 1330 G, in Homer Kitt Co. Na. 3700

RKO KEITH'S
Together for the first time!
CLARK GABLE · CLAUDETTE COLBERT
"It Happened One Night"
ADDED—AMOS 'N' ANDY Cartoon.

NATIONAL SYMPHONY
THUR., MAR. 1
4:45 P. M.
Constitution Hall
DR. HANS KINDLER, Conductor
Wagner, "Flying Dutchman"; Brahms' Second Symphony; Bach, Sarabande and Gavotte; Sibelius, "The Swan of Tuonela."
50c to $2.75. Box Office, Garfinckel's
NAt. 7730 C. C. Cappel, Mgr.

HURRY! HEAR! RIALTO
JOHN BOLES
Sings Again in the Musical Romance of a Century!
"BELOVED"
with GLORIA STUART

WARNER BROS. THEATRES
EARLE
LAST 3 DAYS
GEORGE RAFT & SALLY RAND (FAN DANCER) in "BOLERO"
—ON STAGE—
MILDRED BAILEY—BEN BLUE
25c TO 1 P.M.
COMING FRIDAY
OWEN DAVIS
"NINTH GUEST"
WITH GENEVIEVE TOBIN
—On Stage—
REGGIE CHILDS & BETTY BOOP & HIS ORCHESTRA IN PERSON

METROPOLITAN
LAST 3 DAYS
ZANE GREY'S
LAST ROUND-UP
—with—
RANDOLPH SCOTT • MONTE BLUE
Coming Friday • THE CREAM of the WORLD'S BEAUTY CROP
SEARCH FOR BEAUTY
EXOTIC GIRLS! TARZAN-LIKE MEN!
11c TO 1 P.M.

Now! IN PERSON
Loew's FOX
THE PAGAN LOVER OF THE MOVIES
RAMON NOVARRO
AND ON THE SCREEN IN
The CAT and the FIDDLE
M-G-M with JEANETTE MacDONALD
plus OTHER BIG ACTS
FRIDAY Lillian HARVEY "I AM SUZANNE" Stage ARTISTS & MODELS

Loew's PALACE LAST 3 DAYS
GARBO in "QUEEN CHRISTINA"
Friday
JANET GAYNOR
LIONEL BARRYMORE
"Carolina"

Loew's COLUMBIA
NOW
Jackie COOPER
with LEATRICE JOY & JOHN WRAY
In The LONE COWBOY
25c to 5:30 NIGHTS 25c-40c

CWA Orders 10,000 Dig City Out of Snow

Rebukes Spur Action to Clear D. C. Streets of Paralyzing Robe.

Continued from Page 1.

In authority failed to prepare for an emergency with regard to which they had ample warning."

C. Melvin Sharpe, executive assistant to the president of the Capital Transit Co., criticized failure of the city to put men on snow removal Sunday night while track sweepers were fighting the blizzard.

Street Forces Enlarged.

The street cleaning department, whose normal force of 400 was doubled yesterday by transfers from the water, sewer and highway departments, countered with the assertion that, with its facilities, such work on a large scale was not practical at night. It pointed out that 32 plows were at work all Sunday night.

"The District did everything it was possible to do," said Commissioner Hazen. "No special funds were available for snow removal, but available per diem men of the city refuse division (which includes the street cleaning department) were put to work. This requires that the Commissioners have a supplemental estimate prepared for the Bureau of Budget to prevent a deficiency before the end of the year in the funds of that division."

With about 800 men and 150 trucks engaged in the task of digging the Capital out of the snow, the street cleaning department faces a still greater problem today. A shovel and truck shortage is probable, it was said.

Less serious, but nevertheless urgent, is the problem of disposing of thousands of tons of snow after it is loaded. Manholes, dumps, the river, vacant lots and every other possible depository will be utilized. Gutters and crosswalks will be given prior attention, to make pedestrian traffic less hazardous.

Thousands Called to Jobs.

Between 1,200 and 1,400 workmen employed on the Takoma and Banneker swimming pools and a half dozen other projects under supervision of the Office of National Capital Parks were forced into idleness yesterday. These employes will be put on snow removal today, if the weather is still inclement, along with 5,000 or more on other projects.

Thirty-five truck sweepers and 20 scrapers worked all Sunday night and all day yesterday to keep street car rails clear, according to the Capital Transit Co. In spite of this, service was completely tied up on the following lines. LeDroit Park, Thirteenth and D-Union Station, Eleventh street line north of G street and E street from Fourteenth to Ninth (routed up Fourteenth street).

Several hundred men worked last night to keep the lines clear and cars ran all night.

Traffic on the Mount Vernon Memorial Highway was made possible mainly through the efforts of Civilian Conservation Corps recruits at Fort Hunt, who were on snow-shoveling duty throughout the day.

Woman Asks Second Divorce Within Year

Reno, Nev., Feb. 26 (AP).—Mrs. Vida Frances Weber Claywell sought a divorce for the second time in less than a year in a suit filed today against John Wilbur Claywell, jr., of Carmel-by-the-Sea, Calif. She charged cruelty.

Mrs. Claywell was divorced from Lawton Butler, Army officer whom she married at West Point, N. Y., June 15, 1927, in Reno last July 22. She married Claywell here August 28, 1933.

U. S. Abandons Plan To Send Cuba Food

Plans for sending $2,000,000 in food supplies to Cuba, as had been requested by the Cuban government and arranged for by the State Department over a month ago, have been dropped, according to the Associated Press.

After President Carlos Mendieta assumed office, negotiations were opened for the shipment, deemed immediately necessary. Protests of Cuban merchants caused the plan to be scrapped.

Divorce Repeal Asked Though Mother Dead

Muskogee, Okla., Feb. 26 (AP).—Although his mother is dead, a son went to court today in an effort to have his father's 1912 divorce decree set aside.

Silas Ruff, of Columbus, Ohio, alleged his father, Anthony S. Ruff, falsely stated in his divorce petition that Mrs. Ruff had deserted him; that she had been confined in an insane asylum and that he did not know where she was. He stated he had just learned of his father's whereabouts after 27 years' separation.

46 Seaplanes Honor McGinnis in Farewell

Honolulu, Feb. 26 (AP).—Forty-six seaplanes, including the six that flew nonstop to Hawaii from San Francisco last month under Lieut. Cmdr. Knefler McGinnis, thundered over Honolulu and circled Diamond Head today in an Aloha flight to Rear Admiral Alfred W. Johnson.

The commander of the aircraft base force sailed aboard his flagship Wright for San Diego, Calif.

Cummings and Roper Are Awarded Degrees

Winter Park, Fla., Feb. 26 (AP).—Honorary degrees were conferred today upon two members of President Roosevelt's Cabinet and five others by Rollins College, as a highlight of Founders Day at the institution.

Secretary of Commerce Roper was awarded a degree of doctor of humanity, and Attorney General Cummings received a degree of doctor of laws.

Keene School Opened as Snow Blankets Ground

Post Staff Photos.

Upper photo shows the newly completed Keene School, alongside of the old structure. Classes began yesterday in the new building. Inset shows a group of children entering the new school.

Darrow, 'Doctor of Complaints,' To Defend NRA 'Little Fellow'

Continued from Page 1.

NRA will hold open house for critics.

Gen. Johnson will address the meeting at 11 a. m. today in the Department of Commerce auditorium. In the afternoon the meeting will break up into groups at various hotels where spokesmen for consumer groups and others, including even the Communists, will be heard.

Johnson Hints Code Changes.

These meetings, which will be followed next week by similar hearings for members of code authorities, are regarded as marking a turning point in the course of the Recovery Administration. Set up hurriedly and driving, ruthlessly at times, to bring all industry under some form of supervision, the time has come to look back over the hasty job and correct defects.

Gen. Johnson said yesterday that many substantial changes in codes might be expected as a result of criticisms about to be heard.

It was indicated in other quarters at NRA that the open-price provisions in many of the codes in their present form are doomed. These provisions, which generally require industries operating under codes to post prices, and in many instances to post them ten days in advance, have been widely attacked as virtual price-fixing.

Predecessor Couldn't Take Oath.

Henderson has been a leading critic of this practice. He came to Gen. Johnson's notice because of the aggressiveness of his criticism and recently was invited to go into NRA and handle an inquiry on the subject. For this reason his appointment to head the division of research and planning was regarded as significant. His predecessors have been drawn chiefly from those having big-business connections. His immediate predecessor, Robert H. Montgomery, was unable to take the oath because he was a law partner in a firm which had litigation before the Government. He retired after functioning informally for a short time.

Henderson, formerly professor of industrial economics at the University of Pennsylvania and Carnegie Tech, has been director of consumer credit research for the Russell Sage Foundation and is now on leave. For several years, as a legislative agent for the foundation, he has been instrumental in obtaining anti-loan shark laws in many States. When Gov. Pinchot was elected for his first term, he engaged Henderson as deputy secretary of the Commonwealth, in which post he reorganized personnel, had charge of the retirement and employe insurance systems and worked on the State budget.

Prepares Report on NRA Prices.

His promotion to one of the pivotal posts in NRA is expected to do much toward winning the confidence of Senators Borah and Nye and of consumer groups which have been increasingly critical of the recovery administration. During the coming public hearings, Henderson will have charge of sessions dealing with operation of codes in small enterprises.

As chief of the NRA inquiry on price-fixing, Henderson is completing a report for Gen. Johnson which is expected to recommend drastic revision of open price provisions of codes. He canvassed leading economists and found them generally critical of these provisions. Several said there was very grave danger in the Government encouraging business men to get together to restrict competition in prices. By permitting selling and marketing costs to be figured in, they felt the way was opened to loose and uneconomic price control.

Buyers' Combine Proposed.

One economist suggested that a logical counterpart of this practice would be for buyers to have a parallel mechanism of informing each other the maximum price they would pay, with an appropriate waiting period so that all could move downward together, and asked how the manufacturers would like that.

Another source of criticism which is expected to receive early attention is the question of multiple assessments under the code authorities. A manufacturer may be required to adhere to several codes and at present he must pay maintenance fees to each of the code authorities concerned. Some have objected that this has led to virtual racketeering and that fat jobs are growing up among the code authorities at the expense of business men who must pay the fees or be branded as recalcitrants.

Darrow Calls at White House.

Gen. Johnson said yesterday that he had a long discussion with Clarence Darrow, who came here to head a board of five as a result of Senator Nye's complaint that the little business man was being discriminated against under the codes. Darrow also called at the White House. Gen. Johnson emphasized that he would have a completely free hand to keep an eye on NRA. He will have a separate organization in the Department of Commerce Building and will be under no obligation to report to Gen. Johnson. He will be responsible directly to the President.

Richberg Invites Complaints.

In a radio address, Donald R. Richberg, general counsel for NRA, made a public appeal for maximum attendance at the general complaint forum. He urged those who could not attend to write or telegraph their suggestions.

Acknwoledging that in the rush of the early stages of NRA there had been inevitable inconsistencies, inequalities and injustices, Mr. Richberg was emphatic in describing benefits which have been achieved.

"Happily," he said, "most people have sense enough to know when the sun is shining, even though professional misguiders of public opinion assure them that it looks very much like rain. Happily also most people remember that the Old Dealers always took full credit for prosperity. So now perhaps the New Dealers are entitled to take full credit for recovery."

Crowds Arrive in Capital.

He said the fact that in round numbers 3,000,000 have been put to work with increased pay rolls of $3,000,000,000 a year does not illustrate the full effect of stopping the downward spiral of depression and the restoration of economic security to over 20,000,000 bread winners.

"These figures do not include the rehabilitation of hundreds of occupations which occurs when the family physician and the dentist are once more not only consulted, but also paid; when the seamstress and the general housework girl are reemployed; when public school teachers begin to collect their unpaid salaries, and boarding house keepers collect their bills, and when apartments are reoccupied by tenants who pay their rent."

Hundreds of persons arrived in the February snowstorm and filled hotels on the eve of NRA's coming out party. More than 2,200 delegates have been registered.

Following the opening general meeting to be addressed by Gen. Johnson, five public hearings will be started simultaneously at 2 p. m. to continue so long as any one wants to be heard.

Mrs. Roosevelt to Send Message.

Among the suggestions to be heard will be one from Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt on behalf of small book shops. Her message will be read by Mrs. Mary H. Rumsey, chairman of the consumers advisory board of NRA.

Still Offering

Burt Men's Shoes, and that means some of Banisters, at clearance price. Together it is the finest footwear made for men,

8.50 to 12.50 Grades

5.85 7.85 9.85

Banisters are in the 9.85 group.

Special hose for men—45c, 55c, 75c and 1.00

BURT

1343 F Street

Radio and Wire Control Asked By Roosevelt

Urges Congress to Give Broad Powers Over Communications.

Continued from Page 1.

garded as the Administration solution to the problem of duplicating communications—stringent Government control of monopolies.

Mergers Deferred.

This policy was foreshadowed by the recent Roper interdepartmental report on communications, which recommended controlled monopolies as the most favorable of three possibilities: Government ownership, regulated monopolies, or a continuation of the present laissez-faire. It was noted, however, that Mr. Roosevelt would defer for the present the much-discussed problem of mergers.

The Administration bill will be introduced by Senator Clarence C. Dill (Democrat), Washington, and Representative Sam Rayburn (Democrat), Texas, chairmen of the Senate and House Interstate Commerce Committees. Mr. Rayburn said he expected to call hearings soon after his committee finishes its stock market sessions.

Notwithstanding that the Radio Commission would be abolished by the Administration, Representative Anning S. Prall (Democrat), New York, said he expected to be confirmed this week as a new member of the commission, to which he was appointed only last Friday by President Roosevelt as successor to William D. L. Starbuck.

Another Job Seen.

This will necessitate his retirement from Congress, in which he has represented the lower portion of New York City 12 years. As he would be ineligible for appointment to the new communications commission for the remainder of the year, under the law, his relinquishment of a seat in the House for what appeared at best only a temporary post gave rise to the impression he would be named to some future position.

The Radio Commission, whose members could—but not necessarily would—be named to the new commission, is composed of Chairman Eugene O. Sykes, Vice Chairman Thad H. Brown, Harold A. Lafount and James H. Hanley. This authority is concerned exclusively with radio, while the Interstate Commerce Commission has been regulating telephone and telegraph companies.

Veteran Faces Charge Of Killing Family

Oklahoma City, Feb. 26 (AP).—John Cane, war veteran, today was charged with the murder of his wife and their three children.

"He's got the confession off his chest and he's trying to pretend he's insane," said County Attorney Morris.

Worker Awarded Back Pay Under Code

Chicago, Feb. 26 (AP).—The right of an employe to sue for back wages under President Roosevelt's blanket code was upheld today by Judge Edward J. Casey in municipal court.

James M. Williams was allowed his claim of $166.50 against the Rienzi Valley Co., of which he formerly was an employe, for the difference between the wages he received and the President's scale of $15 a week for a 40-hour week. He said he worked 72 hours a week at $12.

New Orleans Bank Officials Face Court

New Orleans, Feb. 26 (AP).—James J. A. Fortier and 19 other officers of the closed Continental Bank & Trust Co., now in liquidation, were charged in criminal district court today by District Attorney Eugene Stanley with violation of the statute prohibiting acceptance of deposits by a bank known by its officials to be insolvent.

Davidson's Roosevelt Bust in White House

Jo Davidson's bust of President Roosevelt now has an honored place in the White House, according to the Associated Press.

"It is much the best thing that has been done," Mrs. Roosevelt said of it. The sculptor presented it to her Sunday, just before leaving for California.

When you visit New York make The Ambassador your home. Here you will find superb surroundings, a location that is central, personalized service and unexcelled cuisine.

Rates $5 up

THE AMBASSADOR

Theo. Kroell, General Manager

Park Avenue 51st to 52nd Streets, New York

DRAFTING MATERIALS MUTH 710 13 St. N.W.

WOODWARD & LOTHROP

10TH 11TH F AND G STREETS PHONE DISTRICT 5300

54th Anniversary Savings

Our Own Blends of Coffee

At Anniversary Prices

Patriot Coffee. Regularly 35c pound.. Special, 28c pound

Full-bodied coffee, rich in aroma and flavor, vacuum-packed to assure its freshness.

Sanbomar Coffee. Regularly 28c pound. Special, 23c pound

Fresh-roasted, cellophane wrapped—every bit of its delicious strength and careful blending reaches your coffee pot. Exclusively here in Washington.

THE FOOD SHOP FIFTH FLOOR

Playing Cards

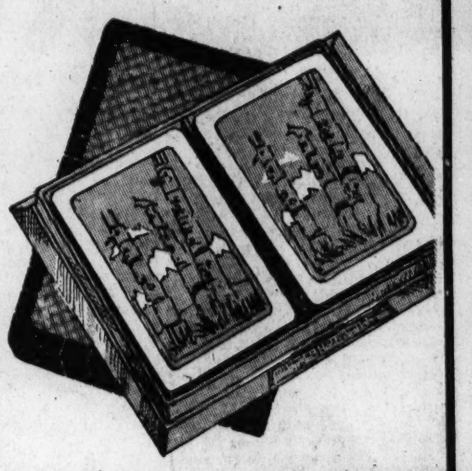
Decoratively Boxed for Prizes

68c two decks

Attractivly yet simply boxed to give extra value to the cards; excellent quality gilt-edge cards with colorful designs. Buy them for prizes, or to meet your own bridge needs.

Italian Leather Telephone Book Covers $1.28
Waste Paper Baskets 78c
Papier Mache Cocktail Tray Set . 45c
3-piece Toilet Set $3.85

THE GIFT SHOP, SEVENTH FLOOR



Play Suits

Special $2 each

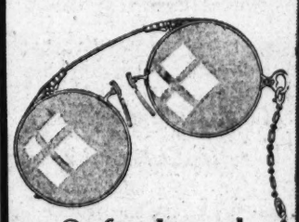
Cowboy Suit consists of hat, vest, trousers, shirt, lasso, pistol in holster, and bandana handkerchief.

Indian Suit consists of beaded multi-colored vest, beaded headdress and trousers.

Basket Ball Games. Special..... 65c
Scamp Wagons. Special $2.35
Pedal Cars. Special..... $1

THE TOY STORE, FOURTH FLOOR



Oxford and Chain

$8.75

Regularly $12.50

Sterling silver frames with 14-K gold spring, and smartly designed Sterling silver chain. Streamline model with comfortable guards. Demi Blonde Zyl Frames, $4

White Gold Filled Frames $5

OPTICAL SECTION FIRST FLOOR

Silver-plated

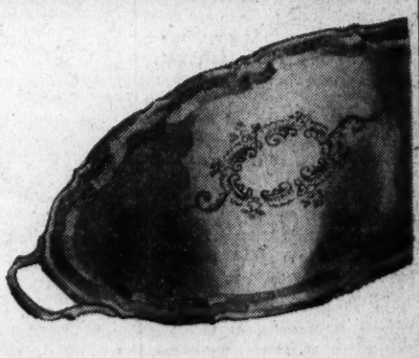
Chippendale Tray

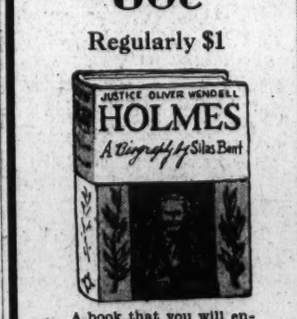
Special $17.50

A gracefully shaped tray with handles—an effective design in the center—and large enough to hold a complete tea service. Triple plated . . . but one of the excellent values among our silverware specials.

Sterling Silver Tableware, Vases and Candlesticks..... $3.25
Plate Silver Holloware in plain design with thread border.. $7.50

SILVERWARE, FIRST FLOOR





Oliver Wendell Holmes

By Silas Bent

80c

Regularly $1

A book that you will enjoy reading and adding permanently to your library.
Once a Grand Duke, 80c
Second Omnibus of Crime 80c

BOOKS, AISLES 23-25 FIRST FLOOR

All-Lace Scarfs

45 Inches

Special 65c

Creamy lace with the design accented in green, peach, rose, orchid, and blue.

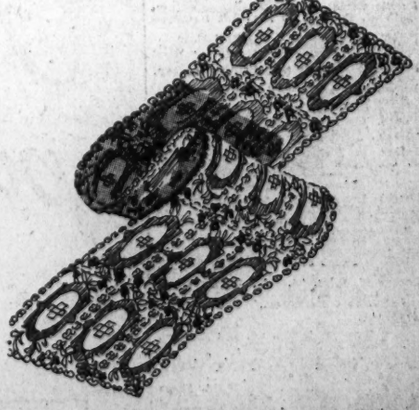
Dress Lace; rust, beige, white ..... $1.95 yard
All-Over Cotton Dress Lace ..... $1.25 yard

LACES, AISLE 13, FIRST FLOOR

Tuesday's Bake Shop Specials

Southern Pecan Pie, regularly 35c 28c
Rolls, white and whole wheat, 15c doz.

BAKE SHOP COUNTERS
TEA ROOM BALONCY, SEVENTH FLOOR, AND FOUNTAIN ROOM, DOWN STAIRS STORE



WOODWARD & LOTHROP

10TH 11TH F AND G STREETS PHONE DISTRICT 5300

WOODWARD & LOTHROP

10TH 11TH F AND G STREETS PHONE DISTRICT 5300

SHUGLOVS

$2 and $3.50

Stormy Weather Protection—as Smart as Your Newest Outfit

Lizard, Sharkskin and Kid, wonderfully reproduced in this most supple rubber. Low models for showers—ankle high styles for stormy weather. Fit smoothly.

WOMEN'S SHOES, THIRD FLOOR

233 Here Pass December Bar Examinations

456 Men and Women Took Test; Earnest Head of Committee.

The committee of bar examiners yesterday made public the names of 233 men and women who passed examinations given last December. A total of 456 took the test.

John Paul Earnest is chairman of the committee, and Ralph Given, secretary.

Those successful in the examination are:

Charles Chapin Allyn, Don D. Andrews, Fairfax M. Atherton, Confer G. Bailey, N. Meyer Baker, Frank Emery Bartos, Roy D. Bateman, John E. Beeton, Joseph D. Bein, Umberto J. Bello, Serge N. Benson, Rosalia D. Bigos, James Delmar Bock, Edwin R. Boyd, Otho De Witt Branson, Lawrence W. Brugman, Glen Miller Brumbaugh, James L. Buckley, Edward J. Budjako, Edward Burling, jr., Joseph D. Buscher and John Godfrey Butler.

Leonard D. Callahan, Guida Christopher Callan, Charles R. Campbell, Le Grand A. Carlston, Joseph F. Castiello, Maxwell Chaffetz, Peter C. Caruhas, James Corbin Chesseldine, Joseph H. Church, James Thaddeus Clark, R. Duncan Clark, John W. Coatsworth, Magdalene Conlon, Kathleen C. Connors, Joseph Thomas Corbley, Angel T. Correa, John Wiley Crasun, Willed Steven Crane, Esther S. Critchfield, John Burke Cullen and Elmer E. Cummins.

Herman Cutler, Elliot A. Daitz, Arthur Marshall Davis, Henri Carlyle de Lozier, Milton L. Dennis, Lewis Deschler, Tunis A. Dils, Edward James Dolan, Nicholas A. Draim, Robert Hayes Driskill, Allen C. Drowns, Folsom E. Drummond, Lucien L. Dunbar, Helen Marguerite Edwards, Enoch E. Ellison and Alexander Jeremiah Etienne.

Harry G. Eubank, Robert Lee Evans, Thomas A. Farrell, George D. Fischer, Berchmans Tanner Fitzpatrick, James Herbert Fleck, Edgar Martin Ford, Floyd L. France, Anna T. Frantanuono, William S. French, jr., Maurice Friedman, Helen Agnes Furey, Rose Futur, James T. Gaghan, Elizabeth A. Gerber, Philip Goldberg, Reuben Goldberg and Nathan Daniel Golden.

Isador Goldman, Jack L. Graham, Guy A. Greenawalt, William Barton Greenwood, jr., Albert B. Griggs, Barney A. Hammond, Ashlan F. Harlan, jr., Samuel W. Hawkins, Paul E. Heftler, Thomas J. Hickey, Robert T. Hollinger, Wilson L. Hooff, Elmer E. Hoover, Raymond F. Hossfeld, James B. C. Howe and Thomas B. Hudson.

Edwin R. Hutchinson, Kenneth R. Iverson, Robert M. James, George Edmund Johnson, Roland K. Jones, Henry A. Julicher, Chester L. Justus, Thomas T. Keller, Franklin E. Kennamer, jr., Paul E. Kerst, Grace E. Kincare, Louis A. Kline, James Kaiser Knudson, Reginald J. Kranauer, William E. Lane, Ward E. Latin, H. Donald Leatherwood and Leo J. Leonnig.

Lewis J. Lenny, Oliver Burkert Lerch, Thomas Price Littlepage, jr., Fergus Lee Lloyd, Wallace Luchs, jr., Peter C. Luginbuhl, Josiah Lyman, Gordon Kenneth MacIntosh, Frederick Julian Mack, Michael J. Madden, Walter L. Mahaffey, John W. Malley, Charles W. Mander, Mary V. Marraffa, Sidney McClellan and Joseph P. McCloskey.

Lloyd McCollum, Fred Wallace McConnell, Genevieve T. McLaughlin, Joseph Lewis Mendelson, William E. Messer, Joseph H. Meyers, Ruth Miley, Bennett G. Miller, Raymond H. Miller, Nathan L. Minis, Edward I. Molenof, Tristram L. Moorman, Edna C. Moran, John Morton, Frank A. Mouritsen, James P. Mullin, Maxwell Kerr Murphy and Rose Muriel Nathanson.

M. Cary Nelson, Mary B. Nelson, Edward Taylor Newton, Gaylord Weld Newton, John R. Nunn, William V. O'Sullivan, Harvey Boyd Otterman, Morris D. Parmele, Eldon M. Parrish, Thomas J. Patrick, Edyth M. Perkins, William L. Peverill, Miles Dorwin Pillars, Abraham J. Platt, Samuel I. Posner and Harold Nealley Powell.

John J. Ragan, Lester D. Reber, C. Cornell Remsen, jr., Roland Rice, Samuel E. Richards, Chester Ring, William E. Ring, James Leslie Ritchie, John R. Robertson, Leo Dunn Robinson, George C. Rodgers, Louise Roe, Blaine Taylor Romney, Elmer T. Ross, Stanley E. Ross, Clarence F. Rothenburg, Clifford C. Rowland and Earl A. Ruth.

Fred C. Sacks, Frank R. Saltzman, Joseph Schimmel, Andrew Hubert Schmeltz, H. Don Scott, Willard P. Scott, De Forest E. Sessions, Frederick DeWitt Shelton, Fred W. Shields, Wilbur L. Shoup, Raymond S. Smethurst, Arthur Albert Smith, Herbert J. Smith, Wilbur F. Smith, Nathan N. Steinman, Francis D. Stephens, Strother Thomas Stephens, Isaac Newton Phelps Stokes 2d, Harold W. Stull, Charles Lyon Sturtevant, jr., Regina T. Sullivan, George E. Sutley, Harold A. Swanson, Daniel M. Sweeney, William Swindlehurst, Telford Taylor, J. Oliver Timpe, Henry Palmer Truesdell, Frank A. Tyler, jr., J. Robert Vendel, Alfred W. Vibber, Edward L. Vodila, Mildred R. Wainwright and Earl Clifford Walck.

William H. Waldrop, jr., J. Grahame Walker, Philip A. Walker, Benjamin S. Warren, jr., R. Carmack Waterhouse, Richard D. Welsh, E. Francis Wentworth, jr., Ronald R. Willey, Noble S. Williams, John Louis Wilson, Norma Windsor, Ann Cecilia Wolfe, Richard R. Wolfe, Albert Zabriskie Foster Wood, Bessie May Woodcock, John L. Woodward, John A. Young, Walter Hopkins Young, Abe G. Zanoff and Joseph Bernard Zimowski.

Hospital Board Meets Today.

The board of lady managers of Casualty Hospital will meet at the Willard Hotel today at 11 a. m. Mrs. Martha J. Vaughn, the president, will preside.

Vital Statistics

Births.

Edwardo and Vicenta Dial, boy.
Paul and Virginia Gray, boy.
Joseph and Ruth Webster, boy.
Robert and Wilma Crump, girl.
Samuel and Bernice Brown, girl.

Deaths.

Benjamin F. G. Graves, 87 yrs., 1305 E st. ne.
Anna L. Moore, 82 yrs., 3134 Ellicott st. nw.
Rebecca S. Sullivan, 82 yrs., 1015 Evarts st. ne.
George R. Gray, 81 yrs., 481 Maryland ave. sw.
Charles Talbott, 77 yrs., Emergency Hosp.
Paul O. Bachschmid, 72 yrs., Garfield Hosp.
Janet A. Roberts, 72 yrs., 1514 17th st. nw.
Helen Gibberman, 69 yrs., Garfield Hosp.
Nellie C. Brown, 64 yrs., 514 Quincy st. nw.
Leopold Harant, 64 yrs., Tuberculosis Hosp.
Charles A. O. Enrichs, 59 yrs., Casualty Hosp.
Horace R. Smallwood, 56 yrs., 1037 Newton st. ne.
Marion H. Riley, 56 yrs., Sibley Hosp.
Lena Sperbeck, 55 yrs., Natl. Homeopathic Hosp.
Norris Henderson, 49 yrs., Gallinger Hosp.
Florence H. Wampler, 47 yrs., 3216 Macomb st. nw.
Paul E. McNabb, 46 yrs., Walter Reed Gen. Hosp.
Anna B. Johnson, 43 yrs., Gallinger Hosp.
William B. Crouch, 35 yrs., 3639 Veazey st. nw.
Ethel J. Soper, 2 mos., Garfield Hosp.
Alice Morrison, 86 yrs., 1150 Burdens st. nw.
George E. Bell, 71 yrs., 1603 U st. nw.
Annie Harris, 65 yrs., 719 Smiths ct. nw.
Mary E. Wilson, 41 yrs., 2812 Sherman ave. nw.
John Talbot, 39 yrs., Gallinger Hosp.
Salana Carter, 34 yrs., Freedmen's Hosp.
Ruth M. Proctor, 29 yrs., 131 Heckman st. se.
Rufus Wilson, 26 yrs., Garfield Hosp.
William E. Alexander, 4 months, Children's Hosp.
Infant to Norman and Juanita Duncan, 1 mo., Children's Hosp.
Infant to Stanton and Josephine Miles, 19 days, Gallinger Hosp.
Infant to Frank and Blanche Parham, 10 days, Gallinger Hosp.
Infant to John and Lassie Wilson, 1½ days, Children's Hosp.
Infant to Malich and Bessie Hill, ½ day, Children's Hosp.

Licensed to Marry.

Ernest Louis Mack, 24, Philadelphia, Pa., and Bertha Doris Ulrich, 19, 1755 Hobart street northwest. The Rev. L. M. Zimmerman.

Everett Nelson Harding, 23, 1835 Bay street southeast, and Marjorie M. Loarie, 19, 1621 U street southeast. The Rev. L. R. Franck.

George H. Bliss, 25, 5019 Eighth street northwest, and A. June Thomas, 20, 3541 Eleventh street northwest. The Rev. R. L. Wood.

George William Kenyon, 48, Norfolk, Va., and Rena B. Miller, 42, Los Angeles, Calif. Judge R. E. Mattingly.

Charles J. Shaughnessy, jr., 21, and Rebecca R. Mundy, 18, both of Richmond, Va. The Rev. H. M. Hennig.

Jasper Lee Harrison, 26, 2823A Sherman avenue northwest, and Ethel Pettyjohn, 28, 2712 Sherman avenue northwest. The Rev. E. D. Grymes.

Joseph E. Joyner, 24, Farmville, N. C., and Bertha Peterson, 24, Lawrence, S. C. The Rev. J. E. Graham.

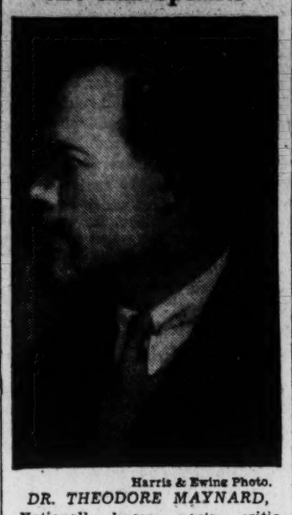
William Charles Branche, 19, 1416 Ninth street northwest, and Frances Sarah Hill, 18, 68 P street northwest. The Rev. W. R. Brooks.

Reginald Quarles, 21, 474 O street northwest, and Viola Little, 19, same address. Judge R. E. Mattingly.

Sperry Jones, 23, 414 O street northwest, and Mary Manibauer, 20, 1414 Tenth street northwest. The Rev. J. A. Waite.

Columbus Hall, 30, 405 P street northwest, and Katie M. Nickens, 21, Gainesville, Va. The Rev. C. S. Butcher.

Art Club Speaker



Harris & Ewing Photo.

DR. THEODORE MAYNARD, Nationally known poetry critic and holder of the chair of English at Georgetown University, who will discuss the life and works of Robert Browning this evening before the Arts Club, of Washington. Dr. Maynard is author of "Preface to Poetry."

Mrs. Sophia M. Baker Is Dead at Pasadena

Pasadena, Calif., Feb. 26 (AP).—Mrs. Sophia Metcalf Baker, 79, philanthropic worker and sister of Jesse H. Metcalf, Senator from Rhode Island, died at a hotel here today. She was the widow of W. C. Baker, well known in Rhode Island political circles.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow in Pasadena.

Dr. Zook Holds Education Key To Democracy

Speaker Warns Future of U. S. Lies in Hands of Instructors.

Cleveland, Feb. 26 (AP).—America's schools and colleges were warned today that to a large extent the future of democracy lies in their hands.

The warning carried particular weight because it came from the titular head of the Nation's school system, Dr. George F. Zook, United States Commissioner of Education.

"Democracy is on trial throughout the world as never before in history," Dr. Zook told a session of the National Education Association's department of superintendence.

"In more than one country, democratic government has been supplanted by some form of centralized action simply because popular intelligence and the spirit of unity are insufficient to enable people to realize their hopes and aspirations."

By performing two services, Dr. Zook said, the schools and colleges may play an important part in preserving this country from a similar fate. He said:

1. They should discover and teach the country a better system of distribution for the goods it produces, so the standard of living may be lifted to as high a plane as the standard of production.

2. They should spread education more widely among the people, especially among adults, so the Nation may meet its problems with a higher standard of comprehension.

New Deal's Old, Says Lecturer; Rome Had One Before It Fell

"The Gracchi" Tried Price Fixing, Built Roads Through "PWA."

The Romans had no name for it, but they had a "New Deal," brains trust, NRA and all, said Dr. Charles Sidney Smith, head of George Washington University's department of classical languages and literatures, in a lecture yesterday on "NRA—133 B. C."

This happened 2,000 years ago when, following the Punic Wars, the Roman republic found itself in the midst of depression.

Two brothers, known to every student of Latin as "the Gracchi" and to those who knew them as Tiberius and Gaius Gracchus, were the principal actors called upon by the desperate people to find a way out.

Tiberius Gracchus apparently was chosen by the masses "to reinstate the poor citizens in their former possessions," as Plutarch put it. He was elected tribune of Rome in 133 B. C.

He sought advice for his reform measures from a Greek historian, a lawyer, a philosopher and a pontifex maximus—a real "brain trust"—as Dr. Smith pointed out.

He invoked an obsolete law to take the land from the wealthy to restore it to the poor. He struggled with the Roman Senate, which he completely dominated, set up a sort of National Recovery Administration and was murdered by his enemies while seeking reelection.

His younger brother, Gaius, tried to carry on Tiberius' plans. He went even further, devalued the currency, unsuccessfully attempted to fix wages and prices through "codes" and probably was the father of public works, since he tried to relieve the jobless through the building of new roads, Dr. Smith explained.

Band Concerts.

UNITED STATES MARINE BAND.
Auditorium, Marine Barracks—11:30 A. M.

"Patriotic Shut-In Dream Hour."
Marines' hymn, "The Halls of Montezuma"
Overture, "Siradella".....Flotow
Cornet solos:
(a) "Love Sends a Little Gift of Roses" ..... Openshaw
(b) "Smilin' Thru".....Penn
Musician Winfred Kemp.
March, "The Manly American"..Osterman
"Bolero".....Ravel
Characteristic, "Whistler and His Dog" ..... Pryor
Saxophone solos:
(a) "Love's Old Sweet Song".....Molloy
(b) "Wagon Wheels".....De Rose
Musician Kenneth Douse.
Overture, "Tannhauser".....Wagner
Novelty, "There's Something About a Soldier".....Gay
Serenade, "Estrellita" (My Little Star) ..... Ponce
"Barcarolle" from "The Tales of Hoffman".....Offenbach
March, "Semper Fidelis".....Sousa
"Bells of St. Mary's".....Adam
Chimes Obligato
Musician Wilbur D. Kieffer
"The Star-Spangled Banner."

U. S. SOLDIER'S HOME ORCHESTRA.
Stanley Hall—5:30 P. M.

March, "Here Comes the Band".....Mills
Overture, "Crown Diamonds".....Auber
Suite de ballet, "The Tribute to Zamora" ..... Gounod
Scenes from the opera, "La Traviata" (request) ..... Verdi
Fox trot espagnole, "Adios My Senorita" ..... Zamecnik
Waltz suite, "The Imperial"....Ellenberg
Finale, "Hero of the Isthmus" (Col. Gothals) ..... Lampe
"The Star-Spangled Banner."

Delta Sigma Dance Friday.

The Delta Sigma Fraternity, Pi Kappa Chapter, will hold the mid-year dance at the Lyon Park Community House at 10 p. m. Friday.

Post Classified Ad Writers assist advertisers every day in preparing result-getting ads. Just call National 4205.

Germany Topic Of Travel Talk

John G. Bucher Tonight Will Present 15th in Post Series.

The scenic beauties of Germany will provide the subject for the fifteenth in the series of 20 illustrated travel talks to be given at 8:15 tonight at he Masonic Auditorium, New York avenue at Thirteenth street northwest. John George Bucher, traveler, writer and lecturer, will supplement his talk with motion pictures and stereopticon views in color.

The lecture series is sponsored by The Washington Post to give its readers an intimate background for the interpretation of international news as it is gathered daily through the medium of the Associated Press and other facilities of this newspaper. This purpose does not include political activities, however, and so Mr. Bucher will confine his remarks to the natural and architectural features of Germany, together with a brief resume of the country's historical past.

Tickets will be available at the Masonic Auditorium box office beginning at 7 o'clock tonight at the nominal charge of 25 cents.

McNabb Funeral Rites Will Be Held Today

Funeral services for Maj. Paul E. McNabb, Medical Corps, who died Saturday in Walter Reed Hospital, will be held at 11 a. m. today in Arlington Cemetery.

Maj. McNabb, who recently returned from the Philippines, was a native of Tennessee. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Therese F. McNabb.

Synagogue Meet In Capital May 6-8

Rabbi Metz in Charge of National Session.

The convention of the United Synagogue of America will be held here May 6 to May 8, the Greater National Capital Committee announced yesterday.

Rabbi Solomon H. Metz is in charge of arrangements. The national secretary of the organization is Rabbi Samuel M. Cohen, of New York. About 250 are expected to attend. Headquarters will be at the Willard Hotel.

The protective section of the American Railway Association will convene here May 21 to May 23, the committee stated yesterday, and from May 26 to May 28 the Pennsylvania-Potomac District of the International Club of Printing House Craftsmen will meet in the Lafayette Hotel.

Ship Movements

At New York.
Arrived Yesterday.
American Merchant, from London.
Sail Today.
De Grasse, for Marseilles.
Marques de Comillas, for Barcelona.
Saturnia, for Trieste.
Sail Tomorrow.
Black Falcon, for Rotterdam.
Exchange, for Naples.
Hamburg, for Hamburg.
Kolnaren, for Gothenburg.
Manhattan, for Hamburg.
Sail Thursday.
Ansonia, for Cherbourg.
Chincha, for Cape Town.
Scanmail, for Copenhagen.
Reported by Radio.
Olympic, from Southampton; due at Pier 59, North River, today.
President Polk, from world cruise; due at Twelfth street, Jersey City, today.
Scythia, from Liverpool; due at Pier 56, North River, today.
United States, from Copenhagen; due at Sixth street, Hoboken, today.
Ansonia, from Southampton; due at Pier 54, North River, tomorrow.
Champlain, from Havre; due at Pier 57, North River, tomorrow.
Rex, from Naples; due at Pier 86, North River, tomorrow.
Bremen, from Bremen; due at Pier 86, North River, Thursday.
At Baltimore.
Sails Tomorrow.
City of Hamburg, for Hamburg.
Arrives Tomorrow.
City of Baltimore, from Havre.

Crowe to Push Building by U.S.

Indiana Member Puts Bill Before House to Aid D. C. Jobless.

Completion of the Federal building program in the District was asked yesterday in a resolution introduced in the House by Representative Eugene R. Crowe (Democrat), Indiana.

The resolution would allocate $50,000,000 of National recovery funds for completion of the work authorized by the public building act of May 25, 1926.

The proposed Army and Navy Buildings and the annex to the Bureau of Engraving and Printing are the only major projects on which construction has not been started.

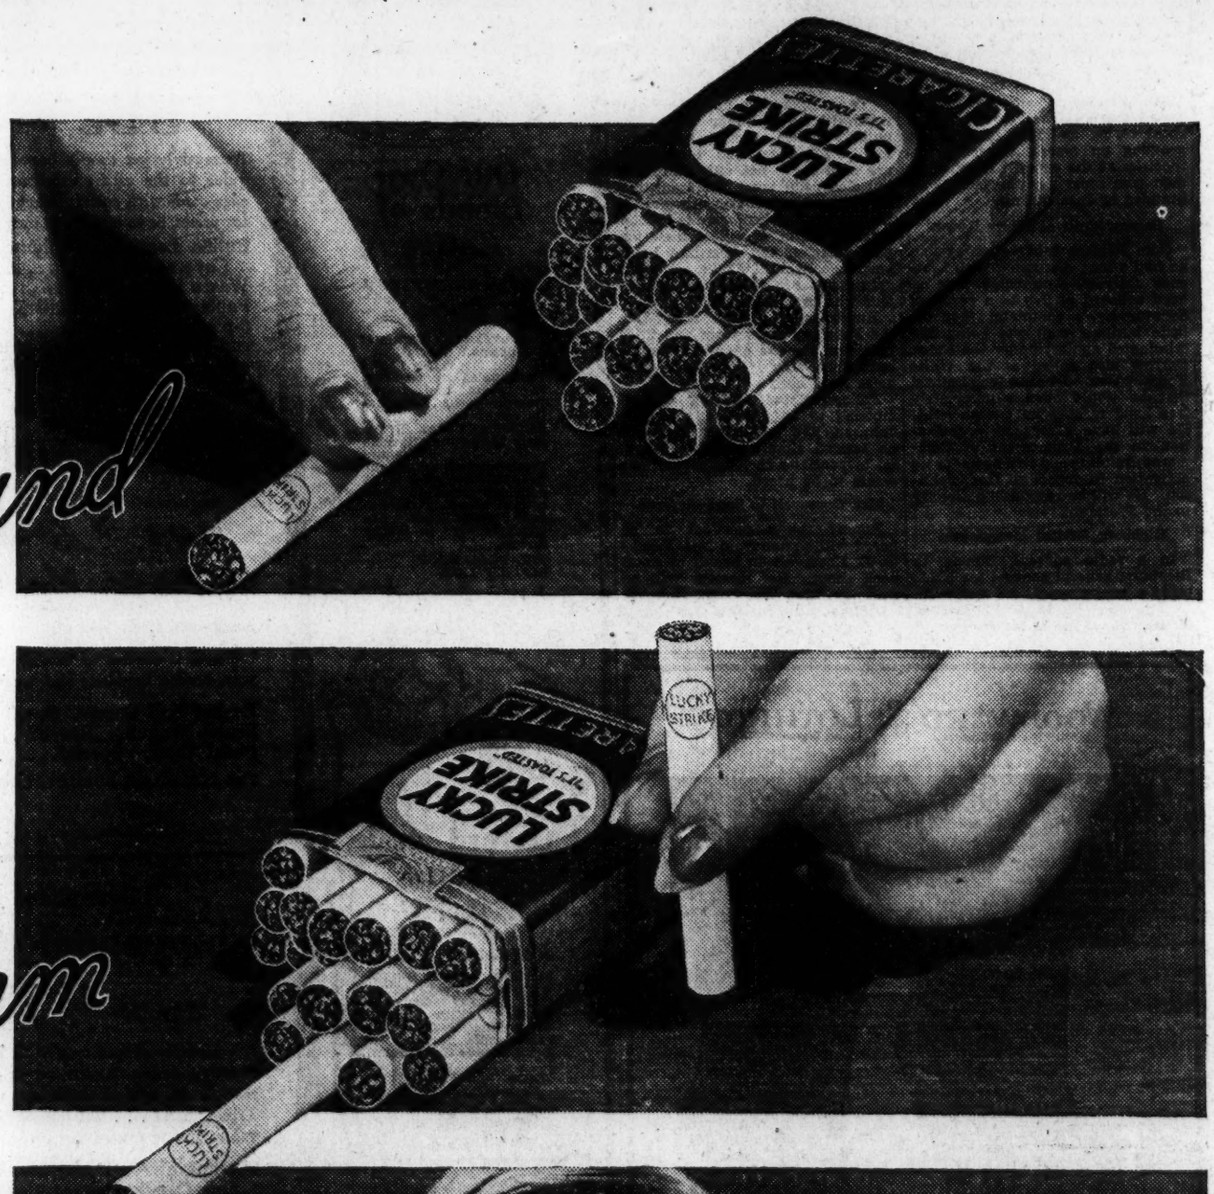
Crowe declared that the building trades throughout the country have been harder hit by the depression than has any other industry. His resolution, he said, would provide employment for thousands of unemployed in the District and over the Nation.

$25,000 Asked in Suit For Car Injuries to Boy

Francis E. Vernon, a minor, through Mamie Ellis Vernon, yesterday in the District Supreme Court filed suit against S. J. L'Hommedieu for $25,000 for injuries he allegedly received when an automobile operated by the defendant struck him at Thirty-first and Macomb streets northwest February 3.

The Vernons live at 149 Thirteenth street northeast. Attorney Joseph W. Gum filed the papers.

NO LOOSE ENDS



Round

Firm

Fully packed

the tobacco does not spill out

Every Lucky Strike is made from the finest tobacco and only the center leaves. Not the top leaves—because those are under-developed—not ripe. They would give a harsh smoke. Not the bottom leaves—because those are inferior in quality. They grow close to the ground, and are tough, coarse and always sandy. The center leaves are the mildest leaves, for which farmers are paid higher prices. Only these center leaves are used in making Luckies the fully packed cigarette—so round, so firm—free from loose ends. That's why Luckies draw easily, burn evenly. And remember—"It's toasted"—for throat protection—for finer taste.

Direct From the Metropolitan Opera House

Saturday, at 1:50 P. M., Eastern Standard Time, over Red and Blue Networks of NBC, Lucky Strike will broadcast the Metropolitan Opera Company of New York in the complete Opera, "Lucia di Lammermoor."

Always the Finest Tobacco and only the Center Leaves

NOT the top leaves—they're under-developed—they are harsh!

NOT the bottom leaves—they're inferior in quality—coarse and always sandy!

The Cream of the Crop
"The mildest, smoothest tobacco"

Copyright, 1934, The American Tobacco Company.

C. H. Walker's Funeral Is Held At Heathsville

Virginia State Senator for 22 Years; Rites Held From His Home.

Heathsville, Va., Feb. 26 (Spl.). The funeral of former State Senator C. Harding Walker, 75, who died Friday night following a short illness of pneumonia, were conducted yesterday at 2:30 p. m., from his home here.

Mr. Walker, who served as senator from 1898 to 1920, received his preliminary education under a tutor in Baltimore and studied for three years at the University of Virginia. He studied law after teaching eight years at Davis Military School in North Carolina and was admitted to the bar in 1892.

A leading attorney for years, he was a member of the State Constitutional convention of 1901-2, for fifteen years a member of the board of trustees of the Farmville State Teachers College, a member of the board of visitors of the State university, and a steward of the Heathsville Methodist Church.

Surviving, in addition to his wife, who was Miss Mary Rosa Starke, are two sons, George Walker, of Oldhams, and Henry M. Walker, clerk of the Northumberland County Circuit Court, and a daughter, Miss Marie Walker, of Heathsville.

W. Virginia Snow Worst in 21 Years

Two Men Die; Travelers Storm-Bound.

Clarksburg, W. Va., Feb. 26 (Spl.). The heaviest snow in 21 years stopped most motor traffic, delayed rail schedules, damaged communication lines and brought death to two men from overexertion, today in West Virginia.

While shoveling a pathway from his door, G. B. Meredith, 61, fell dead here at noon. Herbert M. Means, 55, died at his home at West Milford, while carrying in coal. Both were married.

Many travelers were snowbound at Beckley, where roads were blocked by 20 inches of snow. The State Roads Commission worked plows in various sections, but made little headway. Workers hoped to clear main highways by night.

DIED.

DE ATLEY—On Sunday, February 25, 1934, at her late residence, 637 G street southwest, FRANCES A., beloved wife of the late John H. De Atley and mother of William and La Mott De Atley.
Funeral services at the above residence on Wednesday, February 28, at 2 p. m. Relatives and friends invited. Interment Congressional Cemetery. Services by Chambers Southeast Funeral Home, 517 Eleventh street southeast.

GRAVES—On Saturday, February 24, 1934, at his residence, 1305 R street northeast, BENJAMIN FRANKLIN, beloved husband of Bertha Graves.
Funeral services will be held at the above residence on Tuesday, February 27, at 2 p. m. Relatives and friends are invited. Interment Glenwood Cemetery. Services by W. W. Chambers Co. Southeast branch.

GRAY—On Saturday, February 24, 1934, at his residence, 481 Maryland avenue southwest, GEORGE R., beloved husband of the late Mary Elizabeth Gray. Funeral from his late residence on Tuesday, February 27, at 2 p. m. Interment private. Kindly omit flowers.

McNABB—On Saturday, February 24, 1934, at Walter Reed General Hospital, PAUL EDGAR McNABB, major, Medical Corps.
Services will be held at Arlington National Cemetery on Tuesday, February 27, military escort and funeral party forming at the Fort Myer gate at 11 a. m.

PATCHELL—On Sunday, February 25, 1934, JULIA A., beloved mother of Frederick J. Patchell.
Remains resting at the S. H. Hines Co. funeral home, 2901 Fourteenth street northwest. Services at the Church of the Epiphany on Wednesday, February 28, at 11 a. m. Interment Rock Creek Cemetery. (Richmond (Va.) and El Paso (Tex.) papers please copy.)

PLITT—On Monday, February 26, 1934, at his residence, Wheaton, Md., ALEXANDER H., beloved husband of Elisabeth C. Plitt, aged sixty-six years.
Funeral from the chapel of Thomas S. Serreon, 1011 Seventh street northwest, on Wednesday, February 28, at 2 p. m. Relatives and friends are invited to attend. Interment Fort Lincoln Cemetery.

WATTS—Entered into rest on Saturday, February 24, 1934, at her residence, 1914 Park road northwest, MARY JANE, wife of the late Sidney Smith Watts.
Services at the above address on Tuesday, February 27, at 2 p. m. Interment Oak Hill Cemetery.

ZEPP—On Sunday, February 25, 1934, JAMES H., beloved husband of Julia I. Zepp.
Services at the S. H. Hines Co. funeral home, 2901 Fourteenth street northwest, Tuesday, February 27, at 3 p. m. Interment Glenwood Cemetery.

FUNERAL DIRECTORS

THOS. S. SERGEON
1011 TTH ST. NW. Telephone Natl. 1090.

JAMES T. RYAN
317 PA. AVE. S.E. Atlantic 1700.

J. WILLIAM LEE'S SONS CO.
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
CREMATORIUM
4th st. and Mass. ave. ne. Lincoln 5200.

CHAS. S. ZURHORST
301 EAST CAPITOL ST. LINCOLN 0372.

Frank Geier's Sons Co.
1113 SEVENTH ST. N.W Telephone
Modern Chapel NATIONAL 2473

FUNERAL DESIGNS

GEO. C. SHAFFER 900 14TH ST. N.W.
Expressive Floral Emblems. Phone
Moderate prices. Open eve. & Sun. Nat. 0106

GUDE BROS. CO., Florists
1212 F STREET National 4276.
APPROPRIATE FUNERAL DESIGNS

A Complete Funeral for $75.00
Or even LESS. The $75 funeral includes Casket (any color), plate engraved with name, No. 1 outside pine case, embalming by competent men, washing, dressing and shaving (if necessary), advertising of notices, hearse, two Cadillac limousines, flowers, chairs, scarf for the door, removing from hospital or home and all necessary services that are so well known at the DEAL FUNERAL HOME. NO EXTRAS.
DEAL
LINCOLN 8200

Chambers
One of the Largest Undertakers in the World

This plush covered couch casket, lined with silk, is included in a whole funeral service seldom duplicated for $300. Chambers whole cost for this wonderful service only $165.
We also claim the finest service for the lowest price at only $75 complete.
You have at your service not only the largest in the city, but one of the largest in the world.
LOCATIONS
Main Parlors & Chapels 1400 Chapin N. W. — 517 11th S. E. 6 Chapels. 12 Parlors
THE GREATER CHAMBERS CO.

They'll Dance in "Heads Up" at Charles Town Tonight

Five Charles Town, W. Va., dancers are shown, above, after their selection for a specialty number in "Heads Up," musical comedy sponsored by the Citizens Fire Co. The show will be presented today and tomorrow. Miss Helen Miley, director, is shown drilling the girls. Left to right are Miss Miley, Eileen Osborne, Margaret Ronemus, Margaret Hann, Elizabeth Thorpe and Dorothy Aikens.

County Grange Meets March 10

10 Units Represented; New Group Formed at Mt. Airy.

Frederick, Md., Feb. 26 (Spl.). Plans are being made for the quarterly meeting of Pomona Grange, embracing seven subordinate bodies in Frederick County and three in Washington County, at Braddock Hall, March 10.

David Fry, Jefferson, master, will preside at the business session, and Mrs. J. B. King, Gaithersburg, lecturer of the Howard-Montgomery County body, will have charge of the program. The Frederick County units are Braddock, Jefferson, Ballenger, New Market, Middletown, Lewistown and Mount Pleasant. The Washington groups are Leitersburg, Smithsburg and Indian Springs.

A grange was organized at Mount Airy with 28 charter members. The officers are: Master, Leslie Bigler; overseer, Chester Hobbs; lecturer, Mrs. Rebecca Hobbs; chaplain, Albert Grimes; steward, Mareen Hobbs; assistant, Jesse VanSant; treasurer, Charles Buckman; ceres, Miss Ethel Reck; Pomona, Miss Kathleen Baker; Flora, Mrs. Julia Davis, and woman assistant steward, Mrs. Alta Gardner.

The officers will be installed by Edward F. Holter, State grange organizer, March 20.

Barber Bill Strikes West Virginia Snag

House Votes 33 to 16 but Majority Lacking.

Charleston, W. Va., Feb. 26 (Spl.). Approving amendments attached by the Senate, the State House of Delegates today decided it had completed the legislative journey of the barber and beauty shop bill, but a late check-up revealed a majority of elected members was lacking. Announcement of the vote was delayed until tomorrow.

The amendments were approved by a vote of 33 to 16. Forty-seven votes are needed to pass a bill amended by the other house.

The measure creates a State board of four to regulate barber and beauty shops. One Senate amendment makes the State health commissioner an ex-officio member of the board.

Mrs. H. Klaff, 79, Buried.

Danville, Va., Feb. 26 (Spl.).—Funeral services were held here yesterday for Mrs. H. Klaff, 79, who died soon after entering the hospital Saturday evening. She leaves four children.

West Virginia Sportsmen Win Fight to Revise Game Rules

Changes Promised Soon in Fishing and Hunting Regulations.

Clarksburg, W. Va., Feb. 26 (Spl.). West Virginia fishing and hunting regulations are to be revised soon as the result of a long list of recommendations sent to the State conservation department by sportsmen's organizations.

Representatives of these bodies in 37 counties appeared at the department the last week bearing recommendations and petitions from similar bodies in virtually all the other counties have been received, according to T. M. Cheek, a department official.

Many requests are for the permanent closing of small tributaries to trout streams in the mountain areas. It was also requested there be no bass fishing during April, May and June, the spawning season.

Cheek said an agreement has been reached whereby fox hunters are to be allowed to chase red foxes in counties where foxes are protected, except between February 15 and April 1.

A petition signed by several hundred sportsmen of Braxton County asks that Elk River there be closed to all fishing from April 1 to July 1 for five years.

Resolutions were adopted by sportsmen of Monongalia, Marion, Harris and Taylor Counties, who met in the Marion County Courthouse at Fairmont, recommending State hunting and fishing license of $1.50 annually, with the elimination of all other licenses.

Arrangements have been completed by Marion County sportsmen to conduct a vermin killing campaign there from February 24 to June 30. Prizes will be awarded.

Hagerstown Starts Wife-Murder Case

Koons Defense Will Seek to Prove Accident.

Hagerstown, Md., Feb. 26 (Spl.). The trial of J. Russell Koons, 34, charged with the murder of his wife, Katherine, started today with selection of a jury.

Judges Albert A. Doub and Frank G. Wagaman are presiding.

Counsel for Koons said an attempt would be made to show that Koons was sitting in their apartment when his wife attempted to seize a revolver and that it was accidentally discharged.

3 in Virginia Get Postmastership Jobs

Fourth class postmasters appointed yesterday, reported by the Associated Press, included Mrs. Ethel W. Hudson at Brays, Essex County; Ermine Cantrell, at Almira, Wise County, and Cornelius T. Smith at Croxton, Caroline County, all in Virginia.

Transfers

Shifts Are Announced by Army, Navy Departments.

(Associated Press.)

Army orders yesterday included:

CAPTAINS.

Haskell Allison and Charles M. Simpson, jr., Signal Corps, to Fort Monmouth, N. J. Virgil G Allen, Infantry, to Fort Benning, Ga.

FIRST LIEUTENANTS.

Benjamin P. Heiser, Field Artillery, to Fort Sill, Okla. Roy J. Caperton, Infantry, detailed in F. D., to Fort Sam Houston, Tex. Richard B. Wheeler, Infantry, to Van Couver Barracks, Wash. Paul Kellam, Infantry, to Fort Thomas, Ky. Cranford C. B. Warden, Infantry, to Fort McPherson, Ga. Charles T. Lanham, Infantry, to Fort Leavenworth, Kans. Nunez C. Pile and Carl Robinson, Infantry, to Presidio of San Francisco. Hammond McD. Monroe, Infantry, to Fort Missoula, Mont. Nye K. Elward and Guy S. Meloy, jr., Infantry, to Fort Benning, Ga.

SECOND LIEUTENANTS.

John R. Gilchrist, Infantry, Fort Francis E. Warren, Wyo.; detailed in F. D. John S. Upham, jr., Infantry, to Fort Benning, Ga. Charles A. Clark, jr., Field Artillery, detailed in Aviation Corps, to Randolph Field, Tex.

ENLISTED MAN.

Placed on retired list: First Sergeant Clarence Brown, Fort Benjamin Harrison, Ind.

Navy orders yesterday included:

COMMANDER.

James A. Crutchfield, Submarine Division 7, to Navy Department.

LIEUTENANT COMMANDERS.

Donald M. Dalton, Navy Department to Submarine Division 7; Wallace M. Dillonn (C. C.), V. P. Squadron 5B (U. S. S. Lexington) to Pensacola; Frank P. Thomas, Navy Department to Submarine Division 8.

LIEUTENANTS.

Lawrence F. Connolly, U. S. S. Bushnell to Portsmouth, N. H.; Hallock G. Davis, staff commander Submarine Force, U. S. Fleet, to Eleventh Naval District; Delwyn Hyatt, to Annapolis instead of Naval Training Station, Norfolk; Howard L. Jennings, V. P. Squadron 3B (U. S. S. Langley) to Squantum, Mass.

LIEUTENANTS (J. G.).

William C. Butler, jr., U. S. S. Colorado to Asiatic station; George M. Chambers, U. S. S. Tennessee to Asiatic station; H. G. Corey, U. S. S. Nevada to Asiatic station; V. P. Deuwe, U. S. S. Oklahoma to U. S. S. Wasmuth; John B. Grasz, U. S. S. West Virginia to Asiatic station; Joseph R. Hamler, U. S. S. Bushnell to Naval Depot, Yorktown, Va.; Peter R. Lackner, U. S. S. Hovey to U. S. S. Wright; Herman N. Larson, U. S. S. Oklahoma to U. S. S. Chandler; Albert S. Miller, U. S. S. Louisville to Asiatic station; William B. Moore, U. S. S. West Virginia to Asiatic station.

ENSIGNS.

Arthur A. Cumberlege, U. S. S. California to Asiatic station; Willard Feldscher, U. S. S. Saratoga, resignation accepted effective March 17; Charles E. Phillips, U. S. S. Tennessee to U. S. Gamble; John P. Roach, U. S. S. Texas to Asiatic station; Reader C. Scott, U. S. S. Arkansas to Asiatic station; Arthur E. Stafford, U. S. S. Portland, continue treatment Naval Hospital, San Diego; Francis L. Williamson, U. S. S. Oklahoma to U. S. S. Southard.

Supply Corps.

LIEUTENANT.

Cyrus B. Kitchen, to Navy Department instead of Naval Supply Depot, Norfolk, Va.

Prof. Ridgely St. John's Head

Dean of Faculty Is Named Acting President Until Woodcock Arrives.

Annapolis, Md., Feb. 26 (Spl.).—To relieve a chaotic condition in St. John's College administration, pending the induction of former National Prohibition Administrator Amos W. W. Woodcock, of Salisbury, Md., as president, the governors and visitors board has appointed Prof. Reginald H. Ridgely, dean of faculty, as acting president and Ridgely designated Capt. Douglas L. Howard, U. S. Navy (retired), as his assistant.

Ten days ago the board deposed Dr. Douglas H. Gordon, of Baltimore, and elected Woodcock, who is an alumnus of the college. The latter reported he could not take over the post before July 1. Meanwhile affairs were placed in the hands of an executive committee, of which Dr. Ridgely was made chairman. This committee took the ground that the newly elected president should assume his duties within a few days, as it was necessary to shape policies for the next collegiate year. Hence the naming of Prof. Ridgely.

Capt. Howard, the new assistant, is a native of Annapolis, a son of the late Capt. Thomas B. Howard, of the Navy. He attended St. John's before entering the Naval Academy, from which he graduated in 1906. He was prominent as a football player, captaining the Navy eleven in his senior year. He was head football coach at the academy for three years, and served a like tenure as director of athletics. He retired from the Navy in 1933.

Corporation Court To Be Abolished

Virginia Appeals Tribunal Dooms Lower Bench.

Richmond, Feb. 26 (AP).—The Corporation Court of Hopewell, Va., was doomed here today when the Supreme Court of Appeals upheld an act of the General Assembly abolishing the court. The powers and docket of the Corporation Court were ordered transferred to the Circuit Court of Hopewell.

Today's action was the result of a petition filed by Joseph Nehr, in which he asked a writ of prohibition to prevent Judge Marshall R. Peterson, of the Circuit Court, from retaining jurisdiction in a case in which Nehr is a defendant. The Supreme Court refused the writ sought by Nehr.

Eastern Shore Woman, W. C. T. U. Leader, Dies

Chestertown, Md., Feb. 26 (Spl.). Mrs. Daisy Uailton Shriven, 62, prominent Woman's Christian Temperance Union worker of the Eastern Shore and wife of C. Romie Shriven, former president and for 15 years a member of the county Board of Education, died at Easton Emergency Hospital, following a short illness, today.

Staunton Area Reports CWA Pay Roll Drop

Disbursements for Week Less Than Half of Peak Total.

Staunton, Va., Feb. 25.—The civil works pay roll in seven counties and four cities in this section continues to decline. Compared with a high point of 4,990 employes and weekly pay roll of $71,000, the past week's figures show 2,955 receiving checks totaling $30,000.

Staunton's pay roll for the week was $4,217.12, compared with $4,510.03 the previous week; Augusta County's, $4,102.37, as against $5,071.07 a week ago, while Staunton's women workers drew $439.

Bristol, Va., Feb. 26 (Spl.).—Curtailment of CWA work affected both Bristols last week and slowness of the Tennessee State office in approving new projects for Bristol, Tenn., cut down the pay roll greatly.

In Bristol, Va., workmen received $4,338.07. In Bristol, Tenn., 223 men were employed and received $2,118.14.

Kingsport, Tenn., was harder hit by lack of projects, only 24 men working. They were paid $339.30. The county as a whole had 546 men working, and they received $5,249.30.

Hackler-Wood Post of the American Legion will cooperate with the State organization and the Tennessee CWA in its plan to mark every town in the State for airplane usage, Commander Paul A. Orr has announced.

The State highway department is furnishing trucks, the CWA is furnishing the personnel, paint, gasoline and equipment to do the work. The legion's job is to cooperate and secure permission from building owners for proper marking of the town.

Tappahannock, Va., Feb. 26 (Spl.). A 75-gallon-a-minute gusher has resulted from completion of the first Civil Works project authorized here, that of sinking a second artesian well for the town water system.

Trooper, in Fatal Fight, Improves

Another Killing Follows Quarrel Over Shotgun.

Beckley, W. Va., Feb. 26 (Spl.). Anthony Scalise, State trooper wounded in a gun battle that brought death to Earl Duling, of Covington, Va., was reported improved today in a hospital here.

Duling died Saturday night following the gun fight, which occurred in a search for liquor at Skelton, near here. Paul, a brother, was held for investigation.

Okey Lovejoy, 25, was killed yesterday when he and Homer Carter, 20, are alleged to have fought to grasp a shotgun hanging on a wall in a home at Amandaville, near Charleston. State troopers arrested Carter and jailed him at Charleston.

Hagerstown NRA Test Sessions Held

Three Meetings Conducted by Compliance Chief.

Hagerstown, Md., Feb. 26 (Spl.). Using Hagerstown as a typical locality for the study of the workings of the NRA, State Compliance Director Arthur E. Hungerford held three meetings here today.

They comprised the first of a series of conferences with employers of labor, housewives and employes, which, if successful, will be held in every community of the Nation, Hungerford said.

Hungerford met employers this afternoon to hear complaints and suggestions, and later he met members of women's organizations. Tonight Hungerford met both organized and unorganized employes.

RESORTS
Atlantic City, N. J.
LET THE HOTEL DENNIS
Be Your Host During the LENTEN SEASON
Enjoy the warm sunshine and brazing sea air at Atlantic City. Attractive rates still prevail.
WALTER J. BUZBY, INC.

Famine Perils Mountaineers; Funds Rushed

Virginia Hurries Relief; Snow Swamps State; Bay Ships Stilled.

Richmond, Feb. 26 (AP).—Six thousand dollars was sent to Buchanan County today to aid snowbound mountaineers, threatened with famine and illness as a result of the week-end storm.

The money was dispatched by Civil Works Administration headquarters here. The funds will be used to provide food, blankets and medicines.

Meanwhile, Virginia was promised clear skies and sunshine tomorrow, but freezing temperatures.

From the Weather Bureau here the forecast came for a minimum temperature of from 10 to 15 degrees early tomorrow. Official readings today showed a high of 30 and a low of 23 degrees.

The snow, which covered practically the entire State, ranged in depth from 6 inches to more than a foot. The heaviest fall was in the western and southwestern areas.

State Highway Department workers were busy clearing main highways, but many secondary roads were still impassable.

Unofficial estimates said 25,000 CWA employes who would be idle.

Fredericksburg, Va., Feb. 26 (Spl.).—Yesterday's snow practically suspended school operations in Caroline, King George, Stafford and Spotsylvania Counties, while Fredericksburg schools operated with greatly reduced attendance.

All work was called off at College Heights High School this morning, and classes were suspended at Falmouth High and elementary schools.

T. Benton Gayle, superintendent of Stafford County schools, said schools probably would be closed tomorrow, while J. H. Chiles, superintendent of Spottsylvania County, did not believe the schools would open.

Danville Hard Hit.

Danville, Va., Feb. 26 (Spl.).—Danville today dug itself out of the worst sleet and snowstorm in 10 years and found time to vote on a $3,000,000 power plant project at the same time.

Four inches of snow, followed by rain which froze, paralyzed trolley service, inflicted severe damage on wire companies, and irreparably damaged Danville's trees.

Okry Davis and Flenton Davis, Negro brothers, were in a local hospital, probably fatally injured, after being hit near Chatham by an unknown motorist plowing through the storm. They lay in the snow with broken legs and fractured skulls until the lights of a passing car revealed them.

Madeline and Kenneth Shelton, children of E. F. Shelton, escaped when a snow-weighted roof fell in this morning. The bedpost held the weight until they scrambled to safety. At Martinsville, the roof of the Acme Garage caved in, crushing 20 automobiles.

Nearly 500 telegraph and telephone poles were down between here and Greensboro, N. C., and highways were blocked. No toll wires were open and broken limbs carried away many feeder wires, depriving householders of electricity.

Chesapeake Ships Warned.

Norfolk, Va., Feb. 26 (Spl.).—All ships were warned of unprecedented ice conditions in Chesapeake Bay today.

The Hydrographic Office message stated that many vessels are held fast in the upper portion of the bay.

A blinding snowstorm today added to the peril of ships held in the ice. The Coast Guard was requested to send assistance to Devil and Tangier Islands, but all vessels in the Norfolk division are already at work. Patrol boats CG-154 and 175, damaged by ice while they were attempting to free other craft, are being repaired as rapidly as possible.

The lighthouse depot here today reported buoys in Occohannock Creek, Md. and Maryland Point, carried away. Neither the Bay Line nor the Chesapeake Line ships attempted to sail from Baltimore or Norfolk tonight.

Nine Inches of Snow at Annapolis.

Annapolis, Md., Feb. 26 (Spl.). Annapolis and surrounding territory is covered by nine inches of snow and hail which began falling yesterday and continued until 1 p. m. today. Main highways between Washington and Baltimore were kept open by snow plows operating through the night. Most county roads were impassable.

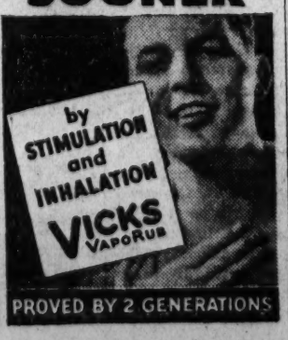
Bay navigation is practically at a standstill.

Oyster Prices Rise.

Crisfield, Md., Feb. 26 (AP).—More than two feet of snow had fallen today in some sections of the lower Eastern Shore, and watermen expressed fear that harbors and channels near here would freeze over.

Shell stock oysters here have taken another jump in price, being quoted at $1.30 a bushel, due to the difficulty in gathering oysters through the ice.

Ends a Cold SOONER



PROVED BY 2 GENERATIONS

Lansburgh's
NO CONNECTION WITH ANY OTHER WASHINGTON STORE 7TH, 8TH and E

Antici

Cold Weather Needs to Keep You Warm

A month of snow, sleet and blizzards has caught many people unprepared, but Lansburgh's stands ready to supply you with everything you need for comfort. Here are a few of them:

Electric Heaters, $1.35
Use them in chilly bathrooms, or anywhere you want instantaneous heat. Bowl type, with chromium reflector. Guaranteed; operates on A. C. or D. C. current.
Sixth Floor.

Wool Blankets, $4.95
Don't let any one in your family be cold tonight! All wool, duo-tone blankets, in lovely colorings, satin bound; 70x80 inches.
Third Floor.

Sheet Blankets, $1.00
Sleep between these and you'll be surprised how much warmer you are. Made by Nashua; 70x90.
Third Floor.

Army Blankets, $1.95
Approximately 75% wool; in a neutral grey shade that stands a lot of wear and use; 62x82 inches.
Third Floor.

Wool Auto Robes, $4.95
You need one of these in your car these cold days, and these are fine all wool robes, in attractive plaid designs.
Third Floor.

Winterette Undies, 59c
Vests and pants that are 25% silk and wool mixed with 75% cotton; snug fitting and very warm. Sizes broken.
Third Floor.

Rayon-Wool Hose, $1 Pr.
Women's full-fashioned hose of rayon and wool; sizes 9 to 10½.
Semi-Fashioned Rayon and Wool Hose, 69c.
Women's Silk and Wool Hose, $1.95 Pair.
Street Floor.

Children's Lined Gloves, 95c
One clasp or pull-on style gloves to keep little fingers from frostbite. Tan, brown, black, sizes 4 to 7.
Street Floor.

Women's Driving Gloves, $2.95
Pull-on styles, heavy capeskin gloves lined with seamless wool; a few with fur; sizes 6 to 8.
Street Floor.

Men's Flannelette Pajamas, $1.65
Amoskeag flannelette in striped patterns; slipover or button coat styles; all sizes.
Street Floor.

Men's Wool Hose, 75c Pr.
Interwoven hose, neat figures and stripes, in rich heather mixtures; grey, brown and blue; sizes 10 to 12.
Street Floor.

Men's Wool Sweaters, $2.95
Splendid all wool sweater coats, close ribbed for perfect fit and warmth; sizes 36 to 44.
Street Floor.

Boys' Bath Robes, $1.39
Esmond blanket robes, very warm and cozy; bright jacquard patterns; shawl collar style; sizes 12 and 14.
Basement Store.

Women's Bath Robes, $2.29
Beacon robes, in solid colors and jacquard patterns; full cut and very attractive; small, medium and large sizes.
Basement Store.

Children's Leggings, $1.25
Warm jersey leggings with zip-on fasteners which children can manage themselves; sizes 2 to 5. Suede Cloth Leggins, sizes 2 to 8, special $3.
Fourth Floor.

Snow Shovels, 69c
Long handled, heavy steel snow shovels.
Sixth Floor.

Women's Galoshes, $1.95
Keep your feet warm, dry and comfortable. Fleece-lined rubber pullovers, or slide fasteners; high or low heels; all sizes.

Kiddies' Galoshes, Snap Fasteners, $1
Brown rubber, fleece lined galoshes with 3-snap fasteners. Sizes from small 8 to large 3.

Men's Storm Rubbers
Don't take a chance with old man Bad Cold! Get a pair of these. Sizes 6½ to 11½ $1.50
Second Floor.

—And if you can't come and get them, we'll send them out.
PHONE
DISTRICT 7575

The Washington Post

THE WASHINGTON POST PUBLISHING CO.
Eugene Meyer, President and Publisher.
Eugene MacLean, General Manager. F. R. Harrison, Secretary-Treasurer.

The Associated Press is entitled exclusively to use for republication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper and local news of spontaneous origin published herein. Rights of republication of all other matter herein are also reserved.

OFFICES OF THE WASHINGTON POST
New York, N. Y. ..... 270 Madison Avenue
Chicago, Ill. ..... 360 North Michigan Avenue
Detroit, Mich. ..... 8-241 General Motors Building
St. Louis, Mo. ..... 205 Globe Democrat Building
San Francisco, Calif. ..... 742 Market Street

DELIVERED IN WASHINGTON

Daily, Sunday, 1 yr.	$7.80	Daily, Sunday, 1 week	15c
Daily, only, 1 yr.	5.20	Daily only, 1 week	10c
Sunday only, 1 yr.	2.60	Sunday only, per copy	5c

BY MAIL—MARYLAND, VIRGINIA, WEST VIRGINIA AND NORTH CAROLINA.

Daily and Sunday.		Sunday Only.		Daily Only.
One year	$9.00	One year	$4.00	One month	.80
Six months	5.00	Six months	2.00	Six months	4.50
One month	.85	One month	.40	One year	$6.00

OTHER STATES, MEXICO AND CANADA

Daily and Sunday.		Sunday Only.		Daily Only.
One year	$11.00	One year	$4.50	One year	$7.50
Six months	6.00	Six months	2.50	Six months	4.00
One month	1.00	One month	.45	One month	.70

All Subscriptions by Mail Payable in Advance.

Entered at the Postoffice, Washington, D. C., as second-class mail matter.

TELEPHONE NATIONAL 4205.

Tuesday, February 27, 1934.

Smoke Without Fire.

Students of Vassar College are to be permitted to smoke in their own rooms in the college dormitories. This may not appear highly significant to people who have come to regard smoking by women as a matter of course. But to those familiar with the elaborate prohibitions and restrictions upon times and places of smoking that exist in some women's colleges, Vassar's action will seem bold and breath-taking.

There was a time, not long ago, when one well-known college for women forbade smoking within the limits of the town, with the result that rows of students perched upon fences and congregated upon sidewalks to smoke on the far side of an invisible line. Like prohibition, that system did not last, but the objection to smoking in dormitories seemed likely to endure. It is based upon a belief that women can not be trusted to smoke in inflammable surroundings. Many strong-minded women instructors are firmly convinced that the services of the fire department will be frequently needed, and they refuse to be shamed when it is pointed out that men smokers do not always burn down the dormitories in which they are housed.

The fact that Vassar is now ready to risk the great experiment is an indication of a growing self-confidence within the confines of the sex, although the references to ash trays and metal wastebaskets indicate that doubt has not vanished entirely. In our opinion it is an unreasonable doubt. We have yet to hear of a woman smoker dropping sparks in the gasoline tank. And our belief is that the feminine cigarette is much more innocuous than the male to carpets, bridge-table covers, rosewood pianos and evening dress.

Two Tragedies.

Side by side in yesterday's newspapers were printed two tragic stories recounting the deaths of seventeen people, nine of them boys who were too young to die. These dispatches from Utah and New Hampshire have doubtless caused many of us to reflect briefly on the fact that scientific invention has done little to remove the precariousness of life.

In both of the instances at hand, death came through the failure of man to control that which he had built for his own comfort and convenience. In one case there was mismanagement of the simple apparatus designed to provide, next to food, man's most essential necessity. In the other case there was misdirection of the complex mechanism constructed to eliminate time and space as they were known to our forefathers. Each mechanism struck, through the medium of bad weather, at those who trusted to it; one in the sub-zero night of the northern New England country; the other in a Western blizzard.

Man has not yet solved the most important problem of mechanics. The intricate airplane was safe until elemental forces confused its pilot. The common everyday furnace in the fraternity house was safe so long as the simple rules of physics by which it operated were observed. But when the human controls faltered, then the complex and the ordinary machines alike turned from friendliness to anger, and destroyed. Most needed of all inventions is a machine to control those who control the machine, and that is something beyond the imagination.

Deep though the anguish caused by these seemingly unnecessary tragedies may be, it will not lessen materially man's sublime faith in his unknown destiny. The average householder will tend his furnace with no more and no less care than heretofore. Pilots will continue to ride the storms, and men and women will place trust in their ability to outfly the eagles. Death, though awful in such visitations, is far less strong than life. And the law of life allows no admission of defeat in the long struggle which man has undertaken in harnessing the forces of nature for purposes strangely uncertain even to himself.

The Middle Course.

Secretary Wallace is evidently prepared to practice as well as preach the political doctrines expounded in his recent pamphlet, "America Must Choose." The objective manner in which he urged the necessity of looking ahead before deciding upon a policy, and the force with which he advocated a middle course between economic nationalism and internationalism, were echoed in his remarks before the Senate Finance Committee concerning the domestic beet sugar industry. Although Mr. Wallace thinks that the present world-wide chaos in the sugar industry is largely due to tariffs and bounties, he is not willing to visualize elimination of domestic beet sugar production except as a long-range proposition—"within the next hundred years."

To be sure, these philosophical reflections will not pacify the conflicting sugar interests whose thoughts and efforts are concentrated upon the present. However, the man who looks ahead is not likely to commit the mistakes that the political opportunist can seldom avoid. Recognition of maladjustments in the world sugar industry, for example, does not imply a ruthless leveling of tariff barriers. It suggests acceptance of that middle of the road policy which Secretary Wallace recommends, in this case because of the probability that the American consumer and American export trade will both profit if we obtain our sugar from the places where it was destined by nature to be grown.

Reunion In Vienna?

Possibilities in a political situation expand in direct ratio to the seriousness of the situation. In Austria today the tension is such that anything might happen. For that reason alone it would be unsafe to dismiss as idle rumor the reports that the Archduke Otto, exiled heir to the Hapsburg throne, is being groomed for a monarchical restoration at Vienna.

There are, however, other factors which make such a development plausible, if not probable. A Hapsburg restoration, backed by Chancellor Dollfuss and the Heimwehr, would give Hitler real cause to pause in his program of absorbing Austria under the swastika emblem. To push the diminutive Austrian chancellor from power would be one thing; to move against a restored Hapsburg backed by centuries of tradition and a neutral in Austria's recent civil strife, would be quite another. Monarchical sentiment in Germany, moreover, would be quick to resent any move by a parvenu like Hitler to crush a Hapsburg restoration.

Furthermore, Otto is already regarded as the legitimate claimant to leadership in Hungary, the other part of the dual monarchy over which his forebears ruled. The possibilities of a restoration which would consolidate the central fragments of the old empire are staggering in their implications. But they are not so staggering as the present condition of the chaotic Austrian republic.

That Dollfuss himself is doomed has been apparent ever since the bloody suppression of the Socialists early this month. Whether or not he was forced to sponsor that civil war in the streets of Vienna and other cities, his eventual fate was sealed by the blood then spilled. The question in Austria these past few days has not been whether or not Dollfuss will remain in power, so much as who shall succeed him, and how?

Germany alone excepted, all the great powers are opposed to the absorption of Austria by the Nazis, heretofore the most probable outcome. But such absorption, it would seem, can only be averted by a settlement which would give Austria a chance of economic as well as political independence. A Hapsburg restoration, whether with or without connivance of the allied powers, might lead to an Austro-Hungarian combination much stronger economically than is either of the two countries as an independent unit.

Strange and portentous as such an outcome would be it can not be called more impossible than most of the other conceivable solutions of Austria's tragic fate.

"Like A Wedding."

From all parts of Great Britain a small army of hunger marchers has converged upon London to stage a week of protests against certain hated features of the new Unemployment Bill. Violent and highly disrespectful language is used by the demonstrators in referring to the Prince of Wales and government leaders. But their acts have so far belied their words. According to one police inspector the initial demonstration in Hyde Park, witnessed by 50,000 bystanders, passed off "like a wedding."

This restrained atmosphere may have been due in part to the presence of several thousand picked police swinging clubs and carrying swords. But the clashes between continental police forces and civilians in recent weeks show that when men are aroused, a show of force may incite to riot instead of quelling incipient disturbances. Differences of temperament probably account in part for the ability of the British to stage an antigovernment demonstration in which the guardians of order and ragged representatives of the unemployed associate on almost friendly terms. But the public temper depends upon training as well as upon racial characteristics and national idiosyncrasies.

The British have behind them a long record of orderly government which is inseparable from their tradition of complete freedom to express dissent. Liberty of speech is one of the best safeguards of established government that exists. "Blowing off steam" is a favorite occupation of the British working classes. So far not even bitter social and economic strain have sufficed to debase the system of orderly and candid protestation into rioting.

Why The Discrimination?

Some Federal officials have manifested a good deal of concern over pollution of the Potomac River. The PWA granted the District $40,000 for a sanitary survey because of reports that the contaminated Potomac is a menace to health. Experts found that a sewage disposal plant in Washington is urgently needed, and the District Commissioners recommended construction of such a plant at Blue Plains. But the Federal Budget Bureau says that such a project is not "now in accord with the financial policy of the President."

On the other side of the Potomac, in Arlington County, the work of purifying this historic stream is progressing rapidly. The PWA made a gift of $570,000 to Arlington County, in addition to a loan of $1,930,000, for this purpose. Sewage disposal plants will be constructed at Rosslyn and Four Mile Run, near Alexandria. When these are completed Arlington County will stop pouring sewage into the Potomac and all of that county's streams will be purified.

Similar aid from the PWA in the construction of a District sewage disposal plant has been requested. That great dispenser of funds readily saw the need for elimination of stream pollution in the suburban area south of the Potomac, but it is deaf to the requests of District officials for the purification of streams within the National Capital. Discrimination against the disfranchised citizens of Washington is all too evident in this attitude.

The proposed sewage disposal plant meets all the specifications of an essential public works project. PWA funds might be spent to far greater advantage in improvements of this kind than in reclamation projects bringing new land into competition with farms where crops are being plowed under. There is still some hope that the PWA may adopt a more far-sighted policy with respect to this project than the Budget Bureau has done. But if the discrimination of the latter against public improvements in Washington persists, the need for a sewage disposal plant should certainly be laid before Congress.

A Thought For The Creditor.

Public sympathy has gone out freely to owners of mortgaged homes and farms threatened by dispossession under foreclosure proceedings. Legal moratoria on foreclosures now exists in a number of States and the Federal Government has intervened to assist the refinancing of farm and home mortgages at lower rates. Furthermore, institutional investors, such as insurance companies, have for reasons of expediency or as a matter of deliberate policy been disposed to deal gently with mortgagors.

On the other hand, the hardships inflicted upon individuals whose incomes have been tied up through the inability of the mortgagors to meet current payments have received relatively little attention. The public is inclined to regard such persons as representatives of the wealthy classes and to let them shift for themselves.

The plight of the small investor has now been brought dramatically to the fore in New York. In that city there appear to be some 500,000 owners of $1,000,000,000 of guaranteed mortgage certificates now in default—issues of title and guarantee companies located in New York City and environs. The inability of these companies to make good their guarantees has brought great distress to many persons. Commissioner Alger in a report to Gov. Lehman says that thousands of people of modest means who have invested their life savings in these certificates are now forced to choose between selling them "for a fraction of their real worth to those who have organized themselves to feed on their distress" or turning to charity.

The Commissioner recommends establishment of a relief corporation, with capital subscribed by banks and insurance companies, which would be privileged to borrow up to $100,000,000 from the RFC. Certificate holders could then obtain loans equal to 25 per cent of the face value of their holdings at the rate of 5 per cent. This proposal is quite distinct from another plan designed to give adequate protection to certificate holders while effecting an adjustment of claims.

Certainly the situation in New York City is acute enough to dispel popular notions that only debtors need relief from the collapse of realty values in a period of depression. Creditors as well as debtors are victims under such conditions. So is the public at large, which suffers indirectly from the disorganization of the real estate market.

The New Forest Policy.

Adoption of the proposed amendment to the lumber code means that almost one-fourth of the land of the United States is to be brought under Government supervision in a long-range program of reforestation. It means, on the human side, that President Roosevelt is to realize an ambition first officially expressed 21 years ago when he was a State senator in New York.

The amendment pledges individual operators to work for prevention of forest fires, to selective cutting with a view to the preservation of young trees and immature growth, and to restocking of land after cutting. The public obligation, on the other hand, is to bring all commercial timber operators under provisions of the code; to work for an equitable tax system adapted to a slow-maturing crop; to create a forest credit system, and to acquire more timberlands for the creation of a great natural reserve.

The primary significance of the movement is that the lumber industry commits itself to the abandonment of destructive cutting, which, through 75 years, has denuded vast areas. The code provisions mark the beginning of a policy that had hitherto been fruitlessly urged for 50 years.

Ward Shepard, forester for the Indian service, who has been active in formulating the new policy, regards it as "one of the most important steps in the forest history of the world, because in no other land or time has an effort been made to revolutionize the treatment of 400,000,000 acres of forests." Even if that estimate of its importance is not accepted, it remains a significant innovation.

Mile Posts

A Parade of the Past From the Files of The Post.

TWENTY YEARS AGO TODAY.

SECRETARY OF STATE BRYAN warned the Texas Rangers to keep out of Mexico. Villa yielded to the U. S. Consul and announced he would permit a committee to examine the body of the slain Benton. Returning Americans accuse Villa himself of the murder.

SENATOR HOLLIS, (Dem.), of New Hampshire, declared the Democratic party might continue to believe that Federal control was an evil but that it must recognize the need for efficient control of private monopoly. He was chided for his "Republicanism."

TEN YEARS AGO TODAY.

SENATE AND HOUSE paid a joint tribute to the memory of Warren G. Harding with President Coolidge and his Cabinet in attendance. Secretary Hughes delivered the eulogy.

HENRY L. DAUGHERTY'S resignation as Attorney General was predicted after a night session at the White House. William M. Butler, Frank W. Stearns and other Coolidge advisers attended, and discussed the political implications.

Winter Sports.

Letters to the Editor

The Post welcomes letters from its readers. All communications should be signed with the writer's name. Upon publication initials or pen names will be used if requested. Letters should be limited to 300 words.

William W. Bride's Politics.

To the Editor of The Post—Sir: Your paper stated this morning in its discussion of the Bride matter that "One of the issues behind Tumulty's attack is said to be the failure of Bride to insert a provision in the Liquor Bill which Tumulty desired." As a matter of fact, I had no interest directly or indirectly in any phase of the so-called liquor legislation of the District of Columbia. I go further and say that I have never had any professional or personal interest in any matter that Mr. Bride was even remotely connected with as Corporation Counsel. No client of mine ever discussed with me a single line or phrase of this matter of liquor control. No one is in a better position than William Bride to confirm this statement. Of course, he will not do so.

Let the members of Congress dealing with this matter, peruse the sketches in Who's Who in America, Volumes 16 and 17 for the years 1930-31, 1932-33, and the sketch submitted to the Department of Justice, where in his own language he characterizes himself as a Republican. If they wish it, I will submit to them Mr. Bride's unusual letter to Gov. Smith, dated December 16, 1933, were, in the following scarlet lines, he repudiates this contribution to the Republican cause and characterizes it as a "hold up":

"I have but one blot on my escutcheon in a period of nearly forty years' active service within the Democratic party. Very late in October, 1928, I was informed definitely that my position here was in jeopardy unless I made a very large contribution to the Republican cause. I declined to do this but under the stress and pressure, I did make a contribution of one hundred dollars. I was literally held up for it. I have been utterly ashamed of this from the moment that it occurred."

It would be a rare pleasure for me in any way, anywhere, any time, under either Republican or Democratic auspices, publicly to discuss Mr. Bride's Democratic-Republican record. Why hide Mr. Bride's record, so variably, so interesting, behind the mask of Congressional immunity?

JOSEPH T. TUMULTY.
Washington, Feb. 25.

Universal Insanity.

To the Editor of The Post—Sir: Recently a noted psychologist stated that by 2139 A. D. everybody will probably be insane. Well, if said psychologist will stop expounding his theories long enough to review the world's history for the past 20 years, he will find that the human race reached the period of universal insanity in 1914 and has shown no improvement in its mental condition since then. In fact, after observing how everybody has, instead of thinking for themselves, let a small group of egomaniacs lead them into all sorts of trouble, I don't believe they can get any worse mentally than they are now. For example, we are always kicking against too much government meddling in our personal affairs, yet for the past 20 years, instead of trying to solve our individual problems, we hand them over to our statesmen, who in many cases are dumber than we are. If that isn't a form of insanity I would like to know what else you could call it.

EDWARD D. LYLE.
Arlington, Va., Feb. 15.

Too Heavy Mortgages.

To the Editor of The Post—Sir: Could I suggest an amendment to the bill to regulate exchanges?

Buying real estate on a mortgage is essentially the same as buying stocks on a margin. Many of our troubles come from too heavy mortgages.

Why not require a 60 per cent payment on both stock and real estate purchases?

H. F. NORTHROP.
Washington, Feb. 21.

Our Point Exactly.

To the Editor of The Post—Sir: The cartoon displayed on your editorial page this morning implied that the Army Air Corps is inadequately trained and prepared for the service now required of them.

The Army Air Corps is being criticized by members of Congress because its pilots are not carrying the mail as safely and expeditiously as did the air line pilots and because six Air Corps pilots have been killed during the past week.

We learned in the years immediately following the war that planes built for military purposes, designed for extreme maneuverability and good fighting qualities, were ill-suited to carry mail or passengers. One reason why American commercial planes are so superior to those of Europe, as was strikingly demonstrated by Frank Hawks on his European tour, is that European aviation is primarily military, and while every country subsidizes its commercial air lines, commercial aviation under the direction of air ministers is distinctly of secondary importance.

In America, on the other hand, we have placed commercial aviation under the Department of Commerce, and by the Watres act we entrusted to the Postmaster General the duty of promoting commercial aviation, and built up strong lines able to carry not only the mail but also passengers and express swiftly and safely.

In conclusion, permit me to call to mind the record of the Army Air Corps the last time it was permitted to engage in gigantic Nation-wide tactical maneuvers. Under the command of Gen. Benjamin D. Foulois more than 500 planes were assembled and flew in formation over a large part of the United States. It was freely predicted that in this tremendous maneuver with planes flying in close formations and with the air full of high powered military planes at least six pilots would be killed in the course of the two or three weeks' maneuvers. What was the record? Not a single pilot lost his life. They were engaged in that for which they had been trained, namely, military maneuvers. They were not suddenly requested to do something requiring a different form of training and a considerable amount of experience, as has been learned by our splendid air lines who have been so unfairly treated and whose highly efficient pilots and remarkably capable mechanics have been deprived of their occupation because some of their leaders are charged with error. "There is nothing more frightful than an active ignorance."

HIRAM BINGHAM.
Washington, Feb. 24.

To "Derby Wearer."

To the Editor of The Post—Sir: Why is Derby-Wearer so concerned about the elevator courtesy of other derby wearers? If he feels that he does not care to remove his hat when a lady enters, why does he do it? It's mostly a state of feeling and early training, but as a mother I should feel I had failed in my work if my son should feel and act as he seems to desire all men to do. Why doesn't he have the moral courage to break a precedent, in this day of precedent breaking, and leave that derby he so fears will be crushed on top of his head the next time he enters an elevator? I do not think any lady will ask him to remove it.

His unwillingness to do this answers his own question, for he knows as well as I that it is merely a gesture of deference to the fair sex, but it endears those who make it to

ONE WHO APPRECIATES COURTESY.
Washington, Feb. 14.

The Wandering King.

To the Editor of The Post—Sir: At this time, while we are all mourning the untimely death of Albert, King of the Belgians, the inclosed poem may be of interest.

The story of its writing goes back to 1915, while I was at Amsterdam. It was the birthday of Queen Elizabeth and Belgian children were selling flowers on the streets for the benefit of refugees.

One of the most beautiful little boys I have ever seen, looked appealingly into my eyes offering a little yellow flower, saying "For Belge!"

Returning to my room at the hotel, I wrote this poem, and as I was leaving for London that evening, tucked it into my handbag. On the train from Amsterdam to Rotterdam, a young Belgian girl sat beside me. I read the poem to her, and she said, "Oh, you must send that to our king, and he will write you a letter."

I protested, but she insisted. Later while in London, I did copy the poem, in my own handwriting, and sent it to the king and queen, and I did receive a letter of thanks and appreciation.

Albert, King of Greater Belgium, for yours is soon to be
A resurrected nation from Liege to the sea.
A land of peace and plenty from the ashes of the past;
Thro' horrors so outrageous, the whole world looks aghast;
For you are firmly standing with your back against a mast,
That mast is built of people, true friends from first to last.

You sent a prayer across the wave, from Antwerp to the West;
"Feed my flock," we heard you say, yes that was your request,
And a mighty nation gave with joy that it might hope to rest.
The anguish and the sorrow of your overburdened breast;
For you have fought and conquered, though your cities lie in dust,
You have shown a deathless spirit sincere and true and just.

Lose not your courage, monarch, our hearts but wait the day
When you are free to borrow, with many years to pay;
For we knew you, in the great northwest, America's free land,
Before you took your burdens up or sceptre in your hand;
England and France will ne'er forget your brave and gallant fight
When peace has wiped the sadness out and ushered in the light.

And when you come into your own, and the faithful gather near,
Yours shall be the voice to give them courage, hope and cheer!
But if a stranger pilgrim from a far-off land you knew,
Might ask a simple privilege, 'twould be to say to you,
That when you come again into your own estate,
With your queen and little children, you enter at the gate.

MARY REID CORY UMSTEAD.
Washington, Feb. 19.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips.

THE BOOM RETURNS TO FLORIDA.

Miami, Fla.—People either have more money today or more people are getting rid of it. Miami and Miami Beach present a puzzling phenomenon. Every hotel is filled to overflowing at the highest rates in four years, you can't get a beach cabana at $65 a month without influence, there are more tourists here than ever before in history, and 59-cent dollars are being tossed around like confetti.

• • • •

That the country is poking its way out of the worst depression on record is generally admitted, but the situation here eclipses anything seen in the days of Coolidge prosperity. It's all done by mirrors.

• • • • •

The biggest hotel on the beach is getting $25 a day for rooms without food and you can take 'em or leave 'em. Nobody is leaving 'em.

• • • •

A new hotel, miles from the center of things on the beach and inconveniently located, is getting $30 a day without hay or oats.

• • • •

Automobiles, which rented for $20 a week during the slump, are now being grabbed at $50. The taxicab men are wearing diamonds, the night clubs with $5 cover charges are turning people away, the horse and dog tracks are wallowing in $2 bills and you can find your way into town by following the trail of discarded tickets bearing the inscription:

FIFTH RACE
NO. 5
WIN

• • • •

The city is gambling mad. The old mouse game, in which you bet on a numbered hole in a wooden box and win at varying odds if a white mouse, released by the operator, goes into the hole you choose, is going big.

• • • •

Every hotel lobby is full of gambling machines, the gaming casinos are getting a big play, and they say that a road worker in the CWA hocked his shovel last week to play a good thing in a 2-year-old race at Hialeah.

• • • •

Mr. Widener's luxurious new race track at Hialeah is seeing crowds beyond the dreams of the builder, and on Saturdays a Singer Midget has to walk sideways to make any progress toward the mutuel windows.

• • • •

If many more people flock to the Hialeah track there won't be room for the horses.

• • • •

Even now the pink flamingoes are feeling the congestion.

• • • •

The three or four dog tracks are also packed nightly and you see the same people who were losing money all afternoon on a bay horse with a white nose tossing it away at night on a white poodle with blue eyes.

• • • •

It's a riot. Miami and Miami Beach are a combination of the Ringling Circus, Coney Island, a Century of Progress, a South Sea Island movie and a Welsh rarebit dream.

IN A MIAMI BEACH HOTEL PATIO.

Here peacocks strut; there must be forty;
They are the pets of Col. Doherty.

• • • • •

The pink flamingoes' tails are scanty—
Their beaks are a la Jim Durante.

• • • • •

Here one white rabbit scampers 'round
Where most exotic scenes abound;
To him my hat is raised aloft—
He leads a life that's pretty soft;
In ignorance he is, think I,
That there's a whippet track nearby.

Ireland has limited screen kisses to three seconds. Except in case of travelogues showing the Blarney Stone.

"Beautiful Pomeranian dog, loves children; fox scarf. Sell or exchange for a diamond ring. 200 W. First street."—Miami News.

• • • • •

We have a stick pin you can have for an angora kitten and a pair of woolen mittens.

(Copyright, 1934, Associated Newspapers.)

As Others See It

This Is Too Much.

Having for years condemned the nefarious practice of ruining that noble dish, cornbread, by sweetening it with sugar, we had hoped that the use of sweetening in such reprehensible forms had been eradicated. Our disappointment is, therefore, acute when we find so reputable a journal as the New York Times editorializing on hominy and advising the use of molasses with it.

This offense is the more culpable because of the fact that the writer of the article appears to know a little about hominy, differentiating properly between "hominy grits" and the genuine article. He seems also to understand a few of the principles that must be followed in the preparation of hominy. He appears to be ignorant of the finer points, such as the prolonged cooking, preferably in a fireless cooker, that is necessary. But these faults could be overlooked if he had not given currency to the heretical and abominable notion that hominy needs syrup to make it palatable.

We have never been able to understand the constant effort to spread misinformation in everything that pertains to use of that grand cereal, corn. It smacks of a conspiracy to rob it of its rightful place among victuals of class. We have known of folk who not only drenched cornbread with sugar, but served it cold—an offense that should be punishable by law. But the attack on the integrity of hominy is beyond the pale. Hominy does not need sugar; it does not need syrup. It needs only to be thoroughly soaked and cooked and seasoned with salt, pepper and butter.

It should be served as a vegetable, and if there is any left over—a most unlikely happening—it should be fried until it is light brown on top and served for breakfast. Molasses? Bosh! That combination is for gastronomical illiterates.

(Baltimore Sun.)

No End of Books

By Theodore Hall.

Indians and Hottentots.

When Dr. George Peter Murdock, professor at Yale, writes of "Our Primitive Contemporaries" (MacMillan, $5), he means contemporary in that cool, detached sense proper to scientists who look upon anything less than 500 years as a mere nothing. The Aztec tribe was broken up in 1521; the Crow and Iroquois Indians have long lost their typical ways; the last Tasmanian (a woman named Lalla Rookh) died in 1876. But these races, and 14 others more literally contemporary, form his subject.

Dr. Murdock aimed his book at that obvious gap between vast, systematized ethnographies dealing with the whole world, and specialized monographs treating of a single tribe. He wrote for the lay reader, to answer the question—how does the savage actually live? If you are interested in anthropology, here is a book you can linger over with great satisfaction.

* * * * *

You will meet the modest and charming Semangs of the Malay Peninsula, to whom war is absolutely unknown; the Aranda of central Australia, who, if erudite, can count up to five, but who are surrounded by an amazing system of relationships and totems; the Todas of southern India, "a race of superb men and hideous women;" the hairy Ainus of northern Japan, who bite as a sign of affection; the Polar Eskimo, who until recently had no notion of sale or barter; and many other races whose beliefs and customs will seem strange.

I have been wondering if we ourselves would not look a little odd if examined by the anthropologist's eye. A few years ago, as I remember, the Peabody Museum of Anthropology in Cambridge was working on just such a study, based on the citizens of Newburyport, Mass. The investigators, like visitors from Mars, were prying into family skeletons and bank deposits and all manner of what we call privacies.

The poor Kazak or Nama Hottentot has had this done to him—it was high time the tables were turned.

Chemical Chit-Chat.

Fine, round, spanking statements always please me beyond measure. Take this, which I find in Dr. Harry N. Holmes' "Out of the Test Tube"—(Long & Smith, $3)—if Haber had not invented in the nick of time, 1913, his process for making ammonia out of hydrogen and nitrogen, "Germany would have run out of ammunition in less than a year."

This big, rambling book is filled with such items. Dr. Holmes, professor at Oberlin, recites at length, and with no more technical chemistry than one can be led to understand, the story of the test tube in industry, war and other fields of activity. From vitamins to photography, from the use of light metals to McKee's hybrid poplar (which in eight years grows as large as an ordinary, poplar does in 45), from LeBlanc's soda process in 1791 (the beginning of modern chemical industry) to the forecasts of future housing, we are led pleasantly and very readably. It is a grand book in which to browse.

* * * * *

I could fill out the rest of the column with "things I never knew 'till now," taken from these pages. Let me give but one example: I had always wondered—certainly not very acutely, or I should have looked it up long before this—why absolute zero was placed at minus 273 degrees centigrade. Page 43 tells me that a gas shrinks 1/273 in volume for every degree centigrade of cooling. So 273/273 seems about as far as the process could go. For all the theoretical difficulty of matter thus disappearing, chemists have produced a temperature but one-quarter degree from the incredible chilliness of absolute zero.

Obviously, "Out of the Test Tube" has made me no chemist, but my next dinner partner is going to think me one.

Gilbert Seldes, under the title, "Sugar and Spice and Not So Nice," in Esquire Magazine for March, claims (among other things) that it was he who discovered Mae West. Says Mr. Seldes:

"I was right about her talents, and if the producers of movies had read the New Republic eight years ago, instead of the fan magazines, they might have picked her up on my tip."

* * * *

The Wilders of New Haven must be a particularly peaceful family. Three of them are writing novels at the same time and still managing to keep on friendly terms with each other. Thornton has commandeered the Wilder home, Isabel has been driven out to the home of a neighbor whose eight children are away at schools and who has many silent, empty rooms, and Charlotte is at Yaddo.

Coward-McCann have announced Isabel Wilder's new book, "Heart, Be Still," for May.

Convicted Wife Slayer Appeals to High Court

San Francisco, Feb. 26 (AP).—Attacking the scientific conclusions of State experts, David A. Lamson, convicted of the murder of his wife, Alene, at the Stanford University home last Memorial Day and sentenced today to die, asked the State supreme court to reverse the conviction.

A 600-page brief, replete with diagrams of the fractured area of the young Y. W. C. A. secretary's skull, contended her wounds could only have been produced by one blow and claimed this "shows conclusively that Allene Lamson came to her death by accident." She was found dead in a bath tub.

Stock Value Reduced.

Chicago, Feb. 26 (AP).—Stockholders of Public Service Co., of Northern Illinois, today approved proposals of the management to reduce stated values of its common shares from $100 to $80 and re-elected all directors.

The National Gallery

RICHARD BREVARD RUSSELL, JR., Senator from Georgia. Born 36 years ago in Georgia. The Senate's youngest member. Bachelor. Son of a distinguished judge, editor, orator, publicist. Lawyer, member of the Georgia General Assembly at 24. Its Speaker by 1927. Elected Governor of Georgia in 1931, to the Senate the next year, replacing the late Senator Harris in the Seventy-second Congress and so getting the jump, in all-important seniority, on others elected in 1932 to the Seventy-third Congress. Silent (relatively), serious New Dealer.

Hen Can Beat a Hawk at Laying Eggs

By Robert Quillen

The King's chief interest and enthusiasm was good work. It wasn't the nature of the job that mattered, but the way it was done. If a bridge was perfectly built, the King knighted the builder—whether the bridge spanned a river or a gap in his lower jaw.

Often he was heard to say: "I would rather be an excellent farmer than a sorry King." And often he would add: "If I can't do a thing as well as it can be done, I won't do it at all."

All things well done delighted the King, but he was especially fond of good singing. He would stay up all night to enjoy a good male quartet, and the secret sorrow of his life was his inability to sing bass.

One day he announced a contest. That one of his subjects who did the best job before Michaelmas would be given a bag of gold as heavy as he could carry.

The contest was not limited. The winner might build a mansion or grow a crop of turnips or write a poem or sing a song or lift a face. The job didn't matter at all, but only the way it was done.

A corps of observers, whose business was unknown, would tour the country making notes. Then on the great day the people would assemble in the public square and the King would proclaim the winner.

Now, among the King's subjects was a young and handsome blacksmith who possessed an excellent bass voice.

He sang as he worked in his shop and people stopped in the street to listen. All day long he pulled the handle of his great bellows or pounded white-hot metal into plowshares, and the clang of his anvil kept time with the man-size notes that echoed among the rafters.

At night the young blacksmith, whose name was Oscar, would say to his sweetheart, whose name was Kitty: "Dear lass, it won't be long now. Some strangers came to my shop today, and I am sure they were the King's observers. I pretended not to notice them and went on with my singing. Soon I can quit this commonplace business of making plowshares, and then we shall be rich and famous."

So the great day came and the people assembled and the King stood on a platform to announce the winner.

"Oscar," he cried, "come here and receive your bag of gold."

Then he offered his hand and said: "Congratulations, young man. You make the best plowshare I ever saw."

A book containing 26 "Letters From a Bald-Headed Dad to His Red-Headed Daughter," by Robert Quillen, is now available.

The price is 50 cents. Address Publishers Syndicate, 30 North La Salle, Chicago, Ill.

(Copyright, 1934.)

Royalists Demand Hapsburg's Return

Continued from Page 1.

indication that the legitimists may be willing to accept him as a regent pending what they hope will be the enthronement of Archduke Otto of Hapsburg.

Rumors Fly Thick.

The tramp of marching Fascist troops drummed out sensational rumors tonight that echoed wherever the marchers went through the length and breadth of Austria.

One rumor said 40,000 Heimwehr men were on the way to guard the Austro-German border. Government and Heimwehr headquarters took turns denying this. All that could be certified was that Heimwehr organizations were being shifted in all directions.

Heimwehr authorities said the transfers were beinb made in order that the populace might see how truly strong was the political militia which, a fortnight past, aided police and government troops to win a civil war against Socialists.

Vienna Crowds Silent.

It was pointed out that it was well that cities and villages might see units of the corps apart from settings where neighbors called each other by first name.

One detachment of marchers, 8,000 strong, paraded in Vienna in review before Chancellor Dollfuss and his two vice chancellors, Emil Fey and Prince Ernst von Starhemberg.

A huge crowd watched the parade, but they watched it in silence. The only sounds as the troops passed before the reviewing stand near the palace gates were the tramp of feet, commands and the blare of martial music. In intervals between bands, the stillness was oppressive.

Mounted police dispersed the crowd after the parade. There was no demonstration—only silence.

Hearse Driver Dies.

San Francisco, Feb. 26 (AP).—The hearse bearing John Haloran, 70, to the cemetery got out of control and crashed into an automobile today. William Birnbaum, 50, the driver, was found dead. Physicians expressed belief he had died of heart disease before the collision.

Welsh Choir Takes Part In Dr. Protherol Rites

Chicago, Feb. 26 (AP).—The Welsh male choir today sang at funeral services for its founder, Dr. Daniel William Protheroe, 75, noted composer, who died Saturday. Several compositions of Dr. Protheroe were included in the final tribute by the choir to the man who had been a leader in musical circles for 40 years.

Dr. Protheroe, whose "Crusaders' Hymn" was sung by Gen. Allenby's troops when they took possession of Jerusalem in 1917, had left his bed a week ago to direct a concert by the choir. He was widely known for his musical works in this country and England.

28 Railways Reveal Net Income Increase

New York, Feb. 26 (AP).—The first 28 railroads to report for January han an agregate net operating income of $9,464,000 against $3,028,000 in January, 1933 and $1,921,000 in the like month of 1932. In December, 1933, the carriers had net operating income of $14,637,000.

Gross revenues of these roads in January were approximately $88,622,000 against $79,345,000 in January, 1933, and $93,354,000 in the comparable month in 1932. Their gross revenues in December, 1933, amounted to $85,676,000.

Fugitive Surrenders In Caress Kidnaping

Hollywood, Feb. 26 (AP).—At large for more than two years, Les Bruneman surrendered to Los Angeles police today and said he was ready to stand trial on charges of kidnaping his friend and former employer, Zeke Caress, Los Angeles and Agua Caliente betting commissioner, and Mrs. Caress. He is the last of seven men arrested in the case. The others were convicted.

Caress and his wife were held prisoners for several days and Caress was forced to write a check for $50,000.

Ready readers watch Post Classified Ads for new propositions every morning. Put your message before them and get results the same day. Just phone National 4205.

Senate Ignores Roosevelt Plea In Veteran Poll

51-39 Ballot Restores 67,000 Spanish War Men to Rolls.

Continued from Page 1.

let the bill become law without his signature.

Senate Bonus Vote Doubtful.

Despite this latest effort of the President to beat back the rising tide of insurgency against him on veterans legislation, leaders in the cash-payment-of-the-bonus movement were confident last night the House would approve the bill. Its fate in the Senate, however, remains doubtful.

When the Senate convenes today, it will start debate on the second drive of the veterans' groups to liberalize further the veterans' compensation law. The pending amendment, also sponsored by Senators Pat McCarran (Democrat), Nevada, and Frederick Steiwer (Republican), Oregon, embraces the first two points of the American Legion four-point program.

Adoption of this amendment would add $55,000,000 to the veterans' compensation total. The amendment would restore to the compensation rolls all presumptive service-connected cases eliminated by the economy act when such cases were based on the 1924 World War Veterans Act, except in cases of fraud.

This second McCarran-Steiwer amendment also would restore the basic $100-a-month rate for all service-connected total disability cases.

These two proposals have been offered as a substitute for that part of the Byrnes amendment, Administration supported, which provides payments equal to 75 per cent of the compensation being paid prior to the economy act for veterans whose claim of presumptive service-connection disability has been disallowed, pending a final determination of their status by the Board of Veterans Appeals here.

As the debate started in the Senate yesterday over restoration of the Spanish War veterans to the compensation rolls, Senator Byrnes, acting for the Administration, started to yield. He offered an amendment which would restore the Spanish War presumptive cases at a rate equal to 75 per cent of their pay prior to the economy act.

Byrnes Gives Ground.

But under his amendment only veterans were qualified whose disabilities so incapacitated them for performance of manual labor as to render them unable to earn support. The administrator of veterans' affairs would be the judge of this condition.

The Byrnes proposal was attacked on the ground that it subjected the Spanish War cases to further adjudication by the Veterans Administration. Finally, Senator Byrnes eliminated the reference to earning a living by manual labor. He made other technical changes, but he could not satisfy the insurgents.

Just before the Senate voted a choice between the Byrnes and the McCarran-Steiwer amendments, Senator Byrnes said the only substantial difference between the two proposals was the difference between 75 and 90 per cent of the March 20, last, compensation.

The South Carolinian estimated the cost of his amendment, as finally revised, at apprxoimately $50,000,000 annually and that of the McCarran-Steiwer amendment at approximately $60,000,000. Senator McCarran objected that the Byrnes proposal would, in addition, subject the Spanish veterans to an interpretation of language by the Veterans Administration.

The roll call on the McCarran-Steiwer amendment, as a substitute for the Byrnes amendment, was as follows:

For the Amendment.

Democrats—Bone, Caraway, Copeland, Costigan, Dill, Hatch, Lonergran, Long, McAdoo, McCarren, McGill, Neely, Overton, Reynolds, Smith, Thomas (Utah), Trammell, Wheeler—18.

Republicans — Austin, Barbour, Borah, Capper, Carey, Cutting, Davis, Dickinson, Fess, Frazier, Gibson, Goldsborough, Hale, Hastings, Hatfield, Hebert, Johnson, Kean, Keyes, La Follette, McNary, Metcalf, Norris, Nye, Patterson, Reed, Robinson (Indiana), Schall, Steiwer, Vandenberg, Walcott, White—32.

Farmer-Labor—Shipstead—1.

Against the Amendment.

Democrats — Adams, Ashurst, Bachman, Bailey, Bankhead, Barkley, Black, Brown, Bulkley, Byrd, Byrnes, Clark, Connally, Coolidge, Dieterich, Duffy, Erickson, Fletcher, George, Glass, Gore, Harrison, Hayden, Lewis, Logan, Murphy, O'Mahoney, Pittman, Pope, Robinson (Arkansas), Russell, Sheppard, Stephens, Thomas (Oklahoma), Thompson, Tydings, Van Nuys, Wagner, Walsh.—39.

The successful amendment provided that notwithstanding the economy act, any pension being paid a veteran of the Spanish-American War, the Philippine Insurrection or the Boxer Rebellion, or to the widow or dependents of such a veteran, shall not be reduced more than 10 per cent of the rate being paid on March 19 last.

Certain Classes Barred.

This provision, however, will not apply to any veteran who was on the rolls prior to the economy act as a result of fraud, clear and unmistakable error or misrepresentation of a material fact, or to any person during any year following a year in which such person paid a Federal income tax.

Thus, disabled Spanish War veterans, if unmarried, receiving a net income of $1,000 a year, or, if married, $2,500 a year, will not be entitled to be restored to the rolls.

Senator Steiwer, after adoption of the amendment, said that in addition to restoring about 67,000 veterans to the compensation rolls, the Senate action would increase the compensation of another 120,000 to 125,000 veterans. The latter originally received from $20 to $60 a month, he said, but under the economy act were sharply cut, many down to $15 a month.

Air Bill Pushed As Mail Fight Rocks Senate

Acrimonious Exchanges Mark Debate; Foulois to Tell Story.

Continued from Page 1.

joined at this point by Senator Reed (Republican), Pennsylvania, who jumped up to say that of the 34 contracts in effect at the time of cancellation, only 3 had been granted by the Republican Postmaster General Walter F. Brown.

"Not Even Stalin."

"The President has committed us to an action more high-handed than anything even Stalin attempted," thundered the Republican.

Senator Black, who had rushed over from his committee hearing to join the debate, replied that every contract cancelled was one granted by Brown, either by original contract, by extension, or by sublease.

As the argument grew hotter, Senator Huey Long, of Louisiana, got more and more nervous. He walked restlessly about the chamber, and finally burst out with a denunciation of a free trip that Postmaster General Farley took by plane to Texas.

"Those air line operators even gave him a hat," he said. "That shows they haven't any discrimination, either against Brown or Farley. What I want to know if these there are free passes for trips on planes."

Senator McCarran (Democrat), Nevada, explained that it was a well-known principle that a Postmaster General was entitled to travel on any airplane, ship, or railroad that carried Government mails.

"I just wanted to know," bellowed the Kingfish. "Because if there are any free passes going around I want to put in the names of my wife and three children."

McKellar to Support.

Senator McKellar (Democrat), Tennessee, came to the support of the Administration by saying that there was "no doubt" the canceled contracts had been "fraudulent, dishonest, and corrupt."

With a ringing cry that there was "no semblance of corruption," Senator Fess (Republican), Ohio, who has been Brown's most consistent Senatorial supporter during his week's appearance befor the Black committee, took up the Republican cause.

McKellar promptly answered him by a challenge to the whole Senate for those who believed there had been no corruption to stand up, Senator Fess was the only one to rise to his feet.

"What!" cried McKellar, "only one?"

"When we get the politics out of this business," promised Fess, "We'll find that there has been no fraud or collusion or corruption in the award of any of these contracts.

"Of course the President is not responsible for these Army deaths. But the blanket cancellation was unfair and unwarranted. The contractors should have had an opportunity of defending their position before such drastic action was taken."

Committee Told of "Plot."

Before the Black committee, Clifford Ball, pioneer independent air line operator of Pittsburgh, told a long, dramatic story of how he had been the victim of a "well-planned scheme" by the Pittsburg Aviation Industry Corporation to get his mail contracts from him.

He had been summoned in the 1930 "spoils conferences," he said, and had been usrprised to see George R. Hann and Richard W. Robbins, of P. A. I. C. in attendance, since their company had no actual plane operation.

When he taxed them with the fact that the meeting was supposed to be only of operators, according to Ball he was told:

"We intend to get some of this air-mail dollar that's going around. We have influence with Senator Reed and two Cabinet officers, and we'll go to the White House if necessary."

Ball was finally persuaded to sell out to the Mellon-controled P. A. I. C., he said, when he realized that he would not be given a renewal of his contract by the Postoffice Department.

In Brown's office details of the deal were completed and, according to Ball, the former Postmaster General himself insisted that Ball be taken care of, with the result that Ball was made vice president and general manager at a salary of $1,000 a month. In addition, he received $137,000 cash for his line.

Denies Brown's Charge.

Ball, short and slightly rotund, sat far forward on the edge of his chair in his eagerness to tell his story. He initiated his testimony with a prepared statement denying Brown's previous testimony that Ball had been fined $5,000 for mailing to himself heavy parcels in order to increase his mail pay.

Ball said $5,000 had been deducted from his mail pay but that he had never been told the reason for it.

"I never mailed or caused to be mailed any objects or articles in order to collect pay for them," he said. "This accusation was made by Postmaster General Brown in published items, in public speeches, and was offered in his testimony in this hearing—this accusation was made to me directly and circulated among friends and acquaintances by George R. Hann and Richard W. Robbins, of Pittsburgh Aviation Industries Corporation.

"It was a portion of a well-planned scheme to defame my character and ruin my reputation in order to carry out their plan of transferring my mail contract from myself to P. A. I. C.

Overseers Appointed.

"Mr. Glover (W. Irving Glover, Second Assistant Postmaster General under Brown) and Mr. Wadsworth (Earl B. Wadsworth, former superintendent of air mail) were charged with the duty of overseeing my line and were responsible for its proper and lawful operation. They would know if such an accusation was correct. They never accused me of any such act either officially, publicly, or privately."

He amplified this by saying that Robbins had come to his office in Pittsburgh and asked him to sell out. When Ball refused, he said, Robbins said that he would charge him with mailing telephone books and "force" him to sell.

Today the committee will continue its interrogation of Brown and Karl Crowley, solicitor for the Postoffice Department.

William Lyon Phelps

Daily Talk About Books and Authors.

Serenades.

While reading the Life of the great American song-composer, Stephen C. Foster, I was amused by an incident that happened when he and a friend of his were wandering around one night on the streets of a city on the Ohio River. A group of young men were serenading, and the song they were singing was one written by Foster. Accordingly, the composer and his companion joined the company and began to sing with them. Their presence was resented, and a fist-fight was imminent. The company were still further enraged when Foster disclosed his identity, for they thought he was bluffing. He offered to accompany them to the office of the editor of the newspaper for identification; and when this was done, Foster owned the town.

Is the Serenade a lost art? Has the habit of serenading become obsolete? When I was a boy it was customary to sing, with or without guitar accompaniment, under the windws of the fair. When Mary Anderson played in New Haven in 1886, the Yale Glee Club serenaded her. Everyone will remember the serenade devoted to Lola Platt in Booth Tarkington's novel, "Seventeen." Browning's poem, "A Serenade at the Villa," described the vain efforts of an unsuccessful lover. Not even a light rewarded his worshipful music, though he tried both voice and strings.

The most beautiful serenade in music is the composition by Schubert, with its heart-rending melody. One of the most dramatic of all serenades is the Devil's serenade under the window of Marguerite, in Gounod's "Faust." No one who heard it will ever forget the way Edouard de Reszke sang that music. In poetry, the masterpiece of all serenades is Shelley's "Lines to An Indian Air."

I arise from dreams of thee,
In the first sweet sleep of night,
When the winds are breathing low,
And the stars are shining bright.
I arise from dreams of thee,
And a spirit in my feet
Has led me—who knows how?—
To thy chamber window, Sweet!

The wandering airs they faint
On the dark, the silent stream;
The Champak odors fail
Like sweet thoughts in a dream.
The nightingale's complaint,
It dies upon her heart,
As I must die on thine,
O beloved, as thou art!

O lift me from the grass!
I die, I faint, I fail!
Let thy love in kisses rain
On my lips and eyelids pale.
My cheek is cold and white, alas!
My heart beats loud and fast:
O! press it close to thine again,
Where it will break at last!

The only flaw in the poem is the bad anti-climax in the second line of the last stanza. The best music composed for this serenade was by the late Louis Tourtellot, when he was an undergraduate at Yale in the 'eighties. He had a splendid bass voice, and used to sing his song with such effect that there were many casualties among the girls in the audience. They fell for it.

The best serenade-poem ever written by an American is Longfellow's "Stars of the Summer Night."

Tomorrow—"A Suburban Pastoral.

(Copyright, 1934.)

Fire in His First Law Office Blazed Black's Way to Fame

Senator "Got Going" After He Was Burned Out of Small Town.

(Associated Press.)

Fire, observed Senator Hugo L. Black, has played a more important role in his career than "publicity."

On the eve of his forty-eighth birthday anniversary, the chairman of the Senate Air Mail Committee who had heard himself accused of being a publicity seeker, puffed characteristically at a cigar and opined that had he not been "burned out" he still would be practicing law over a grocery store in a small Alabama town.

Fresh from a law course at the University of Alabama, young Black hung out a shingle in Ashland, population, 424, and contented himself with a small income from settling legal matters for cotton farmers.

Burned Out, $10 Left.

Then the grocery store caught fire, destroying everything in his office.

Taking all his finances, less than $10, Black set out for Birmingham.

"I learned something from being burned out," Black said today, "that the best way to get something to moving is to put fire under it."

He soon gained recognition as a lawyer and when Birmingham decided upon a little house-cleaning to clear out the overcrowded jails, he was selected as city recorder.

By his first act in office, Black set free 500 Negroes arrested under the fee system for "crap-shooting."

Elected Prosecutor.

Three years later, he was in the race for county solicitor, with the slogan:

"It is as much the duty of a prosecutor to see that the innocent are acquitted as it is that the guilty are convicted."

He was elected.

During the World War Black was commissioned a captain, but the Armistice was signed before his regiment went overseas.

Returning to Birmingham, Black continued his law practice until 1925, when he decided to run for the Senate to succeed the late Oscar Underwood.

Thirteen months before the election he procured an old automobile, turned the top back and started a campaign which was carried into every hamlet. He was elected over the opposition of a former governor and the present Alabama junior Senator, John Bankhead. He was reelected in 1932.

Lotte Lehmann Will Sing Today At Constitution

Famous Soprano to Appear With Erno Balogh as Accompanist.

Lottie Lehmann, distinguished operatic soprano and lieder singer, whose debut with the Metropolitan Opera Company last month in "Die Walkure" was one of the sensations of the New York current season, will be heard here this afternoon in a song recital in Constitution Hall. She will be accompanied at the piano by Erno Balogh.

Before she joined the Metropolitan staff this season, Mme. Lehmann had previously appeared with the late Chicago Civic Opera, and had been heard in many American cities. In Europe she is a popular artist, particularly in Vienna, Paris and London, where she makes regular appearances. Vienna has conferred civic honors upon her, she is an officer of public instruction in France, and Sweden has honored her with the medal of arts and sciences.

Mme. Lehmann's first group of songs today, starting at 4:40 p. m., contains Schubert's "An Eine Quelle" and "Der Lindenbaum" and two lieder by Brahms, "Mein Liebe ist Gruen" and "Wir Waldelten." In her second group will be "Fuer Musik" and "Im Herbst," by Franz; "Komme," by Cornelius, and Mendelssohn's "Auf Flugeln des Gesanges."

A third group will offer Hugo Wolf's "Gesang Weyla's" and "In dem Schatten meiner Locken" and two songs by Richard Strauss, "Allerseelen" and "Staendchen." The recital will close with a group in English, Richard Hagemann's "Do Not Go, My Love," H. H. Gunn's "Lie There, My Lute," Marion Bauer's "Only of Thee and Me" and Erno Balogh's "Do Not Chide Me."

Mme. Lehmann is a writer as well as a musician, and frequently contributes articles to the Vienna press. She has published one book, "Verse and Prose," and is now at work on the final chapters of her autobiography, "Beginning and Rise."

Post Classified Ad Writers assist advertisers every day in preparing result-getting ads. Just call National 4205.

Air Mail Fight Perils Aviation, Turner Warns

Cull Out the Black Sheep Without Killing Flock, Speed Ace Pleads.

Detroit, Feb. 26 (AP).—Col. Roscoe Turner, one of the few independents among the "big time" aviators who make a business of flying faster than any one has ever flown before, believes irreparable damage to the commercial aviation industry is imminent unless the air-mail controversy is ironed out quickly.

"If there are some black sheep in the flock," he said today, "there must be some way of culling them out without killing the whole flock."

He predicted 500 miles an hour would be reached in the near future by land planes.

"So rapid has been the progress in aviation," he said, "that racing speeds of last year are normal speeds now. Speeds of racing planes that broke transcontinental records three years ago are matched by schedules on transcontinental air routes now."

Col. Turner doesn't know how long the records he now holds, of approximately 275 miles an hour, in crossing the continent from west to east in 10 hours 4½ minutes and from east to west in 11 hours and 30 minutes elapsed time will stand.

He and his engineer are working on the problems of increasing motor power and cutting down wind resistance. With a 1,000-horsepower motor in his racing ship, he hopes to better the 304.98 miles an hour record held by James R. Wedell over the 3-kilometer course.

Stockholders Favor Chase National Plan

New York, Feb. 26 (AP).—Favorable action by stockholders on the recapitalization plan of the Chase National Bank was forecast today when it was reported that sufficient proxies have been received from shareholders to insure adoption.

The stockholders, who will meet at noon tomorrow, will vote on a proposal to issue $50,000,000 5 per cent preferred stock, in shares of $20 par value each, and to reduce the capital stock from $148,000,000 to $100,270,000 through a cut in the par value of the common from $20 a share to $13.55 a share.

Sapiro sI Called "Boss" Of Chicago Laundries

Chicago, Feb. 26 (AP).—Testimony that Aaron Sapiro, prominent New York lawyer, was undisputed boss of the Chicago Laundry Owners' Association was given today at the racket conspiracy trial.

Louis Koterski, part owner of a laundry and a director of the association, said Sapiro, receiving $25,000 a year as general counsel for the association, appointed Attorney Morris Kaplan to be his assistant at $10,000 annually.

Convict Aids Warden By Cracking His Safe

Joliet, Ill., Feb. 26 (AP).—It took convict Joseph Allman just 3 minutes and 40 seconds today to open Warden Frank D. Whipp's safe in the State penitentiary.

It being Allman's first professional venture in several years, the opening required quote some longer than if he were in condition, the convict said. Whipp and members of his staff had struggled with the safe for several days but had been unable to open it.

Peek Accepts Job As Bank President

Continued from Page 1.

less tariff modifications are made to permit parallel expansion of imports, there is danger the banks will wind up holding the bag.

Fear of this possibility is understood to be what kept Peek waiting so long before making up his mind to accept. Acceptance means he has had assurances necessary steps to expand imports, as exports rise, will follow.

In making known his acceptance Peek issued a threefold statement addressed to agriculture, interested industries, and the public. He assured agriculture he intended to increase farm exports where possible and added that expanded foreign markets for industrial goods reduced unemployment, thus also increasing the domestic demand for agricultural products.

Promises No Miracles.

To industry he said the banks were there to finance the seller and assist in the orderly growth of foreign trade. The banks were not going to be Santa Clauses and were going to endeavor to make trade balance eventually.

He warned the public that just as the country did not get into the depression overnight, so it would not emerge by a miracle. The establishment of these banks was "just one more move on the part of the President, in his program to break the back of the depression," Peek declared.

One outstanding goal is the prompt restoration of agricultural prices to a proper relation to other price levels, he added. Peek anticipates the banks under his supervision will be able to help in this direction.

Among those at yesterday's conference were: Secretaries Hull, Morgenthau, Wallace and Roper; Assistant Secretaries Rexford Tugwell, John Dickinson and Francis Sayre; George Peek, Robert Lincoln O'Brien of the Tariff Commission; Stanley Reed of RFC and Herbert Feis, Economic Adviser of the State Department.

N. M. College Disciplined.

Cleveland, Ohio, Feb. 26 (AP).—A suspension of the New Mexico State Teachers Colleges at Las Vegas and Silver City from the American Association of Teachers Colleges, for one year, was officially announced here today. The announcement said the two schools failed to meet the association's standards.

Mrs. Doblin Seeks Second Reno Divorce

Reno, Feb. 26 (AP).—Mrs. Muriel B. Doblin sought her second Reno divorce from Philip E. Doblin, of New York City, in a suit filed today.

Divorced from Doblin here July 30, 1925, on the ground of nonsupport, Mrs. Doblin remarried him January 31, 1928. In the suit filed today she charged extreme cruelty.

Code for Fishing Industry Signed

Affects 200,000 Workers Earning $125,963,000.

President Roosevelt signed a master code yesterday for the fishing industry, which includes more than 200,000 workers with an annual income of about $125,963,000.

The code, which becomes effective March 22, provides a minimum wage of $13 to $16, and a maximum of 90 working hours in two weeks for shore employes. No attempt was made to regulate the working hours of fishermen because "fishing is an occupation depending upon the presence of fish, season, tide, wind, State laws and the like."

Racketeering, false advertising, misbranding, destructive price-cutting, secret rebates, commercial bribery, false measures and dishonest account of sales are among the unfair trade practices prohibited.

Here's Ace in the Hole; At Least, He's Lost

Chicago, Feb. 26 (AP).—Kid Boot's Ace apparently has been "kidnaped." Adjudged champion yesterday at the dog show of the Western Boston Terrier Club, he vanished an hour or so afterward, police were notified today.

The dog was owned by Louis Rudginski, of Winthrop, Mass.

Coll's Window Admits Murder Guilt at Trial

New York, Feb. 26 (AP).—Lottie Coll, comely widow of Vincent ("Baby Face") Coll, New York gangster who was "chopped down" by machine gun bullets in a drug store telephone booth, pleaded guilty today in the middle of her trial for a slaying during an attempted holdup of a Bronx money lender last June.

With two co-defendants, both men, she entered a guilty plea to bring the trial to a sudden halt.

Cornell Student a Suicide.

Ithaca, N. Y., Feb. 26 (AP).—Gardiner Williams, 20, a freshman at Cornell University, was found dead in his room today, a revolver bullet through his head. Dr. William A. Smith, coroner, said the youth had committed suicide.

Middleburg Is Preparing Horse Show

Field Trials Are Slated March 10 at Estate of D. C. Sands.

Society Throughout East Turns Attention to Annual Classic.

By Evelyn Peyton Gordon.

Middleburg, in the heart of the famed Virginia horse country, will be a mecca for sportsmen and society leaders on Saturday, March 10, when over the beautiful Glenwood race course on the estate of Mr. D. C. Sands, M. F. H., the annual hunter trials will be run. Here on the turf course, surrounded by rolling fields and wooded knolls, will be seen the best hunters in Loudoun and Fauquier counties and other nearby sections.

Judged on manners, performance, form over jump and across country, and on condition at the finish, the hunters will compete not only for the money and plate prize in each class, but for the handsome Middleburg Bowl, awarded to the horse having the highest score in any of the classes.

The bowl has been held by Mrs. John Hay Whitney, noted horsewoman and mistress of Llangollen estate, since it was offered three years ago, and judging by the number of Mrs. Whitney's entries her chances of winning the bowl again this year are high. Among her 21 entries is the handsome gray gelding, Bon Diable, winner of the bowl last year.

Meeting of Celebrities.

Not only lovers of the sport are attracted to the scene annually, but leading society and official dignitaries of the Nation also attend. Members of the diplomatic corps and other friends of Middleburg's fashionable hunting set usually are present.

Visitors from all sections of the East are drawn to the spot and old colonial homes are thrown open in lavish entertainment for the guests. Dinner parties always precede the trials and luncheons, teas and supper parties make up the round of week-end gayeties.

The hunters, sleek and shining, in running the course of about 2 miles, take ten natural obstacles, including rail fences, stone walls and a gate which competitors are compelled to open and close.

Benefit for League.

A large stone grand stand with steel rails has been erected overlooking the course. From this coign the entire round of the hunters can be seen. Here the crowd, wrapped in blankets, fur coats and robes at this season, watch the performances of the splendid hunters for which this section is noted.

The trials were scheduled for February 22, but were postponed to March 10 because of severe weather. The program as planned at that time will be carried out with three classes.

The Middleburg Community League will benefit from the admission fee at the gates.

Mr. Courtland H. Smith, of The Plains, Va.; Mr. Bayard Tuckerman and Mr. Bayard Warren, both of Massachusetts, will judge the trials.

Events Today

Commencement exercises and dance—Strayer College, Mayflower Hotel, 7:45 p. m.

Meeting—Aircraft Operators, Mayflower Hotel, all day.

Lenten lecture—Rev. Dr. Joseph R. Sizoo, Mayflower Hotel, 11 a. m.

Meeting—Sigma Tau Lambda Fraternity, Mayflower Hotel, 8 p. m.

Breakfast—Early Birds, Willard Hotel, 8 a. m.

Committee meeting—United States Building and Loan League, Willard Hotel, 10 a. m.

Meeting—Board of Lady Managers, Casualty Hospital, Willard Hotel, 11 a. m.

Luncheon — Women's National Press Club, Willard Hotel, 1 p. m.

Meeting — Our Flag Chapter, D. A. R., Willard Hotel, 2 p. m.

Meeting—Delta Chapter, Pi Omicron Sorority, 7:30 p. m.

Dance—Bull Run Camp, Sons of Confederate Veterans, Willard Hotel, 9 p. m.

Dance—Kentucky State Society, Willard Hotel, 9:45 p. m.

Luncheon — Washington Credit Men's Association, Raleigh Hotel, 12:30 p. m.

Luncheon—Advertising Club, Raleigh Hotel, 12:30 p. m.

Luncheon — Washington Building and Loan Association, Raleigh Hotel, 12:30 p. m.

Meeting—Psi Lambda Tau Sorority, Raleigh Hotel, 7 p. m.

Meeting—Rayon and Silk Dyers' Printing Industry, Raleigh Hotel, 9 a. m.

Dinner—Washington Typothetae, Raleigh Hotel, 6 p. m.

Citizens' meeting — Southeast Washington Association, Chambers Hall, 8 p. m.

Citizens' meeting—Trinidad Association, Wheatley School, 8 p. m.

Citizens — Logan - Thomas Circle Association, Northminster Presbyterian Church, 8 p. m.

Luncheon — Columbia Heights Business Men's Association, Sholl's Cafe, 12:15 p. m.

Luncheon—Civitan Club, Hamilton Hotel, 12:30 p. m.

Luncheon—Life Insurance Managers, Hamilton Hotel, 12:15 p. m.

Luncheon—Coal Merchants' Association, Hamilton Hotel, 12:30 p. m.

Meeting—Phi Sigma Epsilon Sorority, Hamilton Hotel, 8 p. m.

Enjoying a Hike in the Snow-Clad Park

Underwood & Underwood.

ENSIGN AND MRS. JOHN PRESCOTT, of Cambridge, Mass, who are visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence W. Perley, enjoy the recent snow with their pet spaniel.

Notes of Official and Resident Society

Mrs. Roosevelt will leave this evening for New York to be absent until Saturday evening. On the journey the First Lady will visit two of her sons, John, who is a student at Groton, and Franklin, jr., at Harvard.

On Sunday evening the President and Mrs. Roosevelt will attend the dinner being given in their honor by the members of the Cabinet at the Mayflower.

The Minister of Switzerland and Mme. Peter and the Secretary of the Treasury and Mrs. Henry Morgenthau were the ranking guests at a small dinner given last evening by Mr. and Mrs. William H. Davis in their home on R street.

The Minister of Persia and Mme. Djalal have issued invitations for a "soiree" on March 15, to celebrate the birthday anniversary of his Imperial Majesty, Reza Shah Pahlevi, Shah of Persia.

The Secretary of Agriculture and Mrs. Henry A. Wallace will entertain at a dinner tomorrow evening at the Sulgrave Club.

Rear Admiral C. H. Lowndes, U. S. N., retired, has closed his apartment at the Fairfax and has gone to Cocoanut Grove, Fla., to remain for a month.

Counselor of Netherlands Returns From New York.

The Counselor of the Netherlands Legation and Baroness van Breugel Douglas, who have been in New York for the past two weeks, returned to Washington Sunday evening. They were accompanied by their cousin, Mlle. van Rappard, who will remain here for a visit of several weeks.

The Commercial Counselor of the British Embassy and Mrs. H. O. Chalkley will entertain at a dinner on Tuesday evening, March 6, in their home on Woodland drive.

Mrs. Woodrow Wilson was the honor guest at a dinner given Sunday evening at the Everglades Club, in Palm Beach, Fla., by Mr. and Mrs. Charlton Yarnall.

Former Senator and Mrs. Peter Goelet Gerry, who recently returned to their home in Providence, R. I., after spending some time in the Capital, entertained at luncheon on Sunday in honor of the former United States Ambassador to Italy and Mrs. John W. Garrett, and Mr. S. Bradley-Birt, of England, who are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Nicholas Brown.

The Deputy Administrator of the NRA and Mrs. George Carlson will be hosts at a small dinner at the Shoreham tomorrow evening.

Col. and Mrs. Guggenheim Entertain in Florida.

Col. and Mrs. M. Robert Guggenheim, who are enjoying a brief visit in Coral Gables, were hosts at dinner Sunday evening. They will return to Washington on March 6.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Graham, of Chicago, are at the Shoreham for a brief visit. Mrs. Graham will visit her sisters, Mrs. Thomas Ogram and Mrs. C. F. Schneider.

Maj. Charles R. Pollard spent the week-end in New York.

Mrs. William W. Cowgill and her daughters, Fay and Meriwether, of Fairfield, Conn., who have been spending several days at the Shoreham, expect to leave this evening for a visit in Pinehurst, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Tracy Lay are at Coral Gables, Fla., for the remainder of the season.

Mrs. Eugene Woodson Hostess Tomorrow.

Mrs. Eugene R. Woodson will entertain informally tomorrow at the Mayflower Hotel.

Miss Dora White and Miss Janet White, daughters of Mrs. Richard Aldrich, of Providence, R. I., who made their home in Washington for several years while Mr. Aldrich was in Congress, have returned to Providence after spending some time near Montreal where they went for winter sports.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Laird Ballentine have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Mary Laird Ballentine, to Mr. George Lewis Tarry, son of Mrs. Henry Edward Tarry.

Mr. Tarry is the White House correspondent of the Wall Street Journal.

The wedding will take place in the spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Kent Legare have left Washington for Aiken, S. C., for a visit of ten days.

Mr. R. L. Smith has been joined at his apartment in the Fairfax Hotel by his sister, Miss Ora Lee Smith, of Albemarle, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Parsons On Wedding Journey.

Mr. and Mrs. Harris C. Parsons, of New York, are spending several days at the Shoreham on their wedding trip. Mrs. Parsons is the former Miss Esther Hall.

On account of inclement weather, the annual birthday party of the National Women's Country Club to have been given today has been postponed to a date which will be announced.

Mrs. William Bryan, of Staten Island, N. Y., and Mrs. Edward S. Rawson, of Glens Falls, N. Y., are at the Shoreham for a week or more.

Mrs. Thomas H. Troy, of New York, who has been in Florida for the early part of the winter, has taken an apartment at the Fairfax Hotel for the remainder of the season.

Mrs. Charles Macon Wallingsford will entertain at a luncheon today in honor of Mrs. Frank Caughy, of Short Hills, N. J., who is visiting in Washington.

Merriams Are Hosts To Visiting Editor.

Mr. Carrol B. Merriam member of the board of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, and Mrs. Merriam were hosts at a dinner at the Shoreham last evening. The guests of honor were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Joseph Haskell, of Kansas City, Mo., who are spending several weeks in Washington. Mr. Haskell is editor in chief of the Kansas City Star.

Miss Patricia Mencia has returned to her apartment at Wardman Park after a visit of several days in New York, where she was the guest of Mrs. A. R. Vanderbilt.

Representative and Mrs. Jere Cooper entertained at dinner at the Shoreham Sunday evening for Mr. and Mrs. Charles Affick, and Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Leech, all of Blytheville, Ark.

Mrs. Henry L. Doherty entertained at a dinner Sunday evening at the Miami Biltmore Country Club in honor of Lieut. Col. Charles P. George.

The other guests were Mrs. Edward Everette Gann, of Washington; Lieut. Col. and Mrs. J. K. Brown, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. Ray L. Lillibridge, of Greenwich, Conn., and Col. and Mrs. Carl Byoir, of New York.

The dinner was one of several given in honor of participants in the second annual Miami Biltmore National Horse Show, which closed at Tropical Park Sunday afternoon.

Lieut. and Mrs. Charles Bowler King and their young daughter, Jan Allison, will arrive in San Francisco February 28 from Schofield Barracks, T. H. They will come directly to Washington for a month's visit.

Mrs. King before her marriage was Miss Karla Heurich.

Miss Mary Perdue Ruden has returned to her home in Chicago after a visit of several weeks with Mrs. Frances Wall Hines and Miss Mary Ingraham Henry.

Miss Ruden was the honor guest at a series of parties during her first visit in the Capital since going to Chicago a year ago to make her home.

New England Guest and Hostess

Underwood & Underwood.

Miss Anne Daingerfield and (right) her guest, Miss Eleanor Alsop, of Greenwich, Conn. Miss Daingerfield is the debutante daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Daingerfield.

Costume Ball Slated Tonight By Kentuckians

Judges for Prize Awards and Guest Groups Are Listed.

Representative J. G. Scrugham, former Governor of Nevada; Mr. George H. Calvert, jr., president of the Maryland Society, and Mrs. Sallie V. H. Pickett will judge the costumes at the Kentucky State Society fancy dress ball at the Willard Hotel tonight. The ball will open at 10 o'clock. Representative Isabella Greenway, of Arizona, will present the prizes to the winners.

Many members of the society will have guests with them at the ball. Maj. and Mrs. Guy W. Chipman will entertain at the Willard Hotel before the dance for the guest of honor, Mrs. Curtis B. Dall. Others who will entertain are the former Representative and Mrs. Maurice Thatcher, whose guests will be the Minister of Venezuela and Senora Arcaya; Mrs. Sam Conner, whose guests will be Representative and Mrs. John Young Brown, Representative and Mrs. Fred Vinson, Mrs. Harry Kite, Mrs. James Barbour Kite, Gen. C. F. Cox, Mr. Myron Parker and Mr. Kenneth Watson; Mr. and Mrs. Marvin McIntyre, whose guests will be Mrs. Harriet Butts, Miss Barbara Bonnycastle, Mr. Arthur Mullen and Mr. Kennedy McIntyre; Mrs. Mattie Porter, whose guests will be Representative and Mrs. W. V. Gregory, Capt. and Mrs. L. W. Jennings, Mrs. William Burr Harrison, Maj. and Mrs. John W. Rodman, Mr. John Anderson and Maj. John Hillman; Mrs. Frank Henry, whose guests will be Mr. and Mrs. George Calvert, Mr. and Mrs. Eldon P. King and Col. Frederick Johnston; Mrs. Howard L. Bishop, whose guests will be Maj. and Mrs. Ross Beebe, Dr. and Mrs. Ira D. Scott, Mrs. Lyda Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Nebeker, Mr. and Mrs. Donald McLeran, Mrs. Paul Bartsch, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Sullivan, Dr. R. Stevens Pendexter, Mr. Bromley Morrow and Mr. Frederick Poisson; Mrs. Lula J. Choate, whose guests will be Miss Celestine Millstead, Miss Marie Leonard, Mrs. Eileen Leach, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Riehle, Mr. F. T. La Boone, Mr. Robert Retzer; Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Holbrook, whose guests will be Miss Jewell Barnett, Miss Louise Rupp, Miss Helen Holbrook, Mr. Garland Smith, Mr. Gordon Davidson, Mr. Eugene Moon and Mr. Charles Holbrook; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kraemer, who will have Commander O. C. Foote as their guest; Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Tackett, whose guests will be Miss Fannie Manning, Miss Kathleen Sullivan and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fisher; Mr. and Mrs. Stanton L. Dorsey, whose guests will be Lieut. Col. and Mrs. William Carpenter, the Marchesa Virginia San Germano and Col. and Mrs. Laurence Halstead.

The English Speaking Union will entertain at a tea from 4 until 6 o'clock tomorrow afternoon in the clubhouse on Sixteenth street in honor of Prof. and Mrs. Ernest Scott, of Melbourne, Australia.

Prof. Scott, before his professorship at the University of Melbourne, was a journalist in London. He is the author of several books, among them being a short history of Australia.

Cue and Curtain Club Lists Patrons for Play This Week

School President Among Those to See 'Three-Cornered Moon."

Among those who have already reserved seats for the opening performance of "Three-Cornered Moon," the comedy which the Cue and Curtain Club of George Washington University will present Thursday and Friday evenings in Wardman Park Theater are the President of the University and Mrs. Cloyd Heck Marvin, Dr. and Mrs. Walter A. Bloedorn, Mr. S. Hazen Bond, Dr. and Mrs. Lyman J. Briggs, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert D. Brown, Miss Minnie Dean, Dr. and Mrs. F. Edler, Mr. and Mrs. Isreal M. Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel V. Gusack, Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Hanks, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Shaffer, Mr. Rudolph Schoenfeld, Prof. and Mrs. Arnold W. Spanhoofd, Mrs. Edward H. Walter, Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. F. Thiel, Miss Anne Jenkins, Dr. and Mrs. Fred E. Wright, Col. and Mrs. Walter E. Pick, Mr. and and Mrs. Louis A. Simon, Mr. Henry Goddard Roberts and Prof. and Mrs. W. Hayes Yeager.

Among those who have reservations for Friday evening are Mrs. Charles E. Acker, Mr. and Mrs. James V. Bennett, Dr. and Mrs. Harry S. Bernton, Dr. and Mrs. George F. Bowerman, Mrs. A. H. Brooks, Dr. and Mrs. William K. Butler, Miss Mary Bruce, Mr. Harry C. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Dynes, Mrs. Charles W. Fairfax, the Misses Emily and Jessica Farnum, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur N. Hacker, Capt. and Mrs. Harry B. Hambleton, Mr. Harold F. Harding, Mrs. C. B. Lane, Dr. and Mrs. Johann G. Lohmann, Dr. Ernst C. Meyer, Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit S. Miller, jr., Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Olop, Mrs. Henry Orth, jr., Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Pate, Dr. and Mrs. Grosvenor M. Jones, Miss Florence Bell, Miss Emma T. Halm, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Pearlman, Mr. and Mrs. Russell R. Reagh, Dr. and Mrs. Louis P. Sissman, Dr. and Mrs. Philip Sidney Smith, Mrs. Eugene E. Stevens, sr., Mr. and Mrs. George W. Stone, the Misses Anna and Clara Ulke, Mrs. Harry Viner, Justice and Mrs. Alfred A. Wheat, Mr. and Mrs. Horace L. Stevenson, Mr. and Mrs. William H. McReynolds.

Culbertson on Bridge

968.

An Unwise Choice.

Whether to continue the bidding beyond a game contract or to double opponents who have ventured too far is often a close question with bridge players. A general principle is that if the penalty you expect to collect roughly equals the premium you can score by playing the hand at your own best bid, the penalty should be chosen rather than the premium because penalties have a habit of mounting. However, a policy of timidity and the acceptance of a small penalty in lieu of a greater premium is a losing practice, as the hand below, played in a team-of-four match, illustrates.

West, Dealer.
Both sides vulnerable.

	♠ A K Q J 4 ♡ — ◇ Q 10 6 4 ♣ Q 8 7 2
♠ 3 ♡ Q J 7 4 ◇ A K J 8 3 2 ♣ A 9	N W E S	♠ 9 6 ♡ A K 10 6 5 2 ◇ 7 5 ♣ K 10 3
	♠ 10 8 7 5 2 ♡ 9 8 3 ◇ 9 ♣ J 6 5 4

The bidding in Room 1 was:

West	North	East	South
1◇	1♠	2♡	2♠
4♡	4♠	Pass	Pass
Dbl.	Pass	Pass	Pass

The bidding in Room 2 was: (Figures after bids refer to numbered explanatory paragraphs.)

West	North	East	South
1◇	1♠	2♡(1)	2♠(2)
3◇(3)	3♠	4♡(4)	4♠(5)
4NT(6)	Pass	5◇(7)	Pass
6♡(8)	Pass	Pass	Pass

1—This, a free bid, is a sign of certain strength.
2—A rather daring Raise on distributional values alone.
3—Showing Rebid strength. In view of East's free response, West feels certain that the bidding will not die.
4—East has 2½ honor-tricks and a six-card suit, and his partner has opened the bidding and rebid. Even with only two diamonds the hand presents possibilities.
5—South reasons that North must be short of hearts or possibly void in the suit. The bid, however, is extremely strong.
6—The conventional showing of two Aces and the King of a bid suit. By inference, it, of course, shows strong heart support.
7—East now signs off by bidding the lower ranking of the suits bid by the partnership.
8—West reason that any losing clubs in East's hand can be discarded on his long diamond suit and that the only loser should be the spade Ace.

In the play, of course, six were made, whereas in Room 1, where the bid of four spades was doubled, a paltry penalty of 100 points was collected. Even had East and West failed to reach the Slam, they would have been much better off had they bid five hearts. The fault, no doubt, lies wholly with West. His own singleton spade, his strong heart support and the six-card diamond suit headed by the Ace-King, all suggest the possibility of a Slam and the practical certainty of being able to make five, whereas the penalty to be collected from North and South appears insignificant, as, indeed, it was.

Tomorrow's Hand.

North is playing a Grand Slam contract in spades. What lead should East make?

South, Dealer.
North and South vulnerable.

	♠ A K 6 4 2 ♡ K Q J 7 4 ◇ 9 ♣ A J
♠ J 7 5 3 ♡ 8 5 ◇ K 10 6 5 ♣ 9 6 2	N W E S	♠ 10 ♡ 10 6 3 ◇ Q 8 4 3 2 ♣ 10 7 5 4
	♠ Q 9 8 ♡ A 9 2 ◇ A J 7 ♣ K Q 8 3

The hand will be discussed in tomorrow's article.

(Copyright, 1934, by Ely Culbertson.)

Attractive Wife of Official

Underwood & Underwood.

MRS. RICHARD SPENCER, wife of the first Assistant Commissioner of Patents, photographed at her home in Wesley Heights.

Luncheon to Fete Senora de Alfaro

Mrs. Imbrie Will Entertain Envoy's Wife Today.

Senora de Alfaro, wife of the Minister of Panama, will be the guest of honor at a luncheon to be given today by Mrs. Robert Whitney Imbrie at the Carlton following the lecture by Dr. Dom Thomas Verner Moore, who will discuss "The Lure of Pleasure" and "The Aberrations of Swineburne."

Mr. O. H. Perry Johnson is treasurer for the funds which will be used for the work at St. Gertrude's School of Arts and Crafts. Additional subscribers are Mrs. Clare deC. Berry, Mrs. Otto Simonds, Mrs. Harry Gerrity, Miss Dowling, Miss J. C. Donnelly and Mrs. Edgar R. McPherson.

Kenwood Musicale Artists Announced

The Kenwood Country Club will present the fourth musicale in the series of Sunday afternoon programs at 5 o'clock Sunday.

The artists will be Yvonne Ravel, coloratura soprano, and Marvin A. Gardner, bass-barytone, assisted by Martha Lynn Davenport, violinist, and accompanied by Elizabeth Gardner-Coombs.

Following the musicale, Mrs. Gardner-Coombs will be hostess at dinner in honor of Miss Davenport, Mr. Gardner and Mr. and Mrs. Francis Shanley, the latter known professionally as Miss Ravel.

Bamboo Room Party Arranged By Thrift Shop

Fashion Show, Tea Dance on Hotel Program Thursday.

An informal celebration of the opening of the new bamboo room of the Willard Hotel has been arranged for Thursday, when from 4 until 6 o'clock—and perhaps later—the Thrift Shop, under the chairmanship of Mrs. John R. Williams, will sponsor an elaborate fashion show and tea. There will be dancing.

Miss Eleanor Roosevelt, the debutante daughter of the Assistant Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Henry L. Roosevelt, will be the star of the fashion show, appearing in a beautiful wedding gown which was worn by one of the Capital's most prominent brides of several years ago and which has been donated to the Thrift Shop.

Mrs. Williams has issued invitations to the opening, but emphasizes that anyone interested in the activities of the Thrift Shop, or interested in the bamboo room, will be very welcome. While the program is primarily designed to entertain women, the men also will find a diverting late afternoon interlude there, Mrs. Williams said.

Several members of the Junior League will be selling cigarettes.

The proceeds of the benefit will go toward the charities supported by the Thrift Shop, which include the Children's Country Home, the Children's Hospital, the Pre-Natal Clinic of Columbia Hospital, the Child Welfare Association, and activities of the Junior League.

Mr. Liotard Gives First Of Talks on Literature.

The first of Mr. Andre Frank Liotard's four causeries will be given this morning at the home of Mrs. Charles S. Alden. Among the subscribers are Mrs. William Phillips, Mrs. Gibson Fahnestock, Mrs. Keith Merrill, Mrs. Harold Marsh and Mrs. Francis Hagner. The second talk will be given at the house of Mrs. Edward B. Meigs, and like the other causeries will consist of a rapid review of the latest Parisian literary successes.

Dr. Nevil Monroe Hopkins, formerly of the Faculty and President's Council, George Washington University, one-time consulting electrical engineer of the United States Navy Department and late lieutenant colonel in the Bureau of Ordnance, United States Army, has accepted an invitation to serve as acting professor of electrical engineering in the College of Engineering at New York University for the balance of the year. Dr. and Mrs. Hopkins are now residing in New York in the Garth of St. Mark's.

OLNEY INN
Cozy Lounges Open Fires
LUNCHEON—TEA—DINNER
A delightful blending of good food and refined atmosphere
OLNEY FARM 12 Miles
OLNEY, MD. Out Georgia Ave.

PRIVATE HOMELIKE TEAS OR BRIDGE PARTIES
Facilities for small or large groups in spacious private rooms with open fires. Arrange to have your next club luncheon at The Parrot.
"Open Fires"
LUNCHEON 50c up
TEA 35c up
DINNER 85c up
THE PARROT
"Speaks for Itself"
20th and R Sts. N.W.

Glove Repairing and Cleaning Specialists
SOUTHERN STELOS CO.
613 12TH ST. NW. NAT. 8442.

Tiz Handy Wax Paper—Green Metal Cabinet
A convenient Wax Paper Dispenser and 50 feet of Heavy Wax Paper 19c
R-P-
Andrews PAPER COMPANY
STATIONERY STORE
718 13th St. NA. 1974

Opening Soon
The Continental Room
WARDMAN PARK HOTEL
Watch for Announcement—

Perils Predicted To Educators In New Leisure

Told Human Disaster Near Unless Children Know How to Utilize It.

Cleveland, Ohio, Feb. 26 (U.P.). "Human disaster" may result unless the coming generation is adequately prepared to make good use of the increased leisure which will be at its disposal, according to Eugene T. Lies, of the National Recreational Association.

Lies, here today in connection with the convention of the Department of Superintendents of the National Education Association, denounced curtailment of any school course designed to utilize leisure as "the greatest crime against childhood."

"They want adventure," he warned, "and if they have not been prepared to get it on a high level, they will seek it on a low level, which will mean delinquency and crime in the long run."

Meanwhile, ultra progressives, representing liberal factions in education, were marshaling their forces to bring about at the superintendents' convention a complete reorganization of the public school system with "social control of economic, social and political structures" as their goal.

A program designed to abolish child labor, provide work for all able adults, promote a high living standard, provide insurance for those unable to work and secure a just and unified taxation system was advanced by Clyde R. Miller, director of the Bureau of Educational Service, Teachers College, Columbia University.

Coupled with this economic program, Miller proposed six educacational aims: Physical and health education, with medical and dental treatment provided at State expense; preparation for wholesome family life; vocational preparation; preparation for civil life; recreational life, and creation of a humane civilization.

Women Wanted As Prosecutors

Federation of Clubs Asks District Attorney Garnett to Appoint Two.

A resolution that a letter be sent to District Attorney Leslie C. Garnett, requesting that two women assistants be appointed to fill the vacancies created by the resignations of Miss Pearl McCall and Mrs. Rebecca Greathouse was adopted by the District Federation of Women's Clubs, in session in Dunbar Hall at the Y. W. C. A. yesterday.

Other resolutions passed included one requesting that copies be made of eulogies delivered in the Senate by Senator Arthur Capper, Kansas, and in the House by Representative Edith Nourse Rogers, of Massachusetts, of Susan B. Anthony on February 15, and another putting the federation on record as opposing any legislation permitting the licensing of horse or dog racing in the District.

Delegates to the convention of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, in Hot Springs, Ark., next May, were elected. These included Miss Cornelia Hill, Mrs. Tillman J. Parks, Mrs. J. Edwin Reid and Mrs. W. W. Husband. Alternates selected were Mrs. Charles Mangley, Mrs. Anson Rigers Tracy and Mrs. Begnita Shelton Matthews.

The federation heard addresses by Dr. Eugene Whittemore, professor of pathology at Georgetown University, on control of cancer through public as well as medical education, and Miss Patricia Morss, of the Board of Public Welfare, on work being done among delinquent children.

Sex Discrimination In Codes Protested

10 Women's Organizations File NRA Complaint.

Ten National organizations of women have filed complaint with NRA Administrator Hugh S. Johnson against the sex differentials in wage rates which they say appear in 25 per cent of the NRA codes thus far adopted.

Representatives of these ten organizations have asked for opportunity to present their case at the public hearings on code policies, which will begin February 27. They are National Women's Trade Union League, American Federation of Teachers, American Nurses Association, General Federation of Women's Clubs, National Board of the Young Women's Christian Association, National Congress of Parents and Teachers, National Consumers League, National Education Association, National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, National League of Women Voters.

The principle of equal pay for equal work is violated in these 91 codes in three different ways, according to Miss Elizabeth Christman, secretary-treasurer of the National Women's Trade Union League of America. In 71 codes the sex differentials are undisguised, Miss Christman says. The code, in so many words, calls for so much per hour or per piece for male employes, and a lower rate for female employes. The commonest minimum rates are 35 to 40 cents for men and 30 to 35 cents for women—but sometimes the women's rate runs still lower.

In some codes there is even a series of rates for different operations, with a sex differential all down the line, even on piece work. An outright sex differential appears in the codes for such conspicuous women employing industries as women's coats and suits, boots and shoes, automobiles and fabricated metal products are among others in this long list.

Post Parade

Publicity, Eluded by Women, Seized by Men at Hearing

By Mildred Reed Bundy.

Only a few women—less than a dozen—were among those who crowded the hearing room of the Liquor Control Board in the District Building yesterday. The two hundred or more men present faced the clicking newspaper cameras with no resistance, but women turned their faces from the publicity the lens might bring them.

Only one woman was unconcerned about having the world know about her presence at the hearing. She was Miss Lucy P. Eastwood, of 1458 Columbia road. Miss Eastwood rose swiftly to her feet to object to issuing licenses to sell liquor in a score or more places in that neighborhood. She represented the Columbia Heights Citizens Association. Again and again Miss Eastwood expressed herself in obvious dissension with those present, her impervious dignity unaffected by the almost sneering attitude of others present. She is small, white-haired, plainly dressed. Beyond saying that she had always been opposed to drinking in any form, Miss Eastwood would not discuss her reasons for appearing.

Another woman, representative of a church, patted Miss Eastwood's shoulder at the close of the hearing, and said:

"Never mind. Don't let them jeer at you. The laugh will be on the other side when we get over there."

* * * *

Regretted Departure.

Sighs of regret from Washington debutantes, and from other friends, follow the departure of Lieut. Ellsworth Ingalls Davis to Randolph Field, Texas. The tall, blond young officer—height 6 feet 3—has been with the Thirteenth Engineers at Fort Humphreys, Va., following his graduation at West Point two years ago. He was an honor student from Western High School.

The name "Ingalls" borne by the young officer has historical significance. He is the son of Mrs. Ingalls Davis, of Alexandria, Va., and a grandson of the famed John James Ingalls, Senator from Kansas, who is among those honored in Statuary Hall at the Capitol. The name Ingalls is known in journalism and literature, as well as in statesmanship, to older Washingtonians. Mrs. Ingalls Davis also has a son in the Navy, Ensign D'Atley Ingalls Davis. Her daughter, Frances, is among this winter's debutantes.

* * * *

"Chief Incense Burners."

There is something about sitting on the floor at the women's press conferences at the White House that seems to denote prestige among the women writers. Repeatedly it appears that those in closest touch with Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt are seated at the First Lady's feet. The small seated group of women of the press at such gatherings is coming to be known as the "fair-haired girls" of the Roosevelt Administration, much as a group of men in the Hoover regime was referred to as the "fair-haired boys." Good-humoredly, these journalistic intimates of Mrs. Roosevelt are referred to as the "chief incense burners."

Decollete Executives.

An amusing error was made in a recent issue of a Jackson, Miss., newspaper. Illustrating the story of a meeting of Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt with Mrs. Ellen Woodward, chairman of women's activities of the CWS, and with other women executives of the New Deal, the Mississippi newspaper used a photograph of Mrs. Roosevelt grouped with Washington Junior Leaguers. Pictured in their elaborate ball gowns, the young women of Washington society are represented to be important figures in the CWS.

Retort to the Courteous.

By Katherine Smith.

I resent your implications
That I'm immaturely quaint
For I'd rather be a sinner
Than so futilely a saint.

And your cool respect is insult
And it aggravates a lot,
For I've always had a yearning
To be something that I'm not.

(Copyright, 1934, Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

What Today Means

"Pisces."

If February 27 is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 10 to 11 a. m., from 3 to 4 p. m. and from 5 to 6 p. m. The danger periods are from 8 to 9 a. m., from 1 to 2 p. m. and from 7 to 8 p. m.

If you were born on February 27 cultivate the habit of being punctual. Many a person has never realized how their failure to appreciate the value of time has interfered with their advancement. Lacking a truly good excuse, tardiness in keeping an appointment is not only a display of inconsideration as well as a lack of courtesy, but a reflection on your appreciation of the value of the precious thing that regulates business. It may pay you to remember that today, more than any other time in the history of the world, with practically a five-day working week, time has become one of the most important factors in almost everyone's life. Today, people resent being kept waiting, so watch your clock.

The woman born on February 27 will, if only given the opportunity, be happiest when her environment enables her to live where there are large bodies of water. Aquatic sports of all sorts have a special appeal for her. Those who live inland yearn for the sea coast. If born on this date, you have a happy disposition, and can readily adjust yourself to conditions that might prove trying to those who do not possess your predominating characteristic. Cupid dearly loves to shoot his darts in the direction of those whose natal day is this.

The man born on February 27 need have no worries over his future. Endowed with an alert mentality, possessing a tremendous amount of energy, and a likeable personality, Fate has been most liberal with her gifts. Perseverance is all he needs to add to what he has.

People born on February 27 are capable of making a marked success in numerous lines of endeavor, especially in educational, literary or military. Business endeavors on their part, near or in seaports, summer resorts, or involving water transportation, usually are most successful.

Successful people born on February 27:

George Meade, merchant.
Jacob Bigelow, physician.
Henry W. Longfellow, poet.
John G. Gilbert, actor.
James E. Jouett, naval officer.
Thomas Conway, soldier.

(Copyright, 1934, Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

Economic Study Vividly Portrays Rise of Women

Chicago University Shows Vast Improvement in Their Condition.

Women may not yet be completely emancipated, socially and economically—but they've come a long way in the last few generations.

"Several generations ago, a woman's economic position before the law was little better than that of a child, a slave or a lunatic." Such is the finding of Miss Mary Sydney Branch, instructor in economics at Western College, Oxford, Ohio.

Miss Branch recently concluded a research project into American women in economics, which has just been published by the University of Chicago Press under the title, "Women and Wealth."

Single women couldn't hold office and married women couldn't manage their own property in those days.

True, there are three States in the Union which still permit a man to take his wife's wages; some States in which a woman can not go into business without her husband's consent. Twenty-seven States still withhold the right of jury service from women.

But:

"Thirty-eight per cent of the nine billion dollars of income reported to the Federal Government in 1928 was received by women.

"Seventy-seven thousand women had an annual income of over $5,000, the average being $19,129.

"Of the 18,000,000 stockholders in the United States 7,740,000 are women.

"Women are beneficiaries of 80 per cent of life insurance outstanding.

"Women represent 80 per cent of consumer buying power.

"Before the depression the average weekly salary of professional and business women in New York City was $58."

So says Miss Branch.

Siesta Renews Ebbing Beauty

Few Minutes' Relaxation Daily Advised for Nerves, Too.

Women of 45 or more frequently find it hard to relax. All the more reason for them to master the art.

Set aside ten minutes every afternoon for relaxation, therefore, and at the same time engage in a simple beauty treatment.

Pat a little muscle or wrinkle oil on the forehead, under and at the corners of the eyes, and at the mouth corners. Moisten a pad of cotton with astringent, place under the chin and tie firmly with a band of gauze. Ice the tie-up and lie down in a darkened room for ten minutes. The result will be gratifying indeed.

Another thing which the woman in her forties must remember, is the need of exercise. Exercise not alone for her figure's sake but for her mind's sake. Few women of 40 or more do not have problems of one kind or another which knock at the door of the mind during idle hours of the day.

She should never stay home and revel in "the blues." Even if it is raining or snowing, or blowing, she should go out. Nor should they be too somber in their choice of clothes, those women of 40 or more.

If you have been overworking for years, misguidedly spending all your energies upon your house, your family, or your job, call a halt. Take some of that time for yourself. Be up to date. Be fit. Those jaunty, attractive, up-to-date women of 40 or more whom you admire and envy have probably been knocked down by life not once but many times. But they scrambled up. They are conquerors because they discovered the necessity for keeping fit; for keeping cheerful; for being well dressed; for learning the art of relaxation.

Reynolds to Talk on Labor.

Verne L. Reynolds, Socialist-Labor candidate in the last election for President, will speak on "The Social Aspects of the NRA—Why Government Wants Labor Organized Vertically," at an open lecture this evening at 8 o'clock in Musicians Hall.

Pleasure and Production Combine in Knitting

Post Staff Photos.

Center: Knitting is a pleasure as well as a means to beautiful clothes to these women. They meet daily at a small embroidery shop, where they knit and talk over their work. Lower left: Miss Irene Wright, former golf champion, who finds knitting needles quite as fascinating as golf clubs. Lower right: Miss Louese Fanniglietti knitted the dress she is wearing and is now at work on a new spring suit.

First Subsistence Homestead Project Formally Dedicated

Capital Party Officiates at Arthurdale, New Hope for 300 Miners.

Arthurdale, W. Va., Feb. 26 (Spl.). Arthurdale, first of the Federal Government's experiments with subsistence homestead projects, was formally dedicated this afternoon as a new home for some 300 stranded West Virginia coal miners and their families, mostly from the Scott's Run District in Monongalia County.

The exercises were in charge of a party of Federal officials who drove to the project in an old-fashioned horse-drawn sleigh to the accompaniment of jingling sleigh bells, motor travel having been made impossible by heavy snowfall.

The dedicatory address was delivered by Dr. M. L. Wilson, of Washington, representing the Department of the Interior, division of subsistence homesteads, and the project was formally accepted by Representative Jennings Randolph, of Elkins.

Included in the party also were Miss Nancy Cook, friend of Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, who supervised the furnishing of the three houses of the project so far completed; F. M. Williams, Fourth Assistant Postmaster General; Clarence Pickett, Clark T. Foreman and Carl T. Taylor, of the Interior Department, all of Washington, and Henry Morris, directotr of education in Cambridge County, England.

Discussing the possibility of a factory at Arthurdale to manufacture furniture for postoffices, Williams said he expected "favorable action" from Congress Tuesday. Senate and House are in disagreement on the proposal.

Plans have been modified by the Postoffice Department, Williams said, to provide that the proposed factory will not make any one item needed in postoffices, but a diversified list of products. By this means, he said, no private factory would be hard hit by any competition from Arthurdale.

After the dedicatory ceremonies, the party went to Morgantown, where a dinner was held for its members and the farming and educational committees of the homestead project. All returned to Washington tonight.

Sue White Decries Politics in New Deal

Makes Address at League of Democrats' Meeting.

"In our new philosophy of government—which means a square deal for social and industrial life, for business, for labor and for the consuming public—there is no place for partisan politics," said Miss Sue S. White in an address before the Luncheon Club meeting of the Democratic League of America Monday. Miss White has been executive secretary of the woman's division of the Democratic National committee for four years. Since January 1 she has been assistant to Mrs. Mary H. Rumsey, chairman of the Consumers' Advisory Board.

Among those active in the Democratic League are Mrs. Grattan Kerans, president of the Women's Democratic Educational Council; Arthur C. Smith, president of the league, and John Hale Smith, secretary of the organization.

Thelma Hild LaDow and Dorothy R. Emory furnished musical entertainment for the meeting.

Scholarship Offered By Lawrence College

Sarah Lawrence College, Bronxville, N. Y., announces that for the school year 1934-35 a $1,000 scholarship is available for an entering student of excellent ability who would be unable to attend this college without financial assistance.

Any private preparatory school or public high school may recommend one student. Applications should be sent to the admissions office with a letter of indorsement from the school principal. Since Sarah Lawrence College now offers a four-year course, as well as the two-year course, it has the power to confer the degree of bachelor of arts.

Capital Women Knitters Revive Sewing Circles

Urge for Constructive Work Credited for Renewed Interest in Art.

Knitting needles were clicking busily, feminine voices buzzing in the cozy room. Suddenly a piercing shriek filled the air.

"Tragedy! Tragedy!" moaned a stout woman as she busily ripped on a suit. "Every stitch I put in here was the hardest labor, and now I have to take them all out. I don't understand it I bought a book and I went by direction. But Miss Dora says it is all wrong and I bow to her superior knowledge."

For 25 years Miss Dora and her sister, Mrs. C. F. Schultz, have been operating a small needlework shop on Eleventh street. During that time they have seen hundreds of women including many First Ladies come and go. They have watched many needlework fads flame and burn out. For years women embroidered fine garments. Later they spent their time making tapestries. Today they are knitting.

The modern woman feeling the urge to do constructive work, is turning to the knitting needle rather than the bridge table for her relaxation, the crowds of needleworkers at this and other embroidery shops would indicate.

Pride in Achievement.

"Somehow it is so much more satisfactory to do work of this kind than just playing," one pretty young woman said. "I knit a dress and when it is done I have something to show for the hours I have spent. The proudest day of my life was when I finished my first suit and wore it. Just to have my friends admire the suit, and then be able to say I made it all by myself, was a grand feeling."

And—happy harmony between the new and the old! Many women find the best way to spend the time when listening to the radio is knitting. Others who work and live in the suburbs find that time spent on buses and trolleys can speed by in a fashion both pleasant and profitable—knitting.

"I even take my knitting to the movies," declared pretty young Mrs. R. W. Peard, whose husband is a major at Quantico. "You see out there we have to go to the movies early in order to get a good seat. So I just take my knitting along to pass the time while I am waiting. All of us knit out there. We get together in the afternoons, knit and talk and have coffee instead of tea.

Former Golf Champion.

Miss Irene Wright, who is a former golf champion, finds knitting needles quite as fascinating as golf clubs. She is now on her third garment. "I even take my knitting to cocktail parties," she confided.

"It is only during the last two years that women have taken up knitting again," Mrs. Schultz said. "Now almost everyone seems to knit. We have had to enlarge the shop so we could have room for everyone. For you see, we are always glad to have the customers sit in here and knit where we can help them. We like it to be just like a big family sewing circle.

"This shop is a fascinating place," Mrs. Schultz confided. "It is the best place on earth to study human beings. A person can't do work of this kind for long without revealing her true nature. And we find that the people who are really big are the ones who are willing to admit their mistakes. It is the little, petty people who blame others when their work goes wrong."

Noted Women Knitters.

Mrs. Schultz says that one of the greatest difficulties beginners have in knitting is getting something twisted.

"But the funny thing about it," she said, "is that they will see that the garment is twisted and know that they will have to rip it out, but they just keep on knitting in hopes that by some miracle it will straighten out."

The little shop is thronged with knitters from early in the morning until late at night. Society girls and matrons knit in the mornings. Many office workers go in for instruction when they get off in the afternoons.

Mrs. Chauncy M. Depew was in early Saturday morning purchasing wool to knit a dress for her niece. Mrs. Charles Evans Hughes has recently completed a baby's afghan. Mrs. John Garner, who was in the little shop recently, laughingly remarked that she was knitting for posterity. And as for Mrs. Roosevelt, her knitting is with her wherever she goes.

French Wine Industry Salon Francais Topic

Miss Gretchen Hood, soprano, and Knight G. Aulsbrook, Washington attorney, will be presented at the Salon Francis of the District League of American Penwomen tonight at the league headquarters. Miss Hood, who will be accompanied by William Fletcher Smith, will sing "Apres Un Reve" by Faure," Madrigal by Chaminade, "Serenade Espagnole" by Bizet and "Habernera" from Carmen.

French vineyards and the wine industry of France will be the subject of an address by Mr. Aulsbrook, who lived for years in France and attended the Sorbonne in Paris.

The Salon Francais is under the direction of Mme. Felian Garzia. Mrs. W. W. Badgley, president of the Penwomen, Mrs. E. Richard Gasch, Miss Mary Hedrick and Miss Diana Powell will receive with Mme. Garzia.

Mothers' Club to Have Social.

The Mothers' Club monthly social will be held tomorrow at 8 p. m. at Friendship House. The program will consist of games, songs and other forms of entertainment. Each Tuesday at 1:30 p. m. a Mothers' Club meeting will be held at the Settlement, with Miss Bernice V. Shelhourse in charge.

Congressional Cook Book Recipes Are Put to Test

Editors and Contributors to Volume Eat Luncheon Prepared From It.

Women editors and contributors to the 1934 Congressional Cook Book—off the press a month ago—proved their pudding by sampling it yesterday, at a luncheon served at the Congressional Club, 2001 New Hampshire avenue northwest.

Prospective purchasers had raised the question as to whether editors and contributors had ever practised the recipes they preach in the cook book. Accepting the challenge, Mrs. Clarence C. Dill, president of the club, and chairman of the cook book committee, rallied round her wives of Congress members from all parts of the country, and went into the kitchen to evolve yesterday's four-course luncheon.

One hundred and fifteen women ate the luncheon, and pronounced it delicious and different.

The menu included, in the order of serving, grapefruit cocktail, pressed veal with candied sweet potatoes, broccoli with lemon-and-butter sauce and ice box rolls, pineapple and cottage cheese salad, and orange whip with pineapple cake and campfire coffee.

Grapefruit Cocktails.

The cocktails were prepared by Mrs. Guy Gillette, of Iowa, who halved and sugared grapefruits and dotted each in the exact center with a candied cherry.

Mrs. Terry Carpenter, of Nebraska, prepared the jellied veal after a recipe of her own which she contributed to the cook book. The recipe calls for:

Jellied Veal.

Three pounds solid veal off the shoulder. One dry onion. Salt and celery salt. Hard boiled eggs. Half cup gelatin. Half cup cold water. Juice of one lemon.

Chop onion, add to meat covered with boiling water. Add salt and celery salt and boil until tender. Chop fine. To this add gelatin soaked in half cup cold water. Bring all to boiling point (there should be one quart of liquid), then add juice of lemon. Cover bottom of bread pan with sliced cold hard-boiled eggs. Put in layer of veal, with layer of eggs on top. Add hot liquor until pan is filled. Let stand overnight. Slice down to serve. Makes about 10 slices.

Mrs. Daniel C. Roper, wife of the Secretary of Commerce, had authored the recipe which Mrs. Thomas McKeown, of Oklahoma, used in preparing the candied sweet potatoes.

Candied Sweet Potatoes.

Take 6 red yams, medium size; 1½ cups water, 1 cup brown sugar, half stick butter and nutmeg to taste.

Boil potatoes until tender, but not too soft. Peel. Cut into medium pieces. Arrange in baking dish, preferably one to be used in serving. Boil water and sugar, butter and nutmeg, until syrup is thick. Pour syrup over potatoes. Bake in moderately hot over until delicately brown.

In the rush and bustle which accompanied the luncheon preparation, there appeared no claimants to the task of preparing the broccoli, but the reporter learned it had been boiled in time-honored manner, then poured with a lemon-and-butter sauce that has long been a specialty in the Congressional Club kitchen.

Lemon-and-Butter Sauce.

For serving 100 persons, the Congressional Club cook makes this sauce by placing 1 pound of butter, the juice of 5 lemons and half a cup of cold water together in a pan. The pan is placed to one side on the stove and concoction brought slowly to the melting point. Then it is slowly heated, but never permitted to boil before being poured over individual servings of broccoli.

Ice Box Rolls.

The ice box rolls were made by Mrs. Richard M. Duncan, of Missouri, after her own printed recipe, which calls for:

Two and a half cups scalded milk. Four tablespoons shortening. Four teaspoons sugar. Three teaspoons salt. Two cakes yeast. Half cup warm water. Two and a half cups flour. Melted butter.

Melt shortening in scalded milk. Add sugar and salt. Let stand until cool. Add yeast cake dissolved in lukewarm water. Add flour. Mix well. Put in warm place to rise for 1½ hours. Add enough flour to make stiff and elastic when kneaded on board. Let stand in warm place until it doubles its bulk, 1½ to 2 hours. Roll out and cut as for buscuits. Dip both sides in melted butter. Fold over one fold. Place in baking pan. Let stand in warm place about 30 minutes before baking.

Mrs. Ewing Thomason was responsible for the salad, quickly prepared—with no recipe needed—from sliced canned pineapple topped with egg-sized balls of cottage cheese.

Orange Whip.

Under the title, "Orange Mist," the recipe for the orange whip which featured the dessert course will be found in the Congressional Cook Book. It is a favorite dessert of Mrs. Albert E. Carter, of California, and was prepared for the luncheon by Mrs. Allard H. Gasque, of South Carolina.

Soak two tablespoons of gelatin in a quarter cup of cold water. Dissolve in half cup of boiling water.

Underwood & Underwood.

Mrs. Richard M. Duncan (top) made the ice-box rolls; Mrs. John J. Cochran (center) waited on table, and Mrs. Terry Carpenter (below) prepared the jellied veal in connection with the luncheon served at the Congressional Club yesterday at 1 o'clock. Wives of Congress members, all.

Mrs. Dill and Colleagues Accept Challenge on Practicing Cookery.

Recipes That Were Enjoyed by 150 Women at Club Function.

Add 1½ cups of sugar, 1¼ cups of orange juice, ¼ cup of lemon juice, grated rind of one orange and 2½ cups of whipped cream. Turn into fancy molds and serve with cream.

Pineapple Cake.

The pineapple cake was made by Mrs. John J. Cochran, of Missouri, from a recipe contributed by Mrs. Ralph E. Bailey, wife of the former Representative from the State.

The recipe calls for 2 cups sugar, 1 cup water, 2 teaspoons lemon extract, 2-3 cup butter, 3½ cups flour and 3 teaspoons baking powder. Mix ingredients and bake in layer. Cut and fill with pineapple filling.

Filling is made with two cups powdered sugar, one tablespoon butter and two tablespoons grated pineapple. Mix sugar and butter together. Moisten with pineapple. Spread on layer cake.

Campfire Coffee.

From California comes the recipe for Campfire Coffee, prepared by Mrs. Denver S. Church, who contributed the recipe to the cook book. She uses one tablespoon of coffee to each cup of water, and uses two cups cold water for each person to be served. She puts coffee in water and brings to boil. Pours in one cupful of cold water. Brings to boil second time. Removes at once from fire. Pours in second cup cold water. Keeps coffee very hot, but does not boil again.

Yellow and white spring flowers decorated the tables, repeating the color scheme of the menu. Congressional women who acted as waitresses for the luncheon included Mrs. Jeff Nusby, Mrs. John Y. Brown, Mrs. Robert Earle, Mrs. Henry Hornthal, Miss Lucille Hastings, Mrs. Joseph A. Herbert, jr., Miss Ann Blanton, Miss Margaret Leatherwood, Mrs. Cassius Dowell, Mrs. Duncan, Mrs. Carpenter and Mrs. Andrew J. Montague.

Assisting Mrs. Dill and Mrs. Gillette in the kitchen were Mrs. Frank C. Kniffin, Mrs. John J. Cochran, Mrs. Church, Mrs. McKeown, Mrs. Milton Romjue and Mrs. Gasque.

Underwood & Underwood.

Mrs. Allard H. Gasque (top) fixed the orange whip; Mrs. William S. Driver (center) had a hand in the coffee making, and Mrs. Ewing Thomason (below) made the salad when women of the Congressional Club tried out the recipes in their new cook book yesterday.

Cigaret Holders' Origin Remains Smoky Mystery

Tobacconist Narrates Foibles of Women in Selection of Various Types.

By Ruth Anne Davis.

There's mystery about cigarette holders. Where they first came from, who originated them, and why, seem to be questions beyond the ken of ordinary individuals. Even the encyclopedias fail to throw any light on the subject. But a Connecticut avenue shop has all the timely information. And also a dazzling display of all the newest styles.

The proprietor frankly admitted he had not the vaguest idea regarding their origin, and even refused to risk a guess. This much though he did volunteer: Cigarette holders were probably first used for hygienic reasons, to keep the tobacco from direct contact with the mouth, and to prevent nicotine stains on the hands.

He explained that he would assume as much from the remarks which he hears his customers make. Although most of them give such a sensible reason for their purchase, he says a few of the more frivolous frankly admit they're after the effect, the languid, lazy, almost luxurious air which a cigarette holder seems to give. Such customers usually buy long, exotic-looking holders. Others in pursuit of the practical prefer the shorter ones.

He was curious about a possible fad this season to match the holder with the frock, for, he said, he'd noticed a tendency to select colors now in vogue and had even heard remarks to the effect that the red, the blue, or the black would look "so sweet" with such and such a gown.

The variety of cigarette holders here in this shop ranges in length from 2½ to 12 inches. There are Chinese reds, white, yellows, blacks, silvers, greens, rock amber and tortoise shells, some plain and others almost ornate.

Some of the oddest come in plain, slender cases, either black or white enamel with a small unobtrusive marcasite decoration.

* * * *

Extra Week-end Bag.

For that hasty week-end trip there are some nifty little tweed bags on sale for a dollar.

Whereas we might have the overnight bag neatly packed and ready for a flying grab, there are the inevitable odds and ends which must be thrown in somewhere. The best solution is to have one of these small sport bags, open and ready to catch the showers of shoes, hose and whatnot that come under the last minute scurrying survey.

The bags are available in either tan or gray tweed, and fasten securely across the top with a zipper. Price, $1.

* * * *

Educated Corkscrew.

There are, according to the young person in charge of the court of gifts in a downtown store, many people who are preparing for legal liquors and wines with first-class equipment. She has on hand some French corkscrews which sell for treble the amount of most corkscrews. And although the majority of people would doubt that a corkscrew could have savoir-faire, these do.

They have a queer zig-zag spring to which the screw is attached. After it has been worked into the cork, the spring automatically folds up in an easy, lazy manner and there as gently as you can imagine, the cork eases out. Rare old vintages should be opened carefully so that the work of years is not suddenly upset. This queer little corkscrew gadget does this work in a slow, soothing manner, and does it well. Out of curiosity, stop and look at it.

* * * *

Bedtime Beauty Package.

The convenient little bedtime package put out by a beauty specialist and sold in an F street shop is taking this week's popularity laurels. It includes a good face cream and some beauty grains, one of the most penetrative face washes on the market. For the skin without blemish an ordinary soap will in most cases remove dirt, but skins which are prone to break out with unsightly pimples require more intensive treatments.

These beauty grains are an excellent means of dissolving obstinate blackheads, and getting at the root of pimples. If they are used two or three times a week there will soon be a noticeable improvement in the skin.

The complete package, face cream and beauty grains, is selling now for $1.

* * * *

"Bows—and Then Beaux."

A recent advertisement on neckwear pointed out that the young miss was going to find bows an irresistible part of her wardrobe this spring by saying, "Bows—and then beaux!"

There are innumerable stiff organdy and taffeta bows capturing the limelight at many counters, but there are some string lace bows in one store like none we'd seen before.

They appear to be made of stiff string interwoven into a kind of lace, and then tied into a full semi-fluffy bow. They're particularly appropriate for street or office wear. The woman who goes in for tailored frocks and steers away from bows because she fears their fluffiness will find in these just the proper severity.

Call Ruth Anne Davis, of The Washington Post, National 4205, Extension 105, for further information. Or write, inclosing a stamped, addressed envelope.

Dried and Wrinkled Prune Loses Dejected Air As It Is Coaxed Into Becoming Tasty Dessert

Ann Barrett Tells Ways of Using Evaporated Fruit Effectively.

By Ann Barrett.

Thoughtful cooks must find it something to marvel at—the way wrinkled-up prunes, apricots, peaches and raisins can shake off their discouraged air and expand into elegant desserts. It's not entirely a matter of prune whip, either (though Marie Dressler and many others do consider this a prize dessert, and the prune's star role).

For instance, there's lattice-top raisin pie, dried-peach conserve, apricot sherbet, prune loaf cake, pickled figs, date souffle, apricot turnovers made with cream-cheese pastry. And so many more I'd need a whole volume just to list them.

So here goes for specific recipes which for their popularity should be in every homemaker's bag of cooking tricks. First, a quick prune whip that stands up fluffier than the ordinary, because the egg-whites are heated before beating.

This starts with 2 cups cooked prunes (about 1¾ cups raw). Drain the juice off these, pit them and push them through a sieve, making about 1 cup of pulp. Next, heat 2 egg-whites and 4 tablespoons powdered sugar (over hot water in top of double boiler(till hot enough so you can barely stand your finger in them.

Then remove from fire and beat whites very stiff with rotary or electric beater. Next, fold in 2 teaspoons lemon juice and all but 4 tablespoons of the prune pulp. Pile lightly in 4 glasses, and chill. When ready to serve, put a tablespoon of remaining prune pulp on top.

Often it's nice to serve a hot prune whip. Especially if it's baked as pictured—in individual dishes of glass ovenware, patterned in a new design of frosted white scallops.

This whip prune also starts with 2 cups cooked prunes, pitted and mashed to a pulp. To this pulp add 1 tablespoon lemon juice and 2 tablespoons confectioner's sugar. Then beat 4 egg-whites stiff, and gradually beat into them 4 tablespoons confectioner's sugar (a little at a time) to make a stiff meringue. Fold into this meringue the prune pulp and 4 tablespoons fine, dry crumbs made from cake or sweet crackers rolled and sifted. Bake at 350 degrees F. about 25 minutes. Serve with sweetened whipped cream or custard sauce.

Lattice-Top Raisin Pie.

For lattice-top raisin pie, you'll need 1 pound of seeded raisins. First let these stand in 2 cups lukewarm water about 1 hour. Then add to them 1 cup sugar, 1 teaspoon grated lemon rind, 1 teaspoon preserved ginger cut in tiny pieces, 4 tablespoons lemon juice and a few grains of salt. Cook this mixture very slowly, till raisins are perfectly tender. Let this mixture cool, then turn it into a 9-inch pie plate lined with pastry. Make a lattice top with strips of pastry cut about half inch wide. Bake in hot oven (400 F.) for 5 minutes. Then reduce heat to 350 degrees F. and bake 20 minutes more.

Apricot Sherbet.

As for apricot sherbet, this delicacy starts with ½ pound dried apricots, soaked overnight in 3 cups cold water. Then cook them slowly in this same water till tender, and strain them. There should be about 1½ cups of juice. Next, soften 2 teaspoons unflavored gelatin in 3 tablespoons cold water. Then add it to apricot juice, along with 1-3 cup sugar and stir till dissolved. Next put the cooked apricots through a sieve, and add these to gelatin mixture. Add 3 tablespoons lemon juice, mix thoroughly and let cool till it begins to set.

Then beat with rotary beater till mixture is foamy and fold in 3 egg whites (beaten stiff) and ½ cup heavy cream (beaten stiff). Add ¼ teaspoon almond extract. Mix, but do not stir or beat hard. Then pour mixture into freezing tray of automatic refrigerator and freeze about 4 hours, stirring every half hour. (If you freeze mixture in a crank freezer, do not add egg white and cream till after mixture has been frozen to a mush. Then fold in egg white and cream, but do not turn mixture any more.)

MRS. ANN BARRETT
Washington Post Food Service
500 Fifth Ave., New York

6c in loose stamps and self-addressed envelope inclosed. Please send me your newest bulletin, "Inexpensive Desserts from Dried Fruits."

Name .....

St. & No. .....

City & State .....

(Copyright, 1934.)

Capital Kitchen

Mechanical Refrigerators Should be Means of Restoring Sherbets to Old Place as Separate Dinner Courses; Susan Mills Offers Recipes for Them.

By Susan Mills.

Time was, as the old cinema put it, when sherbets were served after the main dish and before the salad or game as a course all by itself. Time is, nowadays, when the sherbet is served with the main course. It is usually allowed to melt and look most unappetizing, and the diner is faced with the problem of either scooping the mass the best he can with a fork or drinking it with a gulp, thereby risking his dignity and exposing his unfamiliarity with genteel dining.

But in these enlightened days of mechanical refrigerators and convenient freezing equipment, why not serve the sherbet as a separate course? There are so many ways to prepare a sherbet, so many delicious flavors.

Chef Marchitelli, of the Mayflower Hotel, describes one of his favorites. It is a combination of mint flavor and creme de menthe.

Or you might try this one: Freeze together a pint of black coffee, a half cup cream and a half cup sugar. Fill sherbet glasses with the frozen mixture and pour a tablespoon of brandy over each just before serving.

A basic recipe for lemon sherbet can be varied in many ways.

Lemon Sherbet.

Boil two cups water with a cup sugar, add a teaspoon granulated gelatine dissolved in water. Beat until cold, add the whites of four eggs beaten stiff and the juice of three lemons. Freeze, stirring it often.

To this sherbert add a half cup of rum and you have a Roman sherbet. Or sprinkle this dish with fresh or candied rose leaves and you have a creation this is equal to the frivolities of ancient banquets.

A ginger sherbet is simply the lemon ice recipe with the addition of a cup of preserved or candied ginger cut in small pieces. One cup of ginger is enough for a pint of sherbet.

If you are fortunate enough to have brought some back on the boat, add three tablespoons each of sherry and brandy mixed to a pint of lemon sherbet. Or if you have the intention of buying some when repeal is well under way, these sherbets are a good thing to remember.

Strawberry Sherbet.

The inclemency of the present weather might make one shiver at the mention of an icy dish, but who's afraid of an icy dish in a comfortably heated dining room? Then too, it is said that the original purpose of a sherbet is to stimulate the digestive organs, so, no matter how much you have eaten, at a formal dinner, and no matter how much you may be expected to eat, the sherbet comes to the rescue.

Now that strawberries are back, a delicious sherbet can be made of a pint of lemon ice made of half water and half claret, with the addition of strawberries when served.

These ices can be garnished according to the whim of the hostess. An orange sherbet sprinkled with the grated peel adds a delicate flavor to a dinner. The ices can be decorated with fresh or candied violets, sprigs of mint, or any berries in season.

All these dishes are welcomed as a summer-time dessert as well as an in-between course for winter luncheons or dinners. After all, if winter comes can spring be far behind? And after spring the summer—the season of ice creams and ices. It won't be long now.

Spring Hose Colors Picked for Blending

Stockings Should Not Be Mere Afterthought in Planning Costume.

Directed By Amos Parrish.

New York, Feb. 26.—Here we are—just about ready to plunge feet first into spring. A very good way to go, too. For feet coverings . . . specifically stockings . . . should be a first consideration, not an afterthought, in planning any costume ensemble.

Stocking colors just have to be right this spring. Not only the color itself, but its possibilities of blending in with the coat and dress colors you've planned.

In other words, if you are buying beige stockings, it's important, of course, to have the correct, this-season tone of beige. But it's even more important to decide first if it is really beige which will blend best with your costumes. Or if, perhaps, you don't need some other color.

Taupe Most Important.

The most fashion-important group of stocking colors . . . and we say "group" because there are different shades of the color—is taupe.

Why taupe? Because taupe in its various tones is the shade which blends best with the various shades of blue.

And what difference does blue make? A lot. Because blue is the most fashionable costume color you can wear this spring.

Most important of all is medium taupe. This is the shade which goes best with navy blue, with the lighter-than-navys dark enough for street, and with green. It is also the smartest choice wth gray costumes.

With Prints.

The next taupe is called beige-taupe because it looks almost beige until you put it beside some of the real clear beiges.

Choose this color if you're going in for the smart spring prints. You'll like it, too, with medium blues, greens and rust.

Some women are going to want a still darker taupe . . . those who wear black a lot and like the effect of a darker stocking. But your medium taupe goes with more spring shades and so is more practical if you can't have a large supply of colors.

The Beiges.

Then you'll want to consider beige shades. Neutral beige . . . a clear medium tone . . . if you are planning on a beige costume. Nice, too, with light blue or green.

Brown beige, slightly darker and browner, is the color if your spring wardrobe is built around a brown ensemble. And it is very smart to wear with blue or green if your accessories are brown.

There's a medium brown shade, too, darker than these beiges, which is effective with a beige costume when dark brown accessories are worn. But your brown beige, like medium taupe, is a more all-round color.

If you are wearing a gray costume . . . either pure gray or the new blue-gray . . . and wearing gray accessories, you can smartly wear gray stockings if they are a gray which is lively in tone. But an even smarter choice is the medium shade of taupe as mentioned before.

Most Important Group of Hues Is Taupe, Amos Parrish Asserts.

Samples of Colors.

Because we thought you'd like to see these shades before buying, we've prepared a leaflet showing actual pieces of stocking silks in the new colors. Send us the filled-in coupon and requested enclosures and the leaflet is yours.

AMOS PARRISH,
THE WASHINGTON POST,
N. Y. FASHION BUREAU,
500 FIFTH AVE. N. Y.

I enclose stamped, self-addressed return envelope and loose 3-cent stamp. Please send your leaflet "These are the Spring Stocking Shades which Blend Best with Costume Shades."

Name .....

Street .....

City .....

State .....

(Copyright, 1934.)

Tomorrow: Sub-debs' dresses play two different roles.

Beggars All

By Katharine Newlin Burt

The Story Thus Far.

Rafe Courvoisier, last member of an impoverished Southern family, is released from a secret outlaw rendezvous by Madrone, its ruler, when he promises to obey Madrone's instructions, to be written to him in a unique green ink. Returning to Candle Island, his family home in Chetteraw, he finds that it has been bought by Hortense Kendall, a beautiful girl from the North. He takes service as Miss Kendall's boatman. His family lawyer gives him a letter from Harmon Jay, Miss Kendall's guardian. It is written in Madrone's green ink, and instructs him to live at Candle Island.

She knelt up straight at once to comfort him. "Now, Rafe, you've got no right to look and speak that way! As if you hadn't your own young life before you. So strong. So wonderful. There's been nobody as alive as you in Chetteraw for years, not since you left. Why, Rafe, it was really"—she actually laughed on a ghostly sad breath—"because you made me feel again that I had such a wicked impulse. I came back to life. It hurt so, honey. You were the old days, the old happy days when there were suns and the nights when there were moons and rains and beautiful things. . . . and him."

"Him. Isn't your life worth anything to you without him, Tine?"

She shook her head, looking up at him simply through tears.

"Then you've got to grow up and learn to be a real human being, not just a silly little romantic girl in love with long-ago, big, soft, wishy-washy moons. What you need is life, Tine, real rough life. I'll get you out of this, hear me?"

She drew away from him and stood up. "Rafe, you shame me!" Her face was really faintly flushed to the restoration of its loveliness.

"Good. You just keep right on being shamed. You got a man to take care of now, you can't afford to be a baby. When I've pulled you out of here——"

He lifted her up into his arms, and leaving the door wide behind him went by its released light down, she clinging and laughing noiselessly against his shoulder, and into the moon-filled place she had left vacant, there he dropped her with brotherly roughness on her bed.

"Good night, baby. Be a woman when you wake up, will you. I'll be needing you. Soon maybe."

He gave her a kiss and a rough pat and left her.

He went up again to the sewing-room and took the gun and carried it down with him to his own quarters. Its weight was good. He caressed its cold, sleeping power. He put it under his pillow. It made him feel more like a man, less like a runaway slave. He'd talked mighty biggety to Tine, hadn't he? He wondered as he sat down to get rid of his shoes how on earth he would be able to rescue anyone.

He put out his light and the moon made a white patch on his bed. He sat down in it, barefooted, in his slim pajamas, and kept on sitting, his hands hanging between his knees, his mind blank with his entire helplessness.

The white moon patch withered like a flower. It was dark. There was no sound now but the lapping of water . . . far away . . . She had looked very strong, a strong, fawny, heady wine. He had never seen a girl's body look so strong. It was the way she stood, the strength in her, the strength of Yankee gold behind her, holding her up, that gave her that pride, that insolence. He fell backward, drew up his covers and sank into sleep. Drowning, he seemed to cling to strength, to golden hands, to a memory of icy Northern eyes that had darkened to a sudden childlike sympathy.

On Monday morning before the marketing hour of Chetteraw's ladies, Rafe, carrying a suit case which Tine had helped him to pack, went down for the second time to the end of Courvoisier Lane. He went, decently clad, sufficiently fed, but the mocking bird singing in the walled garden woke no passionate clamor in his heart.

Alien Among His Folk.

Nevertheless, soberly, he was glad to be leaving Chetteraw. All that Sunday the Courvoisier town house had been besieged by enthusiastic and curious welcomers. "Rafe Courvoisier is home!" Rafe, standing in the old drawing-room to greet them, felt himself an alien among these gentle, half-remembered folk. There was still youth in Chetteraw and very lovely youth, but it had the pallor of imprisonment.

Rafe had been told that there were to be "lots of parties" soon. The Taskets were coming for the azalea season. They'd have a house full of visitors. And Randy Crewe would be back of course. Nobody until he had asked had spoken of Hortense Kendall. She, out there on the Courvoisier plantation, simply had not begun to exist for Chetteraw.

There lay, on Monday morning, across the wall of water at the end of that narrow lane, a heavy veil of mist. The young Negro was not at the wharf. Instead, Mr. Christopher Rondo, the overseer of the island, very snug as to his body in a cinnamon brown suit and as to his head in an inappropriate brown derby hat, stood up from the seat of a motorboat to greet him. Besides Mr. Rondo, the boat was manned by a dark-skinned youth who looked studiously away from Rondo down into the water.

"Ah, Courvoisier, on time, I see. That is very good, indeed. This is Miss Kendall's mechanician, Toni Streno. Toni, Mr. Courvoisier is to have charge of all the boats. You understand these machines, Courvoisier?"

"Yes."

Before Rondo could continue with what was evidently intended to be an elaborate introduction of a boatmen to his boats, Toni spoke with a sort of obstinate passion, with hands, brows, elbows at work, and in a voice of fiery inquiry. He created a diversion. Rondo was held up. He protested, listened again, relaxed, surrendered.

"We must go first," he said, "to get a message. Of no importance, surely, but we must go. It will be quicker by water. Since Toni knows this locality, he had best still command the engine. We will follow along the shore. There is a small restaurant . . . a wharf . . . a message of no importance."

Rondo's insistence had the natural effect. Rafe could not help suspecting the message of some especial if somewhat surreptitious importance He surmised that Miss Kendall was not privy to this portion of their expedition. It was as yet, however, none of his business.

The locality, Rafe was forced to observe as they swiftly ran away from the decent waterways of the small city, was not a savory one To reach it they nosed into a tangled corner of dirty and littered yards.

Toni stopped below a wharf, less shabby but more secret than its neighbors, and here Rondo, muttering an angry comment, climbed out and up.

Chapter VIII

Above them Rafe could see an arbor, screened in vines, a cafe entrance and a swinging sign. Above the shabby place, with a magnificent beauty of detachment, soared an enormous ancient magnolia tree.

Looking up at its generous splendor, Rafe was startled by a memory. He examined the wharf, the house front and its view across the harbor. Surely this had been Zaretti's place, The Magnolia Tree, a gay and famous little restaurant frequented in his father's youth by all the beaux of Chetteraw—especially by Boniface Courvoisier and Rudolph Crewe, his father and Randy's.

There had been a story—he must have taken it into his child's memory with all the vividness of scare and shock, for the scene passed now before him like a shadow picture. He saw the handsome jealous young Italian, Zaretti, taunted, cornered, bullied, pushed to the water's edge and over it . . . held there, his knuckles punished with an oar, by the wild black-and-white Courvoisier until Rudolph Crewe had had his fill of kissing the pretty and proud Creole wife.

Yes, it had been one of Boniface's stories at the expense of Crewe. Rafe had seen Crewe obligingly pull up his shirt to show the "one dishonorable scar." For the two young profligates Rafe also remembered had not come off scot-free. Zaretti had run after Crewe, had caught him at the alley's mouth and knifed him in the back. He had thrown the body into a boat and turned it adrift, thinking himself surely a murderer.

It had been the end of that other young man, Zaretti. He'd made a getaway. The pretty and proud little wife, too, had disappeared. Rafe wondered what had come to them. How long had Zaretti fancied himself a murderer? Long enough for tragedy, no doubt, for the story went that his wife had left him.

Rafe turned his face away. Rondo was coming out again. Confound Chetteraw, its ghosts and memories. There was, it seemed, no message after all. Rondo, with an air of relief, resumed command.

"Be so good now, Courvoisier, as to take Toni's place. I would like to see how she goes, these machine, for you."

Rafe and Toni, who looked jealous and sullen, made the exchange, walking past each other as deftly as two cats.

"To the island," said Rondo magnificently. "We will leave you, Courvoisier, at the north end of the island. Here is a small harbor—I will show you—where you will eventual' keep a motor boat for your passage up and down the shore of the island. And a house, a cabin, which I have been told you are to use for your—er—headquarters. You will eat with us, the supervisors, in the dining room of the officials in the south wing of the mansion."

As the boat leaped out, Rafe grinned against the damp warm wind of their motion. Rondo's words and gestures were magnificent. They painted a life of courtly subservience and ceremony.

"You had best get yourself located in the cabin. It has been aired and cleaned."

"By Mr. Harmon Jay's orders, I reckon."

Rondo gave a murmur of bewilderment which at the same time conveyed a definite scorn for Mr. Jay.

"Jay? Jay? No! No! It is all naturally Miss Kendall's thought, her plan, that is the order of the day at Candle Island, Courvoisier. We are here for her pleasure. It was her that decide to put you up at the north end of these estate."

"As far away as possible," that Rafe, grimly amused by Rondo and his mistress, and then began to push all these small coincidences of plan and wish together, trying to make some sort of pattern.

It was no use. There wasn't a bit of sense to any of it. Jay and his green ink. Rondo's advertisement. His own application for the job. All of it had the look of free will of chance, of a casual chain of incident.

The island began to run toward them, to stretch out its green and narrow arms. Its morning sweetness came out to meet Rafe and he felt his heart unwillingly enlarged, climb up toward his throat. He was coming again, after ten years, to live on Candle Island. Strange. Sad. Strange . . .

Land Like Chameleon.

The land had the outline of a recumbent chameleon, its spine higher than its blunt head, its body running down gradually toward a double tail. It was at the junction of these sandy tails that the old cabin stood between its trees. Except for these two trees, foster children of a sudden icy spring, the character of this north spit was utterly different from the flowering meadowy richness of the central and southern portions of the island. A sudden area of swamp ended in the desolation of sandy and sparse stunted beach growth. The tail of the chameleon were entirely alien to its head. It flattened down there to the sea. Beyond, the water, hardly broken by this flat bar of sand, stretched toward the seaward dunes which a mile farther out protected the plantation from the impact of the open Atlantic.

(Copyright, 1934.)

To Be Continued Tomorrow.

From THE NEW Jelleff's
1216-20 F Street N.W.
GOWN SALON

Swagger Jacket Print Ensembles Important

Suggested by recent Paris openings . . . now ready for Spring. For swagger length jacket ensembles are right for daytime. In a nicely spaced print in brown, navy or black, with white. Inch-wide bands of fagotting on bodice and jacket sleeves. Stiffened silk flowers. Misses' sizes 14 to 20.

$49.75

Second Floor Gown Salon

GERMANY

A Travelogue By

JOHN GEORGE BUCHER

Illustrated With

MOTION PICTURES

and

Stereopticon Views

Masonic Auditorium

New York Ave. at 13th St. N.W.

TONIGHT

At 8:15 P. M.

FIFTEENTH IN A SERIES OF 20 TRAVEL LECTURES
SPONSORED BY

The Washington Post

ADMISSION 25c

Tickets on sale at Masonic Auditorium Box Office beginning at 7 P. M. Tonight

Pimples Relieved

Skin made clearer, smoother, finer, the easy Resinol way For free sample of Ointment and Soap write to Resinol, Dept. 75, Balto., Md.

Resinol

Second News Section
Financial—Classified

The Washington Post

Second News Section
Sports—Comics

COPYRIGHT, 1934, BY THE WASHINGTON POST PUBLISHING CO.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 27, 1934

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER, POSTOFFICE, WASHINGTON, D. C.

"Hill" Hints Bride Soon To Be Ousted

Prettyman Reported Due Job; Record Again Attacked.

Counsel Calls at White House to Explain His Politics.

For the second time the politics of Corporation Counsel William W. Bride was debated yesterday on the floor of the House, while Bride was calling on Marvin McIntyre, secretary to President Roosevent, to explain his party record.

While the District Commissioners maintained silence, indications that Bride would be replaced within the next few days gained strength, as it was learned on Capitol Hill that Senator Millard Tydings (Democrat), of Maryland, is blocking confirmation of Robert H. Jackson as general counsel of the Bureau of Internal Revenue until E. Barrett Prettyman, who formerly held the post, is given another job.

Although Prettyman is not seeking the job of corporation counsel particularly, it is said that Democratic patronage dispensers have decided Bride's post would be an excellent one for him.

Patman Leads Attack.

Bride said last night that he had laid before McIntyre a party record similar to that which Representative Thomas Blanton (Democrat), of Texas, inserted in the Congressional Record Saturday.

Yesterday's attack on Bride in the House came from Representative Wright Patman (Democrat), of Texas, while Blanton again sought to defend him.

Patman charged that Bride has been a Republican since 1928 and declared that the District Commissioners should not reappoint him unless the job is nonpolitical.

Besides repeating the allegation that Bride gave $100 to the Hoover campaign in 1928, Patman stated that Bride listed himself as a Republican in the 1930, 1931, 1932 and 1933 issues of Who's Who, and was one of the organizers of the Young Men's Republican League.

Blanton asked why Patman didn't go after the "big fish" Republicans in the Democratic Administration, such as Secretary Ickes, Secretary Wallace and NRA Administrator Hugh S. Johnson.

Secretary Made Entry.

Patman replied that he was only interested in Bride and accused Blanton of trying to evade the issue.

Blanton replied that he had investigated the designation of Bride as a Republican in Who's Who and had found that his secretary had made the designation while he was away.

"If you can show me any official letter or document in which Bride labeled himself as a Republican, I will help you throw him out," Blanton said.

Representative O'Connor (Democrat) New York, who had attacked Bride earlier in the session for his activity in behalf of the District liquor act, interrupted at one point and repeated his charges that Bride sought to protect the surety companies "behind the back of the House," and had lobbied for the chain drug industry.

Poor Investment.

"If he's interested in protecting the druggists who want to sell Washington vile blended liquor, then he should be thrown out on his head," he said.

Earlier Patman referred to the $1,000 which Blanton said Bride contributed to the Democratic party when he made the $100 donation to the Hoover campaign as "an investment" which failed to produce results.

Later in the afternoon Blanton took time to answer Patman's charges and to blame Joseph P. Tumulty, former secretary to President Wilson, for the "propaganda" against Bride.

Earlier in the day Representative Smith (Democrat), Virginia, expressed regret over reports that the District Commissioners may replace Bride.

Driver Grabs Fare's Fur Coat and Flees

A taxicab driver didn't wait for his money yesterday and last night was sought by police for the theft of a fur coat valued at $34.

Mrs. Sherley Barton, of 1420 R street northwest, reported she hired a cab near Eighteenth street and Argonne place northwest. When they arrived home she asked the driver to come in and she would pay him. While she was in an adjoining room getting the money, the driver grabbed her fur coat and fled, Mrs. Barton declared.

Scientist to Lecture On "Forgotten Colors"

"Forgotten Colors," based on a color study through the ages, will be the topic of a lecture to be delivered to the Art League of Washington tomorrow evening, at 8 o'clock, by Dr. I. H. Godlove, color scientist, psychologist and color editor for Webster's Dictionary.

Dr. Godlove will explain how primitive peoples used colors in painting, how certain colors were lost to the artists of the Renaissance and returned in the rediscoveries of the impressionists. The function of color in various masters' works will be pointed.

New Snow Chokes Capital, Bringing Complaints, Arctic Garb and New Snow-Removal Machinery

Post Staff Photos.

Upper left photo shows District workers busily cleaning snow drifts from the Capitol Plaza. Upper center depicts a new type of snow removal machine in operation on a downtown street. It works on the vacuum cleaner principle, sucking the snow into a truck to be carted away. At the right is shown Julian Warmath, Washingtonian who went to the Arctic regions with Admiral Peary. Warmath looked out his window yesterday and promptly unpacked his old parka and other Eskimo clothing, and even a harpoon. Lower picture is of a typical downtown scene yesterday.

Robber Killed In Police Trap At Drug Store

Atlanta Gunman Slain by Detectives When He Pulls Revolver.

Trapped on the second floor of the Peoples Drug Store, 1323 F street northwest, by two detectives who had waited since midnight, a burglar was shot to death early yesterday when he refused to surrender, and according to officers, drew his pistol.

Several hours after three bullets from the revolvers of Detective Sergt. Michael Dowd and Detective M. K. Reading had ended the robber's life, an acquaintance identified him as William Neil, 29, of Atlanta, Ga., who had been in the District about seven months.

Last month the same store was robbed of narcotics and whisky valued at $400. Police deduced the same man would seek a second "haul." For the last month officers have been assigned to hide near the liquor and narcotic vaults, and Dowd and Reading drew the assignment Sunday night. Just before 5 a. m., they heard footsteps on the fire escape.

Using a crowbar, the intruder forced the window and stepped inside.

Unaware he was covered, the burglar walked toward the officers, carrying a flashlight.

"Stick 'em up," cried Dowd.

As the man drew his gun both detectives fired. The robber fell.

G. S. Shoup, of the Cavalier Hotel, identified Neil.

Plaza Light Cost Estimated $6,000

Committee Told Congress Must Supply Funds.

If Congress wants traffic signals around the Union Station Plaza, it will have to appropriate $6,055 for the project, District Commissioner Melvin C. Hazen and Traffic Director William A. Van Duzer yesterday told the House District Committee.

Replying to an inquiry from Chairman Norton, the District officials said that the Budget Bureau had allowed only $10,000 for installation of traffic lights, and that other intersections had precedence.

The officials said that a study of the proposal for pedestrian tunnels under the plaza showed it would be prohibitively costly.

Play Institute Second Session Set Tonight

The second session of the 1934 District of Columbia Play Institute will be held tonight at the Wilson Teachers College, Eleventh and Harvard streets northwest, beginning at 8 o'clock. Miss Ruby F. Neal will act as chairman.

Folk dancing led by Mrs. Ruth Aubeck Foster, of George Washington University, and elementary rhythms led by Miss Amalie Preische, of the Potomac School, constitute the subjects for this week's study.

Buy in Washington, Inc., To Hear of Progress

A report on progress in the last six months of Buy in Washington, Inc., is to be made to members at the Mayflower Hotel Thursday night. Dr. Cloyd Heck Marvin, president of George Washington University, will be the principal speaker.

A program of entertainment, including a recital by Harry Angelico, concert soloist, has been arranged.

Final College Tests Scored As Antiquated

Maryland U. Journal Leads Drive to Drop Closing Examinations.

Headed by the Diamondback, official publication of the school, students of the University of Maryland yesterday launched a drive to eliminate the practice of final examinations.

The students said they were attempting to fall in line with a movement now becoming popular in many of the larger American universities.

The plan, of which the University of Chicago is the leading example, includes not only the elimination of examinations but revision of the American University system to comply with the European plan, they said.

Sentiment Divided.

"A large part of the faculty," said an editorial in an issue of the Diamondback, released last night, "is also willing to admit that a change in the final examination system would not be unwelcome. Several of the professors have gone so far as to make the courageous statement that the system is 'antiquated' and has no place in a progressive university.

"The Chicago plan has aroused a storm of approbation and criticism intermingled. Admittedly, it is an experiment, but we believe the proof of the pudding to be in the eating.

Sarcasm Used as Foil.

"It is common knowledge that some professors would be completely at sea without a semester final to lend moral support to their grades. They have taught for years courses which are immune to modern trends; they hide deficiencies behind a thin veil of sarcasm, directed at students and colleagues whom, perhaps, they term 'upstarts.'

"But remember, above all, these faithful few some day must climb on the band wagon or be run over."

Drama Guild Will Give 3 Prize-Winning Plays

Production of three original one-act plays by the Drama Guild of Washington was announced yesterday.

The plays recently won the 1933-34 Drama Guild playwrighting contest. Mrs. W. J. Peters, Mrs. Maud Howell Smith and De Witt C. Croissant formed the committee in charge. The plays are "What Makes a Woman Happy," by Mrs. Leslie Carl Frank; "A Deed of Trust," by Mrs. James Gallagher, and "The House of Stars," by Miss Anne Darlington—all of Washington.

Loses Twice

Driver Races Officer and Pays Off in Court.

James E. Wood, Negro, 30, of 38 G street southwest, will be careful with whom he races next time.

He was fined $25 in Police Court yesterday on speeding charges. Wood was driving through Potomac Park. He saw another machine attempting to overtake him, so he "stepped on it."

The pursuing car gained speed and so did Wood. Finally, at 50 miles an hour, Wood was forced to the curb. The driver of the other machine happened to be Park Policeman H. W. Brown, in plain clothes.

Snow Shrinks County Classes; 1 School Closes

Prince Georges Students Kept Home; Marlboro High Shut.

As a result of the heavy snow one Prince Georges County school was closed yesterday and many others operated under handicap and with small attendances, County Superintendent Nicholas Orem said last night.

The Marlboro High School was forced to close because of small attendance. At the Oxon Hill (Md.) Consolidated School a limited session was held when only two of the five buses arrived with pupils from nearby communities.

Superintendent Orem said he had not heard from all of the county's 112 schools, but felt sure many had held limited sessions during the day. The Landover School had an attendance of 18, out of an enrollment of 75 pupils.

The Maryland State Roads Commission brought into play every available truck and plow to clear the roads. The snow had drifted several feet deep in many places.

Early in the day the Baltimore boulevard had been completely cleared, as well as the Marlboro pike and several other roads. The majority of the county roads, however, were still almost impassible late yesterday.

Bristol to Hear Evangelist.

Bristol, Va., Feb. 26 (Spl.).—Aimee Semple McPherson Hutton, leader of Angelus Temple at Los Angeles, will speak at Bristol, Va., high school the afternoon and evening of March 12.

Fairfax Board Of Supervisors Passes Budget

Tentative Total of $81,268 Provides 20 Cent Raise in Taxes.

A tentative budget of $81,268 for the 1934-35 fiscal year, providing an approximate raise of 20 cents per $100 in the county tax rate was approved yesterday by the Fairfax County Board of Supervisors.

The figure tentatively agreed on compares with a budget of $73,813.73 operated on during the present year. Slight increases were given in practically all departments of the county. The budget does not include the county school budget which also was approved by the board.

Tax rates, to be collected next fall, will be affected by the new budget to the extent of the estimated 20 cent raise from 20 cents this year, making a total of 40 cents per $100.

Confederate pension levies remain at 6 cents, it was decided and the school tax at $1. The tentative budget will be advertised along with the school budget.

Postoffice Burned At Churchland, Va.

Cherry's General Store Is Razed by Flames.

Norfolk, Va., Feb. 26 (Spl.).—Fire last night destroyed Cherry's general store and postoffice at Churchland, Va., near here, despite the fact that fire departments from Portsmouth, Suffolk and the Government ordnance depot went to the scene.

The firemen were helpless because no water was available.

L. B. Cherry, proprietor, and his family were asleep above the store. They escaped uninjured, but saved very few of their belongings. To-Today the Government put on an extra R. F. D. carrier to deliver mail in the Churchland area.

Norfolk Terminal's Rate Boost Barred

The United States Shipping Board Bureau of the Department of Commerce announced yesterday it had notified the Norfolk Tidewater Terminal, Inc., Norfolk, Va., lessee of the department's terminal at Norfolk, that no change should be made in present rates and charges at the terminal without prior approval of the Merchant Fleet Corporation, according to the Associated Press.

This decision came after a report to the Merchant Fleet Corporation that the terminal concern proposed to increase charges against inland water carriers and trucks.

Arlington Man Backs General Sale of Liquor

County Attorney in Favor of Selling Alcoholics in All Stores.

ARLINGTON COUNTY BUREAU OF THE POST.
Tel. Clar. 509. Clarendon, Va.

Expressing his views on the sale of liquor in Virginia, Commonmonwealth's Attorney Lawrence W. Douglas, of Arlington County, gave out the following statement yesterday:

"If liquor is to be sold in Virginia it should be sold in every store that handles other types of merchandise except in proximity to schools and churches without Government restrictions or any greater tax than is placed on other merchandise.

"Our experience since last August with the sale of beer convinces me that this is the best means of preventing the evil of the saloon and keeping the liquor influence away from politics."

Eight plows and 25 men with trucks labored on a 24-hour shift yesterday to clear all roads in Arlington County. Since early Sunday morning there has been no let up by the county road forces in their effort to clear the highways. Trucks followed plows sanding hills over the entire county yesterday. No accidents have been reported up to late last night.

More CWA Workers to Go.

Following the layoff of 108 CWA workers in Arlington County last week, an additional 25 are slated to go from projects in the Arlington National Cemetery this week, it was reported at the office of Local Administrator Frank Davis yesterday.

Dan Kisner, 62 years old, of 425 Cameron street, Alexandria, is in Emergency Hospital, Washington, suffering from deep lacerations about the head caused by a spare tire falling from a truck near the Hydraulic Press Brick Co. yards in South Washington yesterday.

Kisner, an employe of the company, was taken to the hospital by the Jefferson Rescue Squad. His condition was said not to be serious.

Bids on Sewage Plants.

The county board at its meeting today will authorize invitations for bids for the erection of two disposal plants for the sewage system. One plant will be located at Four Mile Run, and the other south of the Key Bridge in Rosslyn. Bids will be opened by the board on March 14.

Persons seeking employment with the sewage department are asked to file their applications with the reemployment bureau at its offices in the Old Dominion Railway Building at Rosslyn.

The Ballston Citizens Association will meet tonight in the firemen's hall, on Ballston avenue, at 8 o'clock. Ray Cogswell, newly elected president, announced a report from the special membership committee will be received. All citizens interested in community welfare are urged to attend.

Naturalization Council Meets in N. Y. March 2

The Americanization School Association of the District of Columbia, a member of the National Council on Naturalization and Citizenship, yesterday announced the annual council meeting will be held in New York March 2, at the Shelton Hotel.

There will be a special program on "Some Present-Day Nationality Problems." Speakers will be Richard W. Flournoy, jr., assistant solicitor of the Department of State; Col. Daniel W. MacCormack, United States Commissioner of Naturalization and Immigration, and Dr. Edwin M. Borchard, professor of law at Yale University. Robert C. Deming, director of Audit Education for Connecticut, will preside.

Obliging

Store Man's Note Points Way for Burglars.

One thing led to another when thieves entered the delicatessen of Harry Maisel, 1824 North Capitol street, early yesterday.

First, they found it impossible to "jimmy" a rear door, so the hinges were removed. Next, the only thing in the cash register was a slip of paper. On it was written the combination of an office safe.

It then proved an easy matter to open the safe, and $327 was taken. The intruders also took several cartons of cigarettes—a kind recommended for unsteady nerves.

Virginia Truck Bill Substitute Is Laid to Rest

Roads Committee of House Kills Further Control of Contract Carriers.

Richmond, Feb. 26 (AP).—The bill, prepared by a sub-committee as a substitute for the various measures seeking to regulate contract carrier trucks, was "killed" today by the House Roads Committee.

The bill would have placed contract carriers under the State Corporation Commission, along with certificated common carriers, and had been approved by representatives of the Virginia Highway Users Association, the Virginia Railway Association and the State motor vehicle division.

The committee, however, was not satisfied with the bill, which was attacked by L. Gordon White, of Charlottesville, as not providing adequately for truck owners in rural districts.

John Q. Rhodes, of Louisa, who with W. F. Scott, of Roanoke and T. J. George, of Patrick, formed the sub-committee, said the committee's action meant no further truck legislation.

Likely at This Season.

Vigorous opposition to the original bills was offered by various interests, and by T. McCall Frazer, director of the motor vehicle division.

W. F. Scott, of Roanoke, explained the substitute bill at today's session. The substitute bill did not change the size of trucks or the load limit.

In the Harman bill reported Friday, however, the highway commissioner would be empowered to designate routes for heavy loads and limit the use of certain highways for trucks. Where there are parallel roads, the commissioner could designate one for trucks and reserve the other for passenger cars.

The roads committee reported the Hall bill to give the corporation commission 10 per cent of the gross receipts tax on certified common carriers for enforcement purposes, after adoption of an amendment offered by John Rhodes to make the amount 5 per cent.

Hit-Run Case Sends Pair to Grand Jury

Car Is Traced by Broken Ornament.

A coronor's inquest yesterday held Alton Scott, 28, colored, of 727 Fourth street northwest, and James Kelly, 28, of Hollidge Court, to the grand jury in the hit-and-run automobile death of Charles Thomas Vermillion, 58, of 1166 Fifth street northeast, last Friday.

Scott, whom police declared drove the car that speeded away after striking Vermillion in the 500 block of Florida avenue northwest, was traced by a radiator ornament found near the scene of the accident.

A patrolman discovered a blood-spattered automobile on a downtown street, and found the ornament fitted a broken attachment. The arrest followed and after confessing, according to police, that he was the driver, Scott implicated Kelly, they said.

Annapolis Club Has Anniversary

First Kiwanis Celebration to Draw Other Units.

A large group from the Prince Georges County (Md.) Kiwanis Club will attend the first anniversary meeting of the Annapolis Kiwanis Club today at 6:30 p. m. at Carvel Hall Hotel, Annapolis.

Edwin F. Hill, former president of the Washington Club, is in charge of the program and entertainment will be furnished by the Washington Club. Herman F. Carl will lead the singing, with other music being furnished by George A. Small and Clyde Melville. The theme of the meeting will be "A New Note in Kiwanis." Delegations from the Towson, Havre de Grace and Baltimore clubs will be present.

Albert J. Goodman is president and Capt. Simon S. Martin secretary of the Annapolis Club.

Seafood
ALWAYS FRESH NEVER FROZEN
Olmsted Grill
FAMOUS FOR FINE FOOD
1336 G. ST. N.W.

Full-Pay Foes Fail to Recall Senate Vote

Restoration Nears Goal When Two Days' Grace Lapses.

Bill May Go to House for Consideration Today; Passage Forecast.

Full pay restoration for Government employes moved another step nearer accomplishment late yesterday when the Senate recessed without a motion being made to reconsider the McCarran amendment adopted last Wednesday by a 41-to 40 vote.

Following the adoption of the McCarran amendment, which eliminates the entire 15 per cent cut July 1, any Senator who voted for full restoration or any Senator who was absent when the vote was taken could move for reconsideration within two days.

As the Senate was in recess Friday and Saturday the two days did not expire until the Senate recessed yesterday. No mention of the pay cut restoration was made on the floor yesterday, the Senate becoming embroiled in a parlimentary tangle over veterans' benefits which led to an early adjournment.

It is expected that discussion and action on the veterans' benefits will be completed today and the Senate then will vote on the independent Offices appropriations bill, which carries the pay cut restoration amendment.

Should the action occur early enough, the bill may get to the House before it adjourns today, but it is more likely that House consideration of the pay amendment will not be reached before tomorrow.

Proponents of full restoration in the House are confident the House will approve the Senate's action over the opposition of Administration leaders. Whether a vote will be taken before the bill is sent to conference is problematical.

It is obvious, however, that the pay restoration will not fatten the pay envelopes of Government employes at the next pay day, on Thursday of this week.

The 5 per cent restoration is retroactive to February 1, however, and if the Senate action is sustained the back pay will be forthcoming.

Ruling Hits Engel In Alimony Row

Baseball Player Must Pay $2,000 or Go to Jail.

Joseph W. Engel, president of the Chattanooga Baseball Club, and formerly on the American League team here, encountered new difficulties in his matrimonial contest yesterday.

At the request of Mrs. Mary P. Engel, Justice Daniel W. O'Donoghue, in District Supreme Court, held Engel in contempt of court for failing to keep up his $300 a month alimony payments. His wife says he owes her $2,000.

Since Engel was not present, he has not yet informed the court whether he will pay or join the alimony delegation at the District jail. Mrs. Engel obtained a limited divorce in 1930. Bryant Engel, their son, was killed by an automobile the evening the divorce was granted.

$599 Trunk Theft From B. & O. Yards Reported

A trunk, containing clothing and silverware and valued at $599, was reported stolen yesterday from the Eckington yards of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad.

Emery E. Nicholson, a railway agent, reported the trunk owned by R. H. Brothers, 3500 Fourteenth street northwest. Brothers said the trunk also included linen and tapestry.

!

Good morning! Those who are buying men's shirts by the dozen in our store are wise to take advantage of this week's opportunity. White broadcloth shirts at a sale price of $1.45, 3 for $4. Monogram embroidered while you wait at no extra charge.

Meyers
Mens Shop
1331 F St. N.W.

Washington Post Sports

Virginia Senate Committee Votes 6-4 in Favor of Pro Boxing Bill

Passage Now Regarded Likely

Hearing Is Marked by Opposition; Clubs Run Illegally.

Va. U. Matches Cited; Chairman Will Not Delay Race Bill.

By Doug Warrenfels.

RICHMOND, Feb. 26.—Despite opposition of reformers, a Virginia Senate committee today favorably reported the Daughton professional boxing bill by 6 to 4.

The committee action was generally regarded as a forerunner of Senate passage. The House indorsed the measure two weeks ago by an overwhelming majority. Backers predicted Gov. Peery would sign the bill if it survived Senate debate.

Delegate Ralph Daughton, Norfolk author, testified professional bouts would yield the State annual revenue of $100,000 through imposition of a 5 per cent admission tax. He explained communities where the fights were held would receive half of such levies for welfare purposes.

Clubs Run Illegally.

"More than 30 clubs in the State," he said, "are now holding bouts illegally and charging admission. I submit that the State should regulate these fights and certainly needs the revenue."

The sponsor pointed out his bill was patterned after a Wisconsin boxing law, known as the best in the country. He stressed the fact that county boards of supervisors and city councils would have authority to prevent bouts in their jurisdiction if desired.

"Virginia," Daughton declared, "permits professional tennis, baseball and football. Why not boxing? It is a major sport in most of our schools and colleges. About 6,000 people, including many of my friends in the Legislature, were present the other night at University of Virginia matches.

"This bill would prohibit Sunday boxing. Nor could there be any smoking, drinking or gambling. A three-man commission would be established to insure honest sport.

"Incidentally, I don't know a cleaner class of people in the world than boxers. They don't smoke, drink or run around with women."

Daughton reported a clause to permit amateur bouts of 4 instead of 3 rounds was widely supported. He cited a provision of 15-round professional fights, with no restriction against decisions.

Primitive Instinct.

Nims Lee, Richmond Y. M. C. A. secretary, charged the measure represented "a reversion to the primitive instinct. How can you develop good citizens when you let people get together and shout 'kill him, knock him out, hit him in the slats?'"

"We ought to think a long time before we permit a thing so degrading as prize fighting," shouted Rev. A. B. Williams, Richmond.

"Who wants a reversion to the days when people sat around in the arena and saw human beings tossed to the beasts."

Another clergyman, Dr. W. S. Dyerly, Richmond, contended there would be no way to enforce the antigambling provisions. Meanwhile, Chairman W. A. Garrett, Senate finance committee, divulged he would block any effort to permit bills for legalization of horse racing to languish in committee.

"We may report them without recommendation," he said. "In any event, they'll get to the floor of the Senate."

Bristol Celtics Ruled Upper E. Tenn. Champs

Bristol, Va., Feb. 24 (Spl.).—The Bristol Y. M. C. A. Celtics, intermediate basket ball team, this week were conceded the championship of upper East Tennessee in their class, and were not required to enter the tournament held at Knoxville yesterday and today by which was determined the championship of lower east Tennessee.

Instead, the Celtics will go to Knoxville next Friday night, March 2, to meet the tournament winner for the championship of the entire east Tennessee territory. The winner will represent the section in the State championship tournament to be held next month at Nashville.

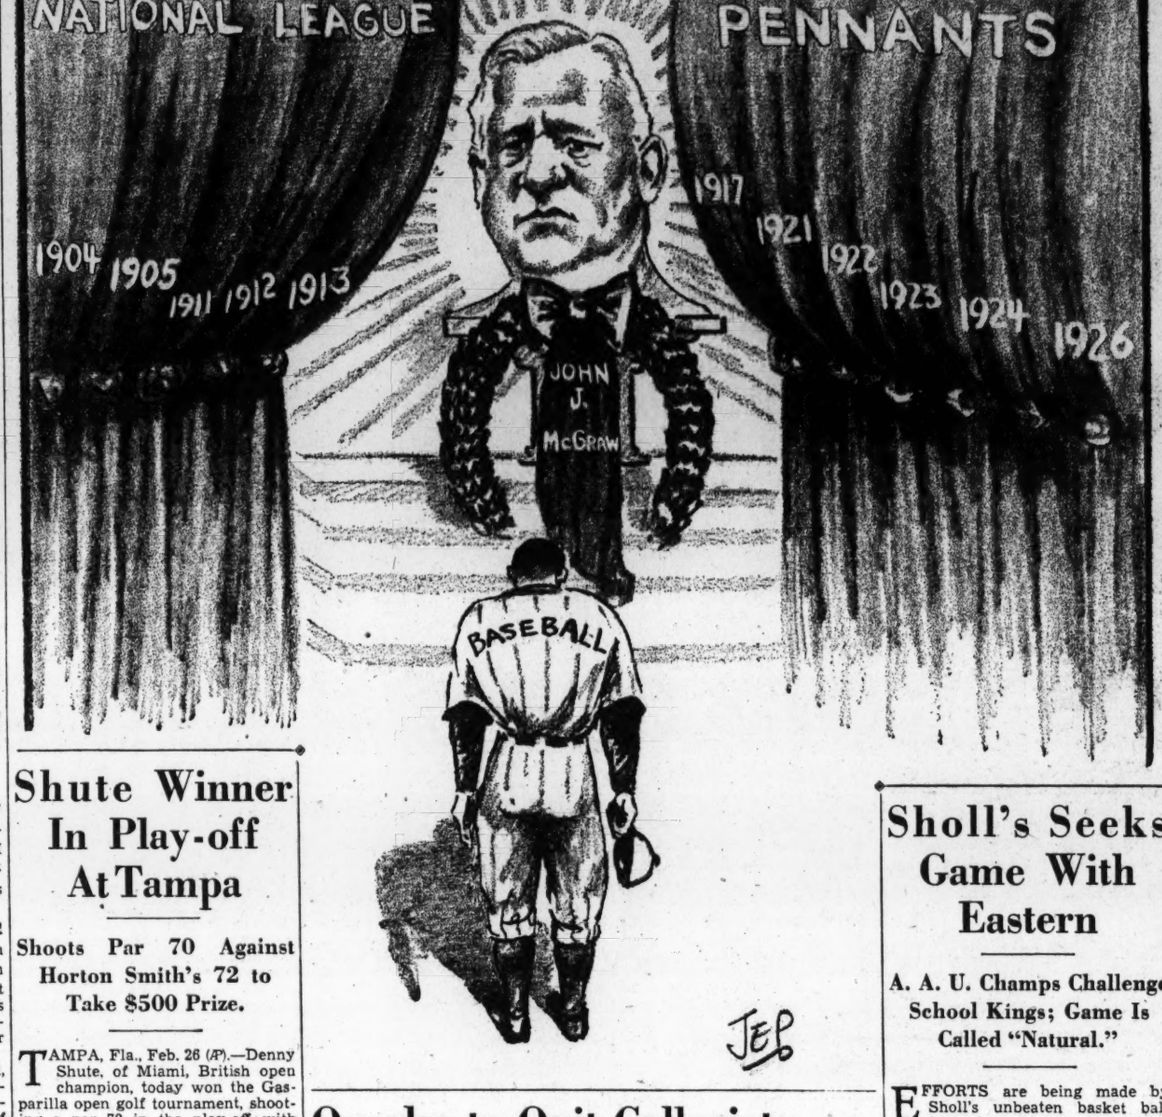
Walter N. Clark, jr., torunament director for the Knoxville Y. M. C. A., yesterday informed Gene Thompson, coach of the Celtics, that the record of the Bristol quint—24 victories out of 25 games played—made it apparent that it was the class of intermediate teams in this section, while on the other hand ten teams in lower east Tennessee were bunched with practically the same records.

Middleweight Title Claims Retained by Thil

Paris, Feb. 26 (AP).—Marcel Thil, of France, successfully defended his share in the world's middleweight boxing championship tonight, outpointing the Spanish titleholder, Ignacio Ara, in a 15-round bout.

Thil, in fine form, won nine rounds, while Ara accounted for one. Two were scored as even. The Frenchman weighed 159 pounds and Ara, 156¾.

Called Out —By Pierotti



Shute Winner In Play-off At Tampa

Shoots Par 70 Against Horton Smith's 72 to Take $500 Prize.

TAMPA, Fla., Feb. 26 (AP).—Denny Shute, of Miami, British open champion, today won the Gasparilla open golf tournament, shooting a par 70 in the play-off with Horton Smith, of Oak Park, Ill., who had a 72.

Shute won first prize money of $500 and Smith won the second award of $350.

An 8 on No. 11 cost Smith the match.

The two tied for first place in the 72-hole tournament yesterday with scores of 277.

Smith held a two-stroke lead over Denny Shute, of Miami, at the end of nine holes.

Tied at the end of 72 holes yesterday with 277 each, Smith and Shute decided to play off for the title today.

Smith posted a sub-par 34 despite that he was hooking his drives badly. He made some wonderful recoveries to take the lead as Shute's putter turned against him. The British open champion started out putting brilliantly but he missed a pair of two-footers on numers 7 and 8.

Their cards:

Par out	445	344	434—35
Smith out ...	454	344	334—34
Shute out ...	435	255	534—36
Par in	444	344	435—35—70
Shute in	444	354	424—34—70
Smith in	483	344	435—38—72

Yanks Send Seven To Norfolk Farm

Catcher Makowski Best of Group to Newcomers.

Norfolk, Va., Feb. 26 (Spl.).—Frank "Red" Makowski is among seven players announced by Henry Dawson, local manager for Jake Ruppert, owner oof the New York Yankees, who will compose the Norfolk team in the Piedmont League this year. The Yankees own the Norfolk Club and have promised to put the best class B team here the city has ever seen.

Bill Skiff will manage the club, but he will depend on what Ruppert sends him to make a winning organization. He is well pleased with Makowski. He played last year, his first season in organized baseball, with Wheeling and batted .351 in 97 games. He is a catcher and promises to become one of the best in minor league company. Other players include Luther Gates, 23, right-handed pitcher; Clyde Humphrys, left-handed hurler; James Tobin, 22, a right-hander; William Crittenden, third baseman, who played with Wheeling last year, and Don Curry, infielder, also with Wheeling in 1933.

Mylin Named Coach Of Bucknell Football

Lewisburg, Pa., Feb. 26 (AP).—E. E. Mylin, head coach at Lebanon Valley College, today was appointed football coach at Bucknell University. He succeeds Carl Snavely, who resigned to become coach at North Carolina University. Mylin has accepted the position.

King Finale Tomorrow.

Bristol, Va., Feb. 26 (Spl.).—The King College basket ball team will close its 1933-34 season Wednesday night, invading the East Tennessee Teachers' gymnasium at Johnson City.

Earlier in the season the locals scored a 44-42 victory over the Teachers here. The game was protested by the Teachers, who claimed the winning goal was shot after time had expired, but the protest was overruled by Commissioner W. O. Lowe, of the Smoky Mountain Conference, of which both teams are members.

Quarles to Quit Collegiate Boxing for Goldstein Bout

Conference Rule Prohibiting Outside Bouts Would End North Carolina Junior's Career; Cites Forfeit Matches; Faces D. C. Boy March 19.

RICHMOND, Feb. 26 (AP).—Norment Quarles, North Carolina's great lightweight, becomes the first college fighter to revolt against the recent Southern Conference ruling prohibting boxing other than as a representative of member school or in an A. A. U. championship, by agreeing to meet Bobby Goldstein in Richmond on March 19.

Walter Neenan, president of the recently organized Sportsman Club, of Richmond, signed Quarles for the fight upon the conclusion of the Southern Conference tournament last Saturday night in Charlottesville where the Tarheel added the 135-pound crown to the featherweight title he won in 1933. Goldstein, former intercollegiate lightweight champion from the University of Virginia, has stated that he is ready to go through with the bout with Quarles.

By reaffirming to Heenan a decision expressed in January that "this is his last year in college boxing" Quarles has declared himself a virtual professional fighter in the eyes of the Southern Conference. Where the Amateur Athletic Union is concerned, however, this action does not necessarily impair Quarles' simon-pure standing.

Quarles is only a junior at the University of North Carolina and would be eligible for another year of college fighting if he desired to represent his school for a third varsity season. But Quarles intends to capitalize immediately on his ability in the ring.

"I'm too good to continue in college boxing," Quarles said Saturday night. "As things are now, I'm only wasting my time. I'd like to continue to represent my school, but in the majority of bouts this season opponents have forfeited to me. It's not worth it."

Quarles' decision confirms fears expressed by Carolina schools last week at the annual meeting of the Southern Conference that the new boxing restrictions, tabooing competition on noncollegiate cards, would result in some of their better scrappers turning pro.

Goldstien was matched tentatively for bouts with Quarles last summer both in Richmond and in Charlottesville, but the two were never brought together. This time, Heenan said, there'll be no hitch and the Sportsman Club will promote the fight as announced.

Wise Co. Court Play At Norton Thursday

Norton, Va., Feb. 26 (Spl.).—Nine teams in Wise County basket ball race this year have almost made a patchwork quilt out of the annual county tournament, which opens here this week. The tournament will begin next Thursday, instead of Friday as heretofore, with four of the girls' games and the odd boys' game. The girls wil play their odd game Friday night, as six of the boys' teams are playing their first games.

This, with the Appalachia girls and the Coeburn boys having a bye, will clear the way for the semifinals Saturday morning, the girls playing at 9 and 10 o'clock and the boys at 11 and 12 o'clock.

McLaughlin, Latham Will Judge Title Fight

Miami, Feb. 26 (U.P.).—Red McLaughlin and Roy Latham, both of Miami, today were named judges for the Primo Carnera-Tommy Loughran heavyweight championship fight here Wednesday night.

McLaughlin is a hotel employe and Latham a linotype orperator on a local newspaper.

Sam Roberts and Dr. W. McCormack were named as alternate judges.

Gettysburg, D. C. Boys Victors at Frederick

Frederick, Md., Feb. 26 (Spl.).—Gettysburg, Pa., Fleet Wings defeated Frederick in the opening professional basket ball game at the State armory, before a large crowd, 34 to 24. The contest marked the return of several players who represented Frederick's pro team two years ago. The Fleet Wings took the lead at the start and finished the first half eight points to the good. Frederick rallied in the final period but was unable to keep up with the fast work of Gettysburg.

In a preliminary, Washington (D. C) Boys Club defeated Frederick Y. M. C. A., in a rough contest. During a mix-up, Referee Burdett emerged with a black eye and bruised nose. The Washington team took an early lead and, while Frederick pulled to within one point of tying the score, the visitors led throughout the game.

Frederick.	G	FG	P	Gettysburg.	G	FG	P
Sweeney,f...	3	1	7	Bream,f.....	5	0	10
Goldblatt,f..	2	0	4	Kitzmiller,f..	3	0	6
Berger,c.....	1	1	3	Wiemick,f....	0	1	1
Streets,g....	1	0	2	Reilly,c.....	1	0	2
Radice,g.....	3	0	6	Guliar,g.....	2	3	7
Farrell,g....	1	0	2	Zahn,g.....	4	0	8
Totals	11	2	24	Totals	15	4	34

Referee—Quinn.

Frederick Y.	G	FG	P	Wash. B. C.	G	FG	P
Anglebeger,f	1	1	3	Mitchell,f....	3	0	6
Moore,f.....	0	0	0	Batten,f.....	4	0	8
Houck,f.....	3	0	6	Kissell,c.....	0	0	0
Hartman,c....	2	0	4	Bryan,g.....	0	1	1
Ogle,g.....	1	0	2	Nock,g.....	1	1	3
Holcomb,g....	0	0	0
Totals	7	1	15	Totals	8	2	18

Referee—Burdette.

Sholl's Seeks Game With Eastern

A. A. U. Champs Challenge School Kings; Game Is Called "Natural."

EFFORTS are being made by Sholl's unbeaten basket ball team to arrange a game this week with Eastern High School. Basket ball observers, who have followed the fortunes of both teams, consider the contest a "natural."

Dick Mothershead, manager-coach of Sholl's, is anxious to play the high school champions. He is attempting to secure the permission of Eastern officials.

Eastern's team is scheduled to defend its title in the South Atlantic prep championship at Lexington, Va., March 8, 9 and 10. Sholl's, which has won eighty straight games, and plays an all-star quintet combined from the Community Center League Saturday night at Roosevelt High, will compete in the National A. A. U. tournament at Kansas City, March 12-17.

Both Have Fine Records.

Eastern has cleaned up the local prep and college freshmen and Sholl's has brushed aside the best amateur teams in Washington and vicinity. Although the A. A. U. champions are considered more experienced than their school rivals, many believe that Eastern will offset this disadvantage with a combination of deadly shooting and bewildering passing, backed up by a Gibraltar-like defense.

Just as Tommy Nolan, forward, is the axis around which the Eastern attack rotates, so is Hal Kiesel, center, the mainspring in the Sholl's works.

Sholl's and the Boys' Club Varsity will work out together at the Boys' Club gym at 8:30 tonight.

Prep Ring Tourney Draws 10 Entries

South Atlantic Event at Ft. Defiance March 9-10.

Fort Defiance, Va., Feb. 26 (Spl.). No less than 10 schools have sent in their entries to Maj. C. S. Roller, registrar of the eighth annual South Atlantic Prep School boxing tournament, to be held here under the auspices of Augusta Military Academy.

The teams that so quickly responded to the invitations are Augusta, Staunton, Fishburne, Green Briar, Oak Ridge, Petersburg High, Charlotte Hall, of Baltimore; Central High, of Charlotte, N. C.; Miller's School and the Charlottesville Fives.

The event, which is open to all prep and high schools in the South, will be held March 9 and 10.

Post Mortems . . .

Ralph Morgan, the flicker star, once played big league baseball . . . with the Philadelphia Athletics . . . Pete Jablonowski, veteran pitcher who has been signed by the Baltimore Orioles, is no more . . . he has changed his name . . . to Peter W. Appleton . . . Carl Brisson, newly imported cinema actor, was formerly middleweight boxing champion . . . of England . . . Primo Carnera is paying Miami sparring partners only $5 a day . . . instead of the customary $25 . . . Gordon Richards, famous English jockey who recently set a new British riding record by passing Fred Archer's 48-year mark of 246, received a telegram of congratulation . . . from the King of England . . . there is a concerted movement brewing among a group of Virginia alumni . . . to have all athletic scholarships barred in the Southern Conference.

Kid Chocolate is training in Cuba for a comeback . . . under the direction of the Cuban army . . . which keeps him under constant guard, never allowing him out of sight . . . Fredericksburg has just thrown its collective hat in the ring . . . for one of the three race tracks to be built in Virginia . . . if racing becomes legal in that State . . . Roland Mackenzie, who takes over the reins as golf pro at Congressional Thursday, is a personal friend of Howard Hughes . . . the movie producer . . . and assisted him in the production of "Hell's Angels" . . . Warren "Red" Negri, new Southern Conference heavyweight boxing champion, is just as shifty and fast as a football player as he is in the ring . . . and he won a prize at V. P. I. for being the smoothest dancer.

Carnera and Loughran On Edge

Champion Can Trod on Tommy's Feet, Says Commissioner.

Rivals Complete Boxing for Clash Tomorrow; Tickets Lagging.

MIAMI, Fla., Feb. 26 (AP).—All that can be done apparently has been done for the battle of the fallen arches, the 15-round heavyweight title defense of heavy treading Primo Carnera against Tommy Loughran Wednesday night.

The warriors finished batting practice today, the Miami boxing commission picked a pair of judges to officiate with Referee Leo Shea and Louis K. MacReynolds, chairman of the commission, passed judgment on the sinister reports that Carnera planned to tread with all his 260 pounds upon the challenger's weak arches in a deliberate effort to further his own cause.

"Fighters," said MacReynolds, "must protect their feet just as they do their jaws. There is no foul in stepping on another man's foot in a fight. The other man shouldn't leave his feet where they can be stepped on."

Footwork Sanctioned.

Thus did MacReynolds dispose of the protest of Philadelphia sports writers that Carnera, who broke a bone in George Manley's foot in one sparring workout, and yesterday trod heavily on Buck Everett, another boxing mate, incapacitating him also, intended to do likewise with Loughran. Tommy has a bone in his right foot that has twice been dislocated. The writers thus insinuated that Carnera was practising to turn that weak arch into an Achilles heel with his own footwork if the going got rough late Wednesday night.

Carnera did his last preparatory boxing today, working three rounds and part of a fourth with Johnny Miler, of Detroit, in an indoor gymnasium after a downpour of rain soaked his outdoor ring at the South Beach amusement pier. A gash over Miler's right eye, suffered early in the fourth round, brought the boxing drill to a close.

The champion weighed in at 258½ pounds and appeared perfectly on edge. He stressed catching Miler's left jabs with his right hand, then countering short and sharply with rights to the head.

Primo Says Quickly.

"If I don't lick Loughran quickly I don't deserve to be champion," Carnera said after the workout: "I'll knock him out as soon as I can catch him."

While the challenger eased off, in his work at West Palm Beach, the ticket sales lagged as the rain flooded down. Predictions of probable gate receipts were scaled down to $75,000. Estimates of the probable crowd in Madison Square Garden's bowl, reconstructed at a cost of about $25,000 to seat 50,000, run no higher than 20,000. Carnera still is held a 3-to-1 favorite and there will be no broadcast of the match, scheduled to start at 10 p. m. (E. S. T.).

With the approval of the managers of both boxers, Roy Latham and Colin McLoghlan, both of Miami, were named by the boxing commission as judges of the title bout. Boxing rules similar to those of the New York State Athletic Commission, and including a no-foul regulation, will govern the match.

Loughran Is Careful.

Loughran closed his boxing preparations at West Palm Beach as confident as ever that he will win the title. He boxed two rounds each with Jack Pettifer, Ace Clark and Ed Hogan, and was particularly careful to avoid the possibility of cut features. He weighed 185 pounds.

Neither fighter plans to do more than keep his muscles loose through light exercise until time for the weighing-in Wednesday afternoon.

Grid Coach School Planned by Little

Lions' Tutor Lists Six-Day Course in Late August.

New York, Feb. 26 (AP).—Lou Little, head coach of Columbia University's Rose Bowl football champions, will let other coaches in on some of the secrets of the success of the Lions when he conducts a football coaching school in New York, August 27 to September 1.

Assisted by Herb Kopf, backfield coach, and Sam Cordovano, line coach, Little will crowd into the six days not only complete details in regard to Columbia's systems of defense and offense, but will delve into other systems of play. The theoretical work will be done in the mornings while in the afternoon former Columbia players will demonstrate Little's style of play on the gridiron.

Earlier in the summer, beginning soon after the close of college, Little will conduct coaching courses at Lafayette with Coach Herb McCracken, at Northwestern University with Dick Hanley, at Utah State College with Dick Romney, at Boston with Arthur Sampson, former Columbia and Harvard backfield coach, and also at Cleveland, Ohio.

Canadian Motorboat Challenge Plans Off

Windsor, Ontario, Feb. 26 (AP). The syndicate which had laid plans to challenge Gar Wood for the Harmsworth Trophy, blue ribbon cup of motor boating, today announced that it had abandoned plans to build a boat this year.

Lorne Ardiel, of Toronto, representing the Canada Power Boat Association through which the challenge was issued, notified J. Lee Barrett, of the Yachtmen's Association of America, holders of the trophy, of the decision.

Lack of time to build and prepare the boat was given as the reason for the withdrawal.

Public Pays Homage to McGraw

Home of Dead Baseball Leader Open Today; Rites Tomorrow.

NEW YORK, Feb. 26 (AP).—The body of John J. McGraw lay in state tonight in the living room of his suburban Pelham Manor home, where tomorrow the baseball fans who followed his career as leader of the New York Giants for 30 years will be allowed to say a last farewell.

So many requests had come to Mrs. McGraw that the public be admitted to pay its last respects she decided to throw the McGraw home open to them all day tomorrow.

In the meantime final plans for the funeral Wednesday morning at 10 a. m. at St. Patrick's Cathedral were completed and a list of more than 60 personages of baseball, the stage and New York official life named as honorary pallbearers.

Requiem Mass to Be Sung.

The solemn high requiem mass will be celebrated by the Rev. Vincent de Paul Mulry, pastor of the Pelham Manor Church, where McGraw worshipped for the last few years, and the full choir of St. Patrick's will chant the responses.

Most of those named to sit as mourners were long-time intimates of the dead baseball leader, among them representatives of all the National League clubs, George M. Cohan, Sam Harris and De Wolf Hopper, of the stage, and the Lambs Club, of which McGraw was a member; John MacCormack, the Irish tenor; Edward P. Mulrooney, former New York City police commissioner and in other days in charge of the police detail at the Polo Grounds; Supreme Court justices, city officials and business men.

John A. Heydler, president of the National League and a McGraw associate during most of his baseball days, had left for Bermuda before McGraw's death and was unable to get a boat and return in time for the funeral. Harvey Traband, league secretary, will be his representative at the services.

Terry Returns from Miami.

William H. Terry, who succeeded McGraw as manager of the Giants in 1932, is on his way North from the Giants' training camp at Miami Beach, Fla. Mourning with him as the Giants' official family will be President Charles A. Stoneham, Treasurer Leo. J. Bondy and Assistant Secretary Edward T. Brannick, who had been associated with McGraw during his full 30 years with the club and looked on the fiery former manager as a father.

Because of a heavy snowstorm there were few callers at the McGraw home, but messages and telephone calls of condolence continued to pour in from all over the world.

A few old friends kept mournful vigil with the widow over the body. Candles burned near the casket and a crucifix was clasped in the hands.

Tributes to McGraw continued to come from baseball leaders, even those who disagreed bitterly with him many times during his stormy career, yet never lost their respect for him as a man.

Stephen W. McKeever, veteran leader of the Brooklyn Dodgers and himself only recovering from a severe cold, praised McGraw as a "square fighter" and said he planned to attend the funeral despite his doctor's orders.

Col. Jacob Ruppert, owner of the Yankees, said McGraw was one of baseball's greatest players and managers and a fine friend.

Clever Frederick Five Faces Heurich Sunday

Orrell Mitchell's Rinaldi Tailors, which has been playing its "home" games at Frederick, Md., will play the Heurich Reds, local pro outfit in the George Washington gym, Sunday. The Reds have won 10 games in 11 starts.

The Mitchell crew is made up of three former Vic's stars, in Joe Sweeney, Dick Streeks and Jackie Goldblatt; Jules Radice, the former Eastern High and Maryland luminary, and Bob Taylor, 6-feet-8 center and former Akron Rubber Co. star. The Tailors have dropped two games in seven starts this season, by margins of 1 and 2 points, respectively.

Barry-Ramage Battle Delayed by Snowstorm

Holyoke, Mass., Feb. 26 (AP).—The heavy snowfall throughout this section today forced the Valley Arena to postpone the heavyweight bout scheduled tonight between Lee Ramage, of California, and Donald (Red) Barry, of Washington, D. C. The entire card will be held tomorrow night.

Foxx Hinting at New Field for Talent

Says Mack Must Raise Wage at Parley on Thursday, or Else—

Admits Wrestling Offer; Points Out Contrast in Ruth's Salary.

MIAMI, Fla., Feb. 26 (AP).—James Emory Foxx, the boy buster from Maryland, has a date to talk salary business this Thursday in Fort Myers, the Florida training camp of the Athletics, with the patriarchal Mr. McGillicuddy.

Take it from Master Foxx, this conference had better result in something more attractive than the reduction to $11,000, already offered to the home run king for his 1934 performances—or else.

Or else, Jimmie said today, he will seriously consider a number of offers that have sprung from the fertile imagination of those seeking to capitalize the boy buster's current dissatisfaction with the A's "New Deal." One of these is a $10,000 offer to become director of a camp. Another and a more fantastic one, is a proposition to turn professional wrestler at $30,000 a year for three years.

Makes Himself Clear.

"I haven't done any wrestling in some time," admitted Foxx, "and I haven't even replied to this offer, sent to me by a Philadelphia promoter, but my reaction is this: If that's the kind of money they think my name and baseball reputation is worth, why should my baseball employer ask me to accept a drastic reduction in salary right after the greatest year I have ever had and at a time when I figure to be in my prime?"

More puzzled than bitter, however, Foxx went on:

"Things may all be straightened out. I don't know what Mr. Mack will have to say to me when we get together this Thursday and argue it out. I am not threatening now to quit baseball or to say I won't sign a contract, but what baffles me is the apparent attitude of baseball owners in trying to squeeze everything possible out of the players.

One-Third Ruth's Pay.

"I have never been unreasonable and this is the first time I have ever let out any real squawk, but I certainly believe I have one coming when I'm asked, at the age of 26, and at my best, to accept less than one-third that they are going to pay Babe Ruth at 40 this year. I'll play 154 games, barring accidents, and the Babe will be lucky if he plays 50 games."

Jimmie took a long breath and added: "To sum it all up, I've simply got to look out for myself. I have the future to figure on and if baseball with the A's can't offer me more than the contract I've got in my pocket now, unsigned, I will have to look into these other propositions. Honestly, I don't think Mr. Mack expected me to accept this contract but I won't know exactly what's what until I talk with him."

"And there's another angle: With Grove, Cochrane and other stars of our championship club gone this year, there is less chance of our club getting into the next world series and splitting a big chunk of extra money."

High School Highlights.

ONLY a smattering of scholastic basket ball tilts remain ere finis is written across another brilliant season.

Games from now until the end of the season come in bunches—like bananas. The big wind-up, as far as local competition is concerned, will be staged at the Washington-Lee tournament with four District high and prep schools taking part. This tourney will be staged March 8, 9 and 10 and will feature teams from Washington, Eastern High, the defending champion; Tech, Georgetown Prep and Emerson Institute. Despite current rumors, Central High will not be represented, The Post learned yesterday.

Following is the list of games scheduled throughout the District and surrounding territory for the rest of the season:

Today.

Eastern at Emerson.
Rockville at Mount Rainier.

Wednesday.

Emerson at Episcopal.
Allentown at Catholic U. Frosh.
St. Alban's at Georgetown Prep.
Woodward Lights at St. Alban's Lights.
Landon at Baltimore Friends.

Friday.

St. John's at Georgetown Frosh.
Western at Alexandria.
Mount Rainier at Charlotte Hall.
Falls Church at Herndon.
Rockville High annual Sportsmanship championship.

Saturday.

Woodberry Forest at Episcopal.
Friends at Baltimore Friends.
Regis (N. Y.) at Georgetown Prep.

March 6.

Mount Rainier at St. John's.

March 8, 9, 10.

South Atlantic High and Prep School Basket Ball Tournament, sponsored by Washington and Lee, Lexington, Va.

PLAY
PING PONG
AT
1510 H St. N.W.
Federal Tournament, Thurs., March 1.
Open to only Government employes and former Government employes.
Daily rate: 15c ½-hr., 11 a.m. to 11 p.m.

Blessed Event's Winning Streak of Four in Row Snapped by Curacao at Hialeah

Bradley Star Is Beaten by 2 Lengths

Minton Third in Feature Race; Disaster Wins Debut at $45.30.

Porter, With Double, Passes Gilbert in Race for Jockey Lead.

HIALEAH PARK, Feb. 26 (AP).—Torrential rain that ceased prior to first race post-time left the racing strip in sloppy condition as another week of sport opened here today. The most attractive events of the washday program were nearly washed out, but enough horses escaped the blue pencil to furnish interesting competition.

E. R. Bardley's Blessed Event, after winning four in a row, finally went down to defeat in the featured Indian River purse, a mile contest in which only four horses started. Mrs. Payne Whitney's Curacao, improving greatly over his last race, scored by two lengths over the Bradlayite, running the 8 furlongs in the good time of 1:38 3-5. The Shandon Farm's Minton was third, another five lengths behind. Clotho was beaten off.

Curacao Pays $4.90.

The play in the Tote was close between the first two horses, with Curacao winding up a very slight favorite. He returned $4.90.

The Greentree gelding, showing a decided liking for the footing, rushed to the front at the break and gradually drew into a daylight advantage over Minton. The latter had enough at the top of the stretch and Blessed Event, circling the field, made his bid. Bobby Jones had nothing to fear, however, his mount easily holding the Bradley gelding safe in the last furlong.

The stewards issued the following order: "For failure to report to ride Greek Maiden on February 16, or notify owner, Jockey D. Brice is this day, his first appearance since that date, suspended for the meeting and his case referred to the Florida State Racing Commission."

Le Miserable, finding the slop exactly what the doctor ordered sprang an upset when he easily took 11 other platers into camp in the 6 furlongs of the opener. Toytime trailed the winner by 2 lengths while beating the heavily played Cabouse by the same margin. Toytime had the early foot of the field, racing Chimney Top into submission.

Jockey Harbort Suspended.

Le Miserable caught the pacemaker after turning for home. He swerved and interfered with Toytime and Cabouse, then moved well clear to return $17.90. Later Apprentice O. Harbort, who rode Le Miserable was suspended five days by the stewards for rough riding.

Disaster, in his first start, made the talent agree that he is an appropriately named colt. Under the unfashionable Jockey P. Roberts, the son of Chance Play simply galloped his field dizzy and won the third by 5 lengths to pay $45.30. Jack Low and Pastry, the latter considered a standout, fought it out all the way for the place, with the former heading his rival at the end.

Porter Tops Gilbert.

Jockey Porter regained the lead over Gilbert when he put up a great finish in the sixth race to get home a head winner at $18.60. Gallic beat Two Tricks 4 lengths for the place. Chain opened up a good lead in the first half mile but it looked as if Gallic would beat the leader when he crept to almost even terms in the last furlong. Chain held on tenaciously and outlasted his challenger.

Porter and Owner-Trainer Frank Kearns made it two in a row when Royal Durbar, $7.20, won the final by a half length from El Puma. The latter beat Fort Dearborn 3 lengths for the place.

Fair Grounds Entries.

(Associated Press.)

FIRST RACE—Six furlongs; purse, $400; claiming; for 4-year-olds and upward.

1	*Col. Cloister	108	7 *Cloido 110
2	Royal Veil	113	8 Infinity 115
3	*Monk's First	103	9 *Island Hall 113
4	Sorcery	113	10 *Aurebon 108
5	*Blatola	110	11 *Norwalk 110
6	*Cordon Bleu	110	12 Gurgler 115

SECOND RACE—Six furlongs; purse, $400; claiming; for 4-year-olds and upward.

1	*Flo M	102	7 *Volwood 105
2	*Broomshot	103	8 *Smear 107
3	*Flag Bearer	115	9 Tadcaster 112
4	*Kal Finn	111	10 Justina 107
5	Aileen C	109	11 Capt. Red 110
6	*Marie Jean	100	12 Preferred 116

THIRD RACE—Six furlongs; purse, $400; claiming; for 3-year-olds.

1	*Hildur Prince	103	8 *Gilbert Elston 109
2	*Doeskin	101	9 *Bing Crosby 109
3	*Brustigers	103	7 Mr. Bun 114
4	Otterrop	109

FOURTH RACE—Three and one-half furlongs; purse, $400; claiming; for 2-year-olds.

1	Brown Hilda	116	5 Countess Bina 105
2	Imperial Betsy	105	6 Marvlitch 105
3	Leonard Wilson	122	7 Brilliant Duke 111
4	Overthrow	115	8 Clack 105

FIFTH RACE—Six furlongs; purse, $500; handicap; for 3-year-olds and upward.

1	*Trinchera	126	6 †Pharatime 104
2	Rip V. Winkle	109	7 *Risky Miss 105
3	Jim Dandy	103	8 ‡Zekiel 119
4	Blue Day	118	9 †Fort. Youth 106
5	Eva B	106	10 Ladino 110

†T. C. Worden entry.
‡A. G. Tarn entry.
‡J. Cattarinich & Seremba entry.

SIXTH RACE—One and one-sixteenth miles; purse, $400; claiming; for 4-year-olds and upward.

1	*War Tide	109	4 Culloden 114
2	*Happen	104	5 Athol 110
3	*Whip. Cracker	111	6 Blast 110

SEVENTH RACE—One and one-eighth miles; purse, $400; claiming; for 4-year-olds and upward.

1	*Abe Purst	110	6 *Adrian 107
2	*Luxury	105	7 *B'rbon Prince 108
3	*Interior	108	8 *Chiclero 110
4	Bob Weidel	115	9 *Miss Upse 106
5	*Baggataway	105

EIGHTH RACE—One and one-eighth miles; purse, $400; claiming; for 4-year-olds and upward.

1	*Wild Laurel	110	6 *Seth's Ballot 113
2	*Brookhattan	108	7 Gold Ridge 112
3	Judge Direnzo	115	8 Monocle 112
4	*Tiempo	108	9 *Donle 110
5	*Luke Connell	105

NINTH RACE (substitute)—One and one-sixteenth miles; purse, $400; claiming; for 4-year-olds and upward.

1	Cappoquin	110	7 *Totem 107
2	M'rish Amulet	108	8 *Casa Domus 100
3	*Sallie B'rland	100	9 Lord Dean 112
4	My Betty	107	10 *Princess Octa 100
5	*Jim Shanahan	107	11 *First Resim't 105
6	Light Mint	112	12 *Muff 102

TENTH RACE (substitute)—Six furlongs; purse, $400; claiming; for 4-year-olds and upward.

1	Penn't Bearer	110	7 Ad Remmeon 115
2	*The Moon	110	8 *Forget Not 110
3	*Upon	108	9 *Speckle 108
4	*Ingle Nook	110	10 *Barashkova 110
5	*Vonnie	110	11 *Catwalk 100
6	*Lerack	108	12 Charlie 115

*Apprentice allowance claimed.
Weather, cloudy; track, fast.

Strange as It Seems —By John Hix

For further proof address the author, inclosing a stamped envelope for reply. Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.

The amoeba, a single-celled microscopic organism, reproduces by dividing in two from time to time—the one individual becoming two. Of the two newly formed individuals, neither can be said to be the parent or the descendant. It is the same for generation after generation—and strange as it seems, such amoeba is as old as its race.

It has been calculated by biologists that if the single amoeba, which can not be seen with the unaided eye, were to divide, and both the new individuals divide, and so on at the usual intervals, within a short time, if all survived, the mass of amoeba would be greater than the earth.

* * * *

Sir Christopher Wren, famous English architect of the late seventeenth and early eighteenth centuries, was buried in St. Mark's Cathedral, which was his greatest masterpiece of building. On his grave is the Latin inscription, "Si monumentum requiris circumspice," which means in English, "If you seek this monument, look about you."

Wren won his first reputation as a scientist and mathematician, and as a result of this he was named on the committee which was to repair the old St. Paul's Cathedral. Coming in contact with building problems in this manner he later became fascinated by problems of architecture.

In 1666 the great fire in London gave him an opportunity to use his genius. For 40 years hardly an important building was put up in or around London without Wren having some part in its designing.

Tomorrow: Where the sun never sets.

Colors give added realism to strange things and happenings illustrated by John Hix on a full page in The Sunday Post.

At the Post . . .

with Bill Bennings.

Hialeah Race Track, Feb. 26.

Dear Al:

Old man mud, always a good alibi for horse selectors, failed to do Bennings, Inc., any particular harm today. Despite the typical Bowie weather, we managed to smuggle home two winners—Curaco at $4.90 and China at $18.60—and had three other well-priced first picks in the place hole. My biggest disappointment was when Moralist ran absolutely last in the day's finals, after drawing a heavy backing. Mike talked fight tonight while I tried to concentrate on the speed books. Then we put out the lights and went to bed. BILL.

First race—Canon Law failed me the last time I gave him a chance. However, a drying out track moves him up and well shall string along again tomorrow. Sky Haven is another that will appreciate the off going and figures to lead Billies Orphan and The King to the wire.

Second race—Arbitrary is alleged to be a keen youngster and is as safe a pick as anything in a wild field of juveniles of this sort. Canter Boy is bred for the sort of track expected. Hope Eternal for the show end.

Third race—I'm going to take Battling Knight to defeat this field of sprinters. Clocker Mike has given the word and I'm taking my chances. Fancy Flight and Fred Almy are going to pull the bulk of the mutuel play.

Fourth race—Dancing Mack has been waiting for an off course and will get it tomorrow. May break in front and stay there to the pay-off. Well Built shapes up as the one to beat. Fighting chanse for both Southard and Phantom Legion.

Fifth race—Bitty Bit is the logical choice here. Turned in a sizzler behind Agrarian last Saturday. Plight and Flint Shot appear to have the edge on the others.

Sixth race—Live One will awake in this so I have been warned. He will have Waterway and Haggerson to take care of in the stretch. The race is full of sharp horses.

Seventh race—Butter Beans is my best bet of the day. This will be his track. Major General and Apprehensive to complete the money picture.

—Louisville Times (A.P.).

The Post's Consensus at Hialeah Park

The following consensus has been compiled by The Post from the selections of the leading handicappers of the turf. The figures show how the selections were rated.

Consensus of Leading Handicappers

First race	Second race	Third race	Fourth race	Fifth race	Sixth race	Seventh race
Billies Orphan (23)	Arbitrary (31)	Fancy Flight (35)	Well Built (31)	Bittybit (23)	Haggerson (19)	Major General (22)
The King (19)	Up and Up (20)	Fred Almy (19)	Southard (21)	Flint Shot (20)	Mad Wind (15)	Butter Beans (18)
Sky Haven (13)	Cheka (11)	Bat. Knight (12)	Gibbys Choice (9)	Zula Lad (13)	Waterway (13)	Caerleon (12)

Bennings, Washington Post

Canon Law	Arbitrary	Battling Knight	Dancing Mack	Bittybit	Live One	Butter Beans
Sky Haven	Canterboy	Fancy Flight	Well Built	Flight	Waterway	Major General
Billies Orphan	Hope Eternal	Fred Almy	Southard	Flint Shot	Haggerson	Apprehensive

Best bet—Butler Beans.

Louisville Times, Associated Press

The Kink	Canterboy	Fancy Flight	Phantom Legion	Bittybit	Mad Wind	Major General
Calgary Kay	Bank Holiday	Battling Knight	Well Built	Night's End	Waterway	Butter Beans
Sky Haven	Hope Eternal	Fred Almy	Southard	Lady Reigh	Haggerson	High Proof

Best bet—Bittybit.

University Year Book Has Race Track Motif

Lexington, Ky. (AP).—Race horses will be the motif of this season's year book, the Kentuckian, issued by students at the University of Kentucky. Illustrations at the start of each class section will be race track scenes.

The horses at the start represent the freshmen; those in the backstretch, the sophomores; those in the home stretch, the juniors, and the seniors are represented by mounts that have finished the race.

Racing Selections

Fair Grounds.
(For fast track.)

1—Infinity, Aurebon, Sorcery.
2—Preferred, Flag Bearer, Smear.
3—Gilbert Elston, Otterrop, Bing Crosby.
4—Leonard Wilson, Overthrow, Brown Hilda.
5—Trinchera, Blue Day, Zekiel.
6—Whippercracker, Culloden, War Tide.
7—Chiclero, Bob Weidel, Baggataway.
8—Judge Direnzo, Monocle, Luke Connell.
9—Lord Dean, Light Mint, Totem.
10—Charlie, Lerack, Upon.

Best bet—Trinchera.
—Louisville Times (A.P.).

Agua Caliente.
(For muddy track.)

1—All Devil, May Rap, Wasatch Dell.
2—Silk Covering, Little Satin, Sand Baby.
3—Peter Danger, Sunny Shot, Crystal Image.
4—Vera Crofton, Oil Queen, Miss Cheyenne.
5—Crystal Fiver, Zizah, Miss Tracer.
6—Polyfon, Gerard, King Caress.
7—Searington, Our Billy, Leyland.
8—Homewood, Dare Devil, Rock Cargo.

Best bet—Crystal Fiver.
—Louisville Times (A.P.).

South Carolina Five Dixie Choice

North Carolina State Given Best Chance to Beat Defending Champs.

COLLEGE STATION, Raleigh, Feb. 26.—Basket ball fans in this section are ready to name N. C. State as the "dark horse" entry of this year's Southern Conference basket ball tournament. The tournament opens here March 1 with first-round games in the afternoon and night. The final championship tilt will be run off Saturday evening, March 3.

Everyone agrees that the team to be stopped is South Carolina, defending champion, and the quintet most likely to stop the Gamecocks is thought to be North Carolina State.

On their invasion of North Carolina's three conference courts last week, it was State who caused the Gamecocks most trouble. It was the ability of the Birds to sink free shots that beat State, 33-27.

Good from Charity Line.

South Carolina took 16 shots from the free throw line and made 15 good. State took the same number and made only 7 good. As far as scoring from the floor went, State outdid South Carolina, sinking 10 action baskets to its 9.

Height, apparently, is the worst enemy South Carolina has. State has the tallest team in North Carolina and Duke the second. Carolina has the smallest and it fared worst against the Gamecocks.

Coach Ray R. Sermon, of State, used his 6-foot quintet against South Carolina during most of the game. It was composed of Capt. Bob McQuage and Ray Rex, guards; Milan Zori, center, and LeRoy Jay and Charlie Aycock, forwards. Rex who stands an even 6 feet, is the shortest. Zori, who measures 79 inches, is the tallest.

All Foes Have Best Chance.

It takes a tall team to worry South Carolina as it is also a 6-foot aggregation. Dana Henderson, the center, is 6-feet-4. Vick Laurie, right forward, measures the same thing. Freddie Tompkins, the left forward, is just a fraction of an inch under 6-4. Bennie Tompkins, left guard, is 6-3, and John Rowland, the right guard, is 6 feet.

Fans also like State because of its ability to stage breath-taking second half rallies. Several times this season State's opponents were leading by 10 points or more at the half, but a brilliant rally in the final 20 minutes of play left State ahead at the end of the game.

18 School Fives Enter Tourney at Kingsport

Bristol, Va., Feb. 26 (Spl.).—Eighteen high school basket ball teams will swing into action in the Dobyns-Bennett High School gymnasium at Kingsport, Tenn., Wednesday afternoon, as the annual Sixteenth Tennessee District tournament for boys, for the first time in 10 years, opens in a new setting. The tournament has previously been held at Johnson City.

Play will begin at 2 p. m., with Kingsport, strong favorites to cop the honors, raising the curtain with the Sneedville High School quint. Bristol (Tenn.), High School will meet Mountain City at 2:30 p. m. in the second game.

The Kingsport Times will present the championship trophy to the winning team, while Fred Rule, of Bristol, will also honor the players of the winning team with gold basket balls to eight members of the squad. In addition, the winner will receive a plaque presented by the Tennessee State Athletic Association. The runner-up will also receive an award.

Hialeah Park Entries.

(Associated Press.)

FIRST RACE—One mile (chute); purse, $700; claiming; for 4-year-olds and upward.

1	†Sky Haven	106	5 *Billie's Orphan 100
2	Klibitzer	110	6 The King 113
3	Blue Cloud	110	7 Calgary Kay 110
4	Canon Law	105	8 Drusus 110

SECOND RACE—Nursery course; purse, $700; for maiden 2-year-olds.

1	‡Vicaress	111	9 Up and Up 114
2	†Distracting	111	10 Sun Reverie 111
3	Be There	114	11 Hope Eternal 111
4	†Arbitrary	114	12 Candidate 114
5	Evangelist	114	13 Pete M 114
6	Cheka	114	14 Kings Pleasure 114
7	Deadeye Dick	114	15 Too Busy 114
8	Bank Holiday	114	16 Canterboy 114

‡Belair Stud and Wheatley Stable entry.
†Mrs. C. Oliver Iselin entry.

THIRD RACE—Six furlongs; purse, $700; claiming; for 3-year-olds and upward.

1	Phan. Legion	110	5 Blarney Castle 110
2	*Well Built	103	6 Southard 108
3	*Gibby's Choice	105	7 Just Remember 105
4	Ukraine	108	8 Dancing Mack 110

FIFTH RACE—One mile (chute); purse, $1,000; the Ormond; for 3-year-olds.

1	Plight	108	5 Zulu Lad 114
2	Bittybit	105	6 Lady Reigh 103
3	Steelhead	108	7 Flint Shot 106
4	Firemask	100	8 Night's End 108

SIXTH RACE—One and one-eighth miles; purse, $800; claiming; for 4-year-olds and upward.

1	*Carbon	110	4 *Standout 113
2	*Waterway	113	5 *Haggerson 113
3	Live One	115	6 Mad Wind 113

SEVENTH RACE—One mile (chute); purse, $800; claiming; for 3-year-olds and upward.

1	*Butler Beans	108	5 Caerleon 115
2	*High Proof	113	6 *Apprehensive 105
3	*Spartan Lady	108	7 *Appomattox 93
4	*Off Duty	100	8 *Major General 113

*5 lbs. apprentice allowance claimed.
†7 lbs. apprentice allowance claimed.
Weather, cloudy; track, sloppy.

Portner's Britt-Covelli Card Postponed Until Tomorrow

BECAUSE of recent heavy snowfall, the Benny Britt-Frankie Covelli bout scheduled for tonight at Portner's has been postponed until tomorrow night.

Barring a draw, the eight-rounder should terminate a series of battles as prolonged as those of the the Seven Year War or the feud between Benny Leonard and Johnny Dundee. The two featherweights have met five times in the past and have achieved absolutely negative results by grinding out three draws and a win apiece.

Although only 23, Britt is a veteran of 61 battles, of which he won 44, drew 12 and lost 5. An out-and out club fighter, he has proven exceedingly popular in every arena where the customers are partial to modified mayhem in the raw.

Covelli is also addicted to punching, unadulterated by any inclination to duck or back up. He outroughed Washington's favorite club fighter, Pete Sarron, in his initial appearance here, but the outcome was so close a return engagement was very much in order and was arranged for tonight, but the Birmingham beak-buster was forced to withdraw because of a cut eye.

Carey Wright, brightest welterweight prospect on the local horizon, steps out against foreign competition with Freddy Miller, of Atlantic City, in a six-round semifinal. Wright has won his last two engagements by knockouts, stopping Roma La Bona and Glenn Morgan in consecutive appearances in Frederick, Md.

Possessed of ruggedness, punch and natural fighting ability, the Washington chef has been hammering at the doors of big-time competition for some time, and is being given his chance tonight. A win over Miller will place him in line for other shots against out-of-towners of rank and decide definitely whether or not he has the ability to climb out of the "local prospects" class.

In other sixes, Dominick Nicco faces Larry Jackson and Bill Bullock swings at Morris Gross. Bullock has shown great improvement in recent starts, shortening his looping blows considerably and has improved his erratic timing to a point where he almost knows where a blow is going to land when he launches it.

Bill Howard squares off against Paddy Ryan in an opening four.

Around-the-ring selections—Covelli over Britt, Nicco over Jackson, Bullock to beat Gross, Howell over Ryan.

Chart of Hialeah Park Races

(Associated Press.) Monday, February 26, 1934.

WEATHER, CLOUDY. TRACK, SLOPPY.

FIRST RACE—Six furlongs. Purse, $700; claiming prices, $1,500 to $1,200. For 3-year-olds. Start good. Won easily; place, same. Went to post at 2:20. Off at 2:23½. Winner, Mrs. P. Kelley's ch. c. (3), by Hourless—Miserette. Trained by P. Kelley. Value to winner, $525; second, $100; third, $50; fourth, $25. Time, 1:14 2-5.

Horses	Wgt.	Post	St.	¼	½	Str.	Fin.	Jockeys	Straight
LE MISERABLE	108	8	6	3¹	2ª	1½	1¹	Harbort	$7.95
TOYTIME	103	7	1	1ª	1ª	2¹½	2¹	Hughes	2.60
CABOUSE	111	4	5	4¹	3ª	3¹	3hd	Gilbert	2.40
ROYAL GOLD	108	6	9	9ª	6½	5ª	4¹	Kurtsinger	9.50
CHIMNEY TOP	113	5	2	2¹	4¹	4ª	5ª	Robertson	5.60
GENTEEL LADY	103	3	4	6½	7½	6¹½	6¹	Maschek	30.10
NITTEN NANCY	106½	2	11	11¹	9½	7½	7ª	Wright	26.00
TRILLIUM	101½	1	8	7½	8½	8½	8ª	Porter	102.60
HER HERO	112	12	7	5ª	5ª	9ª	9¹	Horn	43.50
JANE FOSTER	104	10	10	10ª	10ª	10ª	10¹	Meade	40.60
CONFLAGRATION	100	12	12	12	11ª	11ª	11¹	Litzenberger	28.20
THERON	101	9	3	8½	12	12	12	Roberts	31.10

Two-dollar mutuels paid—LE MISERABLE, $17.90, $8.60, $4.20; TOYTIME, $4.60, $3.00; CABOUSE, $2.60.

LE MISERABLE, at home in the sloppy going, raced TOYTIME into defeat, but swerved over to the inside at furlong pole, seriously impeding TOYTIME and CABOUSE, then drew away, winning nicely in hand. TOYTIME displayed a good liking for the going and held on well. CABOUSE was moving up with a rush in stretch when he was blocked and never recovered. ROYAL GOLD closed a big gap. CHIMNEY TOP had speed for half a mile.

SECOND RACE—Nursery course, three furlongs, straightaway. Purse, $700; claiming price, $2,500. For 2-year-olds. Start good. Won driving; place, same. Went to post at 2:50. Off at 2:54½. Winner, Mrs. P. A. B. Widener's b. f. (2), by Haste—Sly Glance. Trained by D. E. Stewart. Value to winner, $525; second, $100; third, $50; fourth, $25. Time, 0:35 4-5.

Horses	Wgt.	Post	Start	Stretch	Finish	Jockeys	Straight
OGLE	107	9	3	2½	1ª	Gilbert	$3.10
QUERY	113	2	1	1½	2¹½	Saunders	5.00
IDLE VICTORY	111½	3	2	2ª	3¹	Humphries	1.20
BLACKBIRDER	110	6	5	4½	4½	Jones	14.10
NEON	107	5	4	5ª	5ª	Rose	10.20
MISS FIREFLY	107	8	6	6¹	6¹	Wright	21.60
HAPPY HELEN	112	7	7	7ª	7½	Morrison	32.00
MICA ROCK	110	4	8	8¹	8¹	Meade	47.40
IDEDISS	110	1	9	9	9	Kurtsinger	67.80

Two-dollar mutuels paid—OGLE, $8.20, $5.10, $3.00; QUERY, $5.10, $3.20; IDLE VICTORY, $2.40.

OGLE, a fine looking filly, broke from the outside, showed good speed, closed gamely and won in last stride. QUERY broke very fast, showed good speed and held on gamely. IDLE VICTORY, well up all the way, had no mishaps. BLACKBIRDER, unruly at the start, got away well, but could not keep up. NEON was kept in deep going all the way.

THIRD RACE—Seven furlongs (out of chute). Purse, $800. For maiden 3-year-olds and upward. Start poor. Won galloping; place, driving. Went to post at 3:23½. Off at 3:24½. Winner, Kenneland Stud's ch. c. (3), by Chance Play—Jeanne Bowdre. Trained by J. O. Keene. Value to winner, $600; second, $125; third, $50; fourth, $25. Time, 1:26 1-5.

Horses	Wgt.	Post	St.	¼	½	¾	Str.	Fin.	Jockeys	Straight
DISASTER	110	4	2	1ª	1ª	1ª	1ª	1ª	Roberts	$21.65
JACK LOW	110	3	3	2½	2½	3ª	2½	2ª	Meade	5.10
PASTRY	110	7	1	3ª	3ª	2ª	3ª	3ª	Gilbert	.80
HEIRESS	114	1	6	5¹	5ª	5ª	4½	4ª	Jones	31.70
THE TRIUMVIR	110	6	5	4ª	4½	4¹	5ª	5ª	Robertson	7.80
BELL MAN	111½	8	4	6ª	6ª	6ª	6ª	6¹	Humphries	71.50
ASHEN	110	2	7	7ª	7½	7ª	7½	7ª	Litzenberger	9.90
AHMED	110	5	8	8	8	8	8	8	Saunders	8.30

Two-dollar mutuels paid—DISASTER, $45.30, $19.10, $6.20; JACK LOW, $6.10, $3.30; PASTRY, $2.50.

DISASTER, a superior mud horse, went right to the front after the break and galloped along, drew away in stretch and was only galloping at finish. JACK LOW was hustled along all the way and outgamed PASTRY. The latter was kept out in the middle of the track in the good going and had no excuses. HEIRESS, well up, ran a fair race. THE TRIUMVIR was outrun.

FOURTH RACE—One mile (out of chute). Purse, $800; claiming prices, $3,000 to $2,000. For 3-year-olds and upward. Start good. Won ridden out; place, driving. Went to post at 3:52½. Off at 3:55. Winner, W. N. Adrian's rn. h. (5), by Overall—Waiau. Trained by H. Jacobs. Value to winner, $600; second, $125; third, $50; fourth, $25. Time, 1:40.

Horses	Wgt.	Post	St.	¼	½	¾	Str.	Fin.	Jockeys	Straight
HOKUAO	111	1	3	2½	1ª	2ª	1ª	1ª	Hunter	$1.25
MOUNTAIN ELK	110	2	3	4½	4½	3ª	3ª	2ª	Tipton	4.20
EURYDICE	91	1	2	1½	2ª	1ª	2ª	3ª	Litzenberger	8.00
NORTH MILL	108	5	4	3½	3½	4ª	4¹	4ª	Porter	6.60
GENERAL A	116	4	5	5	5	5	5	5	Workman	3.10

Two-dollar mutuels paid—HOKUAO, $4.50, $3.00, out; MOUNTAIN ELK, $4.30, out; EURYDICE, out.

HOKUAO, in good form, broke well, but was eased back in the first furlong, then moved up, raced EURYDICE into submission, drew out, but boy took no chances and whipped him out. MOUNTAIN ELK moved up very fast in final furlong and was second in last stride. EURYDICE showed excellent speed, but weakened in last sixteenth. NORTH MILL made a bid at end of half a mile, but tired. GENERAL A. trailed far back all the way.

FIFTH RACE—One mile (out of chute). Purse, $1,000. The Indian River. For 4-year-olds and upward. Start good. Won easily; place, same. Went to post at 4:23½. Off at 4:25. Winner, Greentree Stable's b. g. (5), by Dominant—Maracaibo. Trained by M. C. Lilly. Value to winner, $700; second, $150; third, $100; fourth, $50. Time, 1:38 3-5.

Horses	Wgt.	Post	St.	¼	½	¾	Str.	Fin.	Jockeys	Straight
CURACAO	108	1	4	1½	1ª	1ª	1½	1¹	Jones	$1.43
BLESSED EVENT	114	4	1	4	3½	2ª	2ª	2¹	Meade	1.50
MINTON	108	3	2	2½	2ª	3ª	3ª	3ª	Litzenberger	4.80
CLOTHO	108	4	3	3¹	4	4	4	4	Robertson	5.70

Two-dollar mutuels paid—CURACAO, $4.90, $2.80, out; BLESSED EVENT, $2.60, out; MINTON, out.

CURACAO, showing marked improvement over his recent effort and showing a decided liking for the going, ran into lead soon after the start and, under steady restraint, came to the middle of the track and easily held race safe. BLESSED EVENT moved up gamely around turn, but was no match for the winner. MINTON was kept close to the pace and ran a fair race. CLOTHO had speed for six furlongs.

SIXTH RACE—Seven furlongs (out of chute). Purse, $700; claiming prices, $1,500 to $1,200. For 4-year-olds and upward. Start good. Won driving; place, easily. Went to post at 4:51. Off at 4:57. Winner, F. J. Kearns' br. or rn. g. (4), by Westwick—Coral Chain. Trained by owner. Value to winner, $525; second, $100; third, $50; fourth, $25. Time, 1:27 1-5.

Horses	Wgt.	Post	St.	¼	½	¾	Str.	Fin.	Jockeys	Straight
CHAIN	110	1	3	1¹	1ª	1ª	1¹	1ª	Porter	$8.30
GALLIC	115	3	2	4¹½	3ª	2ª	2ª	2ª	Workman	9.00
TWO TRICKS	108	6	7	6ª	4ª	4ª	3ª	3¹	Hughes	4.90
TETRA DOMINO	110	8	6	2½	2½	3ª	4¹	4¹	Corbett	34.70
INTEGRITY	113	4	5	5ª	6ª	6ª	5¹	5½	Wholey	2.70
GRANNY'S TRADE	100	9	8	7½	8¹	7½	8¹	6ª	Litzenberger	7.10
FERVID	110	2	1	3ª	7ª	8¹	6½	7ª	Gilbert	6.80
MARINE BUBBLES	112	1	9	8ª	5½	5ª	8¹	8¹	Kurtsinger	3.20
HOSAIN	104½	5	9	9	9	9	9	9	Cantora	92.70

Two-dollar mutuels paid—CHAIN, $18.60, $9.10, $6.40; GALLIC, $10.10, $6.30; TWO TRICKS, $4.00.

CHAIN, showing a decided liking for the going, ran into lead early, opened winning lead around turn, but tired and just lasted to win. GALLIC moved up with a bold rush in stretch, but faltered badly in final stride. TWO TRICKS worked her way up and closed gamely. TETRA DOMINO is showing more with every start. MARINE BUBBLES did not like the going and stopped early.

SEVENTH RACE—Mile and one furlong. Purse, $800; claiming price, $1,500. For 3-year-olds and upward. Start good. Won driving; place, easily. Went to post at 5:21½. Off at 5:23. Winner, F. J. Kearns' b. c. (4), by Durbar II—Bell Rock. Trained by owner. Value to winner, $600; second, $125; third, $50; fourth, $25. Time, 1:53 2-5.

Horses	Wgt.	Post	St.	¼	½	¾	Str.	Fin.	Jockeys	Straight
ROYAL DURBAR	111	1	1	1¹	1¹	1½	1¹	1½	Porter	$2.60
EL PUMA	111	4	3	5¹	3¹	3ª	2ª	2ª	Hunter	5.50
FORT DEARBORN	108	5	5	2¹	2½	2ª	3ª	3ª	Sorenson	2.10
LONE HAND	116	3	4	3¹°	4¹	4ª	4¹°	4¹°	Humphries	8.10
GRACIAS	113	2	2	4½	5ª	5¹°	5²°	5¹°	Maitioli	15.70
DUNFERN	113	6	7	7	7	7	6ª	6¹°	Calrone	37.20
MORALIST	116	7	6	3ª	6¹°	6¹	7	7	Burke	4.70

Two-dollar mutuels paid—ROYAL DURBAR, $7.20, $3.90, $2.70; EL PUMA, $5.70, $3.40; FORT DEARBORN, $2.40.

ROYAL DURBAR got away flying, was sent to the front going into first turn, rated along to stretch, tired and just lasted. EL PUMA moved up very fast in stretch and was wearing the winner down. FORT DEARBORN, away well, was hustled along all the way, but weakened badly in final furlong. LONE HAND was best of the others in the going. MORALIST had speed for five furlongs.

Trouble Ahead For Londos On Mat

Title Claimant Is Promised Real Battle Thursday at Auditorium.

WHEN JOE MALCEWICZ hies himself back to Washington for his bout with Jimmy Londos in Thursday's rass

Stocks Retreat 1.9 Points in Brisk Selling

Market Closes Soggy as Turnover Mounts to 2,187,480 Shares.

New York, Feb. 26 (AP).—Markets did some further back-tracking today. Stocks, heavy from the start, encountered one brisk selling flurry en route to a soggy closing, although final prices were slightly above the lows, due apparently to late covering.

The range of stock losses was about 1 to 3 points net. Volume was light most of the day, turnover for the five hours totaling 2,187,480 shares, but continuation of the decline through three successive markets was contrary to the trading pattern followed in recent weeks.

Wall street explanations for the shift in sentiment which appeared late last week covered familiar ground: prospects of regulatory legislation, contraction of CWA employment lists; the temporary effects which severe weather exert on trade, and sporadic strikes.

Heaviness is Distributed.

Heaviness was well distributed through the list. Steels ignored reports of further gains for their industry, rails failed to respond to a contra-seasonal gain in freight traffic, merchandising issues apparently were wondering whether sales volume was to be maintained.

Communication issues seemed to pay no particular attention to the President's recommendation for a new Federal commission with authority over their affairs, though they, too, were lower. Sugars, motors and chemicals softened.

American Can, Loew's, Seaboard Oil, Dome Mines, Schenley Distillers, Snider Packing and a few others fought off the trend, closing with gains of fractions to a point. United Aircraft lost nearly 2 net. U. S. Smelting, Allied Chemical, Delaware & Hudson, New York Central, Case, Woolworth, Illinois Central, South Puerto Rico sugar and American Sugar yielded around 2 to 3.

Testing Zone Seen.

Chart followers pointed out that the market seemed to have reached another testing zone and that its action in the sessions lying immediately ahead should determine the next important move.

Rail shares, they argued, had not decisively followed industrials on the last rally and were showing considerable heaviness on this reaction. Some statistical and investment services appearing over the week-end liked the character of business news, but thought speculative prices might display near term hesitation.

Current steel production is estimated by the Iron and Steel Institute at 45.7 per cent of capacity, compared with 43.6 per cent last week at this time.

The improvement is attributed in large measure to specifications against first-quarter contracts which otherwise expire automatically on March 31, and it is expected to continue as consumers make additional drafts on orders. Whether the next four weeks will witness as fast a pickup as occurred in December is viewed as problematical.

Railroad earnings for January are running far ahead of the same month in both 1933 and 1932 on the basis of reports so far received. February's record, however, is apt to be toned down by the maintenance expenditures which many roads are being forced to make on account of storm damage.

Robey's Review

Finance Economics Business

In Spite of Controversy It Appears Gradual Progress Is Being Made in Modifying Various Sections of Exchange Control Bill.

By Ralph West Robey.

With the growing heat of battle over the legislation to regulate security markets it is becoming increasingly difficult to maintain a rational approach to the problem. At times it seems that neither side is so much interested in working out a solution in the public interest as it is in putting over its particular program. In spite of this, however, it appears that perhaps a little progress is being made. The consensus is that at least some changes will be made by the House committee in the bill as it now stands.

Most important of these, according to current expectations, is a reduction in the margin requirements. The bill as introduced, it will be recalled, not only fixed a statutory minimum for margins, but placed this minimum far above what has been customary, or deemed essential for safety. Specifically, it provided that a broker could not advance more than 40 per cent of the current price, or 80 per cent of the lowest price of the last three years, whichever is larger. In the case of United States Steel, for example, with a current market price of, say, 60, and a low within the last three years of, say, 20, the two figures for loans would be $24 and $16, respectively. The 60 per cent margin, therefore, would be the most favorable for the customer.

Customer Would Put Up $3,600 on $6,000 Purchase.

Just what this means is clear if one assumes a purchase of 100 shares of United States Steel. The customer in this case, under the provisions of the bill as introduced, would have to put up $3,600—or 60 per cent of the current market price. To this the broker would add, as a loan, $2,400 in order to make the total purchase price of $6,000.

Viewed in another way, this means that the customer's contribution would be 150 per cent of his debit balance with the broker. At present the customary requirement, except in unusual circumstances, is for the customer to advance an amount equal to only one-half his debit balance. On a purchase of $6,000 this means the margin required will be $2,000.

The presumed purpose of this great increase in margin requirements is that it will reduce what loosely is called illegitimate speculation. It is supposed to have this effect not only in the case of small speculators who economically should not be in the market, but as well in the case of large traders. By a simple provision, therefore, it is hoped to eliminate a large portion, if not all, of the speculation that, according to the philosophy of those drafting the legislation, works against the social good.

Margins in 1929 Were Highest in History.

That increasing margins would have this effect is, at best, an open question. I am inclined to doubt that it would. One reason for taking this view is that at the height of the inflationary stock market boom in 1929 the margins, or so we were repeatedly assured at the time, were the largest in the history of the market.

Quite aside from this however, and assuming that we are determined to try higher margins as a means for reducing speculation, it would appear desirable to limit any new margin requirements to purchases made after the law goes in effect. In other words, it should not be made to apply to existing accounts. This is because at present there is a large volume of loans in the hands of banks and brokers in which the margins are below the proposed figures. If sufficient time is permitted these loans will be worked out with a minimum of disturbance and loss. On the other hand, if the new margin requirements are made to apply to existing loans, there will be no alternative to throwing the securities held in these accounts on the market with a resulting deflation of values.

To make such a compromise—it has been suggested by one witness after another in the hearing—in no way will lessen the ultimate effect of any bill that is passed. It is impossible to believe, therefore, that the committee will not include this among the changes to be made before reporting the measure back to Congress.

(Copyright, 1934.)

Bond Market Enthusiasm Wanes Sharply

Trading Volume Dwindles to $14,465,000 as Securities Yield.

New York, Feb. 26 (AP).—Bond market enthusiasm waned appreciably today and prices, especially in the secondary groups, reflected the downward trend of stocks.

Although the trading volume dwindled to a total of $14,465,000, par value, against $15,151,000 last Friday, the average for 60 domestic corporate issues lost six-tenths of a point at 83.6.

As in previous irregular sessions, most of the corporation loans of the so-called, high-grade classification held their fluctuations to small fractions.

U. S. Securities Yield.

With the exception of Liberty first 4½'s, which showed a net gain of two thirty-seconds of a point, all of the United States Government listed securities yielded one thirty-second to twelve thirty-seconds of a point. The turnover in the Federal section amounted to only about $600,000.

While highly optimistic estimates of current steel production were published by both the magazine Steel and the American Iron & Steel Institute, traders were a bit nervous over scattered strikes and threats of strikes in the motor industry as well as a possible pause in business progress due to the curtailment of Civil Works Administration activities.

Losses of 1 to 3 or more points predominated in the rail section, largely due to profit taking on the theory that prices have largely discounted recent substantial gains in earnings.

Carrier Business Gains.

January business for the carriers was ahead of that in the same month of 1933 and 1932. It was thought, in some quarters, that the unusual weather conditions in February would raise costs for some of the roads to such an extent that net earnings this month might not make such a good showing.

Among the principal utility and industrial losers were bonds of American Water Works, Armour & Co., Chile Copper, Goodrich, Hudson Coal, International Cement, International Hydro-Electric, International Telephone, Loew's, North American, North American Edison, Philadelphia Co., Philadelphia Reading Coal & Iron, Portland General Electric, Richfield Oil, St. Joseph Lead, Studebaker, United Drug, U. S. Rubber, Utilities Power & Light, Warner Bros., Warren Bros., Western Union and Youngstown Sheet & Tube.

There was little activity in the foreign department and prices were a trifle mixed.

Canadian External Trade Is Gaining

Canada's foreign trade registered substantial improvement in January, a report to the Commerce Department from its Ottawa office reveals.

Preliminary official statistics just issued show that exports of Canadian products in January were valued at $46,652,017, an increase of $15,000,000, or 48 per cent, over the January, 1933, figure.

Imports in January had a total value of $32,489,462, an increase of $8,000,000, or approximately 33 per cent, over those of January, 1933.

During the first ten months of the current fiscal year—April, 1933, to January, 1934—the Dominion has experienced a sharp improvement in its "favorable" merchandise balance of trade, the report points out. In the most recent 10-month period the merchandise balance between total exports and imports amounted to $136,825,560, whereas in the previous corresponding 10-month period the merchandise balance was less than $67,000,000.

Puerto Rico Shipments Of Raw Sugar Increase

New York, Feb. 26.—Raw sugar shipments from Puerto Rico to the United States from January 1 to February 24 totaled 120,508 short tons, an increase of 51.8 per cent when compared with shipments of 79,494 during a similar period last year, according to cables to the New York Coffee and Sugar Exchange.

Refined shipments increased 25 per cent and were 21,598 tons, compared with 17,275 in the 1933 period. Shipments of raw and refined together for the week of February 24 amounted to 30,710 tons, against 20,245 in the same week last year.

Money Markets.

Foreign Exchange.

New York, Feb. 26 (A.P.).—Foreign exchange steady. Great Britain in dollars, others in cents.

Great Britain—Demand, 5.08¾; cables, 5.08¾.

France—Demand, 6.50½; cables, 6.50½.

Demands.

Italy	8.51	*Yugoslavia	2.31
Belgium	23.31	*Austria	18.80
Germany	39.66	*Rumania	1.03
Holland	67.25	*Argentina	33.90
Norway	25.55	*Brazil	8.62
Sweden	26.20	Tokyo	30.12½
Denmark	22.70	Shanghai	36.25
*Finland	2.26	Hongkong	3.00
Switzerland	32.30	Mexico City,
Spain	13.55	silver peso	28.00
*Portugal	4.65	Montreal in
*Greece	1.94	New York	99.43¾
*Poland	18.95	New York in
*Czechoslovakia	4.15	Montreal	100.56¼

*Nominal.

New York.

Call money steady; 1 per cent all day. Time loans steady; 60 day ¾@1; 90 days, 1; 4 months, 1@1¼; 5 to 6 months, 1¼@1½ per cent.

Prime commercial paper, 1¾.

Bankers' acceptances unchanged; 30 days, ⅝@½; 60 to 90 days, ⅝@½; 4 months, ½@¾; 5 to 6 months, 1@1¼.

Bar silver easy, ½ lower, at 45⅞.

London.

Bar gold declined 1 pence to 136s 5d (U. S. equivalent $34.67 on basis of sterling opening at $5.08¼).

Money, ¾ per cent. Discount rates, short bills, ⅛@15-16; three-month bills, 15-16@1 per cent.

Paris.

Three per cent rentes, 68 francs 40 centimes; 4½ per cent rentes, 82.45.

Exchange on London, 77.45. The dollar was quoted at 15.22¾.

Curb Prices Forced Down 1 to 2 Points

Utilities and Specialties Hit Hardest; Transfers Total 361,000.

New York, Feb. 26 (AP).—Steady selling on the curb market today carried prices down 1 to 2 or more points at the close. Utilities and specialties were hardest hit. Alcohols and oils resisted rather well.

Selling was orderly, although there was a brief active flurry in the early afternoon. The trend leveled off in the final dealings and some shares recovered a little from their lows.

Safety car heating dropped 5½ points net. Singer manufacturing and Aluminum Co. of America lost 4 each. Shares finishing 1 to 2 or more lower included American Gas & Electric, Electric Bond & Share, Dow Chemical, Cleveland Electric Illuminating, Pan-American Airways, Parker Rust Proof, Lynch Corporation, Newmont, New Jersey Zinc, and A. O. Smith.

Gulf Oil and Hiram Walker yielded only a minor fraction each at the close and Waco Aircraft gained a shade net.

Transfers approximated 361,000 shares compared with 413,000 for last Friday.

Bank Stocks

New York, Feb. 26 (A.P.).—Over-the-counter market:

Banks.	Bid.	Asked.
Bk Manhattan (2)	29	31
Chase Natl (1.40)	27¾	29¼
Commercial (8)	132	142
Fifth Ave (34a)	1120	1150
First Natl (100)	1580	1620
Natl City (1)	28¾	30½
Public (1½)	29¼	30¾
Trust Companies.
Bankers (3)	60½	62½
Bklyn Trust (4)	98	101
Cen Hanover	125	129
Chemical (1.80)	38	40
Continental (.80)	13½	15
Corn Exchange (3)	52	54
Empire (1)	18¾	19¾
Guaranty (20)	324	329
Irving (1)	16½	18
Manufacturers (1)	20½	21¾
N Y Title & Mtge	¾	¾
N Y Trust (5)	92	95
Title G & T (.80)	10¾	12¼
United States (70a)	1685	1735
Insurance Companies.
Aetna Cas (2a)	50	52
Aetna Fire (1.60)	34	36
Aetna Life	18¼	19¾
Agricultural (2.20)	51½	54¼
Amer Reinsurance (2)	33¾	35¾
Am Surety	20	21½
Bals Amer	3¾	4¾
Boston (16)	447	458
Conn Gen Life (.80)	29	30½
Fid & Dep	34½	36
Firemens Ins	6¾	7½
Frank Fire (1)	18¾	20¼
Glens Falls (1.60)	28¼	29¾
Globe & Rut	47	51½
Great Amer (1)	18¾	20¼
Halifax (.90)	15	18½
Hanover (1.60)	28¼	29¼
Hartford Fire (2)	46	48
Home Fire Sec	1	2
Home Ins (1)	21¾	23¼
Lincoln Fire	3¼	4½
Mass Bond	16½	18½
Natl Fire (2)	51½	53½
Natl Liberty (.20)	5½	6½
N Y Fire	12¾	15¾
Nor River (.70a)	19½	21
Phoenix (2)	55¾	57¾
Prov Wash (1a)	28½	30½
St Paul Fire (6)	125	129
Springfield Fire (4½)	94	97
Sun Life	485	513
Travelers (16)	417	432
U S Fire (1.40a)	34½	36½

(a) Including extras.

Tobacco Market.

Abingdon, Va., Feb. 26 (Spl.).—R. W. McFarland, sales supervisor at the local burley tobacco market, today declared the market had "broken all records in the tobacco world by doubling its sales for the season without an additional set of buyers being added."

The market sold 14,266,008 pounds for $1,492,370 during the season, an average of $10.48, as compared with 7,071,364 pounds last year averaging $14.68.

"At no time during the season," said Mr. McFarland, "was a third set of buyers called in. It is to be hoped that next season Abingdon will have three sets of buyers, instead of two sets as used this season."

The local market will close Wednesday for the season.

Reichsbank Statement.

Berlin, Feb. 26 (AP).—The Reichsbank statement as of February 23, shows the following changes in reichsmarks: Gold and bullion decreased 20,874,000; reserve in foreign currencies decreased 2,112,000; bills of exchange and cheques decreased 30,267,000; silver and other coins increased 21,696,000; notes on other banks increased 804,000; advances increased 2,321,000; investments increased 7,834,000; other assets decreased 7,113,000; notes in circulation decreased 66,252,000; other maturing obligations increased 42,143,000; other liabilities decreased 3,602,000.

Total gold holdings, 312,433,000.

Note coverage, 9.9 per cent.

Rate of discount, 4 per cent.

Dried Fruits.

New York, Feb. 26 (AP).—EVAPORATED APPLES—Steady; choice, 9½@10; fancy, 10½@11.

PRUNES—Steady; California, 4¾@9¾; Oregon, 8¾@9.

APRICOTS—Steady; choice, 12¼; extra choice, 13½; fancy, 15.

PEACHES—Steady; standard, 8; choice, 8½; extra choice, 8¾.

RAISINS—Steady; loose Muscatels, 5@6½; choice to fancy seeded, 5@5¾; seedless, 4½@5½.

FIGS—Steady; California fancy, black Mission, 9@9½; Adriatic, 8½@9; Kadota, 7@7½.

Wool Market.

Boston, Feb. 26 (A.P.) (U. S. Dept. of Agri.).—Medium quality fleece wools, of the types that have been moving quite well during the past weeks, have begun to show firmer price tendencies. While it was difficult to secure price advances, wools of 48s, 50s, 54s, blood quality were not being offered freely at prices on the low side of the recent selling range.

Estimated receipts of domestic wool at Boston, reported by the Boston Grain and Flour Exchange during week ending February 24, amounted to 244,300 pounds, compared with 60,700 during the previous week.

Gold Market.

New York, Feb. 26 (A.P.).—Today's gold statement of the New York Federal Reserve Bank showed imports of $8,051,400 from England and France. There were no exports and no change in the gold stocks held under earmark for foreign account.

Visible Supply U. S. Grain.

New York, Feb. 26 (A.P.).—The visible supply of American grain shows the following changes in bushels: Wheat decreased 2,001,000; corn increased 21,000; oats decreased 430,000; rye decreased 204,000; barley decreased 25,000.

Chicago Egg Futures.

Chicago, Feb. 26 (A.P.).—Egg futures, fresh graded firsts, February, 16¾; storage packed firsts, March, 17¼; refrigerator standards, October, 20. Butter futures, storage standards, February, 23¼; March, 22½.

Steel Market.

New York, Feb. 26 (AP).—Steel prices per 100 pounds, f. o. b. Pittsburgh:

Blue annealed sheets, hot rolled, 190.

Galvanized sheets, 285.

Black sheets, hot rolled, 225.

Steel bars, 175.

Dow-Jones Averages.

New York, Feb. 26 (U.P.).—Dow-Jones averages:

	Stocks. Open.	High.	Low.	Close.	Net change.
30 ind.	103.87	104.49	102.21	103.12	—1.65
20 rails	44.42	46.70	47.32	47.90	—1.18
20 util.	36.65	36.85	36.13	36.47	—0.96

	Bonds.
40 bonds	91.45	—0.44
10 first-grade rails	97.20	—0.15
10 second-grade rails	81.24	—0.80
10 utilities	94.66	—0.06
10 industrials	92.50	—0.77

Metal Market.

New York, Feb. 26 (A.P.).—COPPER—Quiet; electrolytic spot and future, 8.

TIN—Steady; spot and nearby, 33.25; future, 32.35.

IRON—Quiet. No. 2, f. o. b. Eastern Pennsylvania, 18.50; Buffalo, 17.50; Alabama, 13.50.

LEAD—Steady; spot, New York, 4.00; East St. Louis, 3.90.

ZINC—Dull; East St. Louis spot and future 4.40.

ANTIMONY—Spot, 7.20@7.23.

QUICKSILVER—74.00.

Wall Street Briefs.

New York, Feb. 26 (AP).—American Chicle Co. has put its capital stock on a regular $3 annual dividend basis by declaring a quarterly disbursement of 75 cents, payable April 1 to holdings of record March 12. Previously the company paid 50 cents quarterly with 25 cents extra.

The Cleveland plant of Addressograph-Multigraph Corporation reports an increase in employment of 125 per cent above the low of last March, with gains of 165 per cent in total hours and 190 per cent in wages paid. Joseph E. Rogers, president, says that although part of the improvement is due to NRA, the major part is attributable to gains in new business.

A membership on the New York Coffee and Sugar Exchange has been sold for $6,500, up $1,000 from the last transaction.

Loadings on the Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul & Pacific Railroad for the week ended February 24 total 21,648 compared with 22,992 in the previous week and 18,839 in the same week a year ago.

Raw sugar shipments from Puerto Rico to the United States from January 1 to February 24 amounted to 120,508 short tons, an increase of 51.8 per cent from last year, according to cables to the New York Coffee and Sugar Exchange. Refined shipments increased 25 per cent to a total of 21,598 tons.

January furniture orders increased 135 per cent over those for December, reported Seidman & Seidman, certified public accountants. New business was 25 per cent greater than in January, 1933, and shipments about equaled those of a year ago. Unfilled orders on manufacturers' books increased 73 per cent during the month.

The Northwest shippers' advisory board estimates that freight traffic in Montana, the Dakotas and Minnesota during the first quarter of 1934 will total 126,837 cars, or 16 per cent less than for the same 1933 period.

Sales of Melville Shoe Corporation, for the four weeks ended February 17 totaled $1,290,858 compared with $1,017,181, an increase of 26.9 per cent.

The Liberty Mutual Insurance Co., for the year 1933 reports total assets of $25,014,253 and surplus of $4,170,357, both being the larget in the company's history. Arggegate income was $17,199,892, up $1,036,083 from 1932. Premium income increased $1,077,000 to $16,220,995.

Silk Market.

New York, Feb. 26 (A.P.).—Raw silk futures closed easy, 3@5 lower; sales, 3,350 bales. March, 1.39@1.39½; May, 1.43*; July, 1.43*. Open market quotations (60-day basis). Shanghai steam filature 78 per cent spinlane, 20/22s, 1.50. Canton double extra "A," 14/16s, 1.20. Japanese special crack double extra, 81 per cent serisiane, 13/16s, 1.55.

*Bid.

U. S. Treasury Receipts.

U. S. Treasury Receipts.
(Associated Press.)

The position of the Treasury February 23 was receipts, $8,812,512.50; expenditures, $30,140,853.35; balance, $4,988,709,251.74; customs receipts for the month, $18,974,879.60.

Receipts for the fiscal year since July 1 were $4,685,026,910.51; expenditures, $4,148,421,114.34, including $2,346,427,953.60 emergency expenditures; excess of receipts, $516,605,796.17.

Gold assets, $7,299,055,281.71.

(United Press.)

Government expenses and receipts of the current fiscal year to February 23, compared with the corresponding period of the previous fiscal year:

	This Year.	Last Year.
Expenses	$4,148,421,114.34	$3,269,584,101.51
Receipts	4,685,026,910.51	1,230,532,619.62
Surplus	516,605,796.17	*2,039,051,481.89
Cash balance	$4,988,709,251.74

*Deficit.

Foreign Markets.

London, Feb. 26 (A.P.).—Home rails and gilt-edged securities were early features in an irregular market on the stock exchange today. The British war loan established a new high record on the inflow of surplus funds. However, these issues eased later on profit-taking with other sections, including industrials. Gold mining shares were supported, while transatlantic issues yielded on realizing. The market closed irregular.

Paris.—Lightening of positions by traders in anticipation of month-end liquidations, lowered prices on the bourse. Only South African gold mining issues showed a slight advance. The closing was heavy and inactive.

Berlin—Trading on the boerse was active and prices were firm, especially those on Reichsbank, dye and electric shares. The closing was firm.

U. P. Income Increased to $21,578,196

St. Louis-San Francisco Line's Profit Climbs to $350,950.

New York, Feb. 26 (AP).—The Union Pacific Railroad system's report for 1933 shows net income of $21,578,196 after taxes and charges, equal to $7.92 a common share after dividends on the 4 per cent preferred stock.

This compares with $20,634,888, or $7.49 a common share in 1932.

Gross last year was $111,090,458, against $114,812,397. Income from investments totaled $18,049,087, compared with $18,435,739 in 1932 and net operating income was $18,747,128, against $18,012,537.

January net operating income of the St. Louis-San Francisco system was $350,950, contrasting with deficit of $51,750 a year ago.

The Great Northern had January net operating deficit of $215,834, against deficit of $516,413 last year.

The Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railway system today reported January net operating income of $117,755, contrasted with deficit of $138,322 a year ago.

Net operating figures for other roads include:

	1934.	1933.
Southern Ry.	$969,576	$801,949
Ala. Gt. South	64,835	41,135*
C. M. & St. P.	423,712	319,468*
New Haven	724,221	361,203
Lehigh Valley	620,802	78,556*
Tex. & Pac.	325,663	148,917
Wabash	163,901	229,466*
R. Island Lines	163,928	180,486*

*Deficit.

Houdaille-Hershey Corporation reports 1933 net loss of $113,900 against loss of $590,523 in 1932.

Sparks Withington Co. had net loss of $164,456 in the six months ended December 31, compared with loss of $200,996 in the corresponding period of 1932.

New York, Feb. 26 (AP).—Per share earnings of corporations reporting during the week with comparisons with the previous year included:

Year ended December 31:

	1933	1932
Consolidated Gas of N.Y.	$3.31	$4.07
American Can	5.04	3.26
Lambert Co.	2.97	5.02
McKeesport Tin Plate	6.29	5.01
Gold Dust Corp.	1.30	1.22
Armstrong Cork	2.65	...
Raybestos Manhattan	1.07	...
Pennsylvania Railroad	1.46	1.03
Penick & Ford, Ltd.	3.70	2.29
Buckeye Pipe Line	2.79	3.69
Lehn & Fink Products	2.01	3.04
Libbey-Owens-Ford Gl.	1.65	...
National Tea	1.70	1.30
Standard Oil and Kansas	.52	....
Public Service North Ill	2.65	5.70
U. S. Gypsum	1.00	.86
Bigelow-Sanford Carpet	3.12	...
Evans Products	1.21	...
Lehigh Coal & Nav.	.43	.42
American Metals pf	1.55	...
Colgate-Palmolive-Pt pf	1.50	.21
Ludlum Steel cv pf	3.59	...
Commonwealth Edison	4.56	6.24

*Not available.

Naval Stores Firm.

Savannah, Feb. 26 (AP).—TURPENTINE—Firm, 58½; sales, 19; receipts, 13; shipments, 875; stock, 7,097. Rosin firm; sales, 278; receipts, 350; shipments, 1,158; stock, 82,398. Quote: B, 4.50; D, 4.60; E, 5.20; F, G, H, I, K and M, 5.40; N and WG, 5.45; WW, 5.50; X, 5.55.

Baltimore Securities.

Baltimore, Feb. 26.—Closing prices:

Arundel Corporation	17
Com Credit Co pf	26½
Cons G & El Lt 5% pf A	99½
Fidelity & Guar Fire	15
Fid & Dep Md	36
Houston Oil pf new	8½
U. S. Fidel & Guar	5½

DAY AND NIGHT PRINTING SERVICE
RANSDELL INC.
PO 10 MAR 6420123
PUBLISHERS' PRINTERS

Goods Markets.

New York, Feb. 26 (A.P.).—Cotton goods trading was quiet with prices fairly steady. The storm again held trade back. Shipments are full. Burlaps were quiet and easy. Rayon producers are closely sold for April with an unfilled demand reported for acetate and denier yarns. Silk goods are selling moderately. Selling agents report bright prospects for the fall overcoating manufacturing season.

Week's Stock Sales.

New York, Feb. 26.—Total reported stock transactions, including inactives, on the New York Stock Exchange during the week ended Saturday, February 24, aggregated 8,978,783 shares. Daily totals follow: Monday, 2,346,415; Tuesday, 1,219,630; Wednesday, 1,899,740; Thursday, holiday; Friday, 2,289,868; Saturday, 1,223,130.

Flour Markets.

New York, Feb. 26 (AP).—FLOUR—Barely steady; spring patents, 6.40@6.65; soft winter straights, 6.00@6.20; hard winter straights, 6.30@6.50.

RYE FLOUR—Steady; fancy patents, 4.20@4.40.

Minneapolis, Feb. 26 (AP).—FLOUR—Unchanged. Carload lots, family patents, 7.10@7.20 a barrel in 98-pound cotton sacks. Shipments, 29,807.

BRAN—17.00@17.50.

Rubber Barely Steady.

New York, Feb. 26 (A.P.).—Crude rubber futures closed barely steady, 18-24 lower. March, 10.26@10.28. May, 10.56; July, 10.87; September, 11.08. Smoked ribbed spot closed 10.32*.

*Nominal.

Local Stocks

(Furnished by W. B. Hibbs & Co.)

Bonds. Public Utility.	Bid.	Asked.
Amer Tel & Tel 4½ '39	111½	....
Am Tel & Tel ctf tr 5	106¼	....
Anacostia & Pot R R 5	62	65
Ana & Pot Guar 5	95	....
C & P Tel of Va 5	103½	....
Capital Traction R R 5	73	....
City & Suburban 5	55	....
Georgetown Gas 1st 5	103½	....
Pot Elec Pow Conv 5	104	....
Potomac Elec 6 '53	107	....
Wash Gas 5 '58	89	90
Washington Gas 5 '60	104½	....
Wash Gas 6 series B	102½	....
Wash Rwy & Elec 4	87½	88½
Miscellaneous.
Barber & Ross Inc 6½	52	60
Chevy Chase Club 5½	101	....
Col Country Club 5½	98½	....
D C Paper Mfg 6	18	....
W M Cold Storage 5	92	....
Wash Cons Title 6	25	....
Stocks. Public Utility.
Amer Tel & Tel (9)	120¾	....
Capital Traction Co	25	26½
Commercial Credit	70	....
Wash Gas Lt Co (3.60)	53	60
*Pot Elec Power 6% pfd	108½	....
*Pot Elec Pwr 5½% pfd	107	....
*Wash Ry & Elec com	290	....
*Wash Ry & Elec pfd (5)	90	95
Fire Insurance.
American	175	....
Corcoran	90	....
Firemen's	19	....
National Union	9	14
Title Insurance.
Columbia	5	....
Real Estate	80	....
Miscellaneous.
Emer Bromo-Seltz "A" (2)	20	22
*Lanston Monotype (4)	48	49
Mer Tr & Storage pfd	29	....
Merganthaler Linotype	26½	28
Natl Mtge & Inv pfd	1	....
Peoples Drug St pfd (6.50)	90	....
Real Est Mtg & G pfd	1	....
Security Storage (5)	90	....
Tel Ref & Wh Corp (3)	32	....
The Carpel Corp (1)	6½	12
Wdwd & Loth com (1.50)	25	....
Wdwd & Loth pfd (7)	106	....

*Ex-dividend.

Chicago Stocks.

(Furnished by W. B. Hibbs & Co.)

	Bid.	Asked.
Yellow Taxi	11½	12½
Thompson	9¼	9¾
Wahl	1½	2
Butler Brothers	10¼	10¼
National Leather	2¼	2¼
Swift	16¼	16½
Swift International	25	25½
Libby, McNeil & Libby	4¼	4¾
Midwest Oil	⅛	⅜
City con com	⅛	¼
City con pfd	1	2
Edison	51½	53
Public Service $100 par	15	20
Public Service no par	17	19
Quaker com	115	117
Quaker pfd	120	121
Bendix	18¾	19¼
Borg Warner	23½	24
Illinois Brick	6	6½
U S Gypsum	40	....
Great Lakes Dock & Dredge	19¾	19¾
Conso com	¾	¾
Conso pfd	¾	4
Electric Household	12	13
McCord	7½	10

Treasury Certificates.

(Reported by Chas. D. Barney & Co.)

Rate.	Maturity.	Bid.	Offer.
¾	March 15, 1934	100 2-32	100 4-32
3	May 2, 1934	100 17-32	100 19-32
1¼	June 15, 1934	99 31-32	....
2	August 1, 1934	100 24-32	100 26-32
2¼	August 15, 1934	100 16-32	100 18-32
2	Dec. 15, 1934	101 6-32	101 8-32
2¼	March 15, 1935	101 10-32	101 12-32
2¼	June 15, 1935	101 31-32	102 1-32
3½	August 1, 1935	100 3-32	100 5-32
2¼	Dec. 15, 1935	100 23-32	100 25-32
2¼	Feb. 15, 1937	100 18-32	100 21-32
2¼	April 15, 1936	101 1-32	101 3-32
2	August 1, 1936	101 26-32	101 28-32
2¼	Dec. 15, 1936	100 19-32	100 21-32
2¼	April 15, 1937	100 19-32	100 21-32
2¼	Sept. 15, 1937	101 13-32	101 15-32
3¼	Goodyr T & R 5 '57	85	94½ 94¾
2¼	June 15, 1938	99 29-32	99 31-32

The Markets at a Glance

What the Stock Market Did.

	Mon.	Sat.
Advances	60	81
Declines	694	540
Unchanged	84	112
Total issues	838	733

Stocks—Further back-tracking was indulged in and stocks retreated to lower ground. Losses average 1.9 points. Sales volume increased to 2,187,480 shares.

Bonds—The market's enthusiasm waned appreciably and prices turned downward with the trend of stocks. Trading volume dwindled to $14,465,000.

Curb—Steady selling forced prices down 1 to 2 points. Utilities and specialties were hit the hardest. Alcohols and oils resisted well. Transfers totaled 361,000 shares.

Wheat—Values of wheat drifted downhill as trade confidence was shaken by breaks in stocks and cotton. Other grains joined the decline. May wheat sold at 86⅛; July, at 84½.

Cotton—Cotton was lower under liquidation and scattered selling promoted by uncertainty of crop-control legislation combined with grain and stock market weakness. May sold at 11.91. The general market declined 21 to 26 points. March closed at 11.81.

Rubber—Crude rubber futures closed barely steady, 18 to 24 points lower. March sold at 10.26, May at 10.56.

Sugar—Raw sugar was unchanged at 3.29; refined sold at 4.50.

Coffee—Spot coffee demand was steady. Santos No. 4 sold at 11½, Rio No. 7 at 10¾.

Silver—Bar silver was lower. It sold in New York ½ lower at 45⅞ per ounce.

Gold—Bar gold sold in the United States at $35 per ounce. It sold in London at 136 shillings and 5 pence.

Dollar—The United States dollar was steady on foreign exchanges. It stood in New York, with reference to other currencies, $5.08¾ to the English pound, 6.56½ cents to the French franc and 39.65 cents to the German mark.

Securities Averages.

(Associated Press.)

Stocks.	50 Ind.	20 RR.	20 Util.	90 Tot.
Yesterday	95.4	48.9	76.6	84.9
Prev. Day	97.6	50.0	78.5	86.8
Week ago	101.1	52.6	81.8	90.2
Month ago	99.2	49.6	76.8	87.6
Year ago	42.5	23.6	69.4	44.4
3 yrs. ago	139.3	105.5	197.4	144.3
7 yrs. ago	110.9	111.4	105.1	108.7
High, 1934	105.0	54.3	90.3	93.8
Low, 1934	89.1	41.8	64.3	77.5
High, 1933	102.1	58.0	113.7	96.9
Low, 1933	42.3	23.5	61.1	43.9
High, 1932	72.3	39.8	111.0	73.9
Low, 1932	35.1	13.2	51.8	35.0

(1926 average equals 100.)

Bonds.	20 Ind.	20 RR.	20 Util.	60 Tot.
Yesterday	79.6	85.3	86.1	83.6
Prev. day	80.2	86.2	86.4	84.2
Week ago	80.5	87.4	87.3	85.0
Month ago	77.4	82.6	83.7	81.2
Year

Wheat Drifts Downhill With Other Markets

Prices Touch Lowest Since January 12; Corn and Oats Decline.

Chicago, Feb. 26 (AP).—With trade confidence shaken by breaks in stocks and cotton, as well as by snows throughout the winter wheat belt, grain prices went downhill today.

Notwithstanding that this was the seventh consecutive day of declining prices for wheat, stop-loss selling and a dearth of buying power combined to force wheat values to a new low since January 12.

The September delivery of oats established a fresh bottom price record for the season.

Wheat Closes Unsteady.

Wheat closed unsteady at almost the day's lowest level, 1 to 1¾ under Saturday's finish; corn, ⅜ to ⅝ down; oats, ¾ to ⅞ off, and provisions, unchanged to 7 cents higher.

Uncertainties about proposed grain exchange legislation gave added impetus to selling pressure and led to curtailment of buying in the wheat pit especially.

The fact that domestic primary receipts of wheat were running light and that the United States wheat visible supply showed a liberal decrease for the past week was virtually ignored. A decided disposition, too, was displayed to await growing weather to determine the true condition of the winter wheat crop.

Damages in Indiana.

Belief was expressed in some quarters today that Indiana's wheat crop had been severely damaged by numerous cold waves and by periods of thawing. It was contended, however, that it would be late in March or early in April before the extent of loss could be accurately ascertained.

Bulls predicted, but without any immediate market effect, that when the United States wheat visible supply, now 103,215,000 bushels, decreases to below 100,000,000, the figures will receive sharper attention.

Corn dipped to under 50 cents a bushel today for May delivery, the lowest price since late in December. Liquidation by holders of oats was a weight on values of all feed grains.

Provisions tended upward owing to export demand for lard and because of a brisk rise in the value of hogs.

Futures Price Range.

	Open.	High.	Low.	Close.
Wheat—
May	87	87¼	86	86¼
July	85⅝	85⅝	84½	84½
September	86⅛	86¼	85⅝	85½
Corn—
May	50⅜	50¾	49⅞	50⅜
July	52⅝	52⅝	51¾	52
September	54⅜	54½	53¾	54
Oats—
May	34¾	34¾	33¾	34⅛
July	34½	34½	33½	33¾
September	34	34	32¾	33⅛
Rye—
May	60½	60⅝	59¾	60
July	62	62	61	61
September	63	63¼	62	62
Barley—
May	47	47	47	47
July	48	48	48	48

Cash Grain.

WHEAT—No. 2 red, 88; No. 1 hard, 89. CORN—No. 2 mixed, 47½; No. 3 mixed, 47¾@48¼; No. 2 yellow, 48¼@48¾; No. 3 yellow, 47@48; No. 2 white, 49½; No. 3 white, 48¾@49.

OATS—No. 2 white, 35¼@35¾; No. 3 white, 34¼@34½.

No. rye.

BARLEY—43@80.

TIMOTHY SEED—7.25@7.50 cwt.

CLOVER SEED—11.00@14.00 cwt.

Refrigerator Industry Plans Record Sales

Further indications that 1934 may be a record-breaking sales year for the electric refrigerator industry were seen yesterday when Leonard Refrigerator Co. announced as the oldest company in the industry, reported fulfillment of an order for 2,345 electric refrigerators, the largest ever received from a single distributor.

The order was received from the Klein Stove Co., Philadelphia, distributor for Leonard in eastern Pennsylvania, according to Godfrey Strelinger, sales manager. It was filled during the last 30 days and 39 freight cars were required to carry the record shipment from the Detroit plant.

Improved business conditions throughout the Philadelphia section of the country and earlier public buying of refrigerators this year are two of the reasons for the unprecedented order, Mr. Strelinger believes. Orders much larger than those received from distributors and dealers at this time last year are coming into Detroit with every mail from all sections of the country, he pointed out.

He expects his company to make its all-time February shipping record before the close of the month. All January shipping records were shattered last month when shipments exceeded by 175 per cent those made in January, 1933, Mr. Strelinger said.

Recently Leonard launched what was described as the largest sales and advertising program in its history, and results from this already are being felt, Mr. Strelinger stated.

Trade Trends.

(Associated Press.)

Cotton goods—Reports from textile selling quarters agree that demand for gray goods has receded substantially from the recent level, but it is pointed out that prices are holding close to the recent maximums.

Naval stores—Prices for gum turpentine and rosins are down from their recent peaks as a result of some increase in receipts and offerings at Southern primary markets.

Paper—Severe weather has tended to restrict buying of some grades of paper during the past week, according to trade reports. Prices are generally unchanged.

Knit goods—Increasing hosiery sales are helping to brighten the general market outlook. Underwear and sweaters also are moving in good volume.

Complete Transactions Yesterday on New York Stock Exchange

(Associated Press.)

Sales—Total today, 2,187,480; previous day, 1,223,130; week ago, 2,346,555; year ago, 1,288,150; two years ago, 879,930; January 1 to date, 109,421,260; year ago, 37,041,615; two years ago, 65,360,812.

Sales in hundreds.	High	Low	Last	Chg.	Bid
A
1 Abr & Strs pf (7)	103	103	103	— 2	101
83 Adams Exp	9½	9	9½	— ¼	9⅛
36 Adams-Millis (1)	28½	27½	28⅝	— ⅛	28⅛
6 Addressog	9⅝	9¼	9¼	— ⅜	9¼
3 Affiliat Prod (.60)	8½	8¼	8⅝	— ¼	8¼
6 Air Reduc (3)	100	99	99	— 1	99
3 Air-Way El Ap	3	2½	2½	— ⅜	2½
59 Alaska Jun (¾b)	20¾	20	20¾	— ⅛	20⅝
48 Alleghany	4⅛	4	4⅛	— ⅛	4⅛
2 Alleg pf xw	9	8⅝	8⅝	— ⅛	8⅝
10 Alleg pf $30 ww	11½	10½	10½	— ½	10½
33 Al Chem & Dye (6)	154⅝	151½	152¼	— 2¼	152
1 Al Chem & Dye pf (7)	124½	124½	124½	— ½	124½
48 Allis-Ch Mfg	19⅝	18⅝	19	— ¾	18¾
1 Alpha-P Cem	15½	15½	15½	— 1¼	15
16 Amerada (2)	48½	47⅜	47½	— ¼	47½
36 Am Ag Ch Del	30¼	28½	28⅝	— 2⅜	28⅝
5 Am Bank Note	19½	18½	19		19
.10 Am Bank N pf (3)	45½	45½	45½		45¼
3 Am Beet Sug	10½	10	10	— 1	10
.40 Am Best S pf	59¾	59	59	— 1	57¼
2 Am Brake Shoe (.60)	33⅞	33⅞	33⅞		33⅞
61 Am Can (4)	103⅝	102	103	+ 1	102¾
9 Am Can pf (7)	139¾	139½	139½	— ½	139
29 Am Car & Fdy	29⅜	28	28½	— 1⅜	28¼
3 Am Car & F pf	50½	50½	50½	— 1½	48¼
2 Am Chain	10¼	10	10		10
1 Am Chicle (3)	50½	50½	50½	— ¼	50
1 Am Colortype	4¾	4¾	4¾		4½
29 Am Coml Alco	49¾	48	49⅝	+ ⅜	49½
5 Am Encaus Til	3⅝	3⅝	3⅝	— ⅛	3⅝
45 Am & For Pow	10	9⅝	9⅞	— ⅛	9⅝
2 Am & F P $6 pf	18½	18⅛	18⅛	— 1¼	18⅛
2 Am F P $7 pf	23⅜	23⅛	23⅜	— 1⅛	23⅜
5 Am-Hawaii S S (1)	20¼	19	19¾	— 1¼	19
1 Am Hide & Lea	8½	8½	8½	— ⅜	8⅜
4 Am Hi & L pf	37¼	36½	36½	— 1⅜	35
2 Am Home Pr (2.40)	34⅝	34	34	— ¼	33½
14 Am Ice	9	8⅝	8⅝	— ⅛	8⅝
40 Am Internat	9¼	8⅞	9	— ⅛	8⅞
1 Am-La Fra & F	1¼	1¼	1¼	— ⅛	1¼
20 Am Loco	35⅝	34½	35	— ⅜	34½
4 Am Loco pf	69	67	67	— 1¾	66½
7 Am M & Fdy (.80)	17	16½	16½	— ⅛	16
4 Am M & Met	7	6⅞	6⅞	— ⅛	6⅞
43 Am Metal	23⅝	22½	23⅝	— ⅛	23¼
1 Am Met 6% pf	89	89	89	— 1	87
1.10 Am News (1½)	29	27	29	+ 1	27
82 Am Pow & Lt	9	8½	8¾	— ⅛	8⅝
3 Am P&L $6 pf (1½)	22½	22	22½	— 1	22½
3 Am P&L $5 pf (1¼)	19½	19	19	— 1	19¼
132 Am Rad & St S	15¼	14½	14½	— ¾	14½
211 Am Roll Mill	25⅝	24¼	25⅛	— ⅜	25
2 Am Safety Raz (3)	46½	46½	46½	— 1½	46¼
8 Am Seating	5⅜	5½	5⅜	— ¼	5⅜
11 Am Ship & Co	1⅝	1½	1½	— ⅛	1½
30 Am Ship Bldg (2)	24	24	24	— ½	23⅝
182 Am Smelt & R	45⅜	43⅝	44¼	— 1⅛	44¼
1 Am Smelt 2 pf	82½	82½	82¼	— 2	80
2 Am Snuff (3¼b)	53⅜	53½	53½	— ½	53¼
26 Am Stl Fdrs	21¾	20⅝	21	— 1⅜	21
6 Am Sugar Ref (2)	55	52	52	— 3¼	52
1 Am Sumat Tob	17½	17½	17½		17
56 Am Tel & Tel (9)	121½	119½	121¼	— ¼	121
3 Am Tob (5)	72½	72½	72½	— 1	71
42 Am Tob B (5)	75¼	73⅝	74	— 1¼	73¾
1 Am Tob pf (6)	119½	119½	119½	—	119½
2 Am Type Fdrs	9⅛	8⅞	8⅞	— ⅛	8
2 Am Type F pf	25	22½	23½		23
93 Am Wat Wks (1)	21½	20⅝	21¼	— ⅛	21¼
1 Am W W 1 pf (6)	72⅛	72⅛	72⅛	— 2⅜	73
13 Amoskeag	14	13⅝	13⅝	— ⅜	13½
8 Am Wool pf (11¾k)	75⅜	73½	73½	— 2	73
.10 Am Wtg P pf	10½	10½	10½	—	10
5 Am Zinc L & S	7⅛	7	7	— ⅛	7⅛
1 Am Zinc L & S pf	45	45	45	— 5½	42
140 Anaconda	15¼	14½	14⅝	— ¾	14⅝
2 Anacon W & C	10	10	10		10
1 Anchor Cap (.60)	20½	20½	20½	— ½	20½
4 Arch-Dan-M (1)	28½	28	28	— ¾	27
1 Armour Del pf (7)	85	85	85	— 1	84¼
67 Arm Ill A	5⅞	5⅝	5⅝	— ¼	5⅝
27 Arm Ill B	3	2¾	2⅞	— ⅛	2¾
52 Arm Ill pf	59¾	57¾	58½	— ¼	58½
2 Arnold Const	6½	6¼	6⅜	— ⅛	6⅜
1.10 Artloom	8⅝	8	8	— ⅛	7⅞
1 Assd App Ind	2⅝	2⅝	2⅝	— ⅛	2½
4 Assd Dry Gds	16⅜	16	16	— ⅝	16
2 Assd D Gd 2 pf	59	59	59	— 1	55½
100 Atch T & S F	66	64½	64½	— 1¼	65
1 Atchison pf (3.30e)	81½	81½	81½	+ ½	82
6 Atl Cst Line	49	48	48	— 1½	47¼
32 Atl Refin (1)	31½	30½	31½	— ¼	31
8 Atlas Pow (½z)	45	44½	44½		44¼
.10 Atlas Pow pf (6)	96	96	96	— 2	93½
1 Atlas Tack	8¼	8¼	8½	— ⅜	8
95 Auburn Auto (2)	53¾	51¾	53½	+ 1¾	53¼
28 Aust Nich	14⅜	13⅜	13⅜	— ⅝	13½
180 Aviation Corp	7⅞	7⅛	7⅜	— 1	7⅜
B
119 Baldwin Loc	13	12½	12¾	— ⅜	12⅝
138 Bald Loc pf	44⅞	44	44	— 3	43
138 Balt & Ohio	30½	28¼	29⅝	— ⅞	29½
9 Balt & O pf	32⅝	32	32	— 1½	32
.10 Bamberger pf (6½)	97¾	97¾	97¾	— 1¼	96
8 Bang & Ar (2½)	44	43	43¼	— ¾	43
1.60 Barker Bros	5	4¾	5	+ ⅛	4½
.20 Barker pf	25	24	24	— 1	19
22 Barnsdall	8¾	8½	8¾	+ ⅛	8⅝
2 Beatrice Cr	15	15	15		14¾
33 Beldings-Hem	13¼	12⅝	12⅝	— ⅝	12⅝
1 Belg N R pf (5.86)	106⅝	106¾	106¾	+ 1½	107
74 Bendix Aviat	19¾	18¾	19	— 1	19
11 Benef Ind Ln (1½)	13½	12⅞	12⅞	— ⅛	12¾
4 Best & Co (4½)	31½	30¾	30¾	— ¼	30¾
131 Bethlehem Stl	45½	43⅞	44⅜	— 1⅛	44¼
3 Bethlehem Stl pf	74¾	73¾	74⅛	— ½	74⅜
.30 Bigelow-San (1g)	14	13¼	13¼	— 1	13¼
15 Blaw-Knox	14	13¼	13¼	— 1	13½
.50 Blumenthal pf	51¾	50	50	— 3½	48
28 Bohn Alum (2)	61¾	60¼	60½	— 1½	60½
38 Borden (1.60)	23¼	22⅝	23	— ¼	23
69 Borg-Warner (¾e)	25¾	23¾	25	— 1⅛	23¾
2 Boston & Me	15¼	15	15	— 1	14
2 Botany C M A	2½	2	2	— ½	2
92 Briggs Mfg (1⅛g)	15¼	14¾	15	— ⅜	15
1 Briggs & Strat (1)	18½	18½	18½	— 1⅛	18½
5 Bristol My (2.10b)	32	31⅞	31⅞	— ⅛	31
5 Bklyn & Qu T	7	7	7	— ⅛	6½
9 Bklyn-Man T	31⅜	31	31	— ⅛	31
3 Bklyn Un Gas (5)	75	75	75	— 2½	73
.10 Brown Shoe pf (5)	120⅛	120⅛	120⅛	+ ⅛	120
3 Brunswick-Bal	8½	8½	8½	—	8¼
3 Bucyrus-Erie	8	7¾	7¾	— ⅜	8
2 Bucy-Erie cvt pf	11½	11¼	11¼	— ¼	10¾
34 Budd Mfg	6⅜	6	6⅛	— ⅛	6
1.80 Budd Mfg pf	33½	32	32¾	— ¾	32½
24 Budd Wheel	4½	4¾	4⅝	— ⅛	4¼
14 Bulliard Co	13	12¼	12¾	— ¼	12⅝
2 Bulova Watch	4¾	4¾	4¾	+ ⅛	4⅝
1 Burns Bros A	3½	3½	3½	— 2	3⅝
2 Burns Bros B cts	1⅞	1⅞	1⅞		1⅞
25 Burr Ad Mach (.40)	16⅝	16⅛	16¼	— ⅝	16⅛
3 Bush Term	3¼	3⅛	3⅛	— ⅛	3
.90 Bush T Bldg pf ctf	13	11	11	— 4½	12
2 Butte & Sup	1⅝	1⅝	1⅝	— ⅛	1⅝
3 Butte Cop & Z	2½	2⅜	2⅜	— ⅛	2⅜
4 Butterick	4	3¾	3¾	— ¼	3¾
16 Byers Co	28½	27	27	— 1¾	27⅛
.10 Byers pf	57¼	57¼	57¼	— 4¾	57¼
C
2 Calif Pack (¼g)	24	23½	23½	— 2¼	24
4 Callahan Z-Ld	1¼	1¼	1¼	—	1⅛
18 Calumet & Hec	5⅛	5	5½	— ¼	5
9 Campbell Wy	14	13½	13¾	— ½	13¼
2 Can D G Ale (1)	25	24½	24½	— ½	24¾
61 Canad Pac	15¾	15¼	15¼	— ⅜	15½
1 Cann Mills (1.15b)	30⅝	30⅜	30⅜	— ¾	30
3 Cap Adm A	8⅝	8½	8½	— ⅛	8½
50 Case (J I)	76	73	74	— 2	73¾
60 Case (J I) pf (4)	79	76¼	76¾	— 2¼	74
35 Caterpil Tract (½)	29⅜	28	28	— 1½	28
69 Celanese	39¾	38½	39⅝	—	39½
3 Celotex	3	3	3	—	2½
.50 Celotex pf	8	8	8	— ¼	8
3 Cent Agulr (1½)	27⅝	27½	27½	— ¼	27¼
4 Century Rib M	11	10½	11	— ⅛	10½
77 Cerro de Pas	35⅝	34	34½	— 1¼	34½
6 Certain-teed	5⅞	5½	5½	— ⅜	5⅜
64 Ches & Ohio (2.80)	43⅝	43	43	— ⅝	43¼
11 Ches Corp (2½)	39⅝	38⅜	38⅞	— ⅛	39
3 Chi & E Ill pf	5⅞	5⅝	5⅝	— ⅛	5¼
113 Chi & N W	13	12⅝	12⅝	— ⅜	12½
18 Chi & N W pf	22¼	21	22¼	— ⅛	21½
2 Chi Gt W pf	9⅝	9⅝	9⅝	— ⅛	9⅝
32 Chi M St P & P	6½	6	6⅜	— ⅛	6⅛
49 Chi M St P & P pf	10⅞	10	10½	— ⅛	10⅜
9 Chi Pneu T	8⅝	8	8½	— ⅛	8
3 Chi Pneu T pf	20	20	20	— 1	19½
10 Chi Rk Is & P	5¼	5	5	— ¼	5
1 C R I & P 6% pf	6½	6½	6½	— 1	6¼
2 C G I & P 7% pf	8	8	8	— ½	7¾
11 Childs Co	9⅞	9¾	9⅞		9¾
.30 Chile Cop	15	15	15	—	14¾
508 Chrysler (1)	56¼	54⅝	55¼	— 1¼	55¼
4 City Ice & F (2)	21¼	21	21	— ¼	21⅛
20 City Strs	1⅜	1⅜	1⅜		1½
2 City Strs ctf	⅞	⅞	⅞		⅞
7.60 Clark Equip (.20g)	16⅜	15⅝	15⅝	— ⅜	15⅝
4 Coca-Cola (6)	107	107	107	— ½	106½
1 Coca-Cola A (3)	51	51	51		50⅝
72 Colgate-Palm	15¾	15⅛	15¾	— ⅛	15½
29 Coll Pk Ark	25¾	24½	25	— 1	25
.40 Col & Sou	37	36½	36⅝	— 2½	35⅞
14 Col Fuel & Ir	7⅜	7	7⅛	— ⅛	7⅛
167 Colum G & El (1g)	15⅜	14¾	15	— ⅛	15
1 Col G & E pf A (6)	75	75	75	— ¾	73½
3 Colum Pict vte	24½	23½	23½	— 1½	23½
17 Colum Carb (2¼b)	66¾	65	66¼	— ¾	65
45 Comi Credit (1)	27	26	27	— ¾	26¾
1 Comi Cred A (3)	44	44	44	—	43¾
.40 Comi Cr 1 pf (6½)	97	96½	96½	— ½	96
2 Comi Cr pf (7¾)	26¼	25¼	25¼	— 1½	25⅞
23 Comi Invest Tr (2)	52	50¾	51¼	— 1½	51¼
202 Comi Solv (.60)	28	26½	27½	— ¾	27½
195 Comwl & Sou	2⅞	2⅝	2⅝	— ⅛	2⅝
8 Com & Sou pf (6)	38	37	38	— ¼	36½
1.30 Congoleum-Na (1½b)	28¾	27¾	28½		28½
1 Congress Cig (1)	12⅞	12⅞	12⅞		11¾
4 Consol Cigar	10½	10¼	10½		10¼
.30 Con Cig pr pf xw (6½)	51	50¼	51		50½
4 Con Film	4⅜	4¼	4⅛	— ¼	4¼
10 Con Film pf (1⅛g)	16	15½	15⅝	— ⅛	15¾
127 Con Gas (3)	40	39	39⅜	— ⅝	39¼
2 Con Gas pf (5)	88⅜	88¾	88¾	— 1¼	87½
3 Con Laundries	3	3	3	— ⅛	2¾
170 Con Oil (2½)	12⅞	12¼	12⅝	— ⅜	12⅝
8 Con R R Cuba pf	5½	5	5	— ⅛	5⅛
50 Con Text	1⅝	1⅝	1⅝	— ⅛	1½
20 Container A	8¾	8⅜	8⅜	— ⅜	8¼
28 Container B	3¾	3⅝	3⅝	— ⅛	3¼
6 Cont Bak A	12½	11⅝	11⅝	— 1¼	11⅝
7 Cont Bak B	1⅞	1⅞	1⅞		1¾
1 Cont Bak pf (4)	60½	60½	60½	— 2	60
42 Cont Can (2½)	77½	76⅝	77¼	— ¾	77¾
2 Cont Diam Fib	9¾	9½	9½	— ⅛	9
5 Cont Ins (1.20)	31	30½	30½	— 1¼	30¼
27 Cont Mot	2¼	2	2	— ⅛	2
99 Cont Oil Del	18⅝	18	18⅜	— ⅛	18½
16 Coty	7	6¾	6¾	— ¼	6½
19 Corn Prod (3)	73	71¾	72½	— ⅜	71¾
21 Cream of Wh (2)	33	32½	32⅝	— ¼	32¾
5 Crosley Rad	12¼	12	12	— ⅛	11¾
1 Crown Cork	30¾	30¾	30¾	— 1¼	30¼
.10 Crown W P (4)	56	56	56	+ 7	50
24 Crown Zeller	5	5	5		4⅞
20 Crucible Steel	33	31½	33		32⅝
1 Crucible Stl pf	61	61	61	— 2	60
8 Cuba Co	2½	2½	2½		2¼
23 Cuban-Am Sug	7¼	6¾	6⅞	— ⅛	6⅝
2 Cudahy Pack (2½)	44	44	44	— 1	44
13 Curtis Pub	20½	18⅝	18⅝	— 1	18½
5 Curtis Pub pf (1¼k)	61½	61	61	— ⅛	61½
108 Curtiss-Wright	4⅛	4⅛	4¼	— ⅛	4⅛
36 Curtiss-Wr A	10⅝	9⅞	10	— ⅛	9⅞
1 Cutler-Ham	18½	18½	18½	— ½	17
D
33 Deere & Co	30½	29	30	— 1	30
6 Deere & Co pf (.20)	14½	14½	14½	— ⅜	14
23 Del & Hud	66	63	63¼	— 3¼	63½
129 Del Lack & W	28⅜	27½	28⅛	— ¼	28
6 Den & Rio G W pf	10	9½	9½	— ⅛	9⅜
2 Detroit Ed (4)	83½	82	82	— 2	81
3 Devoe & Ray A (1½b)	45	45	45	—	45
5 Diamond Match (1)	24⅜	24½	24½	— ¼	24⅜
42 Dome Mines (1¼b)	34½	34¼	34⅜	— ⅛	34⅝
3 Dominion Strs (1.20)	20¼	20	20	—	20
113 Douglas Aire	23½	22	22⅞	— ⅜	22⅝
2 Dresser A	16½	16½	16½	— ⅜	15
5 Dresser B	9⅝	9½	9½	— ⅛	9½
3 Dunhill Int	9½	9	9	— 1	9
3 Duplan Silk (1)	20	20	20	— 1¼	19½
103 Du Pont de N (2)	99⅝	97½	97½	— 1¼	98⅝
E
13 Eastern Roll	10¾	10⅛	10⅛	— ⅝	10⅛
6 Eastman Kod (3)	89½	88¼	89	+ ⅛	88½
69 Eaton Mfg (¾g)	19⅝	18⅝	19⅛	— ½	19
4 Ettinger Sch new	16½	15⅝	15⅝	— ¼	15⅝
19 El & Mus	6¼	6	6	— ¼	6
218 El Auto L	28¼	26⅝	27½	— ½	27½
2.20 El Auto L pf (7)	95	95	95	— 3½	94
19 El Boat	5⅝	5¼	5⅜	— ⅛	5⅜
56 El Pow & Lt	7⅛	6⅝	6⅞	— ⅜	6⅞
6 El P & L $6 pf	14	13	13	— 1½	13
16 El P & L pf	15	15	15	— ⅜	15
2 El Stor Bat (2)	47	47	47	— 1	45¾
8 Elk Horn Coal	1⅜	1½	1½	— ⅛	1¼
7 Elk Horn C pf	3	3	3	—	2½
2.60 End-Johns pf (7)	124½	124½	124½	—	123¾
1 Eng Pub Svc	6½	6¼	6¼	— ⅛	6
4 Eng P S $5 pf	20¼	18½	18½	— 2	16
2 Eng P S pf xw	18¾	18⅝	18⅝	— 1⅜	18
6 Equit Off Bldg (1)	9	9	9	— ¼	9
26 Erie R R	21¼	19⅞	21¼	+ ½	20
8 Erie 1 pf	24½	23¾	24¼	— ⅛	23½
19 Eureka Vac Cl (½)	12¼	11⅝	11⅞	— ¼	11⅞
81 Evans Prod	18¾	18	18⅝	— ¼	18½
1.10 Exchange Buff	6½	6¼	6¼	— ¼	6¼
F
2 Fairbanks Mor	16	15¾	15¾	— ⅝	14½
.10 Fairbanks M pf	55	55	55	— 5
.10 Fed Lt & Trac pf (6)	57½	57½	57½	— ½	57½
1 Fed Screw	4½	4½	4½	— ¼	4
8 Fed Wat Svc A	3	2⅝	2⅝	— ⅛	2⅝
6 Fid P Fire Ins (1.20)	30⅛	30	30½	+ ⅜	30½
.30 Filene's Sons (.90b)	27	27	27		27
22 Firestone T & R (.40)	22¼	21½	21⅜	— ⅝	21⅝
1 Firest T & R pf (6)	78½	78¼	78¼	— ¼	78½
4 Firat Nat Strs (2½)	58½	57½	57½	— 1½	57⅝
4 Follansbee	14½	14	14		13¾
1 Food Mach	14⅝	14⅜	14⅜	— ⅛	14¼
22 Foster Wheel	19⅜	18¼	18½	— 1	18¼
2 Foundation	13½	13¼	13¼	— ⅛	12½
5 Fourth Nat Inv (.48g)	23	24	24⅛	— ⅛	24
21 Fox Film A	14½	14	14	— ¼	14
21 Freeport Tex (2)	47¼	46	46¼	— ¾	46½
10 Fuller pr pf	30	30	30		28
.10 Fuller 2 pf	15	15	15	— 2	11½
G
9 Gabriel A	4	3¾	4		3½
.20 Gamewell	18	17¼	18		17¼
37 Gen Am Inv	10½	10⅛	10½	+ ⅛	10⅝
28 Gen Am Trans (1)	41¾	40	40½	— ¾	40⅜
15 Gen Asphalt	18¼	17⅞	18	— ⅛	18
16 Gen Bak (1)	12½	12½	12½	— ⅛	12½
10 Gen Bronze	8	7⅞	7⅞	— ⅛	7⅞
8 Gen Cable	5¼	5	5	— ¼	4
1 Gen Cable A	10½	10½	10½		8
1 Gen Cigar (4)	33	33	33	— ¾	31¼
.80 Gen Cigar pf (7)	103	103	103	—
304 Gen Elec (.40)	20⅞	20⅛	20½	— ⅜	20½
2 Gen Elec spl (.60)	12⅜	12⅛	12⅜	+ ⅛	12⅛
29 Gen Foods (1.80)	34½	33½	33⅝	— 1	33½
19 Gen G & El A	5⅝	5¼	5¼	— ⅛	5⅛
8 Gen Mills (3)	55¼	54	54½	— 1¼	54
1 Gen Mills pf (6)	103¼	103¼	103¼	— 1	102
500 Gen Mot (1)	38⅛	37¼	37⅜	— ¾	37⅝
1 Gen Mot pf (5)	99½	99½	99¼	+ ⅛	98⅝
16 Gen Pub Svc	4¾	4	4	— ¼	4
15 Gen Ry Sig (1)	40¾	40¼	40¾	+ ¼	39¾
59 G

Steel Operation Gain Continues To 47 Mark

Lack of Large Orders Fails to Halt Drive for 50 Per Cent Level.

Cleveland, Feb. 26.—Though unsupported by further large commitments from leading consumers last week, steel works operations continued on an expanding scale, rising 4 points to 47 per cent, highest since last August, and apparently making a rapid approach to 50 per cent, states the magazine Steel.

While steel makers see an active month ahead in completing shipments for first quarter, a temporary lull in new contracting is anticipated pending final determination of prices and formal opening of books for second quarter.

The tremendous rush of shipments, however, such as ensued last December, when users were given the opportunity to cover first quarter needs a month in advance of price increases, evidently will not be duplicated in March. Instead, steel makers expect a steadier and more consistent upward trend.

Autos Form Bulwark.

Automobile manufacturers have been persistent in efforts to accumulate stocks, but with heavier production ahead, steel makers look to them to be among the first to place important orders for second quarter, to insure early rolling schedules.

Reaffirmation of prices on semi-finished steel, plates, shapes, bars, pipe, wire and some other products is anticipated by some producers, but in sheets and strip the market for second quarter awaits further clarification.

In sheets a new classification, heretofore known as Ford special, has been recognized—designated as hot-rolled, pickled in the breakdown, annealed, deoxidized—with the base price 2.65 cents, Pittsburgh, a reduction of $1 a ton. Withdrawal of the recent $1 a ton reductions on hot-rolled strip at both Pittsburgh and Chicago is reported, with indications that there will be no change for second quarter.

Plans of Ford.

Following recent efforts of General Motors to acquire the Corrigan, McKinney Steel Co. and its affiliate, Newton Steel Co., Ford is reported preparing plans for increasing semifinished and finishing mill capacity.

With recent assurances from Washington that railroads soon will buy the remaining portion of their total rail requirements, which were estimated at £15,000 tons when makers reduced the price to $36.37½, it is understood this price is to be extended from the expiration date March 1 to April 1. The carriers still have about 500,000 tons to order. New York Central will purchase approximately 8,000 tons of rail fastenings with the 40,000 tons of rails on which it opens bids this week. Chesapeake & Ohio has distributed 600 tons of screw spikes.

In sharp contrast with freight car awards in January—officially 152—is the estimate for February, 19,725, exceeding the total for the past three years. A heavier movement of steel products to equipment builders is in immediate prospect. New York, New Haven & Hartford has ordered 50 streamlined, air-conditioned coaches.

Week's Shape Awards.

Structural shape awards for the week, 14,661 tons, were lighter than in the preceding week, but so far this year tonnage is 77 per cent larger than in the comparable period in 1933.

The Army Quartermaster Corps is an important customer, its purchasing program, including steel towers, hangars and equipment, running up to $70,000,000. Coltexo Corporation, Monroe, La., has placed 2,000 tons of spiral welded rust-resisting iron pipe for a 17-mile gas line.

Heavy melting steel scrap has risen 50 cents a ton at Chicago, and at Detroit, Cleveland and Philadelphia the scrap market is up 50 cents to $1. Pig iron shipments continue to increase steadily.

Plants at Birmingham.

Birmingham plants expect to manufacture a substantial portion of a Puerto Rican order for 6,000 tons of cast pipe. A cargo of 6,100 tons of North African manganese ore has arrived at Fairfield, Ala., for the United States Steel Corporation's subsidiary there.

Steelworks operations last week advanced 6 points to 44 per cent at Chicago; 4½ to 47, Buffalo; 2 to 28, Pittsburgh; 2 to 29½, eastern Pennsylvania, and 9 to 54, Youngstown. They remained unchanged at 79, Detroit; 69, Wheeling, and 52 Birmingham, and were down 3 points to 79 in New England, and 2 points to 77, Cleveland.

Steel's iron and steel price composite is off 2 cents to $32.40 on an adjustment in basic iron at Pittsburgh; finished steel remains $51.10, while the scrap figure is up 12 cents to $11.95.

Baltimore Grain Prices.

Baltimore, Feb. 26.—WHEAT—Receipts 1,000 bushels by car. Shipments from elevators, 4,000 bushels. Stock in elevators, 972,692 bushels. Opening prices were: No. 2 red winter garlicky, spot, domestic, 93¾; February delivery, domestic, 93¾; March delivery, domestic, 94½. Receipts of wheat running light and demand is fairly good here for No. 2 red winter garlicky. Off grades hard to sell.

CORN—Receipts, 1,250 bushels by car. Shipments from elevators, 187 bushels. Stock in elevators, 9,448 bushels. Receipts of corn from the nearby sections have recently been running freer. For yellow and high-colored mixed there is a fair domestic demand. Con corn quoted at 2.75@3.00 per bushel for carloads prime nearby yellow on spot. Offerings more than ample for present needs. No. 2 yellow corn (old) arriving here, no quoted at 65@66 per bushel with transit billing.

OATS—Shipments from elevators, 229 bushels. Stock in elevators 50,360 bushels. Receipts of corn showing considerable variation in weight, being mostly light. Demand fair in a jobbing way. Good heavyweight oats are relatively scarce and such command a good premium. No. 2 white oats, 46@52 per bushel, as to weight and position.

—On all sales of oats to the local trade, excepting those on track, there is an additional charge of 1¼ cents per bushel for storage and elevator, which is paid by the buyer.

RYE—Receipts, 3,700 bushels by car. Shipments from elevators, 3,897 bushels. Stock in elevators, 41,983 bushels.

HAY—General hay market is quiet. No surplus of good timothy. Prices range from $11 to $14 per ton, as to grade and quality. The poorer grades of hay are hard to sell at any price. Market irregular on everything below 1 timothy.

(Associated Press.)

Total stock sales today, 361,000 shares. Year ago, 160,034 shares. Total bond sales today, $4,600,000. Year ago, $3,246,000.

Sales in hundreds.	High	Low	Close
A
1.75 Adams Mil 1 pf (7)	96¾	94	94
1 Ainsworth (⅛e)	13¾	13¾	13¾
.50 Ala Gt Sou (2e)	52½	52	52
4 Allied Mills	8½	8½	8½
6 Algoma Cons pf	⅝	⅝	⅝
7.50 Alum Co Am	72½	69	69
1 Alum Co pf (1½)	68¾	68¾	68¾
1 †Am Beverage	2⅝	2⅝	2⅝
1 Am Capital A (5½)	2	2	2
.50 Am Cap pr pf	63	63	63
21 Am Cit P&LA (3h)	32½	32½	32½
33 †AmCitP&LB (15e)	3½	3½	3½
81 Am Cyan B (¼g)	18½	17¼	17⅝
.25 AmDistTNJ cv pf(7)	107	107	107
6 Am & Fgn Pw war	6¼	6¼	6¼
10 Am Founders	1	⅞	⅞
56 Am Gas&El (1a)	27½	22⅝	26
1 Am G&E pf (6)	82	82	82
1 Am Invest	3⅝	3⅝	3⅝
4 Am Laun Mch (.40)	13⅝	13⅝	13⅝
9 Am LL&T (1.60)	16⅝	16⅝	16⅝
1 Am Maracaibo	1⅛	1	1
82 Am Sup Power	3½	3¼	3⅜
1 Anch Post F	1⅝	1⅝	1⅝
7 †Arctur Rad Tube	1	⅞	1
3 Ark Nat Gas	2	2	2
10 Ark Nat Gas A	1⅞	1¾	1⅞
22 Armstrong Ck	24⅝	23⅞	24¼
2 †Art Met Wks	2½	2¼	2¼
1 As El Ind (.092e)	4¾	4¾	4¾
2 As G&E	1⅜	1⅜	1⅜
12 †As G&El A	1⅝	1½	1½
2 As G&E war	3-32	3-32	3-32
2 †As Rayon	3½	3½	3½
2 As Tel Ut	⅜	⅜	⅜
36 Atlas Corp	13	12⅝	12⅝
3 Atlas Corp pf A(3)	44	43¼	44
10 Atlas Corp war	5⅜	4¾	4⅞
2 Atlas Ply	6¾	6⅝	6⅝
1 †Auto V Mach	4⅛	4⅛	4⅛
2 †Bellanca Aire	5¼	5¼	5¼
B
2 Bliss E W	7	6½	7
2 †Blue Ridge	2¾	2½	2½
5 †Blue Rid cv pf(3h)	35	34¼	35
1 †Bourjois (⅛e)	2½	2½	2½
1 Bower Roll B (⅛g)	14¼	14¼	14¼
1 Braz T & L	12⅞	12⅞	12⅞
2 Br Am Oil cou (.80)	14	14	14
1 Br Am Oil B(.3462g)	30	30	30
1 Brit Celan	3½	3½	3½
14 †Brown F Dist	15½	14¾	15½
.50 Buckeye P L (3)	37½	37½	37½
3 Buf N&EP pf(1.60)	16½	16¼	16¼
.75 Bunk Hill & S	55⅝	54¾	54¾
2 Burco War	3⅝	3⅝	3⅝
42 Butler Bros	11⅛	10⅝	10⅞
1 †Bwana M'Kubwa	1⅛	1⅛	1⅛
C
5 Can Ind Alc A	15¾	15½	15½
1 Can Ind Alc B	14¾	14¾	14¾
237 Can Marc Wire	3¾	3	3¼
6 Carib Syn	2⅞	2¾	2⅞
1 Carnation (½g)	14	14	14
12 Carrier Corp	7	6⅝	6⅝
1 Cen Hud G&E (.80)	12	12	12
21 Cen St Oil Ky (1)	1⅞	1⅞	1⅞
1 †Centrif Pi (.40)	5⅝	5⅝	5⅝
2 Chief Consol	1¼	1¼	1¼
1 Chicago C cv pf(1)	28½	28½	28½
1.10 Childs pf	37	34	35
144 Cities Service	3¼	3	3¼
2 Cit Serv pf	20½	20¼	20¼
2 City Auto Stpg	9	9	9
1 Claude Neon Lts	1	1	1
1 Cleve El Ill (2)	27½	27½	27½
6 †Cleve Tract	5¼	4¾	4¾
2 †Colon Oil	2½	2½	2½
69 Colts Pat Fire(1½b)	24	24	24
1.25 Colum G&E pf (5)	90½	90	90
2 Colum O & G vtc	1¼	1¼	1¼
38 Comwlth & So war	⅜	⅜	⅜
.25 Comm P & L (1)	9½	9½	9½
9 †Compo Sh M (½)	13	13	13
11 †Con Aire	11¾	11¼	11½
.25 Cons ChemInd(1½)	25	25	25
2 Cons Cop Min	1⅛	1⅛	1⅛
3 ConsG&EBal (3.60)	62¼	60	60¼
.30 ConG&E Bal pf (5)	102	101	101
5 †Con Ret Strs	2¼	2	2¼
1 †Coop-Bess pf ww	20	20	20
21 Cord Corp (¼e)	6⅞	6⅝	6⅞
2 †Corroon & Rey	3¼	3¼	3¼
1 †Cosden Oil Me	2¼	2¼	2¼
9 Creole Pet	11⅛	11⅛	11⅛
40 †Cresson Gold (.12)	1¾	1¾	1¾
4 Crocker Wh	7¼	6⅞	6⅞
2 †Crown C Pet	1¼	1¼	1¼
4 Crown C Intl A(½k)	7¼	6⅞	7
38 †Cusi Mex	1⅞	1⅞	1¾
D
1 Darby Pet (¼g)	6¼	6¼	6¼
1 †Derby Oil	2	2	2
1 Detroit Aircraft	¾	¾	¾
10 Dist Co Ltd (.27g)	21⅞	21¾	21¾
14 Dist Corp Seagr	20⅛	19⅝	19¾
1 †Doehler D Cast	7	7	7
6 Dow Chem (2)	70¼	70	70
.10 Dow Chem pf (7)	108	108	108
8 †Driver-Harris	17	15¾	17
2 Duval Tex	5⅞	5⅝	5⅝
E
4 East Gas & F (.15e)	9¼	9¼	9¼
3 East Sta Pow	1¾	1¾	1¾
1 East Util Ass (1)	19½	19½	19½
3 East Ut Asso cv	3⅞	3⅝	3⅝
330 El Bond & Sh	17½	16	16½
12 El Bond & h pf (6)	51½	50	50
6 El Bo & Sh 5 pf(5)	48½	44½	44½
3 El Pow As (.40)	6½	6½	6½
1 El P&Lt pf ww	3½	3½	3½
.25 Emp G & F	22	22	22
.50 Emp G & F pf	23½	23½	23½
7 †Equity Corp	2	1¾	2
1 †Europ El deb rts	⅛	⅛	⅛
18 †Ex-cello A & T	7⅞	7⅞	7¾
F
2 †Fairchild Av A	6⅝	6½	6½
8 †Falcon Lead	⅛	⅛	⅛
1 †Ferro Enam (.40)	11¾	11¾	11¾
1 †Fidelio Brew	1⅞	1⅞	1⅞
47 Fisk Rub	16⅞	16⅛	16¾
47 Fisk Rub	16⅞	16⅛	16¾
1 Fla P&L 5 ½ pf	86	85½	85¼
4 Fla P 5½ '79A	70¾	70½	70¾
G
22 Gary E&G 5 '34A	47½	46	46½
10 Gatin P 5 '56	88¼	88	88¼
4 Gatin P 6 '41	85	84⅜	84⅞
3 Gen Bronze 6 '40	75	75	75
5 Gen Pub Ut 6½ '56	37	35½	35½
1 Gen Refrac 6 '38ww	130	130	130
3 Gen W Wk 5 '43A	55½	54	54¾
18 Geo Pow 5 '67	77	76	76
1 Geo P&L 5 '78	56½	59½	59½
5 Gillette S 4 '40	99¾	99¾	99¾
20 Glen Ald Coal 4 '65	70½	69½	69½
30 Glidden Co 5½ '35	99⅞	99⅞	99⅞
2 †Gobel 6½ '35	80⅝	80	80
1 Godchaux S 7½ '41	101⅞	101⅞	101⅞
8 Grand (FW) 6'48ctfs	23¼	22⅞	22⅞
1 Grand Trunk 4 '50	79	79	79
2 Great Nor P 5 '35	99½	99½	99½
1 †Guar Inv 5 '48A	41¼	41¼	41¼
7 Gulf Oil Pa 5 '47	103¾	103½	103½
22 Gulf Oil Pa 5 '37	104	103½	103½
4 Gulf St Ut 5 '56A	80½	80½	80½
H
2 Hacken Wat 5 '77A	102	102	102
11 Hall Pr 5½ '47A	76	73½	73½
5 Hous Gulf G 6½ '43	40	40	40

Sales in hundreds.	High	Low	Close
2 †No West Eng	6½	6½	6½
1 †Novadel-Ag (7b)	65	65	65
O
7 †Ohio Cop	⅛	⅛	⅛
1 †Oilstock (.20g)	9¾	9¾	9¾
1 Outbrd Mot A	2⅞	2⅞	2⅞
1 Outbrd Mot B	1¼	1¼	1¼
P
4 †Pac Eastern	2⅜	2⅜	2⅜
1 Pac G&E 5½pf(1⅜)	19⅝	19⅝	19⅝
.75 Pac Lighting pf (6)	82¼	82½	82½
1 †Pac Tin spec (4e)	20	20	20
2 †Pan-Am Airways	38½	37½	37½
11 †Pantepec Oil	1½	1½	1½
2 Parke, Davis (1.10b)	24¾	24½	24½
5.50 Park Rust-Pr (3)	66¾	63	65
33 Pennroad	3½	3¼	3¼
.30 Pepperell (6)	97	95	95
1 Phila Co (.70)	11	11	11
1 †Phoenix Sec	1½	1½	1½
1 †Phoen Sec pf	24	24	24
8 Pie Baking vtc	12½	12¼	12¼
21 †Pioneer Gold (.60)	11½	11⅜	11⅜
5 Pitney-Bowes (.05g)	4¼	4	4
.50 Pitts Lake E (2½)	69	69	69
11 Pitts Pl Gl (1)	49⅝	49	49
1 †Potrero Sugar	2	2	2
1 Pow Corp Can	14½	14	14
5 Premier Gld (.12)	1⅝	1¼	1⅜
3 Prod Roy	⅜	⅜	⅜
.50 Prentice H P cv(3)	22½	22½	22½
1 †Propper McCall	1⅞	1⅞	1⅞
3 †Pruden Inv	7	7	7
1 Pug Sd P 6 pf	10¾	10¼	10¼
R
2 Railroad Sh	⅝	⅝	⅝
2 †Reliable Strs	3	3	3
4 Relian Intl A	3	3	3
1 Reybarn Inc	2	2	2
1 Reynolds R Inv	¾	¾	¾
23 Rich Oil pf	2⅞	2⅜	2⅜
1 Ryan Cons	2¼	2⅛	2⅛
S
1.25 Safety Car H&L(3e)	67½	64½	64½
50 †St Anth Gold	⅜	⅜	⅜
13 St Regis Pap	3⅝	3⅝	3⅝
1.10 St Regis Pap pf	41½	41¼	41¼
2 Salt Cr Con	⅛	⅛	⅛
1 Salt Cr Prod (.80)	6⅞	6⅝	6⅝
1 Schulte R Est	⅛	⅛	⅛
3.50 Scovill Mfg (1)	26½	25½	25½
1 Sec Corp Gen	3¼	3¼	3¼
1 †Seeman Bros (2½)	41½	41½	41½
1 Segal Lock	⅞	⅞	⅞
1 Seiberling Rub	4¼	4¼	4¼
1 Selby Shoe (1.60)	20	20	20
6 †Selected Indus	2¼	2¼	2¼
3 †Seton Leather	8½	8	8
3 †Shattuck Denn	2½	2½	2½
14.25 Sherwin-Wms (2)	64	63	63
10 Silver King C (.60)	11¼	11	11
.20 Singer Mfg (6)	160	157	157
6 †Smith A O	38	35¼	36
3 †Sonotone	4	3⅞	4
27 So Am G&P Pl(.10e)	4⅝	4¼	4½
7 †So Penn Oil (1.20)	21½	21½	21½
2 †So Cal Ed A pf(1⅜)	24¾	24½	24½
5 SoC Ed B pf(1½)	21¾	21½	21½
4 †So C Ed C pf(1⅜)	19⅞	19¾	19¾
3 †So Nat Gas	⅝	⅝	⅝
2 †Southland Roy(.20)	5⅝	5½	5½
1 †Span & Gen	1	1	1
1 †Spice MS pf (4⅞k)	73¼	73	73¼
1 †Stand Brew Scran	1¼	1¼	1¼
2 †Stand Inv pf	21	20¾	21
72 St Oil Ind (1)	30⅝	30¼	30⅝
22 St Oil Ky (1)	16⅝	16	16⅝
2.50 St Oil Ohio	25	24⅜	24⅝
25 †Stand Sil-Lead	½	½	½
4 †Starrett	1	1	1
3 †Starrett pf	2¼	2	2
1 †Stl CoCan Ltd(1.20)	36½	36½	36½
.25 †Stein & Co (¼g)	10	10	10
1 †Stinnes Hugo	1⅞	1⅞	1⅞
4 †Stutz Mot Am	7½	6½	7¼
10 †Sunray Oil	1¾	1¾	1¾
20 Swift & Co (½)	17	16½	16⅝
4 Swift Int (2)	25½	25	25½
1 †Swiss-Am El pf	46	46	46
T
2 Tampa El (2.24)	27	27	27
6 Tastyeast A	¾	¾	¾
8 Technicolor	9½	9¼	9¼
16 †Teck Hugh G (.60)	5⅞	5¾	5¾
3 †Texon Oil (.60)	9	8⅝	8⅝
9 †Transcont Air	3¼	3	3
6 †Trans-Lux (.10g)	2¼	2¼	2¼
2 †Tri-Cont war	2	1⅞	2
1 Tubize Chat	12½	12½	12½
5 †Tung-Sol Lamp	6½	6¼	6¼
U
1 Union Gas Canada	4¼	4¼	4¼
6 Union Tob	⅞	⅞	⅞
1 Unit Aire war	9½	9½	9½
1 Unit Corp war	2⅜	2⅜	2⅜
8 †Unit Dry Docks	1⅝	1⅝	1⅝
9 Unit Founders	2¾	2⅝	2⅝
27 United Gas	2⅝	2⅝	2⅝
5 Unit Gas war	⅛	⅛	⅛
1 Unit Gas pf	29	28	28
7 Un Lt & Pow A	3⅞	3¾	3⅞
12 Un Lt & P cv pf	15½	15¼	15¼
31 Un Molasses Ltd	5¾	5⅝	5¾
3 †Un Prof Sh	2¼	2⅛	2⅛
.50 Unit Shoe M (5b)	65½	64	64
2 U S Dairy B	1⅛	1	1⅛
11 U S Elec Pow	⅝	⅝	⅝
64 U S Elec Pow war	⅛	⅛	⅛
4 U S Foil B (½)	9⅜	9	9
2 †U S Lines pf	1	¾	¾
1 Unit Stores vtc	¾	¾	¾
20 Unit Verde (1)	4⅝	4¼	4½
1 Utah Apex M	1¾	1¾	1¾
2 Unit Wall Pap	2¾	2¾	2¾
11 †Utility Equities	3¼	2¾	3
1.25 Util Equit pf (3½)	50	50	50
16 Util Power & Lt	1⅝	1½	1⅝
1 Util & Ind pf	4	4	4
V
1 †Venezuel Pet	11	11	11
2 Vogt Mfg	8½	8⅜	8⅜
W
10 Waco Aircraft	16	15¼	15¾
37 †Wenden Cop	¼	¼	¼
3 †West Va C & C	2	1¾	1¾
1 West Air Exp	9⅞	9⅞	9⅞
25 Wright Harg (.25b)	7¼	7⅛	7⅛
.10 Youngst S&T 5½pf	53½	53½	53½
3 †Yukon Gold	½	½	½

DOMESTIC BONDS.

A
3 Ala Pow 5 '46	82½	82¼	82½
7 Ala Pow 4½ '67	64	63	63
2 Alumin Co 5 '52	100¼	100	100
3 Alumin Ltd 5 '48	88¼	88¼	88¼
5 Am Cmwl P 6 '40	13½	13¼	13¼
9 Am El Pr 5'7A	15½	15	15
8 Am G & E 5 2028	83½	82½	82½
2 Am G & P 6 '39	28	27¾	27¾
24 Am G & P 5 '53	25½	24½	24½
27 Am P & L 6 2016	59	56½	56½
10 Am Rad 4½ '71	103	102¼	103
15 Am Roll M 5 '48	87⅝	86¾	87
41 Am Roll M 4½ '33	111	109	109
40 Appal El Pw 5 '56	93½	91½	93
16 Ark P & L 5 '56	72	71	71
28 As Elec 4½ '53	37	36½	36½
1 As G&E 5½ '38 IC	25¾	25¾	25¾
36 As G & E 5 '50	21	20½	20¼
1 As G & E 5½ '77	27	27	27
18 As G & E 5 '68	20¼	19	19¾
31 As G & E 4½ '49C	19	18¼	18⅞
2 As Rayon 5 '50	70¼	70¼	70¼
11 As Tel Ut 5½ '44	18	17¼	18
10 As T U 5½ '44 ctf	16½	16	16
4 As T&T 5½ '55 A	54	52¼	52½
1 Atlas Plyw 5½ '43	69	69	69
B
26 Baldw Loc 6 '38 ww	121	119¾	120
35 Baldw Los 6 '38 xw	88	87	87½
4 Baden C M7 '51 n l	50	50	50
12 Bell T Can 5 '55 A	104½	104	104⅛
2 Bell T Can 5 '57 B	103⅞	103¾	103¾
4 Bell T Can 5 '60 C	104⅛	104⅛	104⅛
8 Birm El 4½ '68	68	66½	66½
7 Birming Gas 5 '59	54½	54⅛	54⅛
2 Bost Con Gas 5½ '50	105	105	105
2 Broad Riv P 5 '54	50	49	49
C
6 Can N Ry Eq 7 '35	102⅞	102⅞	102⅞
33 Can Pac 6 '42	111	108⅞	109⅛
18 Cans P & L 6 '56	101⅝	101	101⅛
1 Caterp Tr 5 '35	100	100	100
8 Cedar R Mfg 5 '53	105⅞	105⅞	105⅞
7 Cen Ariz L&P 5 '60	88¼	88	88
3 Cen Ill PS 5 '56E	66⅜	65¼	66⅜
1 Cen Ill P S 5 '56D	91	91	91
24 Cen Ill PS 4½ '67F	61¼	57	57½
1 Cen Me 4½ '57 E	88¾	88¾	88¾
30 Cen P&L 5 '56	57	54½	54½
3 Cen Pow 5 '57 D	59¾	58	58
19 Cen St El 4½ '34	39⅞	38	37¼
15 Cen St El 5 '48	37	36½	36¾
15 Cen St P&L 5½ '53	47	45½	45¾
5 Chi Dist E 4½ '70	79¼	79	79
5 Chi Dist E 5½ '35	89	89	89
2 Chi Ry cv 5 '27	50	50	50
2 Cin St Ry 5½ '52	59½	59½	59½
6 Cities Ser 5 '66	47¼	46¾	46¾
112 Cities Ser 5 '50	45½	44	45½
10 Cit S Gas 5½ '42	61½	61¼	61¼
10 Cit S Pipe 5 '48	74	73	74
17 Cit S P&L 5½ '49	43	42	42
4 Cit S Pow 5½ '52	42¾	41½	41½
1 Clev E Ill 5 '39	106¼	106¼	106¼
5 Clev E Ill 5 '54 A	108	108	108
6 Comwl Ed 5 '53 A	103¼	103	103
7 Comwl Ed 4½ '56C	95	95	95
39 Comwl Ed 4 '81 F	86	85½	85¾
4 Comwl Ed 5½ '62G	103	102¾	102¾
7 Comwl S 5½ '48 A	77	75	75
14 CommunPS 5 '57	48	47	47½
5 Conn Riv P 5 '52	101½	100⅞	100⅞
1 Con GEL&P 4½ '35	102⅜	102⅜	102⅜
7 Con GEL Ba 4 '81	100	100	100
8 Con Gas Ut 6 '43	45	44	44
2 Consum P 5 '36	104	104	104
5 Consum P 4½ '58	102	101¾	101¾
43 Cont G&E 5 '58A	50¾	48½	49½
7 Crane Co	92	91	91
25 Crucible St 5 '40	88	86	86
10 Cudahy P 5½ '37	102	102	102
1 Cum CP&L 4½ '56	87	87	87
D
6 Del El Pow 5½ '59	82½	82	82
5 Denver G&E 5 '49	102	102	102
2 Det C Gas 6 '47A	96	96	96
6 Det C Gas 5 '50B	88½	88½	88½
5 Det Int Br 7 '52	1⅜	1⅜	1⅜
3 Det Int Br 7 '52ctfs	1½	1¼	1½
E
1 Ed El Ill 5 '35	102⅜	102⅜	102⅜
35 Elec P&L 5 2030	40¼	39	39½
17 Empire Dis E 5 '52	64¾	62¾	63
20 Emp O&R 5½ '42	63¼	61	61⅞
F
19 Fairb Morse 5 '42	83¾	83	83
22 Fed Water 5½ '54	34	31½	32½
14 Fstone Cot M 5 '48	95¼	95	95
8 Fstone Tire 5 '42	97¾	97½	97½
37 Fla P&L 5 '54	64	62¾	63½
4 Fla P 5½ '79A	70¾	70½	70¾
G
26 Gen Pub Ut 5 '57	35½	35	35½
1 Gen Rayon 6 '48	100	100	100
4 Wash Gas Lt 5 '58	89½	89¼	89½
W
4 Wash Wat P 5 '60	91	90	90
8 West New Del 6 '44	40	40	40
1 West Pa 5 2030	65¼	65¼	65¼
39 West Tex Ut 5 '57A	60½	57¾	58½
7 W Un G&E5½ '55A	84	84	84
1 Wisc El P 5 '54 A	101½	101½	101½
3 Wis Min L&P 5 '44	81½	81½	81½
1 Wisc P&L 5 '56 E	75¼	75¼	75¼
1 Wisc P&L 5 '58 F	73	73	73
FOREIGN BONDS.
2 Agri MtgBk7 '34-46	25	25	25
2 Agri MtgBk7 '34-47	26½	25	25½
4 Baden C Mun 7 '51	50	50	50
1 Buen AirePr7½ '47	45½	45½	45½
28 Cauca Val 7 '48	15	13¼	14
4 Cent Bk Ger 6 '52A	60	60	60
2 Cent Bk Ger 6 '51B	60½	60½	60½
4 †Cent GerPow 6 '34	53¾	53¼	53⅜
1 Chile Mtg Bk 6 '31	12½	12½	12½
9 Com Pvt Bk 5½ '37	60	59¾	60
7 Ercole ME16½ '53A	82	82	82
9 Fin Ind Bk 7 '44	97	95½	97
3 Fin R M Bk 6 '61	79	79	79
23 Ger C Mun 7 '47	53½	53½	53¼
8

Wool Futures Price Drops at Close of Week

Trading Activity Improves; Boston Prices Steady; Uptrend Noted.

New York, Feb. 26.—Prices of wool top futures, after advancing to a new high early in the week, later declined and at the close on Friday were up one to off two points from the close of the previous week. Trading was much more active than it has been for some time due, for the most part, to liquidation of the nearby months and buying of the more distant contracts. The Boston spot price of the exchange standard top held steady at 112.5 cents. Business in that market continues to be very quiet.

Futures in foreign markets were easier. Prices at Antwerp were off seven-eighths to one and one-eighth pennies from the close of a week ago while at Roubaix they registered a decline of 60 to 70 centimes. Bradford spot quotations were unchanged to off one penny on the higher grades of top, and down three-quarters to a full penny on the lower grades.

Following is a summary of quotations on the New York Wool Top Exchange for the week ending Friday:

Month.	Opening Feb. 17.	High For week.	Close Feb. 23.
February	106.50	.....	.....
March	107.00	109.0	107.0	106.3
April	107.50	.....	.....	106.8
May	108.00	109.6	107.2	107.3
June	108.50	.....	107.7	107.8
July	109.00	.....	.....	108.3
August	109.40	.....	110.3	108.8
September	109.80	.....	110.6	109.2
October	110.50	.....	111.5	109.5
November	110.80	.....	.....	109.8
December	111.50	.....	112.4	110.1
January	110.60	.....	.....	110.4

Boston spots: February 16, 112.5; February 23, 112.5.

Commodities Climb to New Highs in Week

New York, Feb. 26.—The Daily Commodity Index, compiled by Dun & Bradstreet, Inc., again touched a new high level for the current year during the past week. On February 17 the index reached 109.16, the highest since July 18, 1933. On February 21 it stood at 108.58, compared with 108.82 on the same day of the preceeding week and 68.74 for the corresponding day of last year. The latest index now shows a rise of 7.0 per cent since the beginning of this year, and is only 4.4 per cent below last year's high.

The following table presents the Dun & Bradstreet Daily Weighted Index of 30 basic commodities, compiled from quotations furnished by the United Press, since January 1, 1934, and the corresponding periods of the preceeding year. (1930-1932 equals 100):

1934		1933
Feb. 22	Holiday	Feb. 23	68.74
Feb. 21	108.58	Feb. 22	Holiday
Feb. 20	108.43	Feb. 21	68.98
Feb. 19	108.53	Feb. 20	68.85
Feb. 17	108.80	Feb. 18	68.90
Feb. 16	109.08	Feb. 17	68.92
Feb. 15	109.00	Feb. 16	68.65
Feb. 14	108.97	Fez. 15	68.83
Feb. 13	109.09	Feb. 14	68.99
Feb. 12	Holiday	Feb. 13	Holiday
Feb. 10	108.82	Feb. 11	69.50
Feb. 9	108.33	Feb. 10	69.53
Feb. 8	108.78	Feb. 9	69.76
Feb. 7	107.66	Feb. 8	70.13
Feb. 6	107.71	Feb. 7	68.94
Feb. 5	107.24	Feb. 6	68.52
Feb. 4	107.17	Feb. 5	68.00
Feb. 2	106.62	Feb. 3	67.91
Feb. 1	106.28	Feb. 2	68.37
Jan. 31	105.92	Feb. 1	68.11
Jan. 30	105.22	Jan. 31	68.48
Jan. 29	105.59	Jan. 30	68.54
Jan. 27	104.88	Jan. 28	69.04
Jan. 26	104.45	Jan. 27	69.23
Jan. 25	104.23	Jan. 26	69.28
Jan. 24	25 69.34	Jan. 25	69.14
Jan. 23	104.59	Jan. 24	69.25
Jan. 22	104.47	Jan. 23	69.34
Jan. 20	104.79	Jan. 21	68.85
Jan. 19	104.87	Jan. 20	67.86
Jan. 18	104.01	Jan. 19	68.44
Jan. 17	104.18	Jan. 18	68.33
Jan. 16	104.27	Jan. 17	69.68
Jan. 15	104.48	Jan. 16	69.14
Jan. 13	102.53	Jan. 14	69.46
Jan. 12	102.49	Jan. 13	69.76
Jan. 11	102.48	Jan. 12	71.11
Jan. 10	102.66	Jan. 11	71.27
Jan. 9	102.46	Jan. 10	71.30
Jan. 8	102.09	Jan. 9	71.02
Jan. 6	102.00	Jan. 7	70.76
Jan. 5	101.79	Jan. 6	70.62
Jan. 4	101.49	Jan. 5	70.40
Jan. 3	101.05	Jan. 4	70.14
Jan. 2	101.50	Jan. 3	70.17
Jan. 1	Holiday	Jan. 2	Holiday
High		Low
1934..	109.16	Feb. 17	101.05	Jan. 3
1933..	113.52	July 18	67.86	Jan. 20
1932..	84.41	Jan. 7	69.55	Dec. 24

Bank Stocks Lose New High Advance

New York, Feb. 26.—New York City bank stocks rose to a new 1934 high on February 19, the aggregate value of the sixteen leading issues, according to records compiled by Hoit, Rose & Troster, amounting to $1,652,960,000.

At the close of the week, however, the aggregate value of the sixteen stocks declined to $1,572,139,000, compared with $1,615,993,000 at the close of the previous week, a decrease of $43,854,000 or 2.71 per cent, and a decline from the 1934 high of $80,821,000, or 4.89 per cent.

The current average yield of the sixteen issues of 5.09 per cent compares with a yield of 4.95 per cent at the close of the previous week and 4.84 per cent on February 19. The current market value is now 1.32 times their known book value against 1.36 times on February 14 and 1.39 on February 19. Based upon current figures the sixteen issues are now quoted at an average of 11.9 times their known earnings against 12.3 times on February 16 and 12.5 times on February 19.

Business Volume Gains.

Chicago, Feb. 26 (AP).—United States Gypsum Co. officials said the volume of business in January and to date in February was larger than for the same period of 1933.

WE SPECIALIZE in installation and service of AUTOMOBILE RADIOS

Washington Battery Co.

1146 19th Nat. 4128

Minute Movies — By Ed Wheelan

-:- Radio Waves and Ripples -:-

"SO you're a radio editor. Oh, I am so sorry, you just missed Joe Penner, Margaret and I were listening to him while you and John were out in the kitchen mixing these—what do you call them John? I simply can't remember names. Bombay Bombshells? Well, I certainly hope they don't make you want to sleep in the coal bin like they did over at Emma and Lou's the other night, Emma and Lou's, listen to me, I must have been thinking of that radio program. I mean . . . Now John, you know you simply insisted upon it. We simply had to drag you back up the cellar stairs.

"You know, I never miss Joe Penner. He is so perfectly funny, the way he laughs and when he says 'you nathty man' I simply die. John can imitate him absolutely perfectly. Imitate him, John, just once, go on. John, imitate Joe Penner . . . Now, John, I certainly did not say you were drunk, I merely said when you've had a few of these you become so willful.

"How do you suppose Joe Penner thinks up all those simply excruciating things? Like tonight when Monk says . . . Oh, I do wish I could remember things like that. Well, anyway, Joe comes right back with something or other, I suppose you would have called it a pun and probably wouldn't have liked it at all. But I thought it was too killing. It was the way he said it.

"NOW John, you needn't grin in that superior sort of way when I can't remember things. You know I haven't a mind for details like that, but it's just as good as yours in lots of ways. You should have gone to that lecture with me at the Masonic Temple the other day when that professor so-and-so from Yale, or maybe it was Columbia, was lecturing. Oh, you did? Well, then, you must have heard him say that women have as good minds as men only they haven't been given the same opportunities.

"Now John do you think you really ought to have another bombshell they're frightfullly strong you know and whatever you do don't set the shaker on that table it belongs to mother and I wouldn't have anything happen to it for the world it's practically the only decent piece of furniture we have left in the house what with your friends leaving cigarettes and drinks all around. Oh Margaret and your new dress too John you are so careless and I suppose you are practically blind by this time run into the kitchen and bring me that cloth from behind the stove and a towel for Margaret's dress.

"John, don't you dare go near that basement stair. John, do you hear me?"

• • • •

Whitecaps.

WRC—An illustration of ancient Indian instruments and Indian melodies, Satyen Ghose, guest on the Woman's Radio Review program, 3:30 p. m.; Gen. Johnson addressing coed authorities conference, 10:30 p. m.

WMAL—NRA Code Authority conferences, 2 p. m.; sixty-fourth annual convention of the department of superintendence of the National Education Association, speakers including Henry Lester Smith, of Indiana, and Leonard V. Koos, of Chicago, 6 p. m.; Eddie Duchin's orchestra, 9:30 p. m.

WJSV—"I Wanna Be Loved" and "I'm Yours," by Ruth Etting, Johnny Green's orchestra, 9:15 p. m.; "St. Louis Blues," an original dramatic sketch by Irving Reis, C. B. S. engineer, presented by the Dramatic Guild, 9:30 p. m.; Col. Stoopnagle's version of the story of "The Three Bears," 10 p. m.

• • • •

For sheer intricacy, there's probably been nothing in radio to equal Columbia and National's broadcast of King Albert's funeral.

Three languages were involved—French, Flemish and English—and the combined resources of the Columbia network, the British Broadcasting Corporation and the Belgian Administration de Poste, Telefone et Telegraf.

Cesar Saerchinger, Columbia's European representative, was stationed in the B. B. C. studios in London surrounded by maps of the funeral route, historical data and descriptions of the buildings and locations involved bulwarked by his own memory of frequently visited scenes. He stood at the microphone wearing earphones linked with Brussels by direct wire through which he heard on-the-scene descriptions in Belgian and French. These he translated during pauses, and added data of his own.

The combined output was sent over the wires of the British General Postoffice to Rugby for short-wave transmission across the Atlantic to the American Telephone & Telegraph Co.'s receiver at Lawrenceville, N. J., whence it was sent by direct wire to New York for distribution to Columbia and National chains.

"Personality Pointers" are yours for tuning in Ruth Anne Davis on The Post's broadcast for women on WJSV this morning at 10. To Ruth Anne—that isn't her real name at all—we'd gladly give whatever awards may be available for people who write a shopper's column interestingly.

Washington sent Lowell Thomas 2,279 collect telegrams following his last broadcast . . . Western Union made things easy by distributing message suggestions just like it does at Christmas and New Year's . . . WRC and WMAL are looking after our birds during this cold spell by broadcasting instructions on how to feed them three times each morning and afternoon . . . if you catch some one mumbling alongside of you in a movie you can bet your last dollar it's a star imitator practicing . . . that's the way they do it, sit 'way down front, watch closely the star's facial movements and mumble . . . Connie Boswell started in vaudeville playing a saxophone . . . Martha played piano and Vet a banjo . . . Mitzi Green's initial stage effort was an impersonation of the late Charles Mack, of Moran and Mack . . . movie magnates figure Bing Crosby the top male draw in pictures now . . . Columbia has signed Eugene Ormandy's Minneapolis Symphony for a series of weekly concerts beginning March 6 . . . Representative Hamilton Fish, jr., of New York, discusses "A Republican Looks at the Past Year" on Columbia Thursday night . . . but not through rose-colored glasses.

FRANK HAZZARD, one of radio's handsomest tenors, sings from Chicago on N. B. C. Tuesday and Thursday mornings.

ADELE STARR, contralto, is a regular passenger on National's Musical Cruiser, a Wednesday night show.

Rising Business Tendency.

New York, Feb. 26 (AP).—Moody's index figures for freight car loadings, electric power production and steel ingot output during the past week indicated a rising business tendency. The index figure for the combined statistics during the past week was 72.4 compared to 70.6 for the previous week and 57.1 for a year ago.

The Post Radio Time Table

Tuesday, February 27 — Today in Washington — Eastern Standard Time

316 M.—WRC—950 KC. 476 M.—WMAL—630 KC. 206 M.—WJSV—1460 KC. 229 M.—WOL—1310 KC.

1:30			Elder Michaux
6:45	Exercises	Early Risers	"	"
7:00	"	Breakfast Club	Arthur Godfrey	Musical Clock
7:15	"	"	"	"
7:30	"	"	"	"
7:45	"	"	"	"
8:00	Morning Devotions	"	"	"
8:15	Organ Rhapsody	"	"	"
8:30	Cheerio	"	"	"
8:45	"	"	"	"
9:00	Mail Bag	News	Woman's Hour
9:15	Landt Trio	Pepper Pot	"	"
930	Bradley Kincaid	"	"	"
9:45	Wife Saver	"	"	"
10:00	Breen and De Rose	Edward MacHugh	Post Program	Musical Interlude
10:15	Morning Parade	Hanna Sisters	Senator Tydings	Tango Argentina
10:30	Home, Sweet Home	Today's Children	Morning Moods	Varieties and Values
10:45	Morning Parade	Singing Strings	Frivolities	"
11:00	Castles in Air	Gen. Johnson	"Pet Milky Way"	Carmen
11:15	"Your Child"	"	Charm Secrets	Lombardo's Orch.
11:30	Helen Ray Hagner	Marine Band	Tony Wons	String Rhythm
11:45	Lenten Lectures	"	Larry Tate	Organ Doctor
12:00	"	"	Voice of Experience	Jerome Washington
12:15	"	"	Connie Gates	Songsmith
12:30	Merry-Go-Round	Farm, Home Hour	Mitchell Shuster	Melodists
12:45	Maurice Lees	"	"	Church of the Air
1:00	Emil Velazco	"	"	Afternoon Rhythms
1:15	"	"	"	Sign off
1:30	Pinkey Hunter	Vic & Sade	Wright Patman
1:45	"	Merry Macs	Louis Panico
2:00	Longfellow	Code Conference	Ann Leaf
2:15	"	"	"
2:30	Matinee Musical	"	School of Air
2:45	"	"	"
3:00	Ma Perkins	Rochester Orch.	Arthur Godfrey	Variety Matinee
3:15	Blue Room Echoes	"	"	"
3:30	"Whither Britain?"	"	Gypsy Music Makers	"
4:00	Woman's Review	Betty & Bob	Navy Band	Piano Wizards
4:15	Prehistoric Game	Music Magic	"	Tango Band
4:30	"Vocational Guidance"	Salon Music	Enoch Light	Kate Smith
4:45	Lady Next Door	Mary Russell Williams	"	Salon Musicale
5:00	Lillian Conn	Tea Time	Skippy	Something for Everyone
5:15	Aunt Sue and Polly	News	Billy Huggins	"
5:30	Nursery Rhymes	Health & Happiness	Jack Armstrong	"
5:45	Herrmann Sparklers	Orphan Annie	Evening Rhythms	Favorite Ballads
6:00	Musical Interlude	National Education Ass'n.	Buck Rogers	Watchtower
6:15	Bulletin Board	"	Bob Nolan	Today in Sports
6:30	Musical Interlude	The Evening Album	Mary Eastman	Waltz Tempo
6:45	Fireside Fantasy	Lowell Thomas	Cromwell and Crist	Gypsy Barytone
7:00	Senator Capper	Amos 'n' Andy	Myrt & Marge	Horace Hustler's Orch.
7:15	Wheatenaville	Advisory Council	Just Plain Bill	News
7:30	The Champions	"	The Dinkeldorffers	Irving Chandler
7:45	The Goldbergs	Gus Van	Boake Carter	Stamp Club
8:00	Leo Reisman Orch.	Crime Club	Little Jack Little	Washington Business
8:15	"	"	News	Stonewall Trio
8:30	Wayne King Orch.	Dollar Drama	Voice of Experience	Donald D'Andelet
8:45	"	Bavarian Band	Musical Program	Bennie Carter's Orch.
9:00	Ben Bernie Orch.	Mayflower Ensemble	Philadelphia Orch.	Symphonic Hour
9:15	"	The Postilion	Ruth Etting	"
9:30	Fire Chief	Eddie Duchin's Orch.	St. Louis Blues	Ben Bernie's Orch.
9:45	"	"	"	"
10:00	Seth Parker	N. E. A.	Stoopnagle & Budd	Music Novelties
10:15	"	"	"	Dajos Bela
10:30	Mme. Sylvia	Maj. LaGuardia	Harlem Serenade	Vincent Rizzo's Orch.
10:45	"Doors"	"	"	Romero's Band
11:00	Night Owl	The Three Scamps	Charles Carlisle	Ham Dalton
11:15	News	Poet Prince	News	Meyer Davis Orch.
11:30	Paul Whiteman Orch.	Slumber Hour	Ozzie Nelson Orch.	Bernie Kravitz Orch.
11:45	"	"	"	"
12:00	Sign off	Frankie Masters	Harry Bosnick's Orch.	Sign off
12:15		"	"
12:30		Hal Kemp	Pancho
12:45		"	"
1:00		Sign off	Sign off

AUCTION SALES

(Continued.)

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 27, 1934—
THOMAS J. OWEN & SON, Auctioneers.
1431 EYE STREET N.W.

TRUSTEES' SALE OF VALUABLE REAL ESTATE, BEING A FRAME BUNGALOW, CONTAINING SIX ROOMS AND BATH, KNOWN AS 1404 TWENTY-FIFTH STREET SOUTHEAST.

By virtue of a certain deed of trust recorded in Liber No. 6685, at folio 431, of the land records of the District of Columbia, and at the request of the party secured thereby, the undersigned will sell at public auction in front of the premises, on TUESDAY, THE TWENTY-SEVENTH DAY OF FEBRUARY, A. D. 1934 AT 2:30 O'CLOCK P. M., the following described land and premises situate in the District of Columbia, and being lot numbered forty-two (42) in square numbered fifty-five hundred and seventy-nine (5579), in the subdivision made by Oscar R. Perkins, as per plat recorded in liber No. 83, folio 33, of the records of the office of the Surveyor for the District of Columbia.

TERMS OF SALE: Said property is subject to a prior deed of trust securing an indebtedness of $2,250 and said property will be sold subject to said deed of trust indebtedness. Of the purchase price over and above said deed of trust $500 is to be in cash, and the balance to be secured by second deed of trust on the property sold, payable in monthly installments of $32.50, including interest at the rate of 6 per cent, said payment to also include interest on the first trust; or all cash, at the option of the purchaser. Interest and taxes to be paid or adjusted to the date of sale. A deposit of $250 will be required at the time of sale. All conveyancing, recording, revenue stamps, &c., at the cost of purchaser. Good title or no sale. Terms of sale to be complied with within thirty (30) days from day of sale, otherwise deposit will be forfeited and property resold at risk and cost of defaulting purchaser after five (5) days' advertisement of such resale in some newspaper published in Washington, D. C.

JOHN SAUL,
WILLIAM P. BENSON,
Trustees.

P—feb.15 D&DS-ex.Sun&Hol.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 1934—
THOS. J. OWEN & SON, Auctioneers
1431 Eye Street Northwest.

TRUSTEE'S SALE OF VALUABLE REAL ESTATE, TWO-STORY FRAME DWELLING KNOWN AS PREMISES, 422 "M" STREET NORTHWEST

By virtue of a certain deed of trust duly recorded in Liber 6023, folio 122 et seq., of the land records of the District of Columbia, and at the request of the party secured thereby, the undersigned trustees will sell, at public auction, in front of the premises, on WEDNESDAY, the TWENTY-EIGHTH DAY OF FEBRUARY, A. D. 1934, at THREE-THIRTY O'CLOCK P. M., the following-described land and premises situate in the District of Columbia and designated as and being lot 40 in Henry L. Breuninger and Lewis T. Breuninger's subdivision of lot 37 in square 577S as per plat recorded in the Office of the Surveyor for the District of Columbia in liber 74, folio 173, subject to covenants of record.

TERMS OF SALE: One-fifth of the purchase-money to be paid in cash, balance in four equal installments, payable in one, two, three and four years, with interest at 6 per centum per annum, payable semiannually, from day of sale, secured by first deed of trust upon the property sold, or all cash, at the option of the purchaser. A deposit of $500.00 will be required at time of sale. All conveyancing, recording, &c., at cost of purchaser. Terms of sale to be complied with within thirty days from day of sale, otherwise the trustees reserve the right to resell the property at the risk and cost of defaulting purchaser after five days' advertisement of such resale in some newspaper published in Washington, D. C.

HARRY T. RUST,
GEORGE CALVERT BOWIE,
JAMES J. BECKER,
Trustees.

P—feb24.d&ds-ex8

FRIDAY, MARCH 9, 1934—
ARNOLD & SCHILLER & SON, Auctioneers.
TRUSTEES' SALE OF TWO STORY BRICK DWELLING, NO. 1244 SECOND STREET SOUTHWEST.

By virtue of a deed of trust recorded February 6, 1925, of the land records of the District of Columbia, and at the request of party secured thereby, the undersigned trustees will offer for sale by public auction, in front of premises, on FRIDAY, THE NINTH DAY OF MARCH, 1934 AT THREE O'CLOCK P. M., the following-described property in the District of Columbia, to wit: Lot 90 in Oliver Cox's subdivision of lots in square 597, in the City of Washington, District of Columbia, as per plat recorded in Book 16, Page 59, in the office of the surveyor for said District.

TERMS OF SALE—One-fourth of the purchase-money to be paid in cash, balance in equal installments, represented by promissory notes of purchaser payable in one, two and three years, with interest at 6 per cent per annum from day of sale, payable semi-annually, secured by first deed of trust upon the property sold, or all cash, at option of purchaser. A deposit of $100.00 require of purchaser at sale. Examination of title, conveyancing, recording, revenue stamps and notarial fees at cost of purchaser. Terms to be complied with within 30 days from day of sale, otherwise trustees reserve the right to resell property at risk and cost of defaulting purchaser, after five days' advertisement of such resale in some newspaper published in Washington, D. C., or deposit may be forfeited, or without forfeiting deposit trustees may avail themselves of any legal or equitable rights against defaulting purchaser.

VINCENT L. TOOMEY,
WILLIAM H. BROWN,
Trustees.

P—fe27mch2,5,7,9

LEGAL NOTICES

PEELLE & LESH, Attorneys.
1416 F St. N.W.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT THE undersigned, Grayson M.-P. Murphy, Otis A Glazebrook jr., P. Erskine Wood, Edward O. McDonnell, John G. Pennypacker, James D. Sawyer, Charles S. Sargent, William P. T. Preston, J. S. Wilson, jr., and Charles H. Baetjer, Frederick Osborn and Alfonso P. Villa, having formed a limited partnership pursuant to the laws of the State of New York, and desiring to do business in the District of Columbia as a limited partnership, have this day filed a certificate of limited partnership in the office of the clerk of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia; that the firm name of said partnership is G. M. P.-Murphy & Co.; that the business intended to be transacted by said partnership is buying or otherwise acquiring, selling or otherwise disposing of in any manner or deal whether on behalf of the copartnership or for others, stocks, bonds or other securities and property, transacting a general securities and brokerage business such as is ordinarily conducted by New York Stock Exchange firms, conforming to the constitution and rules of the said New York Stock Exchange, and underwriting or subscribing for or assisting to procure underwritings or subscriptions for stocks, bonds or other securities and/or otherwise financing or assisting to procure the financing of corporate or other enterprises; that the said Grayson M.-P. Murphy, Otis A. Glazebrook, jr., P. Erskine Wood, Edward O. McDonnell, John G. Pennypacker, James D. Sawyer, Charles S. Sargent, William P. T. Preston, J. S. Wilson, jr., and Charles H. Baetjer are general partners, the said Frederick Osborn and Alfonso P. Villa are special partners; that the said special partners have contributed as capital to the common stock of said partnership, the following amounts in cash, namely: Frederick Osborn, $87,500.00, and Alfonso P. Villa, $357,500.00, and have also made additional contributions of capital to said common stock consisting in each case of securities and/or other property having the actual and agreed value hereinafter specified, to wit: Frederick Osborn, $2,500.00, and Alfonso P. Villa, $42,500.00; and that the term for which the said partnership is to exist commenced December 30, 1933, and is to end at the close of business on December 31, 1934, subject to earlier termination at the option of any partner, in the event of a material breach of the articles of copartnership. Dated this 19th day of February, 1934. Signed) GRAYSON M.-P. MURPHY, OTIS A. GLAZEBROOK, jr., P. ERSKINE WOOD, EDWARD O. McDONNELL, JOHN G. PENNYPACKER, JAMES D. SAWYER, CHARLES S. SARGENT, WILLIAM P. T. PRESTON, J. S. WILSON, JR., CHARLES H. BAETJER, FREDERICK OSBORN and ALFONSO P. VILLA fe20.22.24.27mar1.3.6.8.10.13.15.17

AUCTION SALES

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 1934—
THOS. J. OWEN & SON, Auctioneers
1431 Eye Street Northwest.

TRUSTEE'S SALE OF VALUABLE REAL ESTATE, IMPROVED BY TWO-STORY BRICK DWELLING, KNOWN AS PREMISES 475 C STREET SOUTHWEST.

By virtue of a certain deed of trust duly recorded in Liber No. 6100, folio 362 et seq., of the land records of the District of Columbia, and at the request of the party secured thereby, the undersigned trustee will sell, at public auction, in front of the premises, on WEDNESDAY, THE TWENTY-EIGHTH DAY OF FEBRUARY, A. D. 1934, AT FOUR O'CLOCK P. M., the following-described land and premises situate in the District of Columbia, and designated as and being the east 22 feet 9 inches front on C street, and running back with that width to an alley 20 feet wide, of original lot 3 in square 492. Said property now known for the purpose of assessment as lot 803 in square 492.

TERMS OF SALE: One-third of the purchase money to be paid in cash, balance in two equal installments, payable in one and two years, with interest at six per centum per annum, payable semi-annually from day of sale, secured by first deed of trust upon the property sold, or all cash, at the option of the purchaser. A deposit of $500 will be required at time of sale. All conveyancing, recording, revenue stamps, &c., at cost of purchaser. Terms of sale to be complied with within 15 days from day of sale, otherwise the trustee reserves the right to resell the property at the risk and cost of defaulting purchaser, after five days' advertisement of such resale in some newspaper published in Washington, D. C.

SAML. A. DRURY,
P—fe15.17.20.23.27 Surviving Trustee.

AUCTION SALES

(Continued.)

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 7, 1934—
THOMAS J. OWEN & SON, Auctioneers.
1431 I Street Northwest.

TRUSTEE'S SALE OF VALUABLE REAL ESTATE BEING A DETACHED, TWO-STORY, FRAME DWELLING, CONTAINING SIX ROOMS AND BATH, WITH BUILT-IN GARAGE, KNOWN AS 5906 THIRTY-SECOND STREET NORTHWEST.

By virtue of a certain deed of trust recorded in liber No. 5680, at folio 265, of the land records of the District of Columbia and at the request of the party secured thereby, the undersigned will sell at public auction in front of the premises on WEDNESDAY, THE SEVENTH DAY OF MARCH, A. D. 1934, AT FOUR O'CLOCK P. M., the following described land and premises situate in the District of Columbia, and being lot numbered thirteen (13) in square numbered twenty hundred and twenty-one (2021) in Fulton R. Gordon's subdivision of parts of the tracts of land called "Reservey on New Seat," "Vale" and "Fellowship," now known as "Chevy Chase Grove," as per plat recorded in liber No. 42, folio 21, of the records of the Office of the Surveyor for the District of Columbia.

TERMS OF SALE: Purchaser to pay one-fourth of the purchase price in cash, the balance in three installments in one, two and three years, respectively, with interest at the rate of six (6) per centum per annum, and secured by deed of trust on the property sold, or all cash at the option of the purchaser; taxes paid or adjusted to the date of sale; purchaser to pay interest on purchase price from date of sale to date of settlement at six (6) per centum per annum; all conveyancing, recording, revenue stamps, &c., at the cost of the purchaser; good title or no sale. A deposit of $250.00 will be required at the time of sale and settlement to be within thirty (30) days of the date of sale, or deposit forfeited and the property resold at the cost and risk of the defaulting purchaser after five (5) days' previous advertisement of said resale in some newspaper published in Washington, D. C.

J. WRILEY JACOBS,
Surviving Trustee.

925 Fifteenth street northwest, Washington, D. C.

P—feb24.d&ds-ex8

OFFICIAL NOTICES

COMMISSIONERS, D. C., WASHINGTON, February 26, 1934. Notice is hereby given that the Commissioners intend to make the following named improvements which are, in their judgment, necessary for the public health, safety and comfort. Assessments for one-half of the cost of the same will be made as provided in Public Act No. 171, approved August 7, 1894. All persons interested in the proposed work are notified that the Commissioners will give a public hearing at the District Building on Wednesday, March 14, 1934, at 10 o'clock a. m., in the board room of the said Commissioners, to any and all persons who may desire to object thereto.

NORTHWEST SECTION: Lay cement sidewalk—On the west side of 31st street between Channing and Douglas streets at an estimated cost of $528, to be assessed against all lots in square 4335 abutting the said work. On both sides of Franklin street between 10th and 12th streets at an estimated cost of $360, to be assessed against lots in squares 3874 and 3873 abutting the said work. On the north side of North Carolina avenue between 13th and 14th streets at an estimated cost of $1,070, to be assessed against all lots in square 1034 abutting the said work. On the south side of Dix street between 41st and 42d streets at an estimated cost of $1,285, to be assessed against all lots in squares 5287 and 5288 abutting the said work. Pave alleys with concrete—Alley in square 4356 at an estimated cost of $1,930, to be assessed against all lots in square 1353 abutting the said work. On both sides of Rittenhouse street between Utah avenue and 32d street (where no walk exists) at an estimated cost of $1,205, to be assessed against all lots in squares 2331 and 2332 abutting the said work. On the east side of Foxhall road between P street and Volta place at an estimated cost of $616

AUTOMOBILES For SALE 10
Post Classified Ads.—National 4205.
(Continued.)

OLDSMOBILE
1933 "8" Sedan with built-in trunk, finished in black and driven less than 10,000 miles. This model with Fisher no-draft ventilation, is so beautiful that the designers made few changes in 1934. Its sweeping lines set off with graceful grilled radiator, chrome horizontal hood louvres, bullet type headlights, and original pressed steel artillery wheels form a pleasing compromise between extreme streamlining and conventional design, retaining the virtues of both and completely fascinating the eye. We heartily recommend this car and guarantee it at $775. Cost more than $1,100 new.
WISCONSIN MOTORS, INC.
1063 Wisconsin Ave. N.W. WEst 2973

BLANTON MOTOR CO.
STUDEBAKER DEALER.
33 NEW YORK AVE. NE.

BUY A CHERNIZED USED CAR.
CHERNER MOTOR CO.
1781 FLORIDA AVE. NW.

★
'32 FORD ROADSTER $269
'33 FORD V8 COUPE $495 Equal to new in every respect.
'32 FORD V8 VICTORIA $389 1933 Motor Improvements
'32 Chevrolet 4-Door Sedan $349 Amazing low price for a splendid car.

HILL & TIBBITTS Ford
1114 Vermont Ave. NW.

AUTO PARTS—SERVICE 13
Post Classified Ads.—National 4205.
Dodge and Graham Service
Auto Painting, Seat Covers
General Repairs. Body and Fender Work.
JAMES E. MURPHY
1909 M St. N.W. ST. 9504.

WANTED—AUTOMOTIVE 18
Post Classified Ads.—National 4205

SPOT CASH!
No Red Tape—No Delay.
See Mr. Sterns, 1711 14th St. N.W.

CASH IN 5 MINUTES.
BARNES MOTOR CO.
See Mr. Barnes before you sell your Ford or Chevrolet or any other make. Or will pay unpaid balance and give you difference in cash. See Mr. Barnes, 1729 14th st. nw. DEcatur 2390.

RECOMMENDED SERVICE 19
Post Classified Ads.—National 4205.

ALTERATIONS—Home improvements, new homes, store fronts, garages, repairing and remodeling of every description. Liberal terms or cash. Deal with a reliable firm. Save money and trouble by calling NATIONAL 8178.
ABC CONSTRUCTION CO.
418 Colorado Bldg. Free Estimates.

ARCHITECTURAL plans and specifications for residences, store fronts, porches, garages, beer gardens and remodeling; building permits secured; rezoning; prompt attention. De. 4348. 1759 U nw.

BICYCLES—Put in new condition at reasonable cost. We repair and rebuild all makes and types of wheel goods; no job too small. Phone for free estimate. We call and deliver free. Met. 2735. Mt. Vernon Cycle & Sports Shop. 738 9th st. nw., between G and H sts.

AUTO DOOR GLASS—New, installed any make car not over $2. Open Sunday. 8-2 "Glass-a-ss" 2d st. and Florida ave. ne Met 8847

CAMERA REPAIRING, photographic supplies. FULLER & D'ALBERT, INC., 815 10th st. nw.: National 4712.

ELECTRICAL CONTRACTING, repairs; reas.; work guar.; prompt service Harry Ziggles, 1110 4½ st sw ME 4980.

PAPERING & PAINTING—Spec. low winter prices; guar. F. G. Ridenour, Col. 1974.

ROOFING—Tin, slate, slag, tile: new or repair; roofs painted; guar. Columbia Roof Co., Me. 3656, 1119 6th nw

UPHOLSTERING—3-piece suites done in tapestry or frieze, $40; repairing also. 3204 Georgia ave. COlumbia 1491.

ACME Contracting & Roofing Co. Papering, painting, &c. Atl. 1212.

UNION WALL PAPER CO.
exclusive distributor of
IMPERIAL WASHABLE WALL PAPERS.

IMPERIAL WASHABLE WALL PAPERS can be cleaned with Ivory soap and water, cleaning gasoline, alcohol and turpentine or any commercial dough like wall paper cleaner. Cleaning will not affect colors.

IMPERIAL WASHABLE WALL PAPERS are also (SUN TRYD); colors will not fade, giving them two outstanding advantages in appearance and usefulness.

Can be obtained ONLY thru decorators and paperhangers showing our 1934 sample books.

Ask for them by name "IMPERIAL WASHABLE WALL PAPERS."

NATIONALLY ADVERTISED.
FREE DEMONSTRATION.

UNION WALL PAPER CO.,
630 Mass. Ave. N.W.
National 9312.

RADIO SERVICE $1 For prompt efficient service Call Columbia Radio Service. Col 1568

FOR RELIABLE SERVICE
TRI-STATE TRUCKING CO.
2601 9th St. NE. NOrth 2360.

ELLETT FOR TILE WORK, REPAIRING
NA. 8731. 1106 9TH NW.

HELP WANTED—FEMALE 21
Post Classified Ads.—National 4205.

LADY—Four weeks' work guaranteed; one who can follow instructions and work without supervision; no experience necessary; good education required. Apply 9 to 12 a. m., Mr. Hull, Room 603, 1319 F st. nw.

WAITRESSES—2, must be expert. Apply at once. 931 18th st. nw.

HELP WANTED—MALE 22
Post Classified Ads.—National 4205

BARBER wanted: American; steady. 3551 Georgia ave. nw.

BARBER WANTED—First class. Apply 2512 14th st. nw.

CANVASSERS for new quick selling photo coupons; your opportunity. Eastland, 1203 F st. nw.

MAN—Four weeks' work guaranteed; man who will follow instructions and work without supervision; age 21 to 35; good education essential. Apply 9 to 12 a. m., Room 603, International Bldg.

PHOTO COUPON salesmen; coupon sells for 50c; the 50c is yours. Room 301-5, 1317 F st. nw.

SALESMEN Wanted at once; men with energy and unquestionable records can find exceptional opportunity with our organization; unusual cooperation and a remarkable chance for advancement. Apply suite 738, Investment Bldg.

SALESMEN, outside, who can sell stationery and specialties; application confidential. M. S. Ginn Co., 920 14th st. nw.

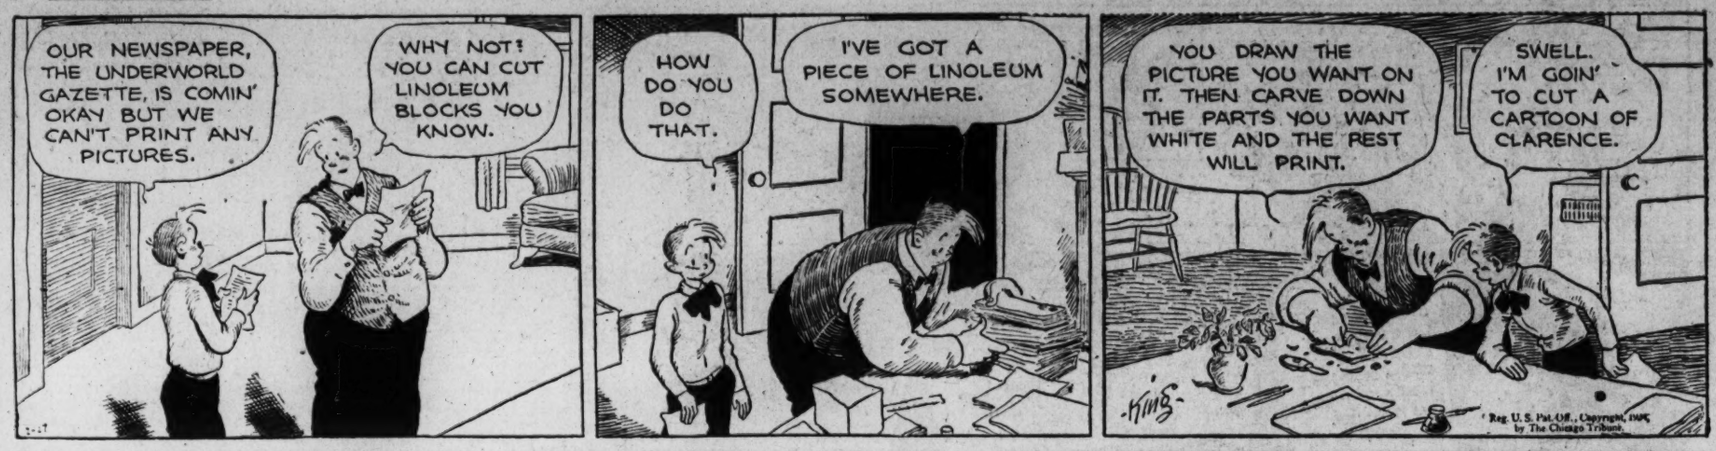
SALESMEN
Best opportunity in Washington for 5 high-class men. Must be live wires. 1105 V st. nw. 8:15 a. m.

SOLICITOR—One who knows city; salary and commission. 654 H st. ne. See Mr. Cash.

NEW 1934 TAXICABS Now Available For White Chauffeurs.
WITH IDENTIFICATION CARDS
FOR THE BEST PROPOSITION IN TOWN.
APPLY
CITY CAB CORP.
1119 21st St. N.W.

WANTED
WHITE CHAUFFEURS WITH IDENTIFICATION CARDS TO DRIVE DIAMOND CABS
APPLY MR. HIPSON
6 A. M. TO 6 P. M.
1ST AND M STS. N.E.

Gasoline Alley



Cut to Fit

SALESMEN WANTED 25
Post Classified Ads.—National 4205.

Licensed Liquor Salesmen
If you wish to connect with a high-class wholesale liquor house, apply Room 201, Southern Bldg.

PERMANENT INCOME
Business men are enlightened, not only because business has improved, but because general conditions are being so formed to make way for the most stable prosperity this country has ever known. Everybody needs everything! Those who profit most will be those who are giving impetus to the momentum of business. Naturally, it will be something of new order that profits most. An executive position, that requires a man of real character and ability and capable of handling his own business, is available. Phone appointment, Mr. Hanking, Ambassador Hotel.

SITUATIONS—FEMALE 26
Post Classified Ads.—National 4205.

GENERAL HOUSEWORK in apt.; reliable colored girl. Call DE. 1663.

SITUATIONS—MALE 27
Post Classified Ads.—National 4205.

BOOKKEEPING work by experienced auditor; income tax returns. Dec. 3419.

FILIPINO—Honest, reliable, willing, experienced chauffeur, butler, wants steady work; private home; good references. Please write to Sylvester Saturday, 919 G pl. nw.

BUSINESS OPPORTUNITIES 29
Post Classified Ads.—National 4205.

BARBER SHOP—2 chairs, fully equipped, including electricity, gas and heat; weekly rental. Apply Owner, 1021 G st. se.

COIN MACHINE operators attention. Electric Traveling Crane (International Mutoscope Reel Co., makers) offers amazing and unusual profits to operators. Hundreds in operation elsewhere. Washington a brand-new field. Offers great opportunity. See it operate and secure your location. If interested, act quickly. Consolidated Distributors, Inc., manufacturer's agents, 1322 18th st. DEcatur 2853.

PARTNER wanted for barber shop. Arlington Hotel Barber Shop, 1025 Vermont ave. nw.

ROOMING HOUSES—812, 12th st. nw., 17 rooms, completely furn., 2 baths; 1119 L st. nw., 13 rooms, completely furn.; reas. price.

ROOMING HOUSE—11 rms.; walking distance; compl. furn. and filled. Met. 2591.

ROOMING HOUSE (near Ambassador and Hamilton Hotels)—A corner house with 16 rooms, nicely furnished; rent only $85. Income over $225. Owner just transferred to California and must sacrifice immediately; $1,000. R. M. De Shazo, 1130 14th st. nw. NA. 5520.

ROOMING HOUSE—Scott Circle, 16 rooms, 2 baths. Running water in most rooms. Practically new furniture; good income. $1,000; down payment, $500. NA. 9654.
S. WINFIELD, 900 12th N.W.

MONEY TO LOAN 32
Post Classified Ads.—National 4205.

ADVANCES on diamonds, watches, jewelry and silverware, &c.; loans $200 and over 2%. All tickets good 1 year. Herning's Loan Office, opp Wash. Airport.

ON diamonds, watches, jewelry, silverware, &c.; no adv. arrangement neces.; lowest int. rates. Rossiyn Loan Co., Rossiyn, Va.

LOANS TO storekeepers and salaried people. H. C. REINER CO.
601 Kresge Bldg., 1105 G NW., NA. 5828.

MONEY TO LOAN to responsible parties of good character. LINCOLN SERVICE CORP. Suite 209, Woodward Building; phone National 2003.

MARYLAND PERSONAL BANKERS.
8405 Georgia ave.,
Silver Spring, Md. SHep 2854.

PEOPLE'S PERSONAL BANKERS.
3308 Rhode Island ave.,
Mount Rainier, Md. DEc. 1240.

PUBLIC SMALL LOAN CO.,
7 Harlow ave., Rossiyn, Va.
WEst 2443.

BETHESDA PERSONAL BANKERS.
6982 Wisconsin ave., Bethesda, Md.
WIs. 4374.

Reasonable, Courteous, Quick Service.
FIDELITY PLAN CORP., 1409 L st. nw.

LOANS PROCURED AT ONCE
On real estate, autos, store fixtures.
City Finance Co., 834 10th N.W Met 6557

AUTOMOBILE LOANS 34
Post Classified Ads.—National 4205.

AUTO LOANS MADE QUICKLY.
H. C. REINER CO., 1105 G NW., NA. 5828.

AUTO OWNERS AND STOREKEEPERS.
LOANS PROCURED.
M. GREENBAUM. 1004 EYE ST. N.W.

LOANS PROCURED QUICKLY.
NO RED TAPE SEE JACK RUBIN.
943 N. Y. Ave. nw. National 5555.

AUTO LOANS
Quick. Confidential. Easy Payments.
RELIABLE FINANCE CO.,
1345 14th st. nw., Cor. 14th st. and R. I. ave.

INSTRUCTION 36
Post Classified Ads.—National 4205.

A TRAGEDY. Plenty of good positions open. You not prepared. No excuse, when Capital Business Commercial College offers day and night classes that really prepare you at minimum cost.

BALLROOM dancing, waltz, fox trot taught. Lowest rates in city. LI. 5987. Sun's also.

BEAUTY CULTURE Mabelle Honour School. South's original largest, finest school, new day, eve. classes forming. 818 14th st. nw. Call or write.

LET SHORTHAND increase your salary. Prepare now. Peter's Business College, 14th and Eye sts. nw. Nat. 4717.

BEVERAGE TRAINING SCHOOL.
Now is your chance. Hotel, club, restaurant. Demonstration. Lectures by captain of the famous Knickerbocker, N. Y. R. G. Morgan, 3024 Cambridge pl. Pot. 2837.

LEILA FOWLER
Specializing in Ballroom Dancing
110 Md. Ave. N.E. ATlantic 6238.

EARN MORE MONEY.
Beginners' and Review Courses in Gregg Shorthand and in all Secretarial Subjects, also typists-clerks, 2-9 mos. Inquire BOYD SCHOOL, 1333 F ST. NAT. 2340.

PREPARE for pleasant switchboard positions; we teach you in 1 wk.; complete course only $10. Apply 226 Bond Bldg.

HORSES—CATTLE—PIGS 42
Post Classified Ads.—National 4205.

GENTLE RIDING HORSES, 1 colt; Man o' War thoroughbred jumper. Wis. 2450.

18 HORSES AND MULES; reasonable. 2239 Pa. ave. se., end of bridge.

MISCELLANEOUS for SALE 45
Post Classified Ads.—National 4205.

ANTIQUE walnut sofa and chair, wicker chaise lounge, drophead sewing machine, fine tuxedo size 37. De. 5000, Apt. 406.

ANTIQUE dining-room set, desk, chest of rug, mirrors, Wisconsin 2450.

ANTIQUE drawers, hall chairs, large bookcases.

ANTIQUE GRANDFATHER'S CLOCK, about 150 years old. 3303 11th st. nw.

BILLIARD AND POOL TABLES, all sizes; supplies, repairs; ping-pong tables and accessories. Conn. 810 9th st. nw. Phone DI. 4711.

E. J. FLIPPO Coal Co., 813 Fla. nw. Colonial and best soft coals, double screened, 2240 lbs. per ton; guaranteed. NO. 1678.

FIREPLACE seasoned wood: Pine, $9; chestnut, $9; oak, $10; hickory, $12; stove and mixed wood, $8; cut any length, full cord. 24-hour service. Kindling, 25 cents bushel; sawdust, 20c bag. 331 13th st. sw. Shep. 1898.

GAS RANGE—One new fully equipped range with oven-heat control, flash lighter, high sheif, 18-inch oven; less than one-half original price. Maurice J. Colbert & Co., 1908 M st. nw. DI. 3626.

HEMSTITCHING machine, electric sewing machine, large oak bed-davenport; very reas. 1315 N. Hampshire ave. nw.

LATHE—16 in. by 8 ft. long; quick change gear; belt driven; in excellent working condition. Ad. 7077.

LIVING ROOM SUITE, 2-pc., used 1 mo.; small apt. washer, baby's crib, dresser, drapes; reasonable. 1750 Harvard st. nw., Apt. 205.

PIANOS FOR RENT—Up, $3.50 and $4 per mo.; finest rental stock in Washington. Na. 3659. W. W. Kimball Co., 721 11th nw.

PRINTING PRESS, 10x15, Gordon; private owner. Phone Shep. 1859.

R. B. AUTO GRAFLEX, 4x5, new condition. F 3.8 lens, leather case, attachments; worth $280 new; will sell for $125. 730 Fern pl. nw. GE. 4999.

STEREOPTICON, delineoscope; used twice; seen by appointment; $20. NA. 7870.

TYPEWRITERS—All makes for sale. Rental and repairs. Open eves. American Typewriter Co., 1431 Chapin. Li. 0082.

TYPEWRITERS — Reconditioned portables and standards; all makes; excellent rental machines; lowest rates. Typewriter Sales & Service Co., 811 Seventeenth street, northwest.

TYPEWRITERS—Guaranteed like new; low prices; terms; we rent, repair, exchange. Standard Typewriter Co., 723 10th nw.

TYPEWRITERS—Current model Coronas and L. C. Smiths for rent. Bargains in rebuilt and reconditioned machines. The L. C. Smith and Corona Typewriters, Inc., 1018 15th st. nw. NA. 0411.

WALL PAPER — Special room lots, $1.25; sufficient for ceiling, side walls, border; room 10x14x8, wide selection. Walter Morgan Co., Inc., 421 10th nw.: NA 7888

WILL SACRIFICE complete furnishings of beautiful modernistic 3-room Apartment. Phone Cleveland 0477, (No. 65) mein.

WASHINGTON RUBBER STAMP CO., 822 9th st. nw.: NA. 2213, 1-day service.

WOOD—Fireplace, $12 cord; stove, any length, $10. Na. 3910. 490 Maine ave. sw.

WINDOW FRAMES and sash, 300 (second hand), priced at 75 cts. ea. for immediate sale. First and V sts. sw.

Window Shades made and installed as low as 75c
Kleeblatt, 11th and H NE.: Linc. 0899.

FORCED TO SACRIFICE
my beautiful grand piano, due to financial reverses. Rich satin mahogany finish, 6 ft. 2 in. in length. Prefer responsible party, but will make terms if desired. May be seen at the warerooms of Chas. M. Stieff, 1340 G st. nw., Washington, D. C.

WANTED—TO BUY 49
Post Classified Ads.—National 4205

ANTIQUE JEWELRY—Watches, diamonds, coins, gold teeth, silver, mus. inst.; full prices. Schiller's, 444 9th st., 2nd fl., N.E. nw.

AUTOGRAPH letters of Presidents, statesmen, stamp collections, coins, bought and sold. Hobby Shop, 716 17th nw DI 1272.

BEST PRICES paid for desirable furniture; also store fixtures; stocks of merchandise. Phone DI. 8112. Prompt attention.

BOOKS BOUGHT—Any quantity, all kinds. Pearlman's Big Book Shop, 933 G st. nw. No branch stores. MEt. 5415.

CASH for gold, watches, diamonds, jewelry, antiques, silver. Tendler's Pawnbrokers' Sales Co., 913 D st. nw.

GOLD or platinum jewelry and silverware; any condition. We have U. S. Govt. license to buy gold and pay cash. A. Kahn, Inc., 41 yrs. at 935 F st. nw.

FURNITURE—Household goods, bric-a-brac bought for cash and removed at once. Call Charles, National 4809.

JEWELRY, antiques, old gold, rings, watches, gold teeth, coins, silver, music inst.; top prices. Milsam's, 636 9th st. nw.

PIANO—I will pay cash for a grand piano. Write giving make, age, price, Box 157, Washington Post.

PRINTING EQUIPMENT, paper cutter; spot cash paid. Grand Printers, 632 K st. nw.: Met. 6367, eves. 436 Seventh se.

USED CLOTHING bought; men and boys; highest cash prices paid. Pot. 0606.

CLOTHING Highest prices paid for men's suits, overcoats and shoes. Call NOrth 6693.

CLOTHING Highest prices paid for men's suits, overcoats and shoes. We. 2796. 2208 Pa. ave. nw

Furniture and Clothing
For highest cash prices, call R. STORTY, MEt. 6271

OLD GOLD, SILVER, WATCHES, DIAMONDS
Discarded jewelry wanted for our mfg. dept. U. S. Government license to buy and sell. Full cash price paid.
SELINGER'S, 818 F ST. N.W.

ROOMS—FURNISHED 50
Post Classified Ads.—National 4205.

A ST. SE., 1330—Large front room; south exposure; modern priv. home; convenient to Capitol; meals optional. Lin. 1465-W.

(Continued.)

B ST. SE., 1365—Nicely furn. room; next bath; $12 mo.; refs. AT. 0689-J.

ARIZONA HOTEL—310 C st. nw., one block off Pa. ave. Neatly furnished rooms; lobby; 3 baths each floor; shower baths; continuous hot water; $3.50 week up, transients, 75c to $1.

B ST. NE., 209 (nr. Capitol and Library)—Comfortable, warm room; owner's home; reas.; by wk. or month.

BATES ST. NW., 73A—Nicely furnished room; convenient 2 car lines; suitable lady or gent.; reas. Dec. 4279-W or after 7 p. m.

BEAUTIFUL, private home in residential section; room and bath; gentleman in office; references. Col. 0065.

CALVERT ST. NW., 1950—2d fl. front; in lovely, private home; every convenience; auto. heat, unlim. phone; refined gent.

CALVERT ST. NW., 1842—Attractive bright rooms, newly furnished; single or double. Reasonable. Co. 1180.

CENTRAL, 1626 17th—Large liv. room (fireplace), with bedroom (7 windows); also room; clean; cont. h. w.; jan.; ref.

COLUMBIA RD., 1834—$3 wk. single rms.; doubles, $4; steam ht.; 4 b., inst h. w.; maidser.; hailrm., $2.50; men AD 10213.

COLUMBIA RD. NW., 1830—Large, attractive front room, twin beds; suit. for 2; board and room; $30.

CONN. AVE., 2633—Near Wardman Park. Large front sleeping porch; for gentleman; semipriv. bath. Col. 3437.

EAST CAPITOL ST., 314—Apt. 52, 2 large ft. rms.; adj. bath; will furn. to suit; l. h. k. allowed; unlim. phone. Li. 7280.

DOWNTOWN—1111 11th st. nw. Single or double rm.; cont. h. w.; $3 wk. up.

EVERETT HOTEL—1730 H st. nw. (block from White House, center Governmental offices, 4 blocks theater and shopping); telephone, running hot and cold water every room; tub and shower bath privileges; comfortable and homelike; rates, single $1, $1.25, $1.50.

HOBART ST. NW., 1643—Large 2d fl. rm.; near bath; private family of 2 adults; mir. and bus; gentleman. Col. 9246.

LOGAN HOTEL—29 Logan Circle. 50 rms., 38 baths; elec.; rms. with water, $1 up; wkly., $5 up; mo., $20 up. NO. 2000.

LOWELL ST. NW., 4536—Nr. Westchester Apts. Lovely rm.; priv. family; exclusive section; employed young lady; garage. EM. 9141.

M ST. NW., 1709—Attractive rm. with sleep. porch, priv. bath. After 5:30 p. m.

MASS. AVE. NW., 1107—Large front room, nr. bath; 1 or 2 gentlemen; also double room; $4 wk. for 2 gentlemen.

MASS. AVE. NW., 1229—Large, nicely furnished single and double rooms, 2d fl. front; reas.; garage space.

MASS. AVE. NW., 1428—Attrac. 2d-floor front; comfortable, warm; 4 windows; suitable 2 or 3; all conven.; very reas.

NEW HAMPSHIRE AVE. NW., 1243 (nr. DuPont Cir.)—Comfortable, double, single room; bath; clean, private.

NEW JERSEY AVE. SE., 417 (nr. Cap. and Library)—Warm, nicely furn. sleeping rms., inst. h. w., $2-$3-$4. Special mo. rates.

ONTARIO APTS., 620, 18th and Ontario Rd.—Large room, southern exposure; kitchen privilliges if desired. Col., 0800.

QUE ST. NW., 2217—Large, attractive, nicely furnished front room for two; twin beds, cont. h. w.; reas. NO. 8811.

3D ST. NW., 426—2 nicely furnished 2d-fl. rms.; housekeeping rms.; $7 wk. (No. 3).

10TH ST. NW., 409—Room, front, single, double; clean, quiet; $3 to $5; men.

12TH ST. NW., 1017—Single, double rms.; clean, quiet, convenient location; reas.

12TH ST. NW., 1315—Large 2d floor front room, kitchenette; complete l. h. k.; running water. Also others; $25 up. Adults.

13TH ST. NW., 3525—Large, well-furnished front room; very clean; suitable one or two; all conveniences; reasonable.

17TH ST. NW., 1150—Newly furnished single and double rooms; ladies preferred; reasonable. Met. 0024.

MERRILL MANSION
1361 Fairmont st. nw. Attractive, well-furnished, single, double rooms; convenient baths; $5-$9 weekly. Also l. h. k. apts., reas.

1758 N ST NW.
Single and double rooms, high-class, convenient location, moderate rental; complete service; open fireplaces.

HOTEL INN 608 9th. $1-$1.50-$2 per day; $5-$10 wkly.

ROOMS—UNFURNISHED 52
Post Classified Ads.—National 4205.

3 BRIGHT, newly decorated rooms; light, gas, heat included; $35. 1715 C st. ne.

ROOMS and BOARD 54
Post Classified Ads.—National 4205.

CHEVY CHASE—In comfortable private home; double room with board for couple or two single; excellent cooking. Emerson 6295.

COLUMBIA RD. NW., 1334—Large front room, twin beds; home cooking; $75 for 2; conv. location. Col. 7146.

K ST. NW., 1333 (adj. Hamilton Hotel)—Double, single running water; cont. hot water; excel., abundant table; reas.

MASS. AVE. NW., 1408—DOUBLE ROOM, WITH PRIVATE BATH; OTHER VACANCIES; IN REFINED HOME; EXCELLENT MEALS.

NEAR CONN. AVE., 1745 R. I. ave. nw.—Beautiful large room, suitable two; also single room; comfortable home; cont. hot water; walking distance downtown.

OTIS PL. NW., 1361—Single or double front room, southern exposure, in private family; real home atmosphere; Southern cooking; references required.

TAYLOR ST. NW., 1361—Corner, Double front rm.; priv. family; adj. bath; will furn. to suit; cont. h. w., unlimited phone; excel. meals; reas. AD. 0670.

4TH ST. SE., 200 (near Capitol, Library and Sq. 732)—Desirable double room and board; reasonable.

13TH ST. NW., 2903—Attractive rm.; priv. home; small Va. family; latest improvements, conveniences; reas. Col. 1452.

TERRACE HALL.
1445 Massachusetts ave. nw.
Desirable single room; running water; also lovely double room, with dressing closet; delicious food, properly served in our spacious dining room; reas. rates.

WANTED—ROOMS—BOARD 63
Post Classified Ads.—National 4205

YOUNG business woman wants room and breakfast in nice Northwest neighborhood; convenient to downtown; will pay $6 week. Phone Pot. 6137 before 10 a. m. and after 7 p. m.

MOVING and STORAGE 64
Post Classified Ads.—National 4205.

EXPERIENCED white help; moving and hauling. Eckington Transfer Co., 68 N. Y. ave. ne.; POt. 2917, NO. 3919.

LOADS and part loads to and from Miami, Fla.; Cleveland, Ohio, and intermediate points. Immediate service. Chevy Chase Transfer & Storage Co., Wisconsin 3010.

TRUCK going to Florida; wants load. F. E. Hill, 215 5th st. se.

APARTMENTS—Furnished 65
Post Classified Ads.—National 4205.

APARTMENTS furnished and unfurnished. Any location. Call Mr. Collier, Adams 2398. No charge for service.

B ST. NE., 504—Sunny 2d floor apt.; 2 large rooms, kitchen, private bath; 2 large closets; new Frigidaire and gas range; very desirable; adults.

BELMONT RD NW., 1814 (nr. 18th st. and Col.)—2 bright, well-heated rms., bath, porch; 4th fl.; priv. home; adults; $35.

H ST. NW., 1731—One, 2 or 3 room apts., furn. or unfurn., attractive; a. m. l.; no lease required; reasonable.

INZER—1736 18th st. nw. Completely furn. 1 and 2 room, kit. and bath apts.; $42.50 to $67.50. Apply Apt. 202.

FREE RENTAL AGENCY—CAR & GUIDE FREE; APTS. ALL SECTIONS. 613 7TH ST. NW. ME. 1947; NIGHT, GE. 4896.

UNUSUAL—Clean, quiet apt., 1 r., k., sleep.-din. porch; attrac., homelike; continuous h. w.; adults; refs. 1633 Q nw.

Apts., Furn. and Unfurn. All Sections. REDUCED RENTS. Save Time.
CAR AND GUIDE FREE.
GIBSON RENTAL BUREAU, INC.,
1731 H st. nw. NAt. 5578.

3114 13TH ST. NW.—Desirable 2-rm. apt.; priv. entr.; attrac. kit., bath; heat, elec. and gas; available garage.

Francis Scott Key, Apt. Hotel
20th and F sts. nw 1 room, kitch., bath; completely furn.; linens, silver; Frigidaire; day, week, month. NAtional 5425.

A CAR AND GUIDE FREE
Furn. and Unfurnished Apts. and Houses.
DISTRICT RENTAL BUREAU.
927 15th St N.W., Room 306. NA. 8717.

Furnished or Unfurnished 66
Post Classified Ads.—National 4205.

APARTMENTS — Furnished and unfurnished; like new; new furniture; free auto service. Call National 0334.

APARTMENTS—Unfurnished 67
Post Classified Ads.—National 4205.

A ST. NE., 1602—First floor, 3 rooms, kitchen and bath, porches, yard. Near schools and stores; $35.

ADAMS MILL RD., 2633—The Pasadena, 4 rooms, kitchenette and bath, $65 to $70. Electric refrigeration. Resident manager. H. L. RUST CO., Rust Bldg. 1001 15th st. Nat. 8100.

B ST. NE., 501—Four roms, kitchen and bath; only $40. A. M. Cooper, 820 11th st. nw.: National 1332.

BELMONT ST. NW., 1321—1 room, in-a-door bed, dining alcove, kitchen, bath, $32.50. 2 rooms, dining alcove, kitchen, bath, $36.50. Resident manager. SHANNON & LUCHS CO. 1505 H St. N.W. Nat. 2345.

BELMONT RD., 1809—Two rooms, kitchen bath; electric refrigeration; $40.00 and $45.00.
NATIONAL MORTGAGE & INV. CORP. 1004 Vermont Ave. NAt. 5833.

CALIFORNIA ST. NW., 2205—Florence Court Apts. 4 rooms, kitchen and bath, $82.50 to $85. Electric refrigeration. Resident manager. H. L. RUST CO., Rust Bldg. 1001 15th st. Nat. 8100.

CALIFORNIA ST. NW., 1831—The Romaine, 4 rooms, kit. and bath; large and newly dec.; sou. exp.; plenty heat, hot water, &c.; $45 and $50.

CHAPIN ST. NW., 1447—2 rooms, kitchen and bath; $40 to $47.50. Electric refrigeration. Resident manager. H. L. RUST CO., Rust Bldg. 1001 15th st. Nat. 8100.

COLUMBIA RD. NW., 1717—Two rooms, kitchen and bath; $42.50. Three rooms, kitchen, breakfast room and bath; $65. Refrigeration included. Resident Manager, Apt. 103.
LINKINS CO.
1733 De Sales St. NW. Dist. 3522.

COLUMBIA ROAD NW., 1736—Beverly Courts. 2 rooms, kitchen and bath, $45 to $55; 4 rooms, kitchen and bath, $80 and $82.50; 8 rooms, kitchen, 2 baths, up to $125. Electric refrigeration. Resident manager. H. L. RUST CO., Rust Bldg. 1001 15th st. Nat. 8100.

COLUMBIA RD. NW., 1763—The Imperial, 2 rooms, kitchen, bath, $50 to $53.50; 4 rooms, kitchen and bath, $80 to $84; 5 rooms, kitchen, bath and porch, $93. Elec. refrig. Res. Mgr. H. L. RUST CO., Rust Bldg. 1001 15th st. Nat. 8100.

COLUMBIA RD. NW., 1882—The Alwyn, 3 rooms, kitchen and bath, $70. Electric refrigeration. Resident manager. H. L. RUST CO., Rust Bldg. 1001 15th st. Nat. 8100.

COLUMBIA ROAD NW., 1954—
Schuyler Arms apartments. Ideally located in fine residential section; 2 car line and easy access to downtown. 2 rooms, kitchen and bath, $57.50; 3 rooms, kitchen and bath, $67.50 to $75. Telephone switchboard, electric refrigeration. Resident manager. H. L. Rust Co., Rust Bldg. 1001 15th St. N.W. Nat. 8100.

CONN. AVE. NW., 3620—Apts. of 2 rooms, kitchen and bath, $42.50; with porch, $49.50. Electric refrigeration. Resident manager. EM. 9306.
THOS. J. FISHER & CO., INC.
738 15th St. N.W. Dist. 6830.

CONNECTICUT AVE—At California St. The Highlands-Westmoreland. An exceptionally well-kept building with a select tenancy. Hotel service, dining room and roof garden available to residents. Housekeeping apartments of 5 rooms and bath and 6 rooms and bath, $102.50 and $117.50. Electricity and Frigidaire included. Resident Manager.
LINKINS CO.
1733 De Sales St. Dist. 3522.

CONN. AVE., 1737—One room, kit. and bath, 2d floor; $35. VANDERLOO REALTY CO., 1728 20th st. Po. 1077.

CONN AVE NW. 5435—2 rooms, kitchen bath; elec. refrig. on house current; $42.50 up. See resident manager.

EUCLID ST. NW., 1368—The Olympia, 4 rooms, kitchen and bath, $65. Electric refrigeration. Resident manager. H. L. RUST CO., Rust Bldg. 1001 15th st. Nat. 8100.

APARTMENTS—Unfurnished 67
Post Classified Ads.—National 4205.
(Continued.)

DUPONT CIRCLE Hotel Apts., Conn. ave., at Dupont Circle. One of the latest and most modern structures, with complete hotel service if desired; 1 room and bath, $32.50 up; 1 and 2 rooms and bath, with service pantry, $47.50 up; also furnished apartment, with maid service, $60 up. Electricity furnished. Resident manager.
H. L. RUST CO.,
Rust Bldg. 1001 15th st. Nat. 8100.

F ST. NW., 1825 (The Albert)—4 rooms, kitchen and bath, $62.50.
H. L. RUST CO.,
Rust Bldg. 1001 15th st. Nat. 8100.

GEORGIA AVE., 6921—The Bordeaux (Opposite Walter Reed Hospital). 3 rooms, kitchen, bath, $57.50; refrigeration included. Resident manager.
SHANNON & LUCHS CO.
1505 H St. N.W. Nat. 2345.

HARVARD ST. NW., 1750—The Richelieu. Overlooking Rock Creek Park. Apartment of three rooms, kitchen and bath; all outside rooms; $65. Frigidaire on house current. Manager on premises.
LINKINS CO.,
1733 De Sales St. Dist. 3522.

IRVING ST. NW., 1473—2 rooms, kitchen and bath, $42.50. Electric refrigeration.
H. L. RUST CO.,
Rust Bldg. 1001 15th st. Nat. 8100.

IRVING ST. NW., 531—Three rooms, semi-private bath; gas, heat, elec. included; rent reasonable. Phone AD. 2529-J.

K ST. NW., 1801—Kedrick, Apt. 402. Four large rms., large kit.; 3 large closets; corner; south and east exps.; Electrolux.

KENNEDY ST. NW., 702—4 rms., kitchen and bath; l. m. l., gas, elec., heat and garage furn'd; reas. GE. 4241.

L ST. NW., 1408—Apts., 1 room and bath; rents moderate; elec. free. Phone Met. 0607.

M ST. NW., 1410—The Iroquois. 3 and 4 rooms, kitchen and bath. $61.50 to $70.50. Electric refrigeration. Resident manager.
H. L. RUST CO.,
Rust Bldg. 1001 15th st. Nat. 8100.

MARYLAND AVE. NE., at 9th St.—The Barbara. Beautiful outside apt., facing Md. ave.; 3 rooms, kitchen and bath. Frigidaire on house current, incinerator and janitor service. See janitor or phone Mr. Clark, National 3007.

MASSACHUSETTS AVE. NW., 1210—The Brandon, apt. 7, 3 rooms, kitchen and bath, electric refrigeration; $52.50.
WASHINGTON LOAN & TRUST CO.
Real Estate Dept. Nat. 3440.

MASS AVE. NE., 208—Capitol Towers. Close to U. S. Capitol and Library of Congress. 2 rooms, kitchen and bath, $67.50; 3 rooms, kitchen, dinette and bath, $85. Electric refrigeration. Resident manager.
H. L. RUST CO.,
Rust Bldg. 1001 15th st. Nat. 8100.

MASSACHUSETTS AVE. NW., 905—Second floor; 2 rooms and bath; private; elec. refrig.; adults; downtown, central.

MINTWOOD PLACE NW., 1843—The Mintwood. 1 room, reception hall, and bath, $25. 3 rooms, rec. hall, kitchen and bath, $49.50. (Corner apt., 3 exposures.) Free electric refrigeration in housekeeping apartments.
WALTER A. BROWN.
1400 H St. N.W. National 1652.

NEW HAMPSHIRE AVE NW., 1230 (The Bond)—2 rooms, kitchen, dinette and bath, $50.00. Free refrigeration; 24-hour elevator. Resident manager.

NEW HAMPSHIRE AVE., 1316—3 rooms, kitchen and bath, $65 to $77.50; 4 rooms, kitchen and bath, $65 to $80. Electric refrigeration. Resident manager.
H. L. RUST CO.,
Rust Bldg. 1001 15th st. Nat. 8100.

NEWTON ST. NW., 1417—Newton Hall. 2 rooms, dining alcove, kitchen and bath, $45.00. Refrigeration included. Elevator. Resident Manager.
SHANNON & LUCHS CO.
1505 H St. N.W. Nat. 2345.

NEW YORK AVE (corner 9th st.)—The Mt. Vernon. 2 rooms and bath, $30; 2 rooms, kitchen and bath, $35.
H. L. RUST CO.,
Rust Bldg. 1001 15th st. Nat. 8100.

PARK RD. NW., 601—Two rooms, kitchen and bath; outside rooms; $45 month. Electric refrigeration free.
WM. H. SAUNDERS CO., INC.
1519 K St. N.W. Dist. 1015.

PARK ROAD, NW. 1452—Entire 2d floor; 3 large rms., kit., bath; refrig.; newly decorated; $45, including heat.

PEABODY ST. NW., 537—Three rooms, dinette, kitchen, porch and bath, $54.25. Heat included. All outside rooms.
WM

BENNY — What For! — By J. Carver Pusey

"CAP" STUBBS — She Would — By Edwina

MY LAND! WHAT'RE YOU DOIN'!!
I'M PRACTICIN' TO BE TH' CHAMPYUN HEAVY-WEIGHT OF TH' WORLD —
MY LAND! YOU SEEM TO HAVE CHAMPION ON TH' BRAIN —
WELL, SOMEBODY'S GOTTA BE CHAMPYUN IN OUR FAMBLY — AN' IT MIGHT AS WELL BE ME!
HUMPH! YOU MIGHT TRY BEIN' A CHAMPION SCHOLAR FOR A WHILE — I BET YOU HAVEN'T DONE YOUR HOME WORK YET!
SHE TRIES TO SPOIL EV'RY-THING!
The George Matthew Adams Service, Inc.
EDWINA

TODAY'S CROSSWORD

ACROSS.

1 Sagacious
5 Body of water
9 Appliance for playing a violin
12 Oil of rose petals: var.
13 Musical instrument
14 Ancient wine vessel
15 Teutonic goddesses of fate
17 Before
18 Disencumber
19 Subdivisions
22 Bird of the cuckoo family
24 King of Bashan
25 Edge of a garment
26 Signifies
29 Silver coins
33 Declare
34 Perched
36 Duty
37 Tablelands
39 Style or quality of cooking
41 Headpiece
43 Red Cross: abbr.
44 Novel
45 Gradual unfolding and growth
50 Salutation
51 Constellation
52 The moon
55 Adult boys
56 Have the courage
58 Wharf
59 Come to a close
60 Dross of a metal
61 Large knife

DOWN.

1 Pale and sickly looking
2 Japanese admiral
3 Small fishes
4 Sea bird
5 Italian river
6 American author
7 Compass point
8 Judged
9 Farm building
10 Leave out
11 Stuffs with a soft substance
16 Discolored place
20 Eons
21 Gives out
22 First man
23 Glacial snow field
27 Make speeches: humorous
28 Pouch
30 Keep up
31 Anglo-Saxon slave
32 Awry
35 Troop or company: archaic
38 Cold dishes
40 Frosted
42 Ethical
45 Matron
46 Regular
47 Sell
48 King of rubber
49 Pinches
53 By birth
54 Exist
57 Exempli-gratia: abbr.

YESTERDAY'S ANSWER.

T	A	A	L		A	P	E	S		D	E	W
O	L	I	O		F	L	A	T		O	L	A
T	E	M	P	O	R	A	R	Y		M	A	N
			E	D	I	T	S		B	I	N	D
S	I	C		A	C	E		P	E	N
E	N	O	S		A	S	T	E	R	I	S	M
R	E	N	O	W	N		A	R	E	O	L	A
B	E	Q	U	E	S	T	S		A	N	O	N
			U	S	E		A	M	A		S	P	Y
O	G	E	E		S	M	A	R	T
D	O	R		A	C	A	N	T	H	I	T	E
O	N	E		D	A	L	I		E	R	O	S
R	E	D		A	R	E	A		Y	E	W	S

(Copyright, 1934.)

Walt Mason, Himself

Borrowed Books.

I glance along the rows of books, and cry, "Ods fishhooks and gadzooks! I must return these borrowed tomes, return them to their owners' homes, or men will think I rank with crooks, to keep so long their valued books. That handsome book by Edgar Poe I borrowed seven years ago, and told the owner, Moses Meek, I would return it in a week. I've wondered sometimes when we met why he looked sore, inclined to fret, and why his eye expressed disdain, as though I gave his neck a pain. And here's a book by Walter Scott I borrowed from old Shindy Shott; it was three years ago last May when I conveyed that book away, and he expressed the fervent hope that I'd return that classic dope within two weeks, and I agreed to bring it back with proper speed. And many times I've wondered why he views me with a fishlike eye, and when I'd like to shake his hand he takes aloof and haughty stand." And so, as I survey my shelves, remorse within me digs and delves. The country's full of honest gents who would not owe a man ten cents, who'd have a fierce and frightful time if they acquired a tainted dime, and yet they fill the shelf and shack with borrowed books that don't go back, while owners of the missing tomes are wearing ashes on their domes.

(Copyright, 1934.)

THE BUNGLE FAMILY — Mysterious Business — By Harry J. Tuthill

SUCH A MYSTERIOUS BUSINESS. THAT WOMAN SO SUDDENLY PUSHING THIS LITTLE BOY INTO OUR KITCHEN AND ASKING US TO MIND HIM.
OH OH! THAT FIGHT NEXTDOOR IS GETTING HOTTER. LISTEN.
OH HOW GHASTLY! THOSE SHADOWS ON THE WINDOW SHADE. AND LOOK...IN THAT MAN'S RAISED HAND...A KNIFE! UGH!
THERE'S A REAL BATTLE. I'M GOING OUT IN THE HALL AND...
GEORGE BUNGLE YOU STAY RIGHT IN THIS HOUSE! DO YOU HEAR ME? GEORGE!
LISTEN JO, LET ME OPEN THE DOOR JUST A LITTLE AND...OH OH! THEY'RE CROWDING OUT INTO THE HALL NOW. HEAR THEM?
REG. U.S. PAT. OFF. 2-27
AND SOMEBODY MOANING...CUT, I'LL BET....AND SOMEONE... TWO OR THREE, RUNNING. THEY'RE GONE. LISTEN JO, LET ME OPEN THE DOOR AND....
THEY'RE RUNNING BACK AGAIN.... HEAR THEM? OH GEORGE DON'T YOU DARE TRY TO OPEN THIS DOOR... LET GO OF MY ARM!

JOE JINKS, Featuring Dynamite Dunn — Tough Man — By Llanuza

2-27
JUST HOW GOOD IS DYNAMITE? ....THAT'S WHAT THE SPORTS WRITERS WANT TO KNOW BEFORE THEY PICK THE FIVE MEN HE'S TO TRY TO KNOCK OUT IN FIVE MINUTES....
Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.; © 1934 by United Feature Syndicate, Inc.
LISTEN, BOYS... MAYBE DYNAMITE REALLY IS THE PUNCHER JOE CLAIMS...AND WE GOT TO FIND OUT... SO WE WON'T FEED HIM A FLOCK O' SETUPS
YEAH...BUT HOW... SAY! ...I GOT IT!
LET'S GET A GOOD TOUGH BOY JOE DON'T KNOW... HE CAN GET A JOB SPARRIN' WITH DYNAMITE... AN' SEE HOW GOOD HE IS GREAT!...I KNOW JUST THE GUY FOR IT, TOO! ...PORKY McGINNIS ...HE'S A PAL O' MINE...HE'LL DO IT FOR US
...AN' IF DYNAMITE CAN TAKE HIM, DYNAMITE'S GOOD!...NOBODY'S EVER EVEN KNOCKED PORKY OFF HIS FEET ...HE'S TOUGH
PORKY'S TOUGH ENOUGH, ALL RIGHT... BUT HOW SMART IS HE?... DOES HE USE HIS HEAD AT ALL?
SURE HE DOES...HE BREAKS THE OTHER GUY'S HANDS WITH IT!

NAPOLEON AND UNCLE ELBY — By Clifford McBride

DIXIE DUGAN — Enters—A Blonde — By J. P. McEvoy and J. H. Striebel

MAYBE I WAS SILLY — MAYBE I SHOULD HAVE GONE OUT WITH EDGIE LAST NIGHT INSTEAD OF TRYING TO MAKE HIM JEALOUS - GEE, IF HE EVER FOUND OUT MY "DATE" WAS AT TH' MOVIES WITH MY KID BROTHER —
McNaught Syndicate, Inc.
2-27
HEY, DIXIE — MISTER SMEE AND I ARE GOIN' OUT ON A LITTLE BUSINESS — MIND TAKIN' CARE O' THE STORE 'TILL WE COME BACK?
ALL RIGHT, PA —
BUT WHAT SHOULD A GIRL DO ABOUT A FELLA IN A CASE LIKE THAT? HOW I WISH MICKEY WERE BACK — THERE ARE SOME THINGS A GIRL CAN'T TALK OVER WITH ANYBODY EXCEPT A GIRL FRIEND —
'LO, KEEB! — SORRY T' WAKE YOU UP OUT O' SUCH A LOVELY SNOOZE, BUT I'M JUST A LITTLE GIRL IN DESPERATE NEED —
H. RIEBEL

THE GUMPS — I Take My Pen in Hand

BILLS - BILLS - BILLS - THERE THEY STAND IN FRONT OF ME - LIKE A FIRING SQUAD - READY TO MOW DOWN EVERY LAST DOLLAR OF THE MONEY I THOUGHT WOULD KEEP ME IN MY OLD AGE - AND NOT A CHANCE OF GETTING RID OF THEM - UNLESS -
2-27
DARLING - I THINK I HAVE FOUND A WAY OUT - AN IDEA THAT WILL SOLVE ALL OUR TROUBLES - IF BIM GUMP WON'T LISTEN TO ME ON THE TELEPHONE, THEN YOU WILL WRITE HIM A LETTER - EXPLAIN EVERYTHING - I'M SURE HE'LL UNDERSTAND -
IF ONLY HE KNEW HOW CRUELLY HE'S TREATED ME -
"DEAR DARLING BIMBO - WON'T YOU BELIEVE ME WHEN I TELL YOU THAT I WASN'T TO BLAME FOR THE DREADFUL SCENE ON OUR WEDDING DAY - I AM AS INNOCENT AS A NEW-BORN-BABE - IT WAS ALL A PLOT BY TOWNSEND ZANDER TO DISGRACE ME - PLEASE SAY THAT ALL IS FORGIVEN - ALWAYS YOURS - MILLIE -" [Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.; Copyright, 1934, by The Chicago Tribune.
SIDNEY SMITH

DICK TRACY — A Train Ticket

WHAT NEW CLEW HAS TRACY DISCOVERED BENEATH THE TWISTED WRECKAGE OF JEAN PENFIELD'S CAR?
WHAT HAVE YOU FOUND TRACY?
LOOK, PAT - GET DOWN HERE.
WHY - IT'S JUST A CHARRED PIECE OF PAPER.
CORRECT! BUT DON'T YOU SEE WHAT IT IS? LOOK AT IT CLOSELY.. BUT DON'T TOUCH THE ASH!
WHY, YEAH - I SEE WHAT IT IS.. IT'S A TRAIN TICKET ALL FOLDED UP! BUT YOU CAN'T READ WHERE IT WAS TO.
EVIDENTLY A TICKET FOR A TRIP OF SOME DISTANCE
BUT, TRACY - IF THE VICTIM OF THIS TRAGEDY WAS JEAN PENFIELD . . HOW DO YOU ACCOUNT FOR THE RAILROAD TICKET? SHE WASN'T GOING AWAY, WAS SHE?
THAT'S TO BE FOUND OUT! IT'S JUST BARELY POSSIBLE THAT WASN'T HER TICKET

WINNIE WINKLE, the Breadwinner — Stolen Evidence

I'VE SIMPLY GOT TO GET HOLD OF THAT MESSAGE THAT MAN HANDED OVER TO "SOUP" MURRAY IN THE NEXT BOOTH - I'LL HAVE TO MAKE A DESPERATE MOVE !!
FEB. 27
HEY! YOU CLUMSY DAME! CAN'TCHA PUT YER COAT ON WITHOUT KNOCKIN' OUR DISHES OFF TH' TABLE ??
OOPS - SORRY !!
CRASH!
WHEW! WELL, I GOT THE PAPER AND I'M OUT OF THERE SAFELY !! NOW I'LL DASH BACK TO THE HOTEL BEFORE THEY DISCOVER THEIR LOSS !!
GOOD HEAVENS !! I'M BEING FOLLOWED !! THERE'S A MAN CHASING ME !!
HEY
BRANNER

Larceny Trial Of Krol Begins At Winchester

Defense, Denied Change of Venue, Files Demurrer to Indictmnt.

By C. B. Carr.

Winchester, Va., Feb. 26.—Max Krol, treasurer and general selling agent of the defunct Arthur G. Jones Woolen Co. of Winchester, went on trial in corporation court here today charged with embezzlement of $4,312. 32 of company funds. He pleaded not guilty and Judge Philip Williams ordered selection of a jury. Many of those called said they had formed or expressed an opinion, and more than 40 veniremen were examined before the following were placed in the jury box: L. D. Ritter, Lester H. Shatzer, Harry Brill, B. W. Largent, C. W. Dwyer, W. L. Shank, Charles Buhl, Albert Tarrick, R. E. Avey, L. Russell Cather, Walter F. Dent and Richard D. Crenshaw.

Prior to selection of the jury, the defense counsel entered a motion for change of venue on the ground that the publicity the case received would prevent a fair trial in Winchester. The motion was denied.

Defense Enters Demurrer.

Defense counsel then entered a demurrer to the indictment, based on the fact that Virginia law requires that an indictment charge a person with offenses occurring within six months, whereas the indictment against Krol charged embezzlements over a period of four years. Judge Williams took the matter under advisement until tomorrow.

The decision to start Krol's trial today followed a conference between Judge Williams, Commonwealth Attorney James P. Reardon, the prosecutor, and defense attorneys.

Krol hobbled into court this morning. He walked with a decided limp and one arm was in a sling, both due to a paralytic stroke earlier this year. He appeared unconcerned as the jury was selected.

Sold $300,000 in Stock.

Krol, with Arthur G. Jones, of Fairmont, W. Va., came to Winchester in 1924 and organized the Arthur G. Jones Woolen Co., of which Jones was president and general manager. They sold $300,000 in stock to northern Virginia investors. In 1929, a stockholders' protective committee audited the books of the firm and indictments alleging embezzlement against Krol and Jones followed. Jones stood trial, was convicted and sentenced to three years in State prison. Krol was a fugitive until last year, when he was arrested in Long Beach, Long Island. He subsequently jumped bond but was rearrested in Chicago by bondsmen and has been in jail here since.

Embezzlements with which Jones and Krol were charged are said to have approximated $60,000. Following the indictment of Krol and Jones, the company went into receivership, then bankruptcy and was sold at a total loss to stockholders.

National Forest Tracts Increase

Monongahela Options for 74,374 Acres Approved.

Clarksburg, W. Va., Feb. 26 (Spl.). The National Forest Conservation Commission in Washington has approved options on tracts, totaling 74,374 acres, for addition to the Monongahela National Forest. The tracts lie in Pocahontas, Greenbrier, Webster, Tucker, Pendleton and Randolph Counties. The option approval is regarded as the equivalent of purchase. The price has been set at $146,934, or $2 an acre.

This will make a total of 228,889 acres placed under option since last June. The new purchases will make the Monongahela the second largest National forest east of the Mississippi, with a total of 501,271 acres. The White Mountain Forest in Vermont contains 534,000 acres.

Cancer Fatalities Double in Danville

24 Victims There in 1933 Listed in Report.

Danville, Va., Feb. 26 (Spl.). Diseases of middle-aged are taking too great a toll of life here, according to City Health Officer R. W. Garnett in his annual report to the city council.

The death rate from cancer here has doubled, there being 12 deaths in 1932 and 24 last year.

The infant death rate is 96 per 1,000, a figure slightly larger than that of the State at large.

Bristol Fire Loss Sharply Reduced

Bristol, Va., Feb. 26 (Spl.).—Fire losses in Bristol showed another sharp decline during 1933, the report released yesterday by W. A. Buckles, fire department secretary, showed.

Loss in 78 fires last year was $28,763.59, as compared with 108 alarms and property damage of $39,221.08 in 1932, and 89 alarms and $60,811.89 damage in 1931.

Mr. Buckles said fire insurance rates are still high here, despite the improvement, because they are based on the State average over a five-year period.

11th Dead in Track Tragedy.

Rosario, Argentina, Feb. 26 (AP).—The eleventh victim of the mishap near the finish line of the Gran Premio nacional automobile race yesterday died today. Attempting to avoid an intoxicated spectator, Ernesto Blanco swerved his car and drove into the crowd.

Leading Essayist

ALVIN BLUM

is Charles Town (W. Va.) High School's leading candidate in The Washington Post Scholarship Competition, according to D. P. Hurley, school principal. Blum's essay is nearing completion, and essays have been begun by his classmates as class projects.

Hit-Run Killing Nets 4 Months

Berkeley Driver Changes Plea to Lesser Count in Woman's Death.

Martinsburg, W. Va., Feb. 26 (Spl.).—Changing his plea from not guilty to both felony and misdemeanor charges, Robert Sanders, of Berkeley, pleaded guilty in circuit court here today to a misdemeanor arising from the fatal injury of Mrs. Elsie Nicely in the suburbs here two weeks ago. He was sentenced to four months in jail.

He had been indicted for a felony as being the driver of the car that hit Mrs. Nicely and for a misdemeanor in failure to stop after the accident. Mrs. Nicely's mother, Mrs. Jannie Dixon, also injured by the automobile, is recovering.

The automobile swerved from the highway and struck the women from the rear. A woman who took the car's number and notified police was paid a reward.

Crewe, Va., Spurns New Power Plant

Does Not Want It, Even Under PWA Funds.

Richmond, Feb. 26 (AP).—The town of Crewe, Va., is satisfied with its present arrangements for purchase of electric power and does not want a new $126,000 power plant—even if the construction bill is paid from Public Works funds.

A petition signed by 101 citizens opposing an application for the loan has been received by the Public Works advisory board here.

In it, the Crewe residents said the town signed a 30-year agreement with the Virginia Public Service Co., in 1925, that bonds to the extent of $187,000 are outstanding, and that the town has real estate valued at $1,312,000, as of 1932.

Quillen Heads Dental Group.

Marion, Va., Feb. 26 (Spl.).—Dr. Charles M. Quillen, of Briston, was installed as president of the Southwest Virginia Dental Society at the annual meeting here.

Watkins Heads Virginia Prep Y.M.C.A. Group

Woodberry Forest School Student Elected by Junior Council.

Staunton, Va., Feb. 26 (Spl.).—Samuel Watkins, of Woodberry Forest School, was elected president of the Junior Council, State-wide preparatory school Y. M. C. A. organization, at the annual conference held the past week-end at Augusta Military Academy.

Other officers are: Winston Somerville, Augusta Military Academy, vice president; W. M. Reber, Staunton Military Academy, secretary; Kelly Davis, Fishburne Military School, treasurer.

The conference opened Friday night, two sessions were held Saturday with a banquet Saturday evening, and closed with a religious rally, attended by the entire A. M. A. Cadet Corps and visitors, yesterday morning.

The Rev. Dwight M. Chalmers, of Charlottesville, spoke Friday evening on "Christian Faces the Campus." He also spoke Saturday morning on "Christian Faces the World," and again yesterday morning on the subject, "Christian Faces Himself."

Dr. F. L. Brown, of the University of Virginia, spoke at the banquet. W. Crabin Gill, of the Virginia School for the Deaf and Blind faculty, and chairman of the Senior Council of the Y. M. C. A., was toastmaster. Sixty students from preparatory schools attended.

Sunday School Campaign.

Roanoke, Va., Feb. 26 (Spl.). With a view to interesting as many young people as possible in active work of the church, the Roanoke Federation of Christian Youth will sponsor a "Christian Youth Week," March 4 to 11. The purpose will be to increase attendance at Sunday schools.

A rally will be held at the St. John's Episcopal Church parish house March 6. The Rev. Nolan B. Harmon, D. D., pastor of Greene Memorial Methodist Church, will make an address.

The federation represents Epworth Leagues, Christian Endeavors, service leagues, Luther Leagues and young people's departments of Brethren churches of Roanoke.

Presbyterians Hold Rally.

Bristol, Va., Feb. 26 (Spl.).—A rally of Presbyterians throughout the Bristol section began tonight at the First Presbyterian Church in this city.

S. D. Gordon, author and lecturer who has been speaking at Kingsport, Tenn., the past week, made the opening address. An all-day program has been planned for tomorrow, beginning at 10 a. m., when Mr. Gordon and Dr. Aquilla Webb, of Washington College, will speak.

Protested Sale Of Tract Upheld

Court Approves Auction Despite Value Claim.

Staunton, Va., Feb. 26 (Spl.).—In the first case of its kind here, Judge Richard S. Ker, in corporation court, has refused to set side the sale of property under deed of trust which allegedly was sold for less than its real value.

J. W. Roudabush petitioned the court to void the sale of his property, sold at auction for $3,500 claiming it was worth $15,000.

J. W. H. Pilson, trustee, was defendant, and 25 witnesses testified in the case, mostly concerning realty values.

Fairfax Man Defends State Realty Board

Virginia Senate Passes $1,000 Fines and Jail for Drunken Drivers.

By Doug Warrenfels.

Richmond, Feb. 26.—Efforts to abolish the Virginia Real Estate Commission drew incisive criticism today from Senator John W. Rust, Fairfax.

At the insistence of Rust the Senate general laws committee voted to conduct a hearing Friday on a bill by the Fairfax member designed to put teeth in present laws regulating conduct of real estate dealers.

Rust reported he had been requested to work for retention of the board by real estate men, including Guy N. Church, Falls Church; John Graham, Alexandria. He is opposing a proposal of Delegate Charles W. Moss, Richmond, to abolish the commission.

The Rust measure would strengthen legal power of the board by permitting it to obtain opinions from the attorney general. Means of appeal from commission decisions also would be afforded. "I hope the board isn't abolished," Rust declared. "I can't see any reason why real estate dealers should do business without any supervision. The board seems to be doing a good job."

Blow Aimed at Drunken Driving.

Delegate William D. Medley, Clarendon, another enemy of the Moss bill, reiterated its passage might bring an influx of undesirable land operators from Washington.

Bills to regulate bus and truck operation under the State corporation commission were killed by the House roads committee.

There was no opposition to Senate passage on second reading of a bill by Senator George W. Layman, New Castle, to provide stiff penalties for drunken drivers. The measure would subject first offenders to $1,000 fines and six-month jail sentences, as well as revocation of drivers' permits. Second offenders could be jailed for two years.

House approval was granted a resolution by Delegate Berkley D. Adams, Red Oak, calling on the Secretary of Agriculture to arrange for grading all tobacco in order that farmers might receive a fair price for their product.

Senators Disapprove "No" Voting.

An unfavorable report was submitted by the House privileges and elections committee on a bill previously passed by the Senate which would permit either negative or affirmative voting in elections. Instead of checking the candidate approved, the voter could mutilate the name of those opposed.

A civil justice with powers equal to those of Justices of the Peace would be appointed by the judge of Danville Corporation Court under an amendment to the city charter proposed by Delegate Maitland H. Bustard.

Gov. Peery announced he would ask the Legislature to separate 3.2 beer revenue from liquor taxes. The move was believed intended to prevent cities and counties from sharing in such income.

Keedysville Bank To Reopen Today

Hagerstown, Md., Feb. 26 (Spl.). The reorganized Citizens Bank of Keedeysville will reopen tomorrow under authority of State Bank Commissioner John J. Ghinger.

Sixty per cent of deposits will be available immediately and the remainder will be in form of certificates of beneficial interest.

The reorganized bank has a capital of $25,000, reserve of $23,000 and deposits of $225,000. The reorganization plan provided for reduction in old capital stock of 50 per cent and raising of new capital funds of $15,625. Grant Wyant is president.

Virginian Is Named U. S. Attorney's Aid

Cecil R. Heflin Appointed on Byrd's Request.

At the behest of Senator Harry Byrd, of Virginia, and Representative Howard Smith, of Arlington County, United States Attorney Leslie C. Garnett yesterday appointed Cecil R. Heflin as an assistant United States attorney.

Heflin, a native of Fauquier County, Va., attended William and Mary College and the George Washington University Law School.

He will be assigned work in the criminal division.

Virginia Court And House Act On County Rule

Forms Act Amendment Is Sought After Tribunal Upholds 2 Elections.

Richmond, Feb. 26 (AP).—Decisions by the Supreme Court of Appeals, announced today, had an immediate repercussion on the floor of the House of Delegates when Ashton Dovell, member from Williamsburg, invited representatives of Henrico and Albemarle Counties to join in discussion of a bill he sponsors.

The measure would amend the optional forms act of 1932 under which the two counties have held elections on adoption of what is known as the county manager form of government.

Both elections resulted in court action.

In the Henrico case the old board of supervisors declined to withdraw in favor of the new manager plan board which was elected November 7. It was upheld by a decision in Chancery Court. The Supreme Court today reversed that decision and ordered the old board to give way for the new body.

In the Albemarle case, H. A. Haden, newly elected director of finances, asked a writ of mandamus compelling G. Stuart Hamm, former county treasurer, to turn over to him all official records. Mr. Hamm had refused to do so, asserting that he was elected on January 1, 1932, for a term of four years and that the Legislature was without authority to pass a bill which would abolish his office before expiration of his term.

The Supreme Court found in favor of Mr. Haden.

Store Owner Sought After Suicide Threat

Police yesterday were asked to locate David E. Paul, 32, who left his home, 1330 Pennsylvania avenue southeast, after threatening to commit suicide, according to his cousin, Isadore Paskow, of the same address.

Paskow said Paul operates a store at 118 Sixth street southeast, and expressed fear for Paul's safety after he did not return home Sunday night.

Virginia Senate Votes Staunton Hospital Fees

Child Labor Amendment, Defeated in 1926, Set for Ballot Today.

Richmond, Feb. 26 (AP).—The Senate today passed the Cather-East bill with a 20-to-14 vote, allowing the Dejarnette Hospital at Staunton to collect from its patients the cost of treatment.

Passage of the bill came after a prolonged debate. It was the high spot in an otherwise dull day in the Legislature, which devoted much of its time advancing uncontested and local bills to assure their final passage before adjournment a week from Saturday.

The Senate went through its 22 page calendar, and the House nearly completed a calendar twice as large.

Disputed Bills Up Today.

In the Senate two controversial measures are set for special and continuing orders for tomorrow. One is the resolution for a child labor prohibition amendment to the Federal Constitution. This is set as a special order for 12:30 p. m. The other is the Staples-Norris bill abolishing the fee system as it concerns commonwealth's attorneys, commissioners of the revenue, and local treasurers, and placing these officers on a salary. This latter measure is set for a special order at 1 p. m.

Tomorrow the House will have before it the new $82,000,000 biennial budget bill, recently reported by the appropriations committee with amendments leaving it within $100,000 of the original recommendations by former Gov. Pollard. Chairman Dovell of the appropriations committee said he will allow members of the House to decide when they want to take it up.

Senator Hill Montague, of Richmond, tonight was prepared to urge adoption of the child labor amendment resolution. The amendment was defeated in Virginia in 1926. Twenty States have ratified. Thirty-six are required for adoption.

The Senate passed two bills by Senator Rust slightly amending the game laws, and referred to committee a resolution by Delegate Berkeley D. Adams memorializing the Virginia Congressional delegation to seek authority to have all tobacco graded by Federal authorities. The resolution was adopted by the House.

Among the 50 bills engrossed by the House was that requiring registration of lobbyists, a statement of the names of their employes, and prohibiting anyone lobbying when compensation is contingent upon passage or defeat of legislation.

The administration bill empowering the State Corporation Commission to make temporary alterations in the rates of utility corporations also was engrossed.

The House bill enlarging the powers of the Governor with defaulting treasurers and providing that he may ask the attorney general, rather than the Commonwealth's attorneys, to institute proceedings, was another engrossed.

Town Needs Only $40 to Run a Year

Brandonville, W. Va., Will Spend That for Light.

Brandonville, W. Va., Feb. 26 (Spl.).—While virtually every municipality of West Virginia is struggling with the problem of revenues resulting from application of the State tax limitation amendment, citizens of Brandonville, the oldest incorporated town in Preston County, are "sitting pretty."

Brandonville, near Bruceton Mills, needs to raise only $40.34 for its operating expenses during the current fiscal year. The money will be used to pay for electric lights. There are no other town expenses.

Brandonville was settled in 1827 and incorporated in 1858.

Musante Kidnaping Is Called Hoax by Judge; Probe Ends

Fredericksburg, Va., Feb. 26 (AP) Stafford County officers today announced that they had halted their investigation of the purported kidnaping of Caroline Musante, 14-year-old school girl.

The investigation by county officials was dropped when Judge Frederick W. Coleman, of Stafford Circuit Court, said he believed the affair was a "frame-up."

He issued instructions to Commonwealth Attorney G. B. Wallace that "not one cent of expense" should be incurred by either county or State in looking into the case.

Judge Coleman told Wallace and other county officials that he doubted the "fanciful stories" being told about the girl's disappearance Thursday morning and her subsequent finding 12 hours later tied to a tree in the woods about a mile from the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Musante.

"I don't believe there is anything to it," Judge Coleman said, "and I will not permit officers of my court to spend a penny of the State's money in running down what appears to be false and unfounded tales."

Girl Plunges in River, Playmate Saves Her

Tappahannock, Va., Feb. 26 (Spl.). Wright Golden jumped into the Rappahannock here and saved his playmate, Frances Short, from possible drowning when she missed her step while getting into a boat.

since she bought

DR. M. W. LOCKE Shoes for Women

She used to miss all the fun of walking because her feet pained her so and gave that "tuckered out" feeling. Then she bought a pair of Dr. M. W. Locke Shoes (approved by Dr. M. W. Locke, of Williamsburg, Ontario, Canada . . . who's treated thousands of foot-sufferers) . . . and now she's a "new woman" . . . always on the go!

6 Expert Locke Shoe-fitters Always in Attendance on the Main Floor.

Exclusively in Washington at

The Hecht Co.

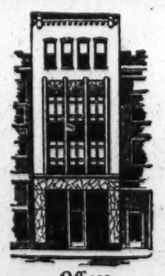
F Street at Seventh

At last people are beginning to realize that colds are contagious and are avoiding others who have colds. If you have come in contact with a cold sufferer, be sure to gargle thoroughly with Listerine at your first opportunity. Often this pleasant precaution will help you to escape catching cold.

59c LARGE SIZE BOTTLE NEW LOW PRICE

THE HECHT CO.

F Street at Seventh



Offices

COLUMBIA BUILDING ASSOCIATION

716 Eleventh St. N.W.

"Where Savings Are Safe"

Established 1907

A Home for Your Money

We pay 5% to Investing Members, an excellent return for a sound conservative investment that has stood the test for over a quarter of a century.

Money for Your Home

Ample funds available for prompt action on applications for loans on homes in the District of Columbia. No commission charged.

Under U. S. Government Supervision
Members of Federal Home Loan Bank System
Building Association Council of D. C.
U. S. Building and Loan League

Close-Out!

42 Fine WINTER COATS

$22

- with Black Fox
- with Pointed Fox
- with Kit Fox
- With Caracul

Sizes 14 to 48.

Also every one of our higher priced coats drastically reduced for clearance!

THIRD FLOOR COAT DEPT.

The Hecht Co.

F St. at Seventh